

New Orleans Republican.

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE UNITED STATES

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF NEW ORLEANS

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN

May be had of the following dealers:

- George Ellis, opposite the Postoffice. A. Simon, No. 94 Exchange Alley. C. C. Haley, No. 19 Commercial Place. C. G. D. Hollis, No. 61 Exchange Place. James Ellis, Pontchartrain Railroad Depot, Third District; also, at Depot foot of Lafayette Street, First District. J. W. Long, corner of Love and English Streets, Third District. Crescent City News Depot, No. 238 Canal street, corner of Howard.

AUCTION SALES TO-MORROW.

- BY LOUIS STERN & BRO., at 10 o'clock, at No. 25 Chartres street, 80 cases boots, shoes and boots. BY SHERIFF SACTINE, at 12 o'clock, at Merchants and Auctioneers' Exchange, lot of ground bounded by Common, D'Hemont, Clark and Genis streets—State of Louisiana vs. Widow P. Marcous. Lot of ground and buildings on Howard street—Dorothea Kopper vs. Widow of George Krans and James M. Roberts. Lot of ground in square bounded by St. Patrick, St. David, Third and Fourth streets—State of Louisiana vs. John Ernat. BY WILLIAM WEEKS, Constable Third Justice Court, at 12 o'clock, at No. 85 Bienville street, lot of furniture—B. Soule, agent, vs. James Burns. BY HOFFMAN, MARKS & CO., at ten o'clock, at No. 25 Chartres street, dry goods and furnishing goods and plain and fancy silks. At one o'clock, cassimere, suits and jeans.

Local Intelligence.

TIDAL WAVE.—We have been told of several families that packed all their household goods and goods, ready to float away on the tidal wave when it comes. Indeed hundreds of persons were so frightened over the hoax that they almost forgot daily cares in the excitement of a big flood. Don McParis says he has his skiff and fishing tackle in readiness and is anxious for the great breach, anticipating a happy time in a big haul of fish, but then Don always was thoughtful when hooks and lines could be used. We can name three families summering in Bihoix whose feelings were so worked on that two weeks ago they actually gathered together all their worldly effects and returned home, unwilling to be drowned anywhere except in New Orleans. The lead of one family related to us how his folks, affected by the coming wave, had not only boxed furniture, but sat all dressed waiting for the cars and his presence to take them to a place over fifty feet above the sea level.

VERY WILLING TO GO.—A prisoner in the first precinct station felt very friendly yesterday, when a stranger stood at the door making urgent inquiries for a particular locality. A man locked up as a vagrant, inclining to be jocular, volunteered his valuable services to go with the person and pointed out the place sought for. That displayed an accommodating disposition under adverse circumstances, but the iron doors would not open to such kindness.

PRIZE RING.—Strikers from the shoulder are in gloe over the news that Mace and Coburn will certainly come to New Orleans to settle their little dispute as to who is the best mauler. Perhaps we should be, although we are not, proud of the preference.

LOST FOREVER.—Last evening a broken specimen of humanity, haggard features and seedy clothing, stepped into a St. Charles street barroom and asked for five cents worth of whisky. The barkeeper returned a particle of moist sympathy, heartlessly refused the liquid fuel. Suddenly that haggard face and parched mouth assumed a look of utter despair—the last hope had fled, and chaos came again. That applicant, fifteen years ago, revelled in all this world's goods, wearing fine linen and riding in his carriage. True, his profession was not one to be proud of, or one that will give a man credit marks among good citizens. He has, in his later days, come to worse than grief, and his decrepit body will probably find a resting place where paupers are buried, unknown and unremembered. Although lost, he still retains some of his former suavity, treating all he meets with respect. His talent, had it been properly directed, would have raised him to a brilliant position among men.

THE BODY OF THE SON OF CAPTAIN BROWN, drowned on the night of the fourteenth instant, was recovered last evening head of First street.

About four o'clock last evening a man fell, it is said accidentally, into the river head of St. Louis street, and was drowned. He wore a gray coat, dark straw hat, and wore large whiskers, which is all known of him. The body was not recovered.

The steamship St. Louis, lying at the head of Toulouse street, narrowly escaped burning yesterday. Through some chance fire began in the hold, but was extinguished by the crew before any particular damage was done.

GONE.—James Powers, forgetting his use of muscle, let loose on Mary Powers, corner of Gasquet and Galvez streets, choking and kicking her precious person, for which Recorder Houghton sent accused to the Criminal Court. James was unwilling or unable to furnish a bond of two hundred and fifty dollars.

