to the family of our friend, and that this committee will attend his funeral in a body. The big Tubal Can, from Matanzas, reports that on the 21st place, H. H. has been engaged in a fight with a man named on the twenty-first, Peter Blackstone, both men being of yellow fever and were taken sick. Captain Stone's child was buried with the same disease while the vessel was coming up the bay to quarantine. A serious accident occurred to-day on the Midland railroad. A number of carriages were thrown from the rails, and several persons were killed or injured.

Money was in abundant supply; call loans ranged from 7 to 8. Exchange firm, business at 9. Gold opened 115 1/4, sold up to 115 1/2, was steady all day, closing at 115 1/4. Loans 1 to 4 for carrying. The following details of the burning of the Western bound mails from this city last Wednesday evening, show that they were packed into a common baggage car, being the car full full; that a hole in the top of the car admitted sparks from the engine, that the fire was discovered by reaching Havana, and that the cause being under a water spout, which quenched the fire and soaked a few bags of what remained.

When the postmaster at Havana arrived he found a small bag appropriating such books, papers and letters as they could lay their hands upon. The railroad officials declined to assist the postmaster in finding the mail bag, and the crowd only dispersed upon being violently threatened by him. The mail bags saved were sent on at 4 P. M. Thursday. The postmaster at Havana says the fire was caused by the neglect of the railroad men.
