

ter, the young people dancing down care, forgetting the world in the pleasant illusions of the ballroom. Many Fourth District balls attended and passed a delightful evening. These young men pride themselves on their ball, and well they may.

Shooting stars are fashionable this month, and as our astronomical editor will go up in a balloon, we shall hear a detailed report before the great prize fight takes place.

Jack Frost has not shown us his pinched face and white head as yet this season, which proves him a trifle lazy.

The anniversary party of Washington Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, Algiers, was held at the company's headquarters.

The beautiful, accomplished and vivacious young singer and actress, Mrs. James A. Oates, aided by her superb comic opera company, will close the first week of her present engagement at this establishment with great success.

Robert Anderson, a laborer on Morgan's railroad, was badly jammed by a car which he was assisting to push on the ferry, head of St. Ann street. Anderson was sent to his home in Algiers.

LADANOMICIDE.—Frank Brennan's mundane troubles were greater than he could bear, and in order to wipe out all care, he took a dose of laudanum, but as he did not swallow a revenue stamp with the poison, it would not stick when cooked by Dr. Beach's stomach pump, so Frank still lives, having added one more eventful chapter to his already odd one.

LAD DROWNED.—At noon yesterday, while some lads were playing on a small raft in a barge pond near the head of Erato street, one of them accidentally fell off and was drowned, his companions running away on seeing what had happened.

CRIMINAL COURT.—Judge Adell.—In the case of D. F. Leashinsky, convicted on the twentieth of October, of the murder of Charles Hansen, on the sixteenth of September, 1917 (found guilty without capital punishment), counsel argued the case at length on the plea of insanity. On motion of the Attorney General a committee, consisting of J. B. Cooper, M. D.; William H. Berthelot, M. D., and E. D. Beach, M. D., was appointed by the court to inquire into the mental condition of Leashinsky, and to report thereon on or before the eighteenth instant.

Julius Socha, charged with keeping a disorderly house, pleaded not guilty.

George Slidde, charged with forging an order for payment of money, and uttering as true a forged order for payment of money; having on the nineteenth of July handed an order on Mr. F. F. W. Bohning, "Please let boy have ten dollars for me, send it back in an hour, and oblige Colonel A. P. Masons, Mississippi Cotton Press," was surrendered by his security, a nolle prosequi entered, and a new information for obtaining money under false pretences, filed.

Joseph Hamilton, who pleaded guilty of having stolen five revolvers, valued at $125, from John's gallery, on St. Charles street, was sentenced to twenty-four hours Parish Prison.

Peter Durant, convicted with assault with a dangerous weapon on William Murrell, was sent to the Parish Prison for five days. Also, one day for carrying a concealed weapon.

William Butler, convicted of having stolen from Jacob Dreifuss, a coat valued at eight dollars, was sent for six months to the Penitentiary.

John Mullen, convicted of an assault on G. Rosenthal, must pay costs (about forty dollars) or abide five days at the Parish Prison. He paid.

For next week the following important cases are fixed: Wednesday, November 15—Robert H. Kitchin, embezzlement of $2500 from Mr. Kitchin; George Wilson, embezzlement; M. T. Robertson et al., obtaining money from the city under false pretences; William Lewis and John Murphy, burglary and feloniously entering.

Thursday, November 16—J. M. Rodgers, murder of Albert Myers; James Lindsay, alias Clinton, and James L. Smith, murder of A. K. Chandler.

Friday, November 17—John Cook, manslaughter, killing of Pat Sweeney; Dominique Byrnes, manslaughter, killing of Patrick Brady, on Poydras street.

ON CARROLL STREET. The sales of cotton, so long swollen, have somewhat subsided, though the market has lost none of its animation. We were to judge by the cotton business, but little excuse would be found for the impression of the decadence of New Orleans. The demand dips up the higher grades wherever found, and uncovers them wherever secured, compelling an offer. The lower grades are hence in a weaker, though by no means in a feeble condition. The inquiry here resulted in summing up an amount of bales equal to those disposed of on Friday at about the same prices.

