WALTON, at 12 o'clock, at St. Charles Auction Exchange, four lots of ground on Front and Orleans streets—succession of Mrs. Addie Robertson, twenty-two and a half bonds New Orleans, Jackson and North Southern Railroad Company, eleven $100 bonds New Orleans, Great Western and Opelousas Railroad Company—succession of H. B. Bayl.

Local Intelligence.

LOUISIANA FRUIT-GROWERS' ASSOCIATION.—At an adjourned meeting last Tuesday, in this city, on motion of Dr. Swasey, the following standing committees were appointed, viz:

On resolutions—Dr. H. A. Swasey, H. W. Lewis and E. K. Manard. On native fruits—D. Redmond, W. A. Whitfield and R. D. Manard.

On revision of catalogue—Dr. H. A. Swasey, D. Redmond and E. K. Manard. On pathology and diseases of fruit trees—H. W. Lewis, J. N. Alsworth, M. Wiggins and, on motion, Dr. R. H. Day.

The following day it is to examine and report on such fruits as may be submitted to them during the season: E. F. Russell, A. W. Ronnier and E. K. Manard.

On motion of H. W. Lewis, the president appointed the following gentlemen to read essays at the next annual meeting: On the pear—Dr. H. A. Swasey. On oranges and other semi-tropical fruits—D. Redmond.

On small fruits—S. M. Wiggins.

A TIGER CAT.—In the wildest manner possible, Josephine Taylor declared that she is an unrelenting enemy to all mankind, more especially to law officers. In person she is very powerful, requiring three or four strong men to handle her.

On the twenty-fourth ultimo she was arrested on Dryades street for violently disturbing the peace, and naming Officer Mullaly. Yesterday she was before Recorder Houghton on these charges, when she behaved so outrageously that it became necessary to use extreme measures with her. As the evidence was strong against the tigris, she was sent down to the Criminal Court on three counts.

VERY SAD DEATH.—Thursday evening a child of Mrs. Harth, eighteen months old, was missed by its mother. Search in almost every direction failed to find the little girl. Yesterday morning the vault of an out-house was searched, when the body was found, lying at the foot of a house No. 283 Girod street. Coroner Cragh held an inquest, and the jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

FIRE ON USULINES STREET.—At a quarter before nine o'clock last night an alarm of fire was sent from No. 45 Usulines street, a two-story brick building, owned and occupied by Mr. Latour as a wine store. The contents were entirely destroyed. Stock insured in the Salamander office, and the building in the Union office.

The Carrollton fire department, though not extensive or elaborate, will make its annual display to-day, when our rural sister will see holiday attire.

Thursday night two deputy constables were in warm water, they having an offensive looking prisoner, and no place to incarcerate him. Captain McCann, first precinct, would not recognize the commitment, and the deputies were in something of a stew.

An Excellent Harrow.—The New Iberia Sugar-Bowl says: Mr. Gould, manager of Dr. Rhodes' plantation, fishing on Bayou de la Bay, recently exhibited to us the working of a large harrow, of his own construction, which deserves special mention. It is divided into two parts, united together with stout hinges, and is so constructed that it lies upon the furrow and thoroughly pulverizes the soil—the more thoroughly because it has twenty-eight teeth, besides twelve knives, put in at intervals, in the place of teeth. The ground it was working in had been so packed by the rain and baked by the sun that it was terribly rough, yet this harrow had no need but only with four mules to pulverize the soil, and a high two mule harrow going over it again put the land in good condition for planting corn.

ON CARONDELLET STREET.

The newspaper articles drawn for the purpose of weakening public confidence in the Louisiana Savings Bank and Safe Deposit Company had little effect except to produce a considerable amount of talk which could not weaken the stock. A bid of $83 made in a private office for the stock, and at the Board of Brokers last night $85 was bid, while none was offered, showing, as far as the stock went, no lack of confidence among financial men, who are the best judges.

The nominations and the balloting in its various stages, as it cropped out on the several bulletin boards, or in the extras stirred in the current of conversation among the habitués of the corner like clockwork, at times controlling and chafing the movement. The first news of Greeley's nomination was a surprise, which, however, gave way to a pleasant and cheerful feeling, coupled with the usual cautionary misgivings of money dealers, embodied in the adage of "wait and see."

John Williams, alias Summers, charged with stealing cotton from the bark Moneta, was arraigned, and pleaded not guilty. Remanded.

