

SINGLE COPIES; TEN CENTS.

TERMS: $16.00 PER ANNUM.

VOLUME VI—NO. 78.

NEW ORLEANS, WEDNESDAY, JULY 10, 1872.

WHOLE NUMBER 1603.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE ENTERTAINMENTS AT IDLEWILD.

A little above Napoleon avenue, will be continued during the summer.

ON SATURDAY EVENINGS. The ladies and gentlemen of the management return thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed upon them, and promise to afford weekly a delightful and amusing evening's recreation.

HURRAH! HURRAH! HURRAH! FOR GREELY AND BROWN.

GRAND FESTIVAL AND PICNIC OF THE GREELY AND BROWN LIBERAL PARTY.

To be given at the Magnolia Garden, Bayou Bridge.

On Wednesday and Thursday, July 17 and 18, 1872.

COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS: His Excellency Governor H. C. Warmoth, Chairman.

Speeches will be delivered by prominent orators of the party.

Admission for the two days fifty cents. Ladies and children free.

FAIR AT ALGIERES. Church of the Holy Name of Mary.

The ladies of Algiers, wishing to help the Mariet Fathers to complete their new church, have organized a Grand Fair and a course of very interesting entertainments.

Saturday Evening, July 6, and continuing for nine consecutive days.

There are at least a dozen of the most beautiful and elegant of the new of the morning star, at Mr. Geary's book store.

Hotels and Restaurants. BARNES HOTEL.

MISSISSIPPI CITY, MISSISSIPPI. Having been thoroughly refitted and painted, is now in complete order.

RESTAURANT. ON PORTCHASTRAIN WARE.

The public is notified that I have perfected my arrangements for the summer season.

GRAND ISLE HOTEL. ON THE SHORE OF THE GULF OF MEXICO.

THE ONLY REAL WATERING PLACE IN THE SOUTH.

Will Open on the Fifteenth of June, 1872.

The entire premises have been thoroughly overhauled, repainted, etc.

BOUDO'S RESTAURANT. AT THE LAKESIDE OF THE PORTCHASTRAIN RAILWAY.

Is Now Open for the Season.

MISCELLANEOUS. THE TRANSCRIPT.

LIBERAL ORGAN. Published at Washington, D. C.

For the Campaign. Let all who desire the success of the Liberal Republic ticket subscribe for and get uplets for the campaign.

DR. TRUDEAU INFORMS HIS PATIENTS.

STOCK TAXES. CITY TAXES. FRANCIS RAWLE.

STOCK, NOTE AND EXCHANGE BROKER.

Will attend to the payment of STATE and CITY TAXES and LICENSES at a liberal discount.

SCHILLINGER PAVEMENT COMPANY.

Office No. 27 Carondelet street.

This pavement is a concrete stone, laid in squares of any desired size, shape or color.

1872.

BUSINESS CARDS.

FARLEY, BRIGHT & CO. Cotton Factors and Commission Merchants.

No. 73 Carondelet Street, New Orleans.

We are prepared to make liberal advances on consignments of cotton, sugar and wheat.

H. W. FARLEY. Cotton Factors and Commission Merchants.

No. 132 Pearl Street, New York.

Consignments solicited, on which liberal advances are made.

D. B. KENDRICK. House and Ship Plumber, Gas-Fitter, Etc.

No. 64 Magazine street, near the corner of Rose street, New Orleans.

Dealer in Plumbing and Gas-Fitting Materials.

RICHARD BROADHURST. CISTERNA MAKER.

132... Julia street... (Between Camp and Magazine.)

Second hand cloths always on hand.

PATENTS. AMERICAN AND FOREIGN.

JENKINS & OLMSTEAD. Architects and Engineers.

No. 27 Commercial place, New Orleans, Louisiana.

REPAIRING & BARNET. UPHOLSTERING AND FURNITURE DRESSING.

Carpet, Mattings and Oil Cloths cleaned and repaired.

JOHN GAYLOR. Proprietor of Phoenix Stables and Undertaker.

No. 27 Strayan Place, opposite Pontchartrain railroad, Third District, New Orleans.

DR. J. H. BARKER. Physician and Surgeon.

No. 25 N. 11th Street, New Orleans.

Plantation, shipping and city orders promptly filled.

JOHN A. CARTER. At the office of C. K. Kellogg, Register in Bankruptcy.

SAMUEL & KNOPF. DEALERS IN BOOTS AND DRESSED LEATHER.