A class of money negotiations, which must be made on Saturdays in order to pay off laborers and workmen, produces the impression about the end of every week, and on yesterday, that the money pressure has revived.

The fancy dress ball given by Capitol Base Ball Club, champion juniors, at Eagle Hall, last night, was a complete success.

The young men of this club are en fait in the fashion of the day, and their lady acquaintances are not a whit behind them. The assembly was of a really social character.

THE CITY HALL. If it be true, as an afternoon contemporary suggests, that "every city official should be the representative of a popular idea or interest," then the Mayor should represent the main interest, which pulls back when most strenuously urged to go forward.

Department of Assessments. In this department there is nothing of importance going on that we are aware of. For the last two or three weeks we have given the Administrator's parlor but little attention, our visits being confined to an occasional peep at the gayly dressed ladies who through the room in the capacity of agents for rare books and periodicals.

On such occasions Mr. Charles E. Ingalls, chief secretary, does the agreeable in a manner worthy of a Chesterfield.

Department of Police. The room of the Administrator of Police, Colonel James Lewis, was thronged yesterday by neatly dressed little girls, chaperoned by the matron and assistants of the Girls' House of Refuge—homeless and motherless little creatures whom the generosity of Colonel Lewis had provided with tickets to attend a bird show in the Lyceum Hall.

St. Charles Theatre. Those fascinating, graceful and popular artists, the Chapman sisters, brought their two weeks' engagement to a successful close last night. They appeared in the beautiful two act drama entitled "Margot, the Poultry Dealer," and the very attractive burlesque of the "Forty Thieves." In the first named piece, Miss Blanche Chapman personated the character of Margot in a very pleasing and effective manner.

The play is an excellent production, and was rendered in a style creditable to the St. Charles. In the burlesque, which is a very popular one, Miss Blanche and Miss Ella Chapman appeared in the leading roles, supported by the strength of the company. The Chapman sisters certainly present a rare combination of beauty, gracefulness and talent. This accounts for their being such popular favorites wherever they go.

To-night Mr. Mark Quinlan, a comedian of acknowledged merit, will take his benefit. A novel bill has been prepared for the occasion, and much fun is in store for all who attend. Tuesday night, first appearance of Edwin Forrest, the tragedian.

The thermometer at Louis Frigerio's No. 50 Chartres street, yesterday, stood as follows: At 8 A. M., 52°; at 2 P. M., 65°; at 6 P. M., 63°.

LADIES' SUITS MADE TO ORDER.—We feel assured that the advertisement of the New Orleans manufacturer of ladies' suits, No. 103 Canal street, contains much that is interesting to our lady readers, and we advise them to give it a careful perusal. This establishment has lately been fortunate as to procure the services of a lady who was recently at the head of one of the leading dress-making establishments of New York, and whose taste in trimming, skill in fitting and making up dresses elicits the admiration of all who visit the manufactory. She has charge of the custom department of the establishment, and will take orders to make up every description of ladies' suits, and such is her rare taste, will undoubtedly give the greatest satisfaction, and very probably work a revolution in the dress-making business of the city. The manufactory turns out daily beautiful suits of all the fashionable materials, which they sell at about the same as the goods alone would cost retail buyers.

A MAGNIFICENT SHAWL.—We saw yesterday, in the window of the Messrs. Croner, at the corner of Magazine and St. Mary streets, a cashmere shawl, so magnificent, that we much doubt if its fellow was ever brought to this country. Of the richest material, the veritable fleece of the cashmere goat, it is worked in so marvelous a manner that an immense caravan, en route for Mecca, to visit the grave of the prophet Mahomet, is portrayed upon it. Each person is distinct in figure and body, each camel, elephant and horse is drawn true to nature, so true that the beholder almost fancies he can see them in motion. And as this procession winds through beautiful landscapes and by silver brooks, the harmony of colors is so splendid that no work of the painter in oil could be more beautiful. And like all the other goods of the Messrs. Croner, it is offered very cheap.

