KENTUCKY VS. GEORGIA.

The Great Main-Five Thousand Dollars A side. What with the recent prize-fight, with its army of curious followers, halls of the demi-monde, the races, together with the long list of Sunday sports, New Orleans certainly has no cause to complain of want of sport - if such they can be termed.

The cock-pit of New Orleans, an institution of our city, which probably every person has not seen, is situated at the corner of Roman and Dumaine streets. Here every Sunday a congregation of some fifty or twenty persons assemble to witness eight or nine battles, which generally commence about ten o'clock in the morning, lasting all day. Among its devotees are representatives from almost all nations, but principally from the Spanish and French. The pit is owned by an ex-member of the Legislature, who, together with a Mr. Claiborne, are looked upon as the principal cock-fighters in the city, and devote considerable attention and money to the matter.

Occasionally an unusually exciting fight occurs, as was the case last Sunday morning, resulting in the death of Mr. Claiborne's little chicken after a hard fought and well contested fight. Mr. Paulane, of this city, is looked upon as the best trainer, and generally has a number of game-cocks under his management for the contests. The next grand battle for supremacy among the feathered champions will take place at No. 101 Rampart street, where, as the flaming posters, with a miserable woodcut, announce the great main for $5000 a side, will take place on the ninth instant. The plucky little fowls have already arrived in the city; those of Captain Moore and Mr. O'Neil being well cared for at the corner of Claiborne and Canal streets. These cocks are mostly natives of Kentucky and this State. Those of Messrs. Bacon and Boler are to be found at the Oakland course, and are entire strangers to our city. They are, however, Southerners by birth, coming from Alabama, South Carolina and Georgia.

The battle ground was formerly a stable owned by the late Colonel James Nelligan, and is certainly sadly in need of repairs, neither the exterior nor interior having a very inviting appearance.

The pit itself and surrounding seats are now being constructed as fast as possible, under the guidance of a Mr. Dorse. This gentleman is quite an important personage among the devotees of this peculiar sport, he having the reputation of being the best maker of steel galls in the United States.

Thirty-one cocks are to be shown on each side, and no doubt a considerable amount of money will change hands on the result, the stake itself being quite an item. It was contemplated at first to have the battles take place on the premises of no less a distinguished personage than Buffalo Bill, but after a little consideration Messrs. Moore and O'Neil concluded to erect the one on Rampart street, which will accommodate some three or four hundred persons conveniently. The sport will continue several days. What two gentlemen will handle the cocks has not yet been decided upon, no positions having been assigned as yet.

Third District Reformers. The answer to the call of 300 citizens at Stenswell Jackson Hall last night was responded to by at least half of the signers. A large flag indicated the place of meeting, and generally things were in good shape.

The president, Edward Screener, called the meeting to order, and Judge Thomas H. Kennedy proceeded to orate. He pitched in universally, and mixed the old line Whigs, Democrats, Know-Nothings and every body, and particularly he pitched into Governor Warmoth.

He explained that it was not a rich man's party, although acknowledging himself to be a rich man. The usual remarks in relation to the valor of Louisiana in the late unpleasantness, were, of course, at hand. He proposed to get rid of the rule of "rum and selfishness," which he intimated were the controlling powers of the Democratic party. He made an explanation in regard to the views of the party as to the acceptance of the constitutional amendments, and satisfied every one that, as they could not help themselves, the Reform party must necessarily swallow them.

The speaker then appealed to the colored man and, in the same breath, warned him. The speaker closed with an appeal to the Democrats to abstain from putting a ticket in the field.

Mr. H. N. Ogden followed, and in his usual orate style elucidated the ends and aims of the Reformers. He stated the sin, a great fact that he, as a speaker, was a stranger in the Third District. He pitched into the robbers and plunderers in a very euphonious manner, and explained about the new party by referring to the address made by him at the City Hall, in the name of the celebrated Fifty-one. He used all the regular arguments to prove that the Democratic party could find its only refuge in the bosom of the Reformers. The only safety for the State was a co-operation of the white and black race.