In the case of Manuel Vasquez, indicted by the grand jury as an accessory after the fact in the murder of Joseph Cabino, on the tenth of February, bail was fixed at $1000.

In the case of Michael Monaghan, charged with larceny, a nolle prosequi was entered by the District Attorney, there being no case, and Mr. Monaghan honorably discharged.

Judge A. J. Semmes filed a motion for a suspensive appeal in the case of Frank Carvo, convicted of robbery and sentenced to four years Penitentiary. The appeal was granted and made returnable to the Supreme Court on the first Monday of June, 1872.

In the case of Alexander Newton, charged with murder in shooting, on the seventh of February, at the corner of St. Charles and Common streets, Police Officer Townsend, bail was fixed at $10,000.

John Williams, convicted of stealing ten pounds of iron from the Morgan steamship landing, was sentenced to one month Penitentiary.

William McDowell, convicted of stealing goods valued at $10 from E. Longpre, was sentenced to one year Penitentiary.

One of the two cases of burglary against John Casey, alias Yorker, was called up. The accused is charged with burglary and larceny at the residence of Dr. A. Chastant, corner of Prytanica and Josephine streets, on the night of the twelfth of January last, when some silverware, etc., was stolen. A silver dish was found at the house of one Louis Souberville, on Poydras street, near Basin street, where Casey and others of the same ilk assembled.

Casey was arrested in Mobile by Detectives Smith and Pearson. The main witness for the State was one Maloney, who confessed to have, by threats, been forced to join Casey and others in the above burglary.

The counsel for defense, Judge A. J. Semmes, made a point of the fact, that a man should not be convicted on the evidence given against him by an accomplice who would swear almost to everything which would save himself from the clutches of the law.

The jury was unable to agree, when they were discharged and accused remanded.

Little ones go and see the pantomime of "Pata-Cake" at the matinee to-day at the St. Charles.

BREACHING A TRUSS.—Catherine Williams was before Recorder Leclerc for breach of truss and embezzlement, the complainant being Mrs. Sabine Roberts, who three months ago, intrusted accused with $50 worth of clothing. As the articles could not be recovered by the owner, an arrest and prosecution followed. Catherine goes to a jury.

Children fairly shout with joy at the performances of those wonderful children. They appear at the matinee at the St. Charles to-day at twelve o'clock.

ANTI-LICENSE PAYERS.—Four men were before Recorder M'Arthur yesterday for peddling without having a license. This involuntary mass meeting of the resistors cost each one $5. Dominic Martino, M. Dinnet, George Buckner and Jules Chance will, undoubtedly, be with the Resisters Monday night.

A boy who says his name is Holmes is looking for his home. He is in the House of Refuge until called for.

By TELEGRAPH.—The Pacific line of telegraph had an operator in the hall of the Cincinnati convention, and sent off the news as fast as possible, so that the dispatches arrived here only a few minutes after transpiring. The office on Carondelet street bulletined the telegrams an hour or so before the third evening papers issued extras. The announcement was stale long before the newsmen cried it out on the streets.

A difficulty occurred on the levee, head of St. Ferdinand street, yesterday evening, when Alexander Constantine was severely stabled in the arm by one George Parkers. Constantine was conveyed to his residence, No. 413 Moreau street, and Parkers locked up at the fifth precinct station. The cause of the difficulty is not known.

Paul Martinetti performed his "Zemphylon, or the leap for life" with more success than he did on the preceding evening, and consequently did not fail to win the much desired applause.

The children prodigies are as popular as ever, winning the affection and hearts of the ladies as soon as they put their cunning little heads upon the stage.

Mr. Huntley, who has made himself such a great favorite, and who is without doubt one of the most artistic band performers in the country, was received by the audience with great enthusiasm. He sang several original songs, including that of "If You Know What I Know" and "Etire, You Don't Know." His new version is a success. He was also the recipient of a large tribute from one of his admirers.

The rest of the performance was rendered in the admirable manner for which the Martinetti family are so famous.

A new bill will be presented this evening, and every one should witness the performance of this truly excellent troupe.

The Mansfield Reporter says: Crops throughout the parish are generally backward, owing to the cold and wet spring. The farmers have generally obtained good stands of both cotton and corn, and the present favorable weather is working wonders in the vegetable world. If no misfortune should befall them, the greatest abundance of the products of the soil, and the planters of De Soto parish to-day.

