

COURT RECORD.

FRIDAY, JUNE 20, 1873.

Superior District Court.
Anz. Gonzalez vs. Louisiana State Lottery Company...

Judge Hawkins, in denying the rule, said:
The Supreme Court of the State has already refused to issue a writ of habeas corpus...

First District Court.
Information filed.
Assault and battery—William Ganez, G. King, Arthur...

Three bills pending.
Assault and battery—W. Leiser.
Assault and battery—John...

Fourth District Court.
Jacob Hawkins vs. New Orleans Printing and Publishing Company...

Public journals, like everybody else, are held to an observance of the proprieties of social life...

The defendant, Judge Hawkins, in his opening address, said:
I am not here to defend myself, but to defend the press...

The libel case before the Fourth District Court drew, as usual, a large crowd yesterday.
Mr. Ogden opened for the defense in a very fine manner...

COURT ITEMS.

The Senate committee, Republicans, had stood six to one in making a report on which this article was founded.
Senator Carpenter said the same thing. He analyzed the question of damages...

Here, said Mr. Rice, in my splendid young friend [Mr. Ogden], who I hope shall be more intimate with in the future, who made an ingenious and splendid opening before you, chase and classic. He read all the law, but he did not tell you anything about the case...

The last two counsel of the plaintiff are especially admirable. My friend, Judge Cotton, for pathetic speaking and eloquent declamation, stands in the foremost rank of our profession...

Mr. Randolph was equally happy in his other references, and closed with an eloquent appeal on behalf of his clients.
The court took a recess.
Judge Cotton then opened the closing argument of the plaintiff...

question of the assessment of damages is a question of fact. When the words of the statute are construed, it is found that there is no question of law involved in the matter...

Mr. Isaac N. Marks was appointed the following committee to make preparations for a mass meeting to ratify the programme of unification adopted on the seventeenth of last month...

The same time he and Mr. Tharp had been engaged in a lucrative law practice, which must have netted him at least $3000 more...

The New Orleans, Mobile and Texas Railroad.
Henry J. Gardner and Peter Butler, trustees, to whom were sold the other day, the hammer, all the right, title, stock and appurtenances of this road...

The business of the road from New Orleans to Mobile will be conducted by the undersigned under the name of the New Orleans and Texas Railroad Company, and the business of the road on the west of the Mississippi river...

The corporation has constructed a railroad from Mobile to New Orleans a road of about 300 miles, and has also constructed a road from New Orleans to the Gulf of Mexico...

Under such circumstances, the work of reorganization of the affairs of the company takes place.
A friendly, hospitable and generous spirit of cooperation and mutual respect is maintained...

But in spite of all this, a daily trip to Mobile has become a reality. The watering places on the lake shore have become practically accessible to our people.
The rich interior of our State is being opened, and the sugar basin of our State has found an overland outlet.

We anticipate an improved state of affairs under the new management. This corporation, like an overland ship, has thrown over her deck load, and now rides free.
The enterprise will probably be pushed to completion...

Other railroads will be built. The Backbone railroad is waiting for encouragement, and the Central road is waiting for a signature.
Railroads are the best unifiers of a country. The more we have the better. He who impedes or obstructs them, is the enemy of the public...

Mr. Isaac N. Marks was appointed the following committee to make preparations for a mass meeting to ratify the programme of unification adopted on the seventeenth of last month...

The first person born in St. Paul, Minnesota, has just died.
The city of London gave a grand ball to-night at Guild Hall, in honor of the Shah. The decorations were magnificent...
