

New Orleans Republican.

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE UNITED STATES OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF NEW ORLEANS

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN

May be had of the following dealers: George Ellis, opposite the Postoffice. C. C. Haley, No. 19 Commercial place. C. G. D. Hollé, No. 61 Exchange place. A. Simon, St. Louis street, between Royal street and Exchange alley (under St. Louis Hotel).

James Ennis, Pontchartrain railroad depot, Third District, also at depot, foot of Lafayette street, First District. J. W. Long, corner of Love and Esplanade streets, Third District. Variety news stand, corner Dauphine and Canal streets.

AUCTION SALES THIS DAY.

BY R. M. A. B. MONTGOMERY, at 10 o'clock, at the Police House, corner of Baronne and Canal streets, continued sales of contents of house, consisting of mahogany, walnut and rosewood furniture, etc. at 11 o'clock at 109 Poydras street, No. 27 Camp street, a general assortment of new and second-hand furniture, etc.

Local Intelligence.

SEASON CLOSED AT GRAND ISLE.—The Tuesday home trip of the steamboat Frazier from Grand Isle brought up all transient visitors, and this, in part, accounts for the number of healthy looking persons on our streets. Sum of the visitors informs us that they left with the greatest reluctance, as this is the pleasantest portion of the season to live there. One reason for closing so early is because of the cost of transportation, the steamboat expenses eating up the hotel profits. Mr. Ben Margot, one of the proprietors of the Grand Isle resort, is now better able than ever to cater to the wants of guests, and has already commenced preparations for next summer, intending to practice great liberality in his administration. He will make needed improvements, such as time and necessities have suggested. Mr. Margot requests us to return his warmest thanks to all who favored the late with a visit during the season, and hopes to see their pleasant faces again next year, when he will strive to make his establishment far more attractive than any watering place in the Union. This can be done, and the best talent will be secured to make all things as perfect as possible.

E. A. GIBOUX AND WIFE PRISONERS FOR A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS.—In the case of the State of Louisiana vs. E. A. Giboux and wife, charged with murder and accessory to the crime by Coroner Creagh, a writ of habeas corpus has been applied for by the counsel for the accused parties.

The petition reads as follows: To the Honorable the Judge of the First District, etc. The petition of E. A. Giboux and wife, who reside in the parish of Orleans, respectfully represents that they are illegally restrained and deprived of their liberty in the Parish Prison of this city, under a mittimus or commitment issued by the Hon. G. P. Houghton, recorder for the First District of Orleans; that they are informed, and verily believe, that they are entitled to their discharge, or, at least, to the privilege of being enlarged on furnishing sufficient securities, and that their only remedy at law for the present is the issuance of a writ of habeas corpus. Wherefore they respectfully pray that you may please your honor to issue a writ of habeas corpus directing J. A. Masiot, the sheriff of this court, to produce in open court the bodies of your petitioners, together with the cause of their capture and detention, and that the Attorney General or his representative be served with a copy of this petition, and that after due proceedings had in my please your honor to take such action in the premises as you may think most fit and proper.

INTERFERING WITH REGISTRATION.—C. L. Van Hooten arrested Tuesday evening by a deputy United States marshal, on the complaint of William F. Davies, one of the supervisors appointed by Judge Woods, appeared yesterday before Recorder Houghton, who dismissed the charge, he having no jurisdiction in the matter. Mr. Davies immediately appeared before United States Commissioner Wolff, and filed the following affidavit: United States of America, district of Louisiana, city of New Orleans.—Personally appeared before me, the undersigned, commissioner of the United States for the district of Louisiana, William F. Davies, who, being sworn, deposes and says: That he is a supervisor of election duly appointed and qualified under the provisions of an act of Congress of the United States entitled "An act to amend an act approved May 31, 1870, entitled an act to enforce the rights of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of this Union, and for other purposes," approved February 28, 1872, and of the amendatory thereof for the second ward of the parish of Orleans, and that, on the third day of September, 1872, while in attendance under the provisions of the said act, at the time and place in the said ward, fixed for the registration of voters, he, being registered, was entitled to vote for a Representative or delegate in Congress of the United States, one C. L. Van Hooten did then and there unlawfully interfere with and obstruct the discharge of his duties under the said act in refusing and preventing affiant from examining and inspecting the records of said registration. Wherefore, affiant prays that the said C. L. Van Hooten may be arrested and dealt with according to law.