NOR IS IT.—Mr. Lafayette Lewis, whose name appears as vice president of the Eighth Ward Gentilly Road Radical Republican sub-club No. 1, wishes it known that he is not a member of that club, and that his name was used without his authority or consent.

ROSC HACHANA.—This is the year 5632 with the Jews, and those of the Hebrew faith in our city are celebrating new year. Yesterday they obtained from all labor, and closing their places of business, while many visited the synagogues. The festival will be kept up to-day. On the twenty-sixth instant, the tenth day of Tishri, the Day of Atonement, Yom Kipur will be observed by the faithful. The year 5632 commences on the first day of Tishri (sixteenth September, 1871), and ends on the second of October, 1872.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY.—Auditor Graham yesterday caused the arrest of Mr. D. A. Weber, editor of the Pelican Republican, at St. Francisville, charging him with having forged the name of Mr. G. W. Carter, Speaker of the House of Representatives. The sum involved is said to be $2500. Mr. Weber was arrested, but remained in prison only a short time, as a bond was quickly signed for him.

CRIMINAL COURT.—District Attorney Lezoube filed the following information: John Connelly, embezzlement. Alfred Carter, alias Shelton, burglary and larceny.

William Dent, P. J. Hussey, Mary Jefferson, Henry Johnson, alias Reuben Miller, Hattie Mitchell, Jack Williams, Lucien Lyons, Edward Paulett and Thomas Wright, larceny.

John Klein, Gilbert O'Connell, Daniel Gleason, assault and battery. Robert Hinton and George Washington, carrying concealed weapons.

The sentence of ex-policemen Brown and Finke, and police officer James Coughlin, convicted of assault and battery on Martin Lange, on the twelfth of August last, was continued until Wednesday, the twentieth instant. Finke was surrendered by his bondsman.

Isiah Mann, convicted of assault and battery, but recommended to the mercy of the court, was fined five dollars, or one day in the Parish Prison.

William Hardin, an ex-policeman, convicted of false imprisonment, but recommended to the mercy of the court, was sentenced to pay costs, or board at the Parish Prison until the first of October.

John Rosch, who pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery, was fined five dollars.

William Percy, convicted of stealing from the pockets of Mr. P. C. Ricard, on the eighteenth of June, a gold watch and chain valued at $250, was sent to the Parish Prison for ten months.

John Hannon, who pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery, was fined five dollars, or one day in the Parish Prison.

Sarah Jane Morgan, convicted of assault and battery, but recommended to the mercy of the court, was fined five dollars, or one day in the Parish Prison.

BOARD OF POLICE COMMISSIONERS.—Officer E. Cribelov, third precinct, charged with being intoxicated, and after having made an arrest, discharged the prisoner, without bringing him to the station, was dismissed from the force.

Officer J. Schwab, second precinct, charged with cowardice, was also dismissed from the force.

Superintendent N. Hauck, third precinct, charged with intoxication, was dropped from the roll.

It is stated that the vacant captaincy in Algiers (eighth precinct) will not be filled very soon. The station does not need a captain, in the opinion of the board, and a sergeant can do all the business demanded.

TEMPTING THE DISHONEST.—Sharps all over the Union are constantly devising schemes to swindle the unwary and those who are inclined to act dishonestly. One of the tribe has located in our city, and this is about the method he adopts: He signs his name as John Emmit & Brother, importers of the jewelry and watches. He has ascertained the names of persons residing in country towns, to whom he sends a letter inclosing a bill for repairs to his watch. As if by accident, mention is made that the timepiece is a valuable one. The person who receives this is well aware that he never owned such a watch, but may possibly conclude that there is a mistake in the name, and if the receiver is willing to "make" a watch by taking advantage of the error and forward cash to liquidate a bill something like the following, such a one as was handed a gentleman in Canton, Mississippi:

Mr. J. C. Dunlop, to John Emmit & Brother: Repairs on hunting stem winding gold chronometer, Jurgensen's..... $7.50 Hair and main spring, do..... 7.50 Resisting two jewels and balance wheel..... 7.50 New gold cap and engraving..... 6.25 Cleaning, raising and crystalizing..... 5.00 Total..... $43.25 The victim who takes that golden bait never hears of his money or of an imaginary chronometer. Of course, the trickster who is practicing the game here has as well covered his tracks that he can never be caught, and if he were taken the law could not reach him easily, though something else might. To our country friends we will say, remember the maxim, that honesty is the best policy.

