

New Orleans Republican

SPECIAL JOURNAL OF THE UNITED STATES OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF NEW ORLEANS

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN May be had of the following dealers:

George Hills, opposite the Postoffice. C. C. Haley, No. 19 Commercial place. C. G. Halle, No. 61 Exchange place. A. Simon, St. Louis street, between Royal street and Exchange alley (under St. Louis Hotel).

James Enoch, Pontchartrain railroad depot, Third District, also at depot, foot of Lafayette street, First District. Variety news stand, No. 38 Dauphine street, between Customhouse and Bienville streets.

RECEPTIONS THIS DAY.

BY R. M. & B. J. MONTGOMERY, at 11 o'clock, at No. 27 Natchez street, a general assortment of second hand furniture, etc.

BY S. GUNNALT, at 12 o'clock, at Merchants and Auctioneers' Exchange, lot of ground and buildings corner of Love and St. Anthony streets—succession of Eugene Joquet Trucant.

BY SHIRIFF BARBER, at 12 o'clock, at Merchants and Auctioneers' Exchange, tract of land on Chalmette, Adam and Gratien streets and Mississippi river—New Orleans Mutual Insurance Association vs. Louisiana Cotton Manufacture.

Local Intelligence.

STOLEN DEER.—Some sensible thief stole sixty pounds of good beef from a stall in the Dryades Market, owned by Mr. Simons. As all fresh grass, it is fair to suppose that that beef is, or soon will be, green for live hog to feed on.

The barquette on Lafayette street, at each corner of the police stationhouse, is in a broken condition, and has been for many weeks. Certain persons who pass that way invariably complain of the holes as real nuisances, and well they may, as most of them pay for the poor privilege of walking over them in company with a man in blue.

DISPROPRIATION.—Quite a number of small politicians yesterday flitted around the City Hall anxiously waiting the coming of the whales who had secured fat offices, but the whales did not appear, so that about two o'clock in the afternoon the small fry scouted off silently. Endoubtedly history repeats itself for "the boys are hungry." The great object did not seem to be their presence, as there was no occasion for their presence, but their presents will be acceptable, even before the holidays.

The examination of R. Murphy, for murder, will not take place until the twenty-seventh instant.

GOSE DOWN.—Skinny Rich, the young man who permitted some unknown person to place a chest of stolen tea on his shoulders late at night, has concluded, on request of Recorder Houghton, to see a petty jury about the matter and have the subject investigated.

Anthony Williams will go before the same body for carrying brass knuckles. Another case, of tobacco, is pending against him.

Remember the subscription party tonight to assist the widowed mother of the late Charles McCormack, at the Iron House Hall. She is worthy of the assistance.

A FRAUD.—Detective Pearson obtained a tasting and uncompromising denials for the fraternity "force." In fact he rather thinks them worse than the thief. He visited the establishment No. 37 Rampart street, kept by George Ritter, where he recovered several stolen articles. Ritter was permitted to go to prison for knowingly having stolen property in his possession. Assured must now stand the consequences, and more than that he is closely watched by police eyes.

A FIRE.—A one-story frame house, occupied by Mathias Muller and owned by William Hart, better denominated as old shanty, was completely destroyed by fire about two o'clock Thursday. Loss about $100. Mr. Muller lost all his furniture and effects. The fire originated from coal-logs from the fireplace to the floor, the building being unguarded when the accident occurred. When the fire was discovered the building was not nearly destroyed that an alarm was unnecessary.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The case of George Fritz, alias George Frey, charged with forgery of an order for the delivery of goods, was taken up yesterday morning. Mr. D. M. C. Hughes, as counsel for the accused, addressed the jury, after which a verdict of guilty was returned.

Colonel I. W. Patton, the criminal sheriff, yesterday morning wore in the following department: W. A. Hurd, chief deputy; Joseph T. Hill, Paul Breyer, Emile Ruiz, J. A. Fremoux, John Traut, R. L. Brown.

THE FAIR.—All who desire to pass a pleasant evening should improve the occasion and visit Lyceum Hall and contribute a mite to the orphans of Mount Carmel. The young ladies who assist at the fair are agreeable and persuasive.

We copy this from the Times of last evening: Administrator Lewis was passing a group of young men on Canal street the other day, when one of them, pointing to the Administrator, remarked irreverently: "There go the damned niggers who beat burglar!" Colonel Lewis turned round and good humoredly retorted: "Yes, and that's more than General Anderson could do!"

Louisiana probably consumes as much or more powder than any other State in this country, and those who use it generally know what sort is best, and amateurs are just now particular as to the kind they adopt. The Louisiana Eagle ducking and the above powder, found at the sportsman's depot, No. 55 St. Charles street, is crowned superior to all others, and Mr. Charleville makes such a statement understandingly. Hunters are informed that this powder is manufactured and put up with an express view to the peculiarities of this climate. This is an interesting fact to our people to-day, for game is abundant and fine. Call at No. 55 St. Charles street and ask Mr. Charleville for a few packages of this powder, the best in the world.

The Varieties Theatre last night presented a pretty appearance with the fashionable and refined audiences which was in attendance. The numbers exceeded the aggregate at both the other theatres, at one of which we noticed George Warmoth and at the other Mr. L. A. Wiltz, the fusion candidate for Mayor at the recent election.