WEST VIRGINIA.—A special from Charleston, West Virginia, to the Cincinnati Enquirer says: Camden's friends concede Jacobs' election as Governor by 100 majority, and that the new constitution is ratified by from 5900 to 6000 majority. There is also stated the Governor Jacobs, in answer to the question whether he would support Grant or Greeley, declared himself in favor of Greeley.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Last night there was another excellent audience at the Academy, and every one was delighted with the unique performance of Sergeant, the famous Illinoisist. His spirit clock and bell, his organ, egg and lemon trick, and his great hat trick, are among the best and most mysterious of his performances. He does not explain to the audience how he does these things, and they can not find it out.

RECORDED.—Early yesterday morning an ugly attempt was made to burn a building at the corner of Eighth and Laurel streets. A tin box containing coal and fat pine had been placed under the kitchen door, and fired. Fortunately some one discovered the flames in time to prevent a disaster. It is not known who the fiend is, or what his object was. The house is occupied by Mr. Meuck as a grocery, and there is no insurance. No alarm was rung.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER.—Mr. Van Hooten, on appearing before the commissioner, was placed under bonds in the sum of $500 to appear when wanted. Mr. B. P. Blanchard signing his bonds to that amount.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM.—People of New Orleans who pay five-eighths of the State taxes see to it. Impoverished people of the country parishes, see to it. The holders of State bonds, at home and abroad, see to it. If it might be suggested by those who do not want? See that the rotten tricks of a past political power don't number the way; see that the voice of the people, that the new constitution, the one of the voting and all of the groveling, and who are in the first rank to get a fat office, to which their interest does not extend, take place on the appointment of their present administration has to pay—echo answers, see to it.

THE TEMPERANCE.—The thermometer at Louis Frigier's, No. 29 Chartres street, yesterday stood as follows: At 8 A. M., 80°; at 2 P. M., 88°; at 6 P. M., 87°. Lowest point during the night of September 3, 70°.

SALE CONTINUED.—The sales at auction by Charles E. Fortier, auctioneer, of the contents of the jewelry store No. 784 Tchoupitoulas street, near Sorapara market, belonging to the succession of Mrs. Spitzmuller, will be continued to-day at half-past ten o'clock, and on the following days until the whole is closed. The sale is positive and without reserve.

AN ALGERS POLICE OFFICER.—Jerry Kaywood, an Algiers police officer, who was dismissed by the police board on the thirtieth ultimo, on a charge of cowardice and conduct unbecoming an officer in failing to come to the assistance of a brother officer, and finally when a prisoner was turned over to him failing to conduct him to the stationhouse, notwithstanding the prisoner had attempted the life of the officers to whose assistance Kaywood was called, was yesterday reinstated by the police board. The people of Algiers are to be congratulated and the police board complimented for their discrimination. Kaywood is a colored man, and it is said can neither read nor write.

A fig tree, which sprouted from the ground last spring in a gentleman's yard in the Fourth District, is to-day nearly four feet high and is bearing a crop of fruit. Even vegetation is growing "fat."

CRIMINAL COURT.—Adam Holmes was convicted of an assault and battery on William Allen, and recommended to the mercy of the court.

Robert Campbell was convicted of larceny. Charles Henry, charged with larceny, was acquitted.

Joe Jaquet, charged with assault and battery on F. Ladou, was acquitted.

In the case of James Thompson, charged with assaulting, with intent to commit murder, Alexander C. Hutchinson, a nolle prosequi was entered.

