CONFERENCES AND POSSIBILITIES.

It is known generally that the committees representing the McEnery and the Penn tickets are negotiating for a compromise which will place them in the field upon a united national and State ticket.

If the joint Democratic-Liberal ticket should be headed by a Republican, sound and tried, we see for it an easy victory. Confidence in the determination of the people to bury past animosities and prejudices would be at once established, and Liberal Republican leaders could appeal to their followers with confidence that their interests lay in a hearty fraternization with their old political opponents.

The proposed coalition of the two wings of Grant Republicans takes a much more practical shape. Already have they settled on a joint electoral ticket, determining wisely not to fritter away their strength on the presidential question, no matter how widely they may continue divided on State nominees.

Therefore, taking the above as an accurate summary of the political chances, and we have every reason to believe in its correctness, the situation is squarely presented to the conservatives in this shape: The choice is before you, to take a Reform Republican and with him beat the united Grant forces, securing a government of the people, in the interest of the people; or to pursue the suicidal policy of the past few months and chance the election of a State government chosen and controlled by the black population only.

Hon. John C. Connor, member of Congress, on his way to Galveston, where there is a prospect, we are informed, of his engaging in journalism. Mr. Connor was thorough-going Democrat, but has taken active part in the Liberal movement, having just concluded a stumping tour of his native State, Indiana, with Carl Schurz, Governor Hendricks, George W. Julian and others.

SALE AT AUCTION BY THE SHERIFF OF THE PARISH OF ORLEANS—Particular attention is called to the sale at auction to be made this day at noon, by the sheriff, at the St. Louis Auction Exchange, in the basement rotunda of the St. Louis Hotel, St. Louis street, between Chartres and Royal streets, consisting of a piece of ground on St. Peter street, Second District of this city.

THE RIVERS, The river here is twelve feet six inches below high water mark of 1871. The thermometer at Louisiana Frigories, No. 50 Chartres street, yesterday stood as follows: At 8 A. M., 82°; at 2 P. M., 90°; at 6 P. M., 89°. Lowest point during the night of August 21, 75°. Rain August 22, one-twentieth of an inch.

THE CITY HALL.

The work of "pile driving" for the lake shore revetments has already commenced, and a dredgeboat will be set in operation on the line at an early day next week.

Several citizens propose to establish a band of musicians, of sufficient number and talent to compare favorably with those of Northern cities. If the Council will consent to employ the band in the public squares three evenings in the week, it is believed private enterprise will complete the organization.

It is ascertained that of the ten per cent bond fund there is about $54,000 to its credit, which is a little more than necessary to pay the October interest. The question arises, what shall be done with this surplus, it is stated, will bring up before the City Council a measure for the appropriation of this surplus to the payment in advance of such coupons as the holders thereof may desire advance payments upon, terms of discount to be fixed and agreed upon by the City Council.

The Administrator of Accounts does not anticipate that there will be any of these bonds bought in by the city this year. This is the second year of the issue of these bonds. For the first year no tax was provided for the payment of the coupons, and consequently, all surplus funds were used in taking up the issues of the first year.

Among the Pine Woods, It is really delightful to get into the Sunday excursion train on the Jackson railroad which leaves at twenty minutes before eight o'clock in the morning, and whirled us as far as Magnolia, or any point this side of there, then to return by ten o'clock at night. The country air is bracing and invigorating, and those who avail themselves of the price of Sunday excursion tickets never regret it.

JACKSON RAILROAD FREIGHT, It is announced in another column by Major E. A. Burke, freight agent, that on after to-day all freight to be forwarded over the New Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern railroad will be received at the freight depot, corner of Front and Callopie streets, in the building known as the Vicksburg press. This new arrangement will be a matter of great convenience to the mercantile community.

RECENTLY when the French loan was voted by the National Assembly, two of the Japanese Ambassadors were present at the session. The poor Asiatics seemed frightened at the hurly-burly of a crowd of men getting up and sitting down, and uttering ejaculations of assent or dissent. Doubtless they left the chamber with a renewed contempt for the dignity and civilization of the white man.

CLUB MEETINGS LAST NIGHT.

Gratz Brown Guards, A meeting of this fine body of young men was held at the wigwam, corner of Carondelet and Delord streets, last evening. About a hundred members were present. Nothing but the regular routine business of the club was had, and the club adjourned early.

Orleans Club, This body, composed mainly of market men, a majority of whom have never been naturalized, but propose to be at the next election, met last evening at Carroll Hall, on Pryor street. They are somewhat at sea, politically, but having run across Judge E. T. Feltow, Mr. Frank McGloin and Arthur Gastineau, they listened to the speaker's voice and chose to adopt the last ditch of their abiding place. They may seek wiser advisers on these days, and when they do, the whisper of that advice will be, pay out no more money to lawyers for trying to defy the laws.

