BY SHERIFF SAUVIGNY, at 12 o'clock, at Merchants and Auctioneers' Exchange, lot of ground and buildings on Canal street, John B. Gray and Mrs. Sarah M. Chapel, wife of Henry C. Dobbie, all the right of James D. Augustin in the succession of his mother, which consists of $2,000 cash, about $200 in movables, about $1,000 in real estate, to wit: five lots of ground and buildings on Esplanade street, and three lots of ground and buildings on Exchange Alley—Felix Clavel, executor, vs. James D. Augustin.

Local Intelligence.

SHOOTING AT THE POLICE.—About two o'clock yesterday morning Officer Parker noticed two men loitering about on his beat on Carondelet street, near Clio, and suspecting that they were about helping themselves to other people's property, went up to them with the intention of making their arrest. He had no sooner placed his hand on the shoulder of one, when his companion drew a pistol and fired at him. The officer fired in return, but without effect, after which the midnight prowlers made their escape.

A "WEARY" UNFORTUNATE.—Elizabeth Johnson, a nymph of the pave, having grown tired of whiskey and the miseries of life, attempted to put an end to them on Friday evening at her residence, No. 301 Bienville street, through the agency of laudanum. Medical aid was soon on hand, and her burdensome life was saved.

DROPPED HIS PISTOL.—The report of a pistol shot in the Crystal Palace saloon, corner of Chartres and Conti streets, about two o'clock yesterday morning, caused, at first, considerable excitement. However, it was soon ascertained that one of the customers had unintentionally pulled the pistol from his pocket while taking out his handkerchief, the pistol dropping on the floor, causing the discharge of one of the chambers. Fortunately, there was no one hurt.

A DOG BITE.—One of the canine species, supposed to be in a rabid state, which had just bitten a man on the finger, was shot by Officer Parker, Friday night, on Carondelet street, between Delord and Calliope.

CRUSHED TO DEATH UNDER A CART.—Shortly after ten o'clock yesterday morning as Marcellus Martin, an old man, was driving a cart loaded with iron, near the corner of White and Thalia streets, his mule became restive, and, while endeavoring to pass over him, Martin accidentally fell from the cart, when one of the wheels passed over his breast. He was at once conveyed to his residence, corner of Thalia and Basin streets. Medical aid was soon in attendance, but, notwithstanding every effort, he succumbed to his injuries, and within an hour of the accident he was dead.

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.—Religious Reception.—The Morning Star says: Our citizens will be pleased to learn that the contract for painting our grand old St. Patrick's Church has been given out, and that the work is to be commenced immediately. Every one should, therefore, come forward at once and give something toward defraying the expenses, which will be very heavy. We say every one, for St. Patrick's is the great central church of the city; the one toward which strangers visiting here always direct their steps, and from which they generally form their opinions of the zeal and devotion of our Catholic population. Let each one give something, no matter how small the amount may be, and we will guarantee that Father Allen, the reverend pastor, with his untiring energy and push, will soon make St. Patrick's what it should be—an ornament to the city and the pride of every Catholic heart. To-day at high mass, his grace, the most reverend Archbishop, will give confirmation at St. Patrick's, and will receive the vows of a young lady who is to be received into the order of the Sisters of Mercy. These ceremonies are very interesting, and will, no doubt, attract a large congregation. The ceremonies will commence at half-past nine o'clock.

GRAND ISLE.—This best of all the salt water bathing resorts, Grand Isle, the resort of the buccaneers of the Spanish Main, opened yesterday. Ben Margot, whose abilities as a host can not be denied, has laid in extra inducements in the way of Gus Heron, and S. D. Dixon, commonly called Sam; and, still further encroaching upon the patience of those who "can't-get-away," he has induced Gus Richards to run a steamboat there twice or three times a week during the season. The surf at Grand Isle is well known as not only the finest, but the safest on the continent; and the beach here can not be beaten anywhere, we don't care where it is. Let our people patronize that which is nearest home, and in reality puts money in their own pockets by keeping it at home, while it fills all the dreams of soft laziness for the lotus eating eason, that are so often found wanting in the celebrated Northern resorts.