Captain John G. Fleming came after Mr. Ogden, and delivered himself much in the manner of a far-Western circuit rider. The reporter was pleased with his jokes, but couldn't see exactly what they had to do with the reform question. He wanted a new doctor for the sick man, Louisiana, the allopathic and homopathic having bled, blistered and physicked him to their hearts' content without doing him any good. He appealed to the colored man to make friends with the Southern man, and trust in him. He thought that if the Louisiana Legislature had received the proposition made to Lot, the necessary five could not be found. Some highly revolutionary sentiments were showered out by the speaker, intimating that if the lately enfranchised failed to take this last chance, the consequences would be on their own heads.

J. H. Kenard came in and rehearsed a piece, which our readers have read so often that a repetition is entirely unnecessary. One new thing he got off is worth mentioning - "History repeats itself" - and immediately proceeded to furnish some half dozen pages from Mrs. Willard.

Considering the extraordinary amount of special reform shovels on the assemblage, which, in point of numbers, intelligence and respectability was entirely satisfactory, the affair passed off well. The hall renter, Democrats didn't seem to be about, and nobody was hurt on our side.

This is a sort of a compliment from the Madison Journal: Our neighbor of the Vicksburg Times possesses the popular favor of Louisiana. If Governor Warmoth receives the Republican nomination he will undoubtedly receive the popular vote, and in order to do that it will be necessary to cut loose from a great number of his hangers-on. What unpopularity Governor Warmoth has due to his associates more than to himself!

Meteorological Record. The signal service, United States army, reports, for the benefit of commerce, the meteorological record, at 3:43 P. M., local time, yesterday, as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Place, Wind, Weather, Barometer. Rows include Augusta, Baltimore, Boston, Buffalo, Cairo, Charleston, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Dallas, Detroit, Evansville, Galveston, Hartford, Indianapolis, Jacksonville, Key West, Leavenworth, Louisville, Memphis, Mobile, Nashville, New Orleans, New York, Norfolk, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Portland, Savannah, St. Louis, St. Paul, St. Petersburg, St. Vincent, Wilmington, N.C.

AMUSEMENTS.

St. Charles Theatre. The bad weather last night reduced the audience at the St. Charles Theatre, and the two pieces, "Home" and "Mephisto's Masquerade," though fully appreciated, were witnessed but by a few persons. The same bill will be presented this evening, to gratify those whom the weather disappointed. Tomorrow evening, the benefit of Mr. Charles Wynham, when the new comedy of "Friends" will be presented.

Academy of Music. Percy Roselle still attracts splendid audiences at the Academy to witness his excellent vocal performances. Although it must be confessed that the ushers can conduct many more to chairs than now require their services. The drama now running at the Academy is slightly sensational, but there is a good deal of good singing. Percy is handsomely sustained by the regular company, which embraces many public favorites. The present engagement closes next Sunday evening, when the benefit of the "Black Crook," that has for the past few weeks set staid old Boston into ecstasies of delight.

Varieties Theatre. The Varieties has taken the cream of the theatrical business during the present week, partly because many people imagine it to be fashionable to go there, partly because the favorite comedies, "The Duke's Motto" and "The Duke's Motto," are being presented to a great extent because no expense or care has been spared in putting that excellent piece on the stage. One other reason is given, - that the Varieties Theatre is a stock company ever selected for the Crescent City. This evening and to-morrow evening the "Duke's Motto" will be presented again, and the benefit of the Duke's Motto, which will appear in the same role as he has been playing all the week in the "Duke's Motto." Monday evening, benefit of Mr. Charles Wynham, when the new comedy of "Friends" will be presented.

Opera House. This evening, benefit of Mr. DeLarochelle, when the opera of the "Prophet" will be produced. Saturday matinee at the Opera House, when the opera of the "Crown Diamonds" will be produced.

Have you got your ticket in the grand single number drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery for Saturday? Remember the capital prize of $50,000 was won at the last drawing. Now is the time to buy tickets. We call on every one to take a chance.

The Donaldsonville Chief says of the planting interest: As far as we can learn there appears to be a general despondency among the planters, especially those along Bayou Lafourche, in regard to the prospect of a good crop. It is feared that the crop will be a failure, and that the planter will be very backward in its growth. We much regret the state of affairs, but hope that the planter will be able to get a good crop.