Democratic Broom Ranges, Last night there was a numerous attendance of the Democratic Broom Ranges club at their headquarters, in the rotunda of the St. Louis Hotel, President A. L. Tissot in the chair. Club business being transacted, the meeting was addressed at some length by Mr. Connors, representative of the second congressional district of Texas. The speaker throughout his address inveighed in bitter terms against President Grant, with his tyrannical and arbitrary administration, designating him as the modern Caesar, who had taken away the people's liberties and trodden them under his feet.

Christopher Columbus Democratic Club, Between two and three hundred of the members of the Christopher Columbus Democratic Club assembled last night at No. 233 Old Levee street. In the absence of the president, the meeting was called to order by Mr. Anselmo. The uniform of the club, consisting of blue collars and cuffs, with white straw hats trimmed with blue ribbon, was adopted, and having perfected arrangements for turning out in a procession on Saturday evening next with the Broom Ranges, the meeting adjourned.

SIXTH WARD DEMOCRATIC ROUGH AND READY CLUB, This club held a meeting last night at the Louisiana Hall, on Bayou road, between St. Claude and Trempe streets. With the exception of passing a resolution to turn out on Saturday night, there was no business of importance transacted, and the members adjourned after a short meeting.

HERMITAGE, The sign painter, of Girod street, corner of St. Charles, is painting several transparencies for the Penn Guards. Among them is a large transparency, bearing on one side the picture of Horace Greeley, and his words, "For thirty years I battled for the liberation of the slave, but never did it occur to me that I should be called upon to assist in the liberation of the master." On the reverse, a picture of D. P. Penn, the next Governor.

WE have information that Robert C. De Large, one of the colored Republican Congressmen from South Carolina, has written a letter, which will soon be published, in favor of Mr. Greeley for President. Judges Willard and Graham, Republicans of South Carolina, are also reported to be for Greeley.—New York World.

