It is amusing to read the Eastern dispatches which state that Mr. Greeley's friends are trying to persuade him to make a friend of himself, pending the canvass, for fear that he will be betrayed into some indiscretion of speech that would damage his chances for election. A Presidential candidate wearing a muzzle and a straight jacket would not be a very desirable prospect.

There is no necessity for making a friend of Grant, as there is no danger of his saying anything to hurt himself, except quoting the famous speech of Carolina's one popular Governor. A cigar and military uniform do him for muzzle and straight jacket effectively enough already.

In these times of great political excitement it becomes necessary to occasionally remind persons of all parties of certain duties that can not be neglected without running the risk of serious loss. Among these duties can be numbered that of providing one's self with lucky numbers in the Louisiana State Lottery. The daily single number drawings of this popular home institution are often a source of much wealth to lucky individuals.

We learn that arrangements are being made to place three boats a week in Red River, between Red River Landing and Shreveport, to commence the first of July. These boats will carry light freights and passengers, making close connections with the New Orleans and Vicksburg packets and St. Louis boats. By this line we will have prompt and reliable mail communications with the Red River country and Texas. We regret to learn that this is not exclusively a New Orleans enterprise.

The card of Messrs. C. & F. F. Case appears in another column. Colonel Charles Case, the senior member, is favorably known as the receiver of the First National Bank. He expects soon to open an office in Washington City, which will give the new firm great advantage in the matter of government claims. The junior, Mr. F. F. Case, was recently admitted by the Supreme Court after a creditable examination in open court. He is a native of the South, and has many years a citizen of this State and city, where he is deservedly popular.

Martini-Ravel Troupe. A large house was attracted at the St. Charles last evening by the announcement of the benefit of Paul Martini-Ravel. This gentleman, who is the chief attraction of the Martini-Ravel troupe, has many friends in this city who attest their appreciation by filling the house to overflowing. The performance was one of the most interesting of the season, but the audience felt a little disappointed at his not performing a few of the wonderful feats of acrobatics, but one of the medals became disarranged, and he could not do it then, but will this evening. The little can-canists were the recipients of a beautiful bouquet much larger than themselves. Mr. William Huntley played the "Chimes" in his characteristic manner, and sang his exquisite vocalism in a manner that brought down the house at every song.

This evening an entirely new bill will be offered, and our citizens should not fail to witness the performance of the Martini-Ravel troupe.

Magnolia School Picnic. The lads and lasses of the Magnolia School enjoyed a holiday, and had their annual picnic yesterday at the Oakland Riding Park. It required about half a dozen street cars to convey them to and from the park. When they rode down Carondelet street yesterday morning about ten o'clock the boys were boisterous in their shouts, while they were simply hilarious on their return in the evening as they passed up St. Charles street.

They hugely enjoyed the sports of the park and the novelty of a picnic at the day and, like good boys and girls, they will give all the closer attention to their studies in consequence of this healthful diversion from the tedium and monotony of school rooms.

The enjoyment of our reporter was equal to that of the pupils of Magnolia School, to whom he wishes happiness in the future.

Penalty of Being a Bad Boy. One of the boys attending the Jackson School, on Magazine street, yesterday, during the fire in that vicinity, told an untruth to the teacher, to whom he represented that the fire was at his home or its immediate vicinity, and thus obtained permission to leave the school.

In the Baltimore city council, last Monday, Mr. Messcott, from the committee on water, reported an ordinance authorizing J. O. Belknap & Co., to erect an advertising fountain at the intersection of Fayette, Park and Liberty streets. The ordinance is made the special order for next Wednesday. Mr. Belknap is the patentee and inventor of the fountain on Canal street, in this city, and it is a gratifying fact that this Southern invention will benefit Northern cities, there being negotiations at the present time for its introduction into several cities besides Baltimore.

POLITICAL NOTICES.

Address of the Republican Central Committee. NEAR CENTRAL COMMITTEE Republican Party of Louisiana, New Orleans, March 13, 1872. To the Republican Party of Louisiana: The Republican State Central Committee having, in the discharge of the duties imposed upon them by the last State Convention, arrived at the regular party State Convention, and having authorized their President to issue the annual call therefor, deem the occasion suitable to address to their fellow Republicans. The quadrennial election for a President of the United States occurs this year. The election of the high officer of the republic, whose character and political views are so important, especially to the Republicans of the South, and whose selection almost decides our political fate for the next four years, and perhaps for the whole future, makes this election one of the deepest and most important to all people. We feel that we speak their unanimous sentiment when we invite them to respond to the call of the National Republican Committee, and advise them to send our best representative men to the Philadelphia Convention, to be held at Philadelphia, June 5, 1872. Our State election is also of the greatest importance. We have to elect a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Attorney General, a General Assembly, and Representatives in Congress. In fact, this election is to determine a question still more important to us than who shall be the next President. It is to determine for the next four years whether the State government shall be Republican or Democratic, in favor of equal rights, or against them; in favor of progress, education and improvement for all people, black as well as white, or in favor only of white progress, education and improvement, and opposed to equal advancement for the black people, whether we shall retain all that we have won and go forward, or whether we shall lose all and go back to where we were at the close of the war.

We wish plainly and distinctly to understand the fact that all parties opposed to the Republican party, whether by the name of Democrats, Progressives, People's party, or any other name whatever, are simply the old Democratic party under new names, and have for their object but one thing, that is to throw the State government out of the hands of the Republican party and into the hands of their enemies. Our duty is to defeat the enemy the strong and determined efforts of the enemy to again get control of the State, one thing is the great object, that all Republicans shall be UNITED AND WORK TOGETHER. If we do this, victory is certain.

To this end, we cordially invite all true and earnest Republicans, without regard to past differences, to unite in this convention and to nominate a ticket, to be elected on the 12th inst. such a ticket and adopt such a platform as will command the respect and support of the whole people.

All good Republicans also desire that our party shall, as we are assured, at this juncture, decidedly, distinctly and definitely in favor of reform, reform, reduction of taxes and the removal of all unnecessary burdens on commerce and trade, and in favor of equal and just legislation for all interests and all classes of persons.

By order of the committee: P. B. PINCHBACK, President. WILLIAM VIGIER, Recording Secretary State Central Committee.

Apportionment of Delegates. By authority vested in me, and in pursuance to the following resolution unanimously adopted at a meeting of the State Central Committee of the Republican party, held March 13, 1872, at the Mechanics' Institute, in the city of New Orleans, Louisiana, to-wit: Resolved, That the president of this committee be and is hereby authorized to call a State Convention of the Republican party of Louisiana to be held at the Mechanics' Institute, in the city of New Orleans, Louisiana, on Thursday, June 12, 1872, for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the National Republican Convention called by the National Republican Executive Committee, to be held at Philadelphia, June 5, 1872.

Also, to nominate a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Attorney General and Representatives in Congress, and to transact such other business as may come before it.
