REPORTS OF COMMITTEES. Mr. Thomas, from the Committee on Retrenchment and Reform, reported favorably on Senate bill No. 330, prohibiting the sale of spirituous and malt liquors on the Sabbath, etc.

Mr. Twitchell, from the Committee on Corporations and parochial affairs, submitted the following report:

COMMITTEE ON CORPORATIONS AND PAROCHIAL AFFAIRS. February 23, 1872.

To the Honorable President and Members of the Senate: Your committee, to whom was referred Senate bill No. 373, having considered the same, suggest the following amendment to section one, to strike out the following words, to-wit:

"And for the purpose of better securing the objects of said association any and all improvements which it may make or cause to be made, shall be and remain exempt from municipal taxation for the period of five years; provided that said association shall commence building within one year from the passage of this act." And as so amended, your committee report favorably upon the bill, and recommend its passage.

M. H. TWITCHELL, Chairman.

Mr. Butler, from the Committee on Claims, submitted the following reports:

COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS. February 23, 1872.

To the Honorable President and Members of the Senate: Your committee on Claims, to whom was referred Senate bill No. 218, to be entitled an act for the relief of Thomas J. Durand and James K. Belden, have the honor to report back the same without action.

Respectfully submitted, E. BUTLER, Chairman.

Mr. Noland, from the Committee on Engraving and Enrollment, submitted the following report:

COMMITTEE ON ENGRAVING AND ENROLLMENT. February 23, 1872.

To the Honorable President and Members of the Senate: Your committee on Enrollment and Engraving, do leave to report as duly engaged, your committee bill to-wit:

Senate bill No. 380, an act to establish a steam ferry across the Mississippi river at Bayou Sara.

said company from other liabilities to the State.

Passed its first reading. By Mr. Gallup: A bill (No. 394) to be entitled an act to incorporate the Crescent City Petroleum and Coal Oil Storage Company, and providing for the storage of all combustible and coal oils therein, and further authorizing the appointment of an inspector, and directing the mode of inspection and storage of the same, and defining the duties of the recorders' and other courts for the enforcement of said act; and providing the mode and manner of the police regulations to be adopted by the City Council of the city of New Orleans in the premises, as precautions against fire; and directing the duties of the Metropolitan Police force in the execution of the provisions of this act; and for other purposes.

Passed its first reading. The constitutional rule was then suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill put on its second reading, and referred to the Committee on Corporations and Parochial Affairs.

HILLS TAKEN UP OUT OF THEIR ORDER AND ACTED UPON BY CONSENT OF THE SENATE.

On call of Mr. Twitchell: House bill No. 381, authorizing the police jury of the parish of Red River to issue bonds for certain purposes, from second reading file.

Read a second time and adopted thereon. The constitutional rule was then suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.

By Mr. Lewis: Senate bill No. 339, to be entitled an act to authorize A. F. Jannin and associates to render navigable the Bayou Saline; from second reading file.

Mr. Lewis moved that the bill be printed and filed as the special order of the day for Monday the twenty-sixth instant at 1 P. M.

Mr. O'Hara then gave notice that he would present a minority report unfavorable to this bill.

Mr. Todd then moved that the further consideration of this bill be indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Herwig raised the point of order having arisen, Mr. Barber raised the point of order that debate was not in order.

The President decided the point not well taken. The question then recurred on the motion of Mr. Lewis, which was adopted.

By Mr. O'Hara: House bill No. 361, to authorize the police juries of the parishes of St. Mary and Terrebonne to issue parish bonds for the purpose of retiring their indebtedness.

Passed its first reading. By Mr. Daigle: House bill No. 405, to change and re-arrange the time of holding the sessions of the district court in the Sixth Judicial District, and for other purposes.

Passed its first reading. The constitutional rule was then suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read a second time, and considered engrossed for a third reading.

The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.

By Mr. Anderson: Senate bill No. 306 (from second reading file), to be entitled an act relative to contributions to be raised by the Citizens' Bank of Louisiana, and the resale of property purchased on foreclosure of stock mortgages.

The bill, on motion of Mr. O'Hara, was fixed as the special order at 1 P. M. the twenty-fourth instant.