Other persons doubt the reported liberality of the Minister. LONDON, August 22.—Dispatches from Belfast last evening report the condition of the city as somewhat better than during the day. Encounters between the inhabitants had ceased, but mobs of desperadoes were still engaged wrecking houses. Noon.—Messrs. Gladstone & Co., large East India and China merchants, heretofore in first rate standing, have failed. Their liabilities are £2,000,000. The firm is represented in the directory of the Bank of England and other banking institutions, and their failure flattens the market for consols. The Prince of Wales has gone on a yachting excursion to the coast of France. General Sherman paid a visit to the ancient town of Dordrecht, in the Netherlands. The importation of Belgian coal continues on an extensive scale, being four shillings per ton cheaper than English coal. The Democratic convention of the third congressional district, held at Calvert yesterday, unanimously nominated Hon. D. C. Giddings for Congress. Des Moines, Iowa, August 22.—The Republican State Convention yesterday nominated J. T. Young as Secretary of State, and a full State ticket. MONTREAL, August 22.—Referring to organizations in aid of Cuba, the Governor General issued a proclamation against the infringement of the neutrality laws. CHICAGO, August 22.—The wheat crop was more disastrous than at the first expected. It is now estimated at 1,000,000 bushels. BALTIMORE, August 22.—John Ritchie, Democrat, has been renominated for Congress in the sixth Maryland district. BOSTON, August 22.—Thirty persons attended the State Labor Reform Convention held yesterday at South Framingham. No nominations. NASHVILLE, August 22.—Ex-Senator Fawcett was nominated for a Liberal election. SANTIAGO, August 22.—Race—Fifth day. First Race—Free handicap, purse $500, for all ages, over 100 yds. Won by Rizzo, time 1:04. Second Race—Handicap, purse $300, for two-year olds, one mile. This race was won by McDaniel, with a time of 1:20. Merodoc a couple of lengths easily in 1:20, Minnie W. third. Third Race—Sweepstakes for three-year olds, $100 entrance, 500 yds. added, 300 yds. added, two miles. Won by Heald, with a time of 3:30. ROCHESTER, August 22.—The Union this afternoon assembled authoritatively the Clerical Justice Church has declined the nomination of the Democratic convention for Governor. DOWNSVILLE, Texas, August 22.—Sheriff Schanley, who left here on the twentieth, with an escort of cavalry in quest of Francisco Flores, alias Chico, the murderer of Mr. Alexander, a prominent citizen, who was held nearly a year in a prison called the Bols, about thirty miles above here, they surrounded a nest of five Mexican marauders, four of whom succeeded in crossing the Rio Grande, while the fifth was captured by a body of Mexican cavalry, who were co-operating with the sheriff's party, and who hanged them. The fifth, while attempting to cross and when he had nearly reached the river, was killed by a shot from the Texas side. Two of the outlaws were brothers of Chion, who is reported to be still in Matamoros, and all were sentenced to prison. MEMPHIS, August 22.—L. O. C. Lamar was nominated for Congress by the Conservatives of the first congressional district of Mississippi. Rumors are rife this afternoon of a collision between the whites and blacks at Collierville, on the Charleston railroad, growing out of the lynching of a few negroes since a negro by the name of John Brown. At about five o'clock Sheriff Curry received a telegram asking for assistance. He immediately summoned a posse, and was going a special train, departed for that place. From information received by the 29th train to-night it seems that a body of armed Democrats, estimated at from 300 to 400 men, assembled about two miles from Collierville, and the sheriff, with 200 armed men, had gone to meet them. The negroes had arrested several planters and proposed to try them by a court martial. As the telegraph from Collierville, had accompanied the posse, it is impossible at this writing to obtain any definite information from the scene of disturbance. There is considerable excitement here to-night, and fears are entertained of a bloody collision. COLUMBIA, S. C., August 22.—The Republican State Convention reassembled this forenoon. The committee on credentials reported in favor of seating those contesting delegations who were believed to be in the interest of Moses. The report was adopted after a tedious debate. Congressman Elliott was made permanent president. The following nominations were made for Governor: Judge S. W. Melton, a native Carolinian; M. R. Delaney, a native African; Speaker F. J. Moses; Attorney General D. H. Chamberlain, and ex-State Auditor K. B. Tomlinson. Moses was evidently the favorite, and was warmly cheered. He was supported, among others by Congressman Elliott, who charged that State Controller Nagle had offered delegates large sums of money to vote for Chamberlain. Nagle retorted by charging Moses with offering delegates for votes. Judge Orr and ex-Congressman Whittemore made warm speeches in favor of Tomlinson, arguing his nomination as the only way to avoid a split in the party. Judge J. T. Mackey charged that Reuben Tomlinson had received tremendous bribes for aiding the passage of certain bills. The convention in an hour or more of confusion prevailed, during which charges of bribery and corruption were made to and fro. Delegates charged Moses with offering to buy their votes, and the discussion was most bitter. A ballot was then had, and F. J. Moses, Jr., was nominated on the first ballot. Judge J. L. Orr arose and said, knowing Moses' record, he could not conscientiously support him, and begged leave to withdraw from the convention. This is the beginning of the threatened split. Lamar was nominated for Congress by the Conservatives of the first congressional district of Mississippi. Rumors are rife this afternoon of a collision between the whites and blacks at Collierville, on the Charleston railroad, growing out of the lynching of a few negroes since a negro by the name of John Brown. At about five o'clock Sheriff Curry received a telegram asking for assistance. He immediately summoned a posse, and was going a special train, departed for that place. From information received by the 29th train to-night it seems that a body of armed Democrats, estimated at from 300 to 400 men, assembled about two miles from Collierville, and the sheriff, with 200 armed men, had gone to meet them. The negroes had arrested several planters and proposed to try them by a court martial. As the telegraph from Collierville, had accompanied the posse, it is impossible at this writing to obtain any definite information from the scene of disturbance. There is considerable excitement here to-night, and fears are entertained of a bloody collision. COLUMBIA, S. C., August 22.—The Republican State Convention reassembled this forenoon. The committee on credentials reported in favor of seating those contesting delegations who were believed to be in the interest of Moses. The report was adopted after a tedious debate. Congressman Elliott was made permanent president. The following nominations were made for Governor: Judge S. W. Melton, a native Carolinian; M. R. Delaney, a native African; Speaker F. J. Moses; Attorney General D. H. Chamberlain, and ex-State Auditor K. B. Tomlinson. Moses was evidently the favorite, and was warmly cheered. He was supported, among others by Congressman Elliott, who charged that State Controller Nagle had offered delegates large sums of money to vote for Chamberlain. Nagle retorted by charging Moses with offering delegates for votes. Judge Orr and ex-Congressman Whittemore made warm speeches in favor of Tomlinson, arguing his nomination as the only way to avoid a split in the party. Judge J. T. Mackey charged that Reuben Tomlinson had received tremendous bribes for aiding the passage of certain bills. The convention in an hour or more of confusion prevailed, during which charges of bribery and corruption were made to and fro. Delegates charged Moses with offering to buy their votes, and the discussion was most bitter. A ballot was then had, and F. J. Moses, Jr., was nominated on the first ballot. Judge J. L. Orr arose and said, knowing Moses' record, he could not conscientiously support him, and begged leave to withdraw from the convention. This is the beginning of the threatened split.