Matinee at the St. Charles Theatre to-day at twelve o'clock.

AMUSEMENTS.

Varieties Theatre. "Fanchon" matinee to-day at twelve o'clock. This evening comedy variety benefit of Mr. J. Cracker, with Miss Charlotte Thompson as the Little Tramp. Mr. George Clarke will recite "Siamus O'Brien." Susan Kegan's lecture, and Stuart Robson as "Harold," Monday evening. "Eileen O'Grady" or "Dark the Hour Before the Dawn."

Academy of Music. Grand Hernandez pantomime matinee at twelve o'clock to-day, and last but not one Hernandez pantomime performance this evening.

St. Charles Theatre. Martinetti Ravel pantomime matinee to-day at twelve o'clock, and performances of the same character this evening.

Opera House. This evening, Weber's grand opera of "Freyschutz." Tomorrow evening, the opera of "Le Bal Masque." Monday evening, "Les Femmes de Paris," and the opera of "Roland a Roncevaux."

Italian Opera. On the fifteenth instant, the Italian Opera troupe will commence a season of five operas at the Varieties Theatre. The following will be the titles of the operas: "L'eta de Launermoor," "La Traviata," "Norma" and "Il Trovatore."

Academy of Music-Pantomime. The Hernandez pantomime troupe appear at the matinee to-day in one of their best entertainments, introducing new features for the amusement of the ladies and gentlemen. The programme is brim full of fun, and presents Hernandez in his comic pantomime, "Dechalmans"; feats of strength and athletic sports by the Serra brothers; flying rings by Arthur Hernandez and the Serra brothers, and Hernandez's Imperial Japs, who introduce the triple Japanese perch, and Hernandez's celebrated cat, lifting 1000 pounds in the presence of the audience. As to-night and Sunday are the last performances of this really talented troupe of pantomimists, we trust they will be greeted with crowded houses.

Next Monday we have the romantic drama of "Massaniello," with the great bouffant as Fenella, a character which she is eminently fitted for. We are assured by the management that the piece will be placed upon the stage in the Academy's usual style. The full strength of the Academy organization is in the cast. We anticipate quite a treat next Monday.

Those fairy pets, La Petite Adela and Le Jeune Ignacio, in their miniature can-can at the matinee at the St. Charles to-day.

The thermometer at Louis Frigero's, No. 50 Chartres street, yesterday stood as follows: At 8 A. M., 67°; at 2 P. M., 76°; at 6 P. M., 74°. Lowest point during the night of May 3, 58°.

A ball is to be given in Detroit to which blondes alone are to be invited, and all the young women who haven't hair-reditory beauty of this type are preparing to stand the hazard of the dye.

POLITICAL NOTICES.

Address of the Republican Central Committee. STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE Republican Party of Louisiana. To the Republicans of the State of Louisiana: The Republican State Central Committee having, in the discharge of the duties imposed upon them by the last State Convention, approved at the regular period which has been set apart by the usage of the party for its State Conventions and having authorized their President to issue the usual call therefor, deem the occasion suitable to address these brief remarks upon the political situation to their fellow Republicans. The quadrennial election for a President of the United States occurs this year. The election of this high officer of the republic, whose character and political views are so important, especially to the Republicans of the South, and whose selection almost decides our political fate for the next four years, and perhaps for the entire future, makes this election one of the deepest and most vital interest to all our people. We feel that we speak their unanimous sentiment when we invite them to respond to the call of the National Republican Committee, and advise them to send out last year's opponents to the Philadelphia Convention, to help in selecting a tried, true and unflinching Republican to be our next President. Our State section is also of the greatest importance. We have to elect a Governor, a Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Superintendent of Public Education, Attorney General, a new General Assembly, and Representatives in Congress. In fact, this election is to determine a question still more important than that which shall be the next President. It is to determine the political character of the State Government in favor of equal rights, or against them, in favor of progress, education and improvement, and opposed to equal advantages for the black people; whether we shall retain all that we have won and go forward, or whether we shall lose all and go back to where we were at the close of the war.

We wish plainly and distinctly to understand the extent of the Republican party in Louisiana, and to know whether under the name of the Republican party, whether under any other name, there are any persons who are not true Republicans, who are not in favor of equal rights, or against them, in favor of progress, education and improvement, and opposed to equal advantages for the black people; whether we shall retain all that we have won and go forward, or whether we shall lose all and go back to where we were at the close of the war.
