FAIR FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE HOUSE OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD.—The series of entertainments heretofore announced to be held in the Lyceum Hall will, through the grace of the officers of the Grand Lodge of the Masonic order in tendering the free use of the hall, be held in the Masonic Hall, St. Charles street, commencing on Thursday evening, the twenty-rightly instant, continuing ten days. The "Sisters of the Good Shepherd" having in charge this noble charity, are a cloistered order, but do their good deeds for sweet charity's cake, and independent of religious distinctions. They can only ask for help from the outside world through their friends. They can not leave their conwent walls to tell of the good deeds they At we done, nor ask the world to give of its bounty to their small store. So a band of noble women have organized to render what aid they can to the holy sisters to encourage them in their ef-forts to reclaim the followers of Magdalen from their sinful ways. St. Patrick's table will be presided over by Mrs. John Far well, the Hibernian by Misses P. and M. Kennedy, the fusion by Mrs., T. M. Heatherton, the St. Joseph's by Muses. Christy and Kelson, the St. John's by Mrs. J. A. 'OMealtie, the postoffice and Gypsy's bower by Mines T. C. Farrell and Logan, the Good Shepherd by Miss M. Durkin, and the Immaculate Conception by Mrs. Caldwell. Each of these ladies will be assisted by a corp of bewitching young ladies, who will do all in their power to make their own beneficent in results. Upon this subject we copy the following Epon this subject we copy the following from the Catholic Propagator of this week; We are authorized to copy the following passage from a letter of our most reverend Archbishop, addressed to a person who was recommending to his grace the establishment of the Good Shepherd. This letter will be the best recommendation for the fair, which is to commence next Thursday, the twenty-eighth instant, for its benefit: "Independent of the interest which I bear to all our religious communities, whose services I appreciate, I interest myself particularly in our Convent of the Good Shepherd. Because I contributed, forty years group the most entertaining and the most ricularly in our Convent of the Good Shep-herd, because I contributed, forty years ago, in France, to give this religious order a new organization, which was approved by the Sovereign Pontiil Gregory XVI., and which allowed it to found new houses in all parts of the Catholic world; therefore, I consider all the foundation in virtue of this flow organization, as heing the fruit of a consider all the foundation in virtue of this tow organization as being the fruit of a work in which I took an active part.

In consequence of this I am sensibly grieved to see that our Convent of the Good Shepherd is not as well known as it ought to be; that it is not appreciated as it deserves to be, and that it is not supported as I had a right to hope.

"I feel it the more that there seems to be a want of good will, as many persons could be useful to the institution without incurring more expense; as all feedale work, such as wushing and sewing are done there can be done elsawhere.

the second story as a dwelling. The first story was occupied as a general variety store and a dwelling by Mr. R. R. Bennett. The building, valued at $5000, was insured in the Merchants' Insurance Company. Mr. Lessell's loss in furniture is estimated at $1006, upon which there was an insurance for $800, also in the Merchants' office. Mf Bennett's stock, valued at $5000, was also otally destroyed; insured in the Germania for $2000 and the New Orleans Mutual for $750. His rurniture, valued at $2000, with the exception of about $500 saved by the firemen, was totally destroyed also. It was covered by an insurance of $1000.

The frame dwelling No. 32 Sixth street. wned by Mr. John Hainey, and occupied by Mr. John Sweeney, was damaged in the roof about $100 by a fire from a defective chimney, about nine o'clock yesterday morning. The building is insured in the Germania Insurance Company.

At about half-past three last evening a fire broke out in a two-story wooden build-ing, No. 129 Terpsichore street, between Constance and Annunciation streets, owned by Thomas O'Brian and occupied by Frank Brown as a dwelling house. The fire was caused by an old lady, who, smoking a pipe, dropped some fire on some wearing apparel. The fire was extinguished, with out an alarm being given, by the inmates, with a loss of only about thirty dollars worth of clothing and slight damage to the WOUNDING .- About nine o'clock Friday night, while Messrs. William Hersch and J. Hogan were assisting a friend, Jake Wagner, who was under the influence, home, he suddenly turned and made a desperate assault on them, cutting Mr. Hogan severely in the arm, and inflicting a severe wound across the stomach of Mr. Hersch. They were attended by Dr. Pohiman, who pronounced their wounds serious.

REMANDED.—Recorder Billings yesterday remanded Anthony Kemmeler to Parish Prison without bail. He is charged with outraging the person of Augusta Decker, a child six years of age, and his case is fixed for trial on the twenty-eighth instant.

A NUISANCE .- In the vicinity of the St. Charles Hotel, where are located the back stands, the streets are sadly in need of a thorough cleansing, and have been for a week. The effluvia arising at the point where the cars stand on Baronne street, near Canal, is also very offensive. This latter nuisance should be deodorized out of existence by the failroad company, not only as a duty but out of regard for the sensi bilities of patrons of the line.

BURNED -Some time Saturday morning, while Jack White was making his coffee, at his residence on Girod street, between Union and Bagatelle, he accidentally tell into the fire and was badly burned.

The Legitimate Drama.

Mr. Frank Mayo, the young American tragedian, arrived in the city yesterday. He will play a short engagement at the Academy of Music, commencing to-morrow evening, as Hamlet. His support will be excellent, and the public may expect a re presentation of the legitimate drama that will do credit to the stage.

The meeting at half-past seven was a brilliant schar, and was attended by an immense audience. Two equestrian statues of Thomas were on the stage. General Sheridan presided, and introduced General Thomas J. Wood, who delivered an address. He felicitated the country on the enjoyment of the peace and prosperity that had grown up under the culture of the bands of solders who only a few short years ago were engaged in the war. He then turned to the characteristics of the Army of the Cumberland, made some sketches of distinguished men connected therewith and paid a glowing tribute to its great services. He rous cassion to pay a tribute to General Meade, and concluded by speaking of the remarkable facility with which soldiers returned to the arts of peace. After the conclusion of the address the convention adjourned till to-merrow.