Also in the case of Edward Pollard, charged with larceny, and P. A. Boulard, charged with attempt to shoot one William Clark.

Edward Woods, convicted of wounding Benjamin Meyers with a razor, was sentenced to eight months Penitentiary. For another assault, to which he pleaded guilty, Woods was sentenced to ten days Parish prison.

William Kelly, Mary Jones and Jennie Henderson, charged with larceny; John Gray and Eliza Smith, charged with assault and battery, and Benjamin Scott, charged with assault by shooting, were arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

Givet Morant and Raphael Aden, charged with assault and battery on Jean Froutere, were acquitted.

ROBERTY.—A Nubian Thief and a Clumsy Politician.—While the Greeley Zouaves were passing down Magazine street last night, and the attention of everybody along the street was attracted by their line-up appearance and martial bearing, a young boy, about fourteen years of age, took advantage of the situation to enter the coffee-house of Mr. Charles Endel, and rob the money drawer of about ten dollars and some papers. He then entered the coffee-house of Adam Miller, with evidently the same object in view, but was detected by the inmates and made his escape.

He subsequently entered the grocery store of Mr. Wilmer, on Magazine street, between Seventh and Eighth streets, and robbed a drawer of an empty pocket book. He was pursued by Officer Nash, but owing to natural advantage in legs, eluded that officer's skill. The thief is described as a stout boy, about four feet five inches high, and is identified as the party who committed all three offenses. It looks as though there ought to be some promotions in the sixth precinct.

THE RIVERS.—Above low rise, fall, water mark. Stations: New Orleans, 0; Bayou Lafourche, 1; Bayou de l'Inde, 2; Bayou de la Platte, 3; Bayou de la Riviere, 4; Bayou de la Terre, 5; Bayou de la Vierge, 6; Bayou de la Vierge, 7; Bayou de la Vierge, 8; Bayou de la Vierge, 9; Bayou de la Vierge, 10.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

[Brief Communications Published—Long Ones Usually Rejected.—The Editor not Responsible for Opinions Expressed in the Communications.]

NEW ORLEANS, September 4, 1872. EDITOR REPUBLICAN: In reply to the card of Mr. Langdon, published under the head of "Personal" in this days' Pygmy, I beg to state the following facts: "Last, Saturday night, having business with Colonel Badger, I called at his office and, not finding him, took a seat to await his arrival. Soon after Mr. Langdon came in and greeted the gentlemen present, myself among the number. I then asked him if he knew who was the author of the communication in that evening's Pygmy signed 'S.' He said he did not. I then said that such communications should not be published, as they were calculated to injure the ticket, and that as General Sheridan had received the nomination, attacks of that character should not be permitted through the Pygmy."

Mr. Langdon replied that I was an ignorant and knew nothing about it, on which I told him that I might not be his equal as an ink-slinger and in the use of Billingsgate, and that I did not desire any further conversation with him. He then struck me on the arm with his cane, the cane broke, and I broke for him, and but for the kindly interference of a gentleman present the reportorial corps of the Pygmy would have been short-handed for some days at least.

I have an aversion to appearing in print, and sincerely regret the necessity for it, and would at any time prefer another mode of settling this question, and treat that Mr. Langdon is now of the same mind. Very respectfully, MYLES SHARKEY.

Meteorological and River Report. The signal service, United States Army, reports, for the benefit of commerce, the meteorological record, and rise or fall of the rivers, at 3:43 P. M., local time, yesterday, as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Place, Ther. Wind, Weather. Rows include New Orleans, Bayou Lafourche, Bayou de l'Inde, etc.