Between seven and eight o'clock last evening, James Moriarty, private watchman, fell into the river, at the head of Jackson street, and was drowned. Coroner Creagh held an inquest, and learned that the death was accidental.

Base Ball.—There will be an exciting game of base ball to-day, on the Delachaise grounds, between the active Stars and far-famed R. E. Lees, Junior. Game will be called at half past two o'clock. The following is the nine of the Lees, Junior:

Kenney, pitcher; Krummell, catcher; Childress, first base; Snenburg, second base; Bart, third base; Brennan, short stop; Fitzgerald, right field; Hankan, left field; Connors, centre field.

On Sunday next, the twenty-fourth, the R. E. Lees, Junior, and Fashions play for twenty-five dollars a side.

There will be an exciting game of base ball to-day, on Delachaise ground, between the well known junior clubs—the famous Orientals and invincible Charmers. It will be remembered that the Charmers defeated the champion Comets last Sunday by a score of 14 to 18. The Charmers will try their best to dish the Orientals in the same style.

THE NEW REMEDY FROM OUR SWAMPS FOR CONSUMPTION AND OTHER SCROFULOUS DISEASES.—A new remedy for consumption and kindred diseases has appeared, which is creating no small stir. It is made from a vegetable product of our swamps, and put up in two forms, known as Smith's pulmonary syrup and Smith's life tonic. The proprietors publish a circular, in which they give the name and address of a large number of our citizens who have tested this new remedy, and who indorse it in strong terms. A laboratory has been established for its preparation in this city, and the demand for it has already become large. It has been shipped to Boston, New York, St. Louis, Cincinnati, etc., and the proprietors intend to send it all over the world, believing it to be the long-sought remedy for consumption and kindred diseases. It is represented as simple and harmless and a blood purifier of wonderful power. The office is at No. 20 Baronne street.

LADIES' SUITS STILL CHEAPER.—The inducements offered by Mr. A. T. Lewis to the ladies to-day are greater than ever. He evidently wants to clear out his present stock preparatory to moving. He is in earnest, that's clear. We never heard of such bargains.

A Virginia couple recently walked thirty miles on a hot and dusty day to get married.

The Star Cotton Ginners.

The large number of comparatively poor men who have entered into the cultivation of cotton since the results of the war brought about an entire change in the system of labor in the South, has been followed by the establishment of public cotton gineries at all the leading shipping points. Formerly, when only the wealthy possessor of slaves, large estates and expensive machinery embarked in the production of the great staple, each producer prepared his crop for market on his own plantation. But now there are thousands of small cotton producers whose entire crop would not pay the cost of a good ginhouse, and it is to accommodate these that public gineries have sprung up. We have in this city several, and they annually gin for their customers thousands of bales, enabling the producer of even one or two bales to sell his small product at as good advantage as the producer of hundreds. This is a great benefit to the country generally, and the result will be, undoubtedly, a constant increase in the production of cotton. The small farmer can plant his little patch of cotton just as well as his acre or two of corn, potatoes and beans, and he will be sure of being able to dispose of it at the highest price at the great market, and not be the victim of the speculator because he is too poor to own an engine, a gin and a press.

We yesterday paid a visit to the Star Cotton Gininery, which is now being fitted up by Messrs. Wallace & Chopin, on the corner of Hunter and New Levee streets, and take no little pride in announcing the fact that when this is finished, ready for operation, which will be some time during the present week, we will have in our city the most complete establishment of the kind ever set up, and that our small farmers in the interior will be enabled to bring to their aid the most perfect machinery we ever saw for the preparation of their cotton for sale. So interesting were all the arrangements in the Star Gininery that we think that a short description of them would not prove uninteresting to our readers.

The main entrance to the building is on New Levee street, where the cotton is brought in on the drays or floats, and driven at once upon one of Forsyth's immense five-ton platform scales to be weighed. It is then unloaded upon cars which run upon a track direct to the gin room, where it is then hoisted by an elevator to the platform, from whence, after being taken from the bags, it is carried by a patent self-feeding apparatus into the gins. As it is ginned, the cotton is carried into lint rooms, separated from the gins by closely ceiled partitions, and is taken from thence to the press which stands immediately in the rear, there packed into bales and placed again upon the cars returning from carrying the cotton in, run out to the front door and shipped— or, if required, stored in the ample warehouse, where it will be kept safe and dry, clean and unharmed.

The machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

Resolved, That the committee in charge of the Star Cotton Gininery, do hereby certify that the machinery used in this gininery was all built by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. M. Ivens, of No. 55 St. Charles street. The engine is of forty-horse power, and drives five of Hall's self-feeding gins, a seventy-four foot drive pump and the immense lever press.

The Temperature.

Yesterday the thermometer at Louis Frigier's, No. 50 Chartres street, stood as follows: 8 A. M., 80°; 2 P. M., 79°; 6 P. M., 80°. Rain two inches and one-tenth.

BARGAINS AT THE ST. PHILIP STORE.—Our lady readers will find it to their interest to go down to the St. Philip store, corner of Royal and St. Philip streets, and look at the new goods just opened, which are being sold at such astonishing bargains. The stock is one of the largest and best selected in the city and all fresh. The proprietor means to sell his goods at such prices as will attract buyers. It is a chance which should not be neglected.

At a Regular Meeting of Enterprise Lodge, No. 12, held on the 15th inst., the following preamble and resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow before the beneficent and all-wise hand of our Heavenly Father, who has blessed us with the gift of life, and who has made us his creatures, we are nevertheless proud to be members of this noble and ancient order, and to be permitted to wear the robes of its grand and venerable ritual, and to be numbered among its worthy members.

OFFICIAL NOTICES.

UNITED STATES MAILS.

Proposals will be received at the Contract Office of this Department until 3 P. M. of October 17, 1871, for conveying the mails of the United States from New Orleans to St. Louis, Mo., on the route and by the schedule of departures and arrivals hereinafter specified, being authorized under the act of Congress approved March 3, 1875, and amended March 2, 1876, and the twenty-second section of the act of July 2, 1866.

Proposals will be received at the Contract Office of this Department until 3 P. M. of October 17, 1871, for conveying the mails of the United States from New Orleans to St. Louis, Mo., on the route and by the schedule of departures and arrivals hereinafter specified, being authorized under the act of Congress approved March 3, 1875, and amended March 2, 1876, and the twenty-second section of the act of July 2, 1866.

Proposals will be received at the Contract Office of this Department until 3 P. M. of October 17, 1871, for conveying the mails of the United States from New Orleans to St. Louis, Mo., on the route and by the schedule of departures and arrivals hereinafter specified, being authorized under the act of Congress approved March 3, 1875, and amended March 2, 1876, and the twenty-second section of the act of July 2, 1866.

Proposals will be received at the Contract Office of this Department until 3 P. M. of October 17, 1871, for conveying the mails of the United States from New Orleans to St. Louis, Mo., on the route and by the schedule of departures and arrivals hereinafter specified, being authorized under the act of Congress approved March 3, 1875, and amended March 2, 1876, and the twenty-second section of the act of July 2, 1866.

Proposals will be received at the Contract Office of this Department until 3 P. M. of October 17, 1871, for conveying the mails of the United States from New Orleans to St. Louis, Mo., on the route and by the schedule of departures and arrivals hereinafter specified, being authorized under the act of Congress approved March 3, 1875, and amended March 2, 1876, and the twenty-second section of the act of July 2, 1866.

Proposals will be received at the Contract Office of this Department until 3 P. M. of October 17, 1871, for conveying the mails of the United States from New Orleans to St. Louis, Mo., on the route and by the schedule of departures and arrivals hereinafter specified, being authorized under the act of Congress approved March 3, 1875, and amended March 2, 1876, and the twenty-second section of the act of July 2, 1866.

Proposals will be received at the Contract Office of this Department until 3 P. M. of October 17, 1871, for conveying the mails of the United States from New Orleans to St. Louis, Mo., on the route and by the schedule of departures and arrivals hereinafter specified, being authorized under the act of Congress approved March 3, 1875, and amended March 2, 1876, and the twenty-second section of the act of July 2, 1866.

Proposals will be received at the Contract Office of this Department until 3 P. M. of October 17, 1871, for conveying the mails of the United States from New Orleans to St. Louis, Mo., on the route and by the schedule of departures and arrivals hereinafter specified, being authorized under the act of Congress approved March 3, 1875, and amended March 2, 1876, and the twenty-second section of the act of July 2, 1866.