HOUSEHOLD SUPPLIES AT BRASLEMAN & ADAMS.—The great up town dry goods house, Messrs. Braselman & Adams, so noted for selling goods at remarkably low prices, invite attention through our columns this morning to a list of carpets, matings, damasks, window shades, curtain goods, reps, towels, tablecloths, etc., which they have just received from the New York auctions, and are offering at a very small advance on cost. Now, when Messrs. Braselman & Adams tell the public that they will sell low, they mean what is generally understood as extremely low—in plain words, dirt cheap. All the goods they sell are sold low; that must be understood by this time. These goods are an exception in favor of the buyer. Go and look at them, for if you need such goods you will make money by doing so.

SECURITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.—A careful perusal of the advertisement of Mr. P. A. Barker, agent of this noted life insurance and annuity company, of New York, is invited. Our readers must not confound this staunch life company with a fire company of the same name, which has been reported as a heavy loser by the Chicago fire. This company—the one for which Mr. Barker is agent—takes no other than life risks, and, consequently, was not affected by the disaster at Chicago. Its terms are very liberal, and it bears a very high reputation for just and fair dealing.

ETNA INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT.—We invite attention to the card of this staunch and reliable company, which will be found in another column. After paying losses by the Chicago fire amounting to the immense sum of $2,000,000, it still stands as firm as a rock, with over $4,000,000 of capital untouched. Mr. P. A. Barker, No. 58 Carondelet street, is the agent of the Etna, and is prepared to insure property at the lowest rates.

THE NEW REMEDY FROM OUR SWAMPS.—G. W. Smith's pulmonary sirup and life tonic is really an extraordinary preparation, and deserves the encomiums it is receiving both at home and abroad. The strong evidence of its singular efficacy which the proprietors are receiving, prove it to be the most remarkable remedy for coughs, consumption, etc., that has ever appeared. The facts warrant the use of this unqualified language. We assure the public that it is no humbug. Office, No. 30 Baronne street.

THE PEOPLE'S PUBLICATION. (Brief Communications Published—Long Ones Invariably Rejected—The Editor Not Responsible for the Sentiments Expressed in the Communications.)

ENTOR REPUBLICAN. Governor Warram's name has been proffered thoroughly aired throughout the North in connection with the Customhouse and Turner Hall conventions, and the conclusions arrived at seem to be that he is not only a success as a politician, but as a Governor, wisely guiding the affairs of State, impervious to bribery, on the alert to protect the public treasury, watchful over the interests of the most humble, without regard to race, color or previous condition, discreet in the selection of his men for public trusts, as Auditor Graham and Secretary General Frank J. Herron abundantly attest.

Mechanics' and Agricultural Fair. We publish for the information of our readers who may not otherwise see it, the following circular, signed by the secretary and treasurer of the Mechanics' and Agricultural Fair Association of Louisiana:

The fifth grand State Fair of Louisiana opens on the Fair Ground, city of New Orleans, on the eighteenth day of November, 1871, and will continue for nine days.

In view of making it a success, the directors invite you to co-operate with them. First, by entering one or more articles for exhibition. Second—To urge your friends to do the same. Third—To purchase a few admission tickets, at fifty cents each, for distribution among your employees. By such action you will materially aid the association.

Thursday, the twenty-third of November, will be the grand game day of the Fair, and it is intended that business men should close for a few hours, to enable everybody to be present on that occasion.

If you favor this grand demonstration, please leave your name and address, so that it may appear in the published list.

A farmer in the vicinity of Augusta, Maine, made a trade twenty years ago with a furniture dealer in that place, so bring him a barrel of apples for a looking-glass. Nothing was heard from the farmer until the other day, when a cart backed up to the store and a voice shouted, "Here's yer apples!"

The people of Yankton, Dakota, are trying to get up a diamond excitement. The Dakotian says: "A rough diamond was found on the bank of Jim river, and was sent to a jeweler in the East, who says it is very valuable. A Yankton jeweler thinks it worth $100,000. It is claimed that other diamonds have since been found."

The Valley, published at Corpus Christi, Texas, contains an account of a man who was killed by a panther at his ranch a few days since, whose skin measured eight feet ten inches from the tip of the ears to the tip of the tail. Let any of our hunters beat that for high.