The thermometer at Louis Frigero's, No. 50 Chartres street, yesterday stood as follows: At 8 A. M., 45°; at 2 P. M., 58°; at 6 P. M., 56°; lowest point during the night of November 21, 45°.

American Social Club.

The American Social Club had an inaugural reunion last evening at No. 36 Derogny street. The arrangement committed to E. Edwin Smith, chairman, L. L. Lamiere, Jr., S. D. Cooper, Samuel Lindenberg, M. Blanchard, G. G. Johnson, John E. Doune. The invitation committee consisted of W. R. Boyd, chairman, J. M. Vance, J. O. Haggott, L. St. Clair, A. Planchar and J. B. Hall.

The reception committee was constituted by John Armour, chairman, Jules Guignesse, R. J. Wilson, T. J. Morgan, Frank Robert, Louis Fortinasse, Charles H. Merritt, Cash Thornton and John J. White. The president of the club is James D. Kennedy and the secretary A. Lawrence Henderson.

The social reunion was pleasant and agreeable in the extreme, and then those who chose to danced all night till broad daylight, according to the programme, in the following order: Promenade, waltz, quadrille, schottische, mazourka, polka de salon, waltz, quadrille, schottische, mazourka, polka, promenade, waltz, cotillon, schottische, mazourka, polka de salon, waltz, quadrille, schottische, mazourka, polka, reel.

A constellation of sparkling beauty was there among the ladies, and rays of intelligence flashed from their bright eyes. The gentlemen embraced many well known citizens, who honored the occasion with their presence. That their next reunion may be as agreeable as this was the wish frequently expressed.

Another reporter adds: There were so many rich and elegant costumes that it would be almost impossible to make comparisons. They were all gay and beautiful. The ladies were gay and handsome, and it is almost impossible to designate which were the most beautiful. It is but just to say that we compliment the gentlemen of the American Social Club in their selection of ladies to grace their initial entertainment.

Meteorological and River Report. The signal service, United States army, reports, for the benefit of commerce, the meteorological record, and rise or fall of the rivers, at 3:30 P. M., local time, yesterday, as follows:

Table with columns: Place, Time, Wind, Weather. Rows include Chicago, St. Louis, New Orleans, etc.

THE RIVERS. Above low water mark. Station, Rise, Fall, Water mark. St. Paul, 1.0, 0.0, 1.0. St. Louis, 1.0, 0.0, 1.0. New Orleans, 1.0, 0.0, 1.0.

The river here fourteen feet eight inches below high water mark of 1871, and one foot one inch below low water mark at Shreveport.

A Big Tree. The towboat Crescent City, Captain Townsend, arrived here yesterday from St. Louis, with four barges. The aggregate cargo consisted of 31,167 bushels of corn in bulk, 426 barrels and 445 half barrels of flour, 498 barrels of oats, 1929 sacks of corn, 1903 sacks of meal, 1000 sacks of bran, 55 bales of hay, and 1 hoghead of tobacco. This was a big tree.

That favorite young actor, Mr. Roland Reed, happens not to be in the east at the Academy of Music this week. He is in the enjoyment of most excellent health, and will be ready for such a job as will adapt to the legitimate drama as it will be presented at the Academy next week, with Mr. Frank Mayo as the star.

The Kummis, Mississippi, Times says: On Friday last, the fifteenth instant, Mr. G. B. Waller and H. W. Taylor, his son-in-law, from the western part of Amite county, were held on their bodies, with a long retention. After disposing of the same and making some purchases, among other items some whisky, they left for home late in the evening. About eight o'clock on Saturday Mr. Sharpe, was notified that a desperate affray had occurred about one mile from town, on the Liberty road. Proceeding to the ground, he found both Waller and Taylor lying heavily, each with a long retained pistol shot wound, one in the muscle of his left arm, the other in the lower left breast. Taylor had received a terrible gash over his forehead, which had been placed in a wagon and brought to Dickey's Hotel, and physicians called in. Taylor died from the effects of his wound on the following (Saturday) night. An inquest was held on his body, but nothing reliable concerning the difficulty could be elicited. Waller still lies at the hotel in a very precarious situation, with very little hopes of his recovery.

Pennsylvania. The official returns from Pennsylvania show a majority for Grant of 137,545 votes. There were cast for Mr. Greeley 212,041, and for General Grant 319,553 votes, the total vote being 669,141. We are indebted for this information to the Times of New York. In 1852, when there was a total vote of 655,629, Mr. Seymour received 213,828 votes, Mr. Fremont 102,000, and Mr. Greeley received 339,799. In 1856, General Grant received 312,280 votes, or only 7300 less than at his last election, and had only a majority of 28,893.

The St. Louis Democrat has this paragraph: "The Captain Jim Crooks says that the Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with 1484 bales of cotton. These boats drew from sixteen to eighteen inches of water, and were forty days making the trip to Alexandria. One of the lightest of the eight boats was run on the flats, where she stuck on sixteen inches of water, and there she lay for three days. Red river is not so low as it was in 1865. At that time he commanded a fleet of eight flatboats, loaded with