No. 25 N. 11th Street, New Orleans.

JOHN G. ELLIOTT. DEALER IN GAS-FITTERS.

114 Poydras street, the largest and finest assortment of goods in his branch of business.

P. A. MURRAY. CISTERNA MAKER.

No. 191 Magazine Street, between Julia and St. Joseph Streets.

Clothes made to order and repaired.

DR. JOSEPH G. ANGELL. DENTAL SURGEON.

Office and residence, 152... Julia Street... NEAR CAMP.

HOUSES—MILLS—THE UNDERSIGNED takes this method of informing the public.

JAMES RAGAN. Steam Saw Station, 134 Baronne street.

DR. J. H. BARKER. PLUMBING MATERIALS.

SULLIVAN & BULGER. PLUMBERS AND GAS-FITTERS.

112 Poydras, next door to Camp street.

LOTTERIES. DRAWING OF THE LOUISIANA STATE LOTTERY FOR JULY 9, 1872.

Table with columns for numbers 1-20 and corresponding amounts.

THE ABOVE DRAWINGS are published in all the principal papers, and are drawn in public daily at the National Lottery Office.

30,000 Numbers—Tickets Only $20. 1st prize of $20,000... 2nd prize of $10,000... 3rd prize of $5,000...

30,000 Numbers—Tickets Only $20. 1st prize of $20,000... 2nd prize of $10,000... 3rd prize of $5,000...

POLITICAL GLEANINGS.

The fact that on Monday, just after the rumor was circulated of the formation of an "old citizens white ticket," Senator Kellogg called on Governor Warmoth, has given rise to many surmises and conjectures.

Some knowing ones pretend to see in it a prospect for Republican consolidation, Kellogg to retire on a guarantee of the Senate; others pretend to a knowledge that the Governor would listen to no proposals that required even a quasi support of Grant.

We see in it nothing but the customary exchange of social courtesies proper between gentlemen of high position, nor have we been able to ascertain that there was any other significance in the call.

The topic of conversation around the Pinchback headquarters on Dryades street, yesterday, was the new combination ticket of the Bourbons and Reformers.

There and at the various club rooms, and other places of political gossiping, Republicans seemed to regard it as calculated to drive every element of their party together, declaring that Kellogg, with Antoine for his speedy successor, shall be carried "with a whoop" into power, rather than such a ticket should win.

With the Legislature that would thus go into power with Kellogg, there would not be the remotest chance for reform, but at whose door would lie the blame?

The Liberals evidently regard this ticket as a bluff to scare Governor Warmoth out of the field, made by the members of the two committees, who daily seeing their strength diminishing, and knowing that the rank and file will all desert after the result of the Baltimore convention is announced, leaving them like generals without an army, feel the necessity of a desperate step in order to gain some sort of recognition from the young giant party that is swallowing them up. The game won't win—they don't hold a trump card.

Uncomprehending, straight-out Democrats are wildly indignant. What right have these committees to wipe out of existence the Opera House ticket, and constitute in its place a hybrid affair not half so popular? It is not a jewel, tenfold more a favorite than old Dennett's—and the query of a leading Democratic politician, "Who the devil is Lafargue?" was wonderfully re-echoed by a dozen indignant bystanders—not one present, by the by, ever before having heard of him except the writer.

Whence do these committees derive their authority for making a ticket? Did the Reform or Democratic conventions delegate such powers? Can the astute Mr. Lasere tell us if the Opera House convention did not expressly refer to confer such authority upon his select little body, when it kicked out the conference report, and again when it would not permit Carlton Hunt's whereabouts and resolves to be even read?

We do not believe Mr. Lasere, at least, thinks the people will have a close corporation job of this sort thrust down their throats. He is too shrewd a judge of the political disposition of our people and the jealous regard they entertain for their rights. It is therefore probable that he intends this move as a little bluff at the Liberal convention.

Mr. Billings' friends are smugly rubbing their itching palms over the news from Washington. Grant gave Marrill a three-hour interview at Long Branch, and the documents he presented bore such convincing proof of the corruption and dark ways of Packard et al., in their management of the Baton Rouge convention, that Grant's sense of justice has been roused to indignation, so that he has finally determined to kick overboard the whole caboodle, from brother-in-law down to Sandy Packer, and by so doing reunite in bonds of fraternal love, under the benignant guidance of the smiling and gentle, mainly Billings, every "scattered fragment of the great Republican party.