By Mr. Swords: Substitute for Senate bills Nos. 297, 315 and 316, to be entitled an act to amend and re-enact sections two, three, four, six, six, twenty-seven, thirty-four, forty-seven, forty-eight and forty-nine of an act entitled "An act to amend and re-enact an act to establish a Metropolitan Police district, and to provide for the government thereof, approved March 8, 1869, and to provide for the reduction of the expense of the Metropolitan Police force," and the same was made the special order of the day for this evening at half past seven o'clock.

REGULAR ORDER OF THE DAY—UNFINISHED BUSINESS. The President announced that the substitute for Senate bill No. 373, to be entitled an act to amend and re-enact sections five, six, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-eight, twenty-nine, thirty-five, thirty-six, thirty-nine, forty-one, forty-two, forty-three, forty-four, forty-five, forty-six, forty-seven, forty-eight, and forty-nine of an act entitled "An act to amend and re-enact an act to establish a Metropolitan Police district, and to provide for the government thereof, approved March 8, 1869, and to provide for the reduction of the expense of the Metropolitan Police force," and the same was made the special order of the day for this evening at half past seven o'clock.

Mr. Campbell in the chair. Mr. Harris moved to reconsider the section just adopted.

Adopted. The section was then rejected.

Mr. McMillen offered the following, to be added after the word "rejection," in line eleven of section eighteen:

Provided, that no person shall be allowed to vote for ward or municipal officers, or for all officers so voted for, who required to be commissioned by the Governor, as other returns are required by this act to be made, and for such officers as do not require commission, to the clerk of the district court, who shall notify the parties elected of their election, and if there be a tie, to order a new election.

[Mr. Campbell in the chair.] Mr. Harris moved to reconsider the section just adopted.

Adopted. The section was then rejected.

Mr. McMillen offered the following, to be added after the word "rejection," in line eleven of section eighteen:

Provided, that no person shall be allowed to vote for ward or municipal officers, or for all officers so voted for, who required to be commissioned by the Governor, as other returns are required by this act to be made, and for such officers as do not require commission, to the clerk of the district court, who shall notify the parties elected of their election, and if there be a tie, to order a new election.

Adopted. The section was then adopted as amended.

Section nineteen was then read and adopted, it having been passed over when other sections of the bill were adopted.

Section forty-two (printed bill) was then read and adopted.

Mr. Hunsaker moved to strike out the words "assistant supervisors of registration" wherever they occur in the bill.

compiled. The returning officers shall then proceed to investigate the statements of riot, tumult, acts of violence, intimidation or armed disturbance at any such poll or voting place; and if, from the evidence of such statement, they shall be convinced that such riot, tumult, acts of violence, intimidation, armed disturbance, bribery or corrupt influences did not materially interfere with the purity and freedom of the election at such poll or voting place, or did not prevent a sufficient number of qualified voters from voting thereat, or did not materially change the result of the election, then, and not otherwise, said returning officers shall canvass and compile the vote of such poll or voting place with those previously canvassed and compiled; but if said returning officers shall not be fully satisfied thereof, it shall be their duty to examine further testimony in regard thereto, and to this end they shall have power to send for persons and papers, if, after such examination, the said returning officers shall be convinced that said riot, tumult, acts of violence, intimidation, armed disturbance, bribery or corrupt influences did not materially interfere with the purity and freedom of the election at such poll or voting place, or did not prevent a sufficient number of the qualified voters from voting thereat, or did not materially change the result of the election, then the said returning officers shall not canvass or compile the statement of the votes of such poll or voting place, but shall exclude it from their returns.

Mr. Blackman moved to strike out section two from the bill as adopted.

Mr. Campbell raised the point of order that the Senate having laid upon the table a motion to reconsider section two of the bill, the motion now to strike out the section was not in order.

The President held the point not well taken upon the grounds stated, the bill not having been adopted as a whole; but held the motion out of order on the ground that the adoption of the section of Mr. Hunsaker as section three was the pending question before the Senate, and must be disposed of.

On a call of the yeas and nays the Senate refused, by the following vote, to adopt the section:

Yeas—Barber, Butler, Campbell, Gallup, Harris, Kelso, Noland, Pinchback, Swords, Todd—14.
