DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Delegates to Baltimore Nominated.

The fourth day of the Democratic State Convention opened in the Opera House with the usual attendance and with the ordinary course of many voices which happens before the call to order. Things were left and had to be taken up precisely where they were before, the question whether or not to make overtures to all parties being still under consideration, and this threatened to elicit a full, free and fair investigation and a shaking about.

Mr. McGinnis—One from the city, one from the country. Mr. James Lobell, of West Baton Rouge, seconded, nominating Mr. Hirschler.

Mr. Hirschler—The chair proposing this action. Mr. H. Strickland moved that two members of the committee of conference.

Bill to Pay Southern Mail Carriers—Passing Obstructions to United States Courts—Chandler Attacking Sumner—Sumner Defending Himself—Letter from Horace White—River and Harbor Bill Passed—Tax and Tariff Bills Signed.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Senate.—There were many factious amendments to the clause of the appropriation bill giving $250,000 to Southern mail carriers, when the matter went over to Friday.

Mr. Chandler made an elaborate attack on Mr. Sumner for his statement made by him (Sumner) in his recent speech in the Senate, about Stanton and Grant.

Mr. Sumner said he would read one single leaf to show the truth of what he had said in his recent speech. Mr. Stanton did say to him what he had reported. He (Mr. Sumner) asserted on this floor that this was so.

Mr. Sumner here read the following extract from a note received this morning from Mr. Stanton: "Dear Mr. Sumner: The Secretary Stanton, not once merely, but several times, expressed himself to me substantially the same opinion of General Grant that he did to you, with the addition that General Grant had been greatly overrated as a military commander. As to the latter point, I recall a long conversation with him, after the fighting at Spotsylvania Courthouse, in which he (Stanton) expressed more apprehension of the results of the campaign than I had ever known him to feel concerning any campaign. He said he could not continue to fill up the awful gaps made by Lee in our ranks without a further call on the loyal States for troops. But I suppose you know all about that. During a portion of this conversation, Chandler cooling his heels in the ante-room, in order to finish what he had to say to me, a mere Bohemian, although I twice suggested that it would be indecorous for me to remain while a Senator desired an audience."

WASHINGTON.

The Spanish Government and Dr. Howard's Release. WASHINGTON, June 6.—It is again asserted that Secretary of State Fish will release Dr. Howard as a favor to the United States, but if a demand is made on the ground of American citizenship, it will refuse.

PHILADELPHIA.

The Grant National Convention—Grant for President—Henry Wilson for Vice President—The Platform—Grant National Committee Organized—Vote for Vice President by States. PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—The platform committee were in session until dawn this morning because a law.

The colored part of the Virginia delegation kicked in the traces, and resolved to go for Colfax. The convention is densely packed, every State and Territory being represented. States will be called alphabetically upon an alphabetical list. The platform question will be disposed of before nominations are made.

The roll shall be called on nominations, and when a majority is reached for any candidate, the question of unanimity shall be put, when the chairman of delegations shall state the vote for each candidate or proposition. The five minutes rule was adopted. All resolutions were referred to the committee on resolutions without reading. The resolutions from the Union League were ordered read by a vote of the convention. Proceedings, while waiting for the report of the platform committee, were somewhat unquiet. Henry Fish and his confederates for the rostrum. Ultraists and Grant provoked equal applause. The rules were suspended, and Grant was nominated. A shifting scene showed Grant's picture. In the National Republican Convention to-day the vote for General Grant was unanimous. In casting the votes of the delegations, each chairman made a little speech, which was received with great good humor. The