USING THE RAZOR.—The corner of Rouseau and Second streets was last night about eight o'clock, the scene of a serious difficulty between Andrew Hall and Robert Hopkins. Fists not being considered sufficiently effective, Hall drew a razor, and seriously cut his opponent in the left arm. Hall was then arrested, and placed in duress vile at the sixth precinct station, and Hopkins was taken to the nearest drug store to have his wound attended to.

THE ATLANTIC GARDEN.—Now, that the extreme hot weather is upon us, the most pleasant and agreeable way of being relieved from the oppressive atmosphere is sought. The theatres are closed, and most all the places of public amusement being shut up for a brief season, the only place where real enjoyment can be procured is at the "Gardens." Every evening these places are crowded by a delighted mass of our best citizens, who enter into the enjoyment offered with a zest. Among the most prominent of these gardens is the "Atlantic Garden," on Baronne street. This is under the management of Mr. Max E. Elkin. An entertainment is here offered that but few of the best varieties of theatres in the North can boast of. Miss Letta Aaron, the charming and beautiful vocalist, who created such a sensation in the North, the Robinson family, are well worth seeing. They are pleasing and fascinating in the hand on board the steamer City of Alton, who fell overboard, as she was backing out, several days ago, and was drowned. The river, below the monitors.

THAT DOG.—Adam Raparic accused William Farley yesterday, before Assistant Recorder Houston, of stealing a Newfoundland dog, value $15, on the twenty-sixth of May last, from the corner of Rampart and Gravier streets. Several counsel were engaged pro and con. After a lengthy and wordy examination, Farley was sent to the First District Court under $500 bond.

GOING TO THE GROCERIES.—On Friday night some unknown knights of the crew bar entered Boutte's coffeehouse, corner of St. Louis and Dauphine streets, and bought away three bottles of fruit, one bottle of champagne, thirty cigars, eight billiard balls, five dollars' worth of checks, one pair of shoes and $150 in currency. As yet no clue is obtained of the thieves.

QUARANTINE.—At a meeting of the Board of Health the President was instructed to communicate to the Governor of the State the request of the board that he should issue his proclamation of quarantine as against the following ports: Havana, Matanzas, Trinidad, Curdema and Santiago all in the island of Cuba; Port Royal and Montego-Bay, in the island of Jamaica; Jacmel and Port-au-Prince, in the island of St. Domingo; the islands of St. Thomas, Martinique and Guadalupe; Campeche, in Yucatan; Belice, in Honduras; Vera Cruz, Alvarado, Tampico, Matamoros and Tuxpan, in Mexico; San Juan, in Nicaragua; Chagres, Aspinwall and Porto Bello, in Central America; Maracaibo, in Venezuela; Laguayra, island of Trinidad, Rio Janeiro, Para, Cayenne and Buenos Ayres, in South America; Nassau, in New Providence, and Fernambuco, in Brazil.

CRIMINAL COURT.—John Johnston, convicted of assault and battery, on March 11, on Charles Kenny, but recommended to the mercy of the court, was yesterday sentenced to pay $58 and costs, or one month in the Parish Prison.

John Ross, who pleaded guilty to having stolen, on the fifth of May, a pocket-book, with $5, from Frederick Horst, at the Turner maffest, was sentenced to four months Parish Prison.

William Jones, who pleaded guilty to stealing, on the twenty-first of May, a pair of shoes valued at $150, from August Geavens, was sentenced to ten days Parish Prison.

Louis Souer, convicted of stealing on the fifth of May, from Captain Charles Dunn, of the schooner Lilly Dunn, on the Old Basin, groceries valued at $4, while employed on said schooner as cook, went to the Penitentiary for eight months.

The sentence of Stephen Alexander, charged with carrying concealed weapons, which had pleaded guilty, was continued.

D. M. C. Hughes, Esq., counsel for Jerry Wilson, charged with stealing Dr. M. A. Southworth's tin box and $300, obtained a new trial for his client.

The following information were filed by District Attorney Luzenberg: Y. Dupre, entering a dwelling house in the day time, without breaking, with intent to steal.