Special Notice to Hotels and families.—We have secured on consignment a lot of the celebrated CHINESE FIRE LIGHTER, warranted to kindle a fire without the use of wood. For convenience in time and money they are guaranteed to be superior to anything of the kind ever introduced. We have on hand every size. Special rates offered to the trade.

Metropolitan Loan, Savings and Pledge Bank, New Orleans, November 11, 1871.—Notice is hereby given that the stockholders of this bank are hereby notified that an installment of ten per cent on the capital stock is due on or before the first of December, 1871. The Board of Directors will meet on Monday, the 12th of December, 1871, at 10 o'clock A. M., to receive the dividends on the capital stock.

The People's Bank—New Orleans, October 26, 1871.—The Board of Directors, at a meeting held on this date, having unanimously recommended an increase of the present capital of the bank from $100,000 to $200,000, and the stockholders are hereby notified that the same is due on or before the first of December, 1871. The Board of Directors will meet on Monday, the 12th of December, 1871, at 10 o'clock A. M., to receive the dividends on the capital stock.

Securities' Hair Dry.—This superb hair-drying is the best in the world, perfectly harmless, reliable and instantaneous, no disagreeable odor, and it is the only one that will dry the hair without leaving it stiff or brittle. It is a perfect stronghold under their skillful management. Should any of our friends meditate a "feast of reason and a flow of soul," and desire to give spirit to the occasion, we know of no better dispensers of good cheer than Thomas H. Handy & Co. See their advertisement.

NEW GOODS AT O'DONNELL, WENNETT & CO.—We direct the attention of our lady friends to the advertisement of Messrs. O'Donnell, Wernet & Co., who have recently opened a splendid staple and fancy dry goods store at the corner of Jackson and Magazine streets, in one of the new stores lately built by Dr. Wade. The goods which this firm have opened are well worthy of attention, as they comprise all the very latest styles of dress goods, as well as laces, ribbons, hosiery, etc., while the prices at which they are offered place them within the reach of all.

MORE NEW STYLES.—Mr. George Brauner, No. 605 Magazine street, will have to his customers, to-morrow, another lot of the latest styles of dress goods, fresh from the North and Europe. These goods are really beautiful, and our lady friends would do well to go and make their selections at once. Comprising all the most modish poplins, plaids, alpaca, merinos and silks, they must please. The prices asked for them are exceedingly low.

The Wakefield earth closet is now on exhibition and for sale at Karschardt & Beauvais, No. 114 Camp street, at J. J. Weckler's, No. 51 Customhouse street, and at the office of the Louisiana Fertilizer Manufacturing Company, No. 22 Carondelet street. Physicians, midwives and nurses are invited to examine it. It is indubitable that earth closets promote the health of the city by the consequent abandonment of privies.

OFFICIAL NOTICES. DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS. New Orleans, November 11, 1871.

ALL OWNERS OF LANDS LYING WITHIN THE First and Second Drainage Districts, bounded by the City of New Orleans, from Tchoupchoula to Claiborne streets, and the south side of Claiborne street from the river to Taylor street, to be shelled in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-five of the amended city charter.

INTERNAL REVENUE FIGURES. The Fifth Auditor's report will show the expenditures connected with the assessment of internal revenue for the fiscal years ending June 30, 1870 and 1871, as follows:

Commission of Assessors, $710,718 42; Clerks and Assistants, $1,254,144 34; Stationery of Assessors, $4,395 96; Expenses of Assessors, $1,206,617 83; Postage of Assessors, $7,098 93; Rent of Offices, $4,616 42; Compensation of Assistants, $3,222,518 43; Total, $6,211,831 36.

THE CUP THAT CHEERS, BUT NER'S INHERITERS.—So pure are the liquids sold by Messrs. Thomas H. Handy & Co. that they are justly entitled to the inference conveyed in our heading, and would doubtless, at his epoch, have elicited numerous stanzas from the pen of the illustrious author. Their new saleroom, Nos. 14 and 16 Royal street, is really the "head center" of pure and choice liquors—in fact, a perfect stronghold under their skillful management.