THE RIVERS.—Above low rise, fall, water mark. Stations: New Orleans, 0; Bayou Lafourche, 1; Bayou de l'Inde, 2; Bayou de la Platte, 3; Bayou de la Riviere, 4; Bayou de la Terre, 5; Bayou de la Vierge, 6; Bayou de la Vierge, 7; Bayou de la Vierge, 8; Bayou de la Vierge, 9; Bayou de la Vierge, 10.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

THE PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—One of the best places in New Orleans to buy furniture is at the extensive establishment of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, corner of Rampart and Perdido streets. His stock is the largest and most complete in the city, and his business connections are such that he is enabled to sell at lower prices than any other dealer. His method of doing business is the one price system, and he deals impartially in his transactions with customers.

A veteran in the trade, his house having been established in 1810, more than thirty years ago, Mr. Hubbard understands thoroughly every branch of the furniture business, from its manufacture to arranging it in his warehouse, packing it for shipment and delivering it to city purchasers. A visit to his immense furniture warehouses will well repay those who desire to buy, for the arrangement of his goods is such that they can be seen to good advantage.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Stomach as an Avenger.—For every breach of the laws of health that we commit the stomach inflicts a penalty. Headache, biliousness, nervous tremors, constipation, colic, heartburn, nausea, doleful and morose depression are only a few of the punishments which an outraged stomach is capable of inflicting upon us. To bring back this vital organ to its normal condition—to placate, invigorate and regulate it—there is nothing in the wide world so potent as a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Under the operation of this beneficent vegetable corrective and tonic the gastric fluids become a pure and healthful solvent and resume its natural flow. The effect is the same on the military stomach, and in fact on all the fluids of the body, and the final result is the removal of every painful or unpleasant symptom occasioned by the rebellious action of the digestive organ. send W.

New Orleans Clerks should Advise in the THREE-O'CLOCK PATROL, Home, Louisiana, 1872. Sun Mutual Insurance Company, September 4, 1872.—Scrip holders are hereby notified that the company is not ready to issue certificates of scrip for conversion into stock. Holders are requested to present their certificates without delay.

Parties desiring insurance are requested to notice that this office and reliable company is issuing policies on fire, river and marine risks upon the best terms, and at the lowest rates. The company, insured by it, are not only secure, but also receive dividends of their proportion of profits of the company. The company is not only secure, but also receive dividends of their proportion of profits of the company. The company is not only secure, but also receive dividends of their proportion of profits of the company.

Batchelor's Hair Dye.—This superb hair dye is the only one that will restore the hair to its natural color, and keep it from falling out. It is the only one that will restore the hair to its natural color, and keep it from falling out. It is the only one that will restore the hair to its natural color, and keep it from falling out. It is the only one that will restore the hair to its natural color, and keep it from falling out.

Grand Ratification of the Fusion Ticket.—The joint committee of arrangements of the Democratic, Liberal and Reform parties, appointed for the purpose of arranging for the ratification of the Fusion Ticket, held a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, on Tuesday, September 4, 1872, at 7 o'clock P. M. The meeting was attended by a large number of the friends of the Fusion Ticket, and the ratification was carried by a large majority.

Liberal Parish Executive Committee.—The Liberal Parish Executive Committee, organized on Tuesday, September 4, 1872, at 7 o'clock P. M., held a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. B. Hubbard, on Wednesday, September 5, 1872, at 7 o'clock P. M. The meeting was attended by a large number of the friends of the Liberal Party, and the business of the committee was transacted.

Succession of Caroline Calm, Widow of B. Calm, deceased.—The Succession of Caroline Calm, widow of B. Calm, deceased, is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife.—The Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of William Boby.—The Succession of William Boby is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife.—The Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of William Boby.—The Succession of William Boby is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife.—The Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of William Boby.—The Succession of William Boby is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife.—The Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of William Boby.—The Succession of William Boby is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife.—The Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of William Boby.—The Succession of William Boby is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife.—The Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of William Boby.—The Succession of William Boby is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife.—The Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of William Boby.—The Succession of William Boby is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife.—The Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of William Boby.—The Succession of William Boby is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The Succession is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased.

Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife.—The Succession of Jerome Roberts and wife is now open for the purpose of settling the estate of the deceased. The