Charming simplicity! Hopeless credulity! The idea of Grant keeping about his person anything like a "sense of justice," or sacrificing one of his relatives for the mere trifle of running a convention by means of government funds and patronage, should be sufficient warrant for the interdiction of any one entertaining it.

And speaking of Sandy Packer reminds us that he made a raid upon the parish of St. John the other day and came to grief—in fact, the last we heard of him he was "playing checkers with his nose" at the parish jail.

Be it known that the people of St. John "go for Warmoth." Under whatever name or guise, the Governor has a pleasant savor in their nostrils. Now, Sandy, as political agent and embassy for the Customhouse, from which he draws pay, determined to reform the St. Johnites, leading himself for the purpose with red-eye, and a revolver that is said to be something wonderful for size and complexity of machinery. Finding the people would not listen to his teachings, nor have heught to do with those who sent him, Sandy waxed wroth, and threatened to annihilate an entire community with his portable "Gatling." Alas, that such greatness should fall so low. An irreverent son of a constable charged him with carrying concealed weapons, and with keeping the peace, locked up this representative of the best government in the calaboose.

The point in this little narrative is the fact that men are kept drugging the United States treasury whose sole duties are to elect one through the State for the Baton Rouge ticket.

ASSASSIN NOTICE Nos. 101, 102 AND 103.—See special notice column, death of M. Estella, William French and H. C. Skardo. Payable at the office of the Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, Annual paid out since organization, $253,616.

The Heriville South says: We regret very much to hear that there is no abatement of the carbon on Bayou Grose Tete and Maringouin. The loss of stock has already been very great, and will necessarily cause a falling off in the crop of that section of the parish. Those who have no means to replace the lost animals are unfortunately indeed, and those who can purchase other stock fear to do so at present.

The Radical orator who enlivened Grant as the puppet man who ever lived next to the Saviour has found his match in the up-country editor who asserts that Greeley wields the acts of the apostles.

BY TELEGRAPH.

LATEST NEWS FROM ALL POINTS.

OUBAN WAR SOONER PIONEER HER SEIZURE BY A REVENUE CUTTER.

NEW PRESIDENT OF ERIE REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENTS IN MEXICO.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION DOOLITTLE PERMANENT PRESIDENT.

ADDRESS ON TAKING THE CHAIR THE ANTI-GREELEY DEMOCRATS.

Committee on Permanent Organization.

BALTIMORE. Democratic National Convention—Gavel of the President, Democratic Convention.

Mr. Belmont's Doilittle Permanent President—His Speech on Taking the Chair—The Anti-Greeley Democrats.

BALTIMORE, July 9.—Last evening was devoted to meetings of delegations for organization. Speeches were made at several places in the city.

The political situation is unchanged, and the speaker is nearly an octogenarian, though it is still the paramount theme.

Mr. Sambola, of Louisiana, and six friends bolted. The bolters held a preliminary meeting at the residence of...

Louisiana, Colorado, Minnesota, Nevada, New Jersey and Oregon were not represented in the meeting of the national committee yesterday.

The Pennsylvania delegation comprised by the following resolution: Resolved, That the chairman be instructed to cast the vote of this delegation for each delegate shall direct, and that he is hereby authorized, when two-thirds of the convention shall have voted for a candidate for President, to instruct the delegates to move to make such nomination unanimous.

The Georgia delegation is unanimous for Greeley, with some modification and additions to the platform.

The Louisiana delegation has but one straight-out nomination man, but will support Greeley if the convention nominates him.

The Mississippi delegation has resolved to coincide with a majority of the convention, whatever its action may be.

Delaware will vote, for the first time, for a straight-out Democratic candidate.

Calling the convention to order, Mr. Belmont said: Gentlemen of the Convention—It is again my honor to welcome the delegates of the national Democracy, who have met in order to present to the American people candidates for President and Vice President.

The Democratic and Conservative voters of this great republic. At our last national convention, on the fourth of July, 1868, I predicted that the result of the election would be the gradual usurpation of all the functions of the government by the executive and by Congress, to be enforced by the bayonets of a military despotism.

The vast majority of the people of the United States have witnessed with grief and sorrow the correctness of that prediction. We are now in the midst of a great and dangerous crisis.

Mr. Billings' friends are smugly rubbing their itching palms over the news from Washington. Grant gave Marrill a three-hour interview at Long Branch, and the documents he presented bore such convincing proof of the corruption and dark ways of Packard et al., in their management of the Baton Rouge convention, that Grant's sense of justice has been roused to indignation, so that he has finally determined to kick overboard the whole caboodle, from brother-in-law down to Sandy Packer, and by so doing reunite in bonds of fraternal love, under the benignant guidance of the smiling and gentle, mainly Billings, every "scattered fragment of the great Republican party.