Ned, alias Kitch Malone, and Charles Johnson, embezzlement.

John Goodier, indicted by a true bill of the grand jury, on the fourth instant, for assault with a pistol on Peter Kerth, on the sixteenth May, was arraigned, pleaded not guilty, and released on $500 bonds.

St. Patrick's Church.—Religious Reception.—The Morning Star says: Our citizens will be pleased to learn that the contract for painting our grand old St. Patrick's Church has been given out, and that the work is to be commenced immediately. extreme. Miss Jennie Wilkison and a superior company engaged at this theatre, and those who visit it can rely upon having a good time.

DOLLY VARDEN REVEALERS.—It would be impossible to depict a grayer scene than that presented last evening by the Dolly Varden Revelers, at Oakland Park. The whole affair went off with perfect satisfaction to all present, and with great credit to the Revelers' managing committee. May the Dolly Varden Revelers "live long and prosper."

GOING TO EUROPE.—We are given to understand that that jolly fellow and genial manager of the New Shades saloon, No. 14 Perdido street, Mr. Willie McCubbin, is about to leave the Crescent City for a time, and with his son take a trip to Scotland, and once more tread upon his native heather, or rather that of his ancestors, where he will remain until about the beginning of October, when he intends to return and enter into business in this city with improved health and extra vigor. His old friends here will not, it is certain, fail to give him a farewell call, and wish him good speed, and during his stay in the "land o' cakes."

AN APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC.

A Noble Charity About to be Closed for Want of Funds.

The undersigned ladies, directresses of St. Anna's Asylum, beg to lay before the public a simple statement of the affairs of the institution, and to ask its aid. The treasurer's statement of this day shows that we have a balance in the treasury of $221, and only $100 in currency. We have seventy-eight inmates, fifty-six women and twenty children; our monthly expenses are from $500 to $700. It will, therefore, be seen that if a generous public does not come forward and assist us in this our great need, we shall be compelled to close the doors of the asylum. Being without endowment or other property of any kind, we have no other visible means of obtaining aid. The small amount we receive from the city is in such a shape as to be, at this time, quite useless. The earnings of the laundry are able to work is not more than $80 or $90 per month. This institution, incorporated in 1859, is founded on the broad basis of universal charity, giving home to the aged and destitute; to the widow, with her family of helpless little ones, without distinction of country or religion. Surely, we may hope that the good people of this city, who have been so long and so faithfully benefitted by our charity, may find enough kind hearts ready to come to our assistance, so that we may be able to keep within our walls those aged and friendly people, many of whom have been here for numbers of years. We earnestly pray that this appeal may not be made in vain.

Donations in money will be very gratefully received (by post or otherwise) by any of the unfortunates. Donations in groceries and dry goods may be sent to the asylum, corner of Prytanis and St. Mary streets: Mrs. James Clarke, corner of Fourth and St. Charles streets.

Mrs. C. Toby, No. 167 Orange street. Mrs. G. C. Lawson, No. 50 Rampart street.

Mrs. R. Charles, No. 16 Polynia street. Mrs. J. P. Harrison, corner of Second and Carondelet streets.

Mrs. S. H. Kennedy, corner of Camp and First streets.

Mrs. James Hewitt, corner of Fourth and Chestnut streets.

A quiet and unobtrusive man is our friend Tom Sheehan, who, during the past two years in Administrator Bonzano's office, and previously in the Internal Revenue Department, has by courteous regard for the public, won a host of friends among our citizens. Quiet as he is, Mr. Sheehan has not been neglected of his own people, however, as is proven by his capture of one of the fairest prizes in the city. A notice elsewhere informs us that he has joined in the holiest of life's partnerships with the daughter of our old and lamented friend, the late John Armstrong, Esq., and we but express the hopes of all the many friends of the parties in wishing that the fullest and brightest of hymenial blessings may befall the happy pair.

Niagara Falls, Boston and Virginia Springs, round trip. Tickets good until October 31. For sale only at No. 104 Common street. Bofinger & Pegram, agents.