Charming simplicity! Hopeless credulity! The idea of Grant keeping about his person anything like a "sense of justice," or sacrificing one of his relatives for the mere trifle of running a convention by means of government funds and patronage, should be sufficient warrant for the interdiction of any one entertaining it.

And speaking of Sandy Packer reminds us that he made a raid upon the parish of St. John the other day and came to grief—in fact, the last we heard of him he was "playing checkers with his nose" at the parish jail.

Be it known that the people of St. John "go for Warmoth." Under whatever name or guise, the Governor has a pleasant savor in their nostrils. Now, Sandy, as political agent and embassy for the Customhouse, from which he draws pay, determined to reform the St. Johnites, leading himself for the purpose with red-eye, and a revolver that is said to be something wonderful for size and complexity of machinery. Finding the people would not listen to his teachings, nor have heught to do with those who sent him, Sandy waxed wroth, and threatened to annihilate an entire community with his portable "Gatling." Alas, that such greatness should fall so low. An irreverent son of a constable charged him with carrying concealed weapons, and with keeping the peace, locked up this representative of the best government in the calaboose.

The point in this little narrative is the fact that men are kept drugging the United States treasury whose sole duties are to elect one through the State for the Baton Rouge ticket.

ASSASSIN NOTICE Nos. 101, 102 AND 103.—See special notice column, death of M. Estella, William French and H. C. Skardo. Payable at the office of the Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, Annual paid out since organization, $253,616.

The Heriville South says: We regret very much to hear that there is no abatement of the carbon on Bayou Grose Tete and Maringouin. The loss of stock has already been very great, and will necessarily cause a falling off in the crop of that section of the parish. Those who have no means to replace the lost animals are unfortunately indeed, and those who can purchase other stock fear to do so at present.

The Radical orator who enlivened Grant as the puppet man who ever lived next to the Saviour has found his match in the up-country editor who asserts that Greeley wields the acts of the apostles.

of the Declaration of Independence is to inaugurate the struggle of the Democracy for freedom and equality for every American citizen against oppression and tyranny in our fair land.

Randolph was elected by acclamation. He said: "I am aware that the very great honor conferred upon me by this body is due to no personal merit of my own, but is a token of respect to the State from which I come, and is a recognition of other circumstances, possibly adventitious, and, perhaps, in some respects, accidental, and a life of eighty years spent in the Democratic-Republican party, can attest me a senior member. I remember freely every presidential contest, from the first election of Jefferson to the present, and I can say with truth that I remember none which involved higher questions of personal liberty, local self-government, honest administration, and constitutional freedom than the present, or one which required of our party and our people a calmer or more earnest resort to fundamental principles.

And of this hour to wrest the government from the hands of its present despotic and corrupt holders, and to place it in honest hands, to restore the sacred rights and all the States perfect integrity of local self-government. This, with the recognition of the supremacy of the civil constitution, and the right, in my judgment, discharge all present duty.

The gavel used by the speaker is made from a piece of live oak taken from the old frigate Constitution.

Greeley's address appeared on the platform and was cheered.

Mr. Belmont's remarks were frequently interrupted by moderate applause. The mention of Greeley's name received a great and prolonged approval.

The band played Dixie as Mr. Randolph took his seat as temporary chairman. [Cheers.] His speech was delivered with much energy and effectiveness, considering that the speaker is nearly an octogenarian, and was repeatedly cheered.

Rev. Henry Slicer, being present, addressed the Thruway Convention, and was adopted. A resolution of thanks to Mr. Belmont was adopted, after which a recess was taken until four o'clock.

At four o'clock, the hall was elected permanent chairman. Senator Bayard and Governor Hoffman conducted him to the chair. He was received with great applause and as he took the chair, he said: Gentlemen of the Convention—I thank you for this great honor, words can hardly tell how much, but you will allow me to pass as once from the subject of office—[applause.] It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]

It means a union of men which brings us here. Two years ago, nearly five years after the bloody period of civil war had closed, the Liberal Republicans of this country, and in nearly all the avails of the prescriptive test, the hates, and the stripes, and the passions the war had left upon them longer after the war itself, and in the midst of a general election, a federal power in their local elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all our citizens. [Applause.]