Local Intelligence.

THE BEST THEY EVER HAD.—Only a few days ago a number of wealthy gentlemen happened this way on the route of their pleasure and business excursion. All of them have seen the world, and most of them may be termed bon vivants. Three of them once enjoyed the pleasures of a royal table in St. Petersburg, and each have partaken of the glories of Paris, London, Vienna and other great cities, and they have heard somewhat of the greatness of New Orleans.

PEARS AND PLUMS.—California furnishes us with delicate pears and plums, after being altogether new in this section. St. Mary Market.—Our article relative to St. Mary Market seems to have had its effect, judging from the following petition, which has been forwarded to the Council: To the City Council of New Orleans.

Having seen a notice published to the effect that it is desirable to convert that portion of St. Mary Market, which is unoccupied, say one-third, into a bazaar market, the undersigned citizens and neighbors, business and interested in the neighborhood of said market, fully concur in the proposed improvement, and urge upon the Council the propriety of immediate action on the subject, as a matter calculated to improve the commercial prosperity of the city.

FESTIVAL OF NO. 20.—If Old Probabilities and the weather clerk will make themselves agreeable to do the honors and friends of Washington Fire Company No. 20 will hold their festival at Oakland Square. Last Sunday the rain sadly interrupted the pleasures, in fact, the excitement, until to-day, a choice programme will both instruct and amuse.

SHAVING AN ASSAULT.—Dr. Serey has a room on Liberty street, which he agreed to pay the wife of Daniel Murphy a stipulated sum for. Mrs. Murphy recently called on the doctor for that "little bazaar" which she had in the room, and she told him all about it. The husband swore that no quack should insult his wife and not have something to remember it by. Instead of taking a razor, Dr. Serey, the day morning, Murphy took a stick, walked into Serey's room and informed that individual that a settlement must be made. Murphy is a large man, and he is not a man who had a stick. Serey had never a one. The row commenced, and the doctor soon fell involuntarily sat down in a bath tub. Then it was that Serey had a razor, Murphy had none. The doctor must be a poor student in anatomy, and certainly never held a situation in a barber shop, for he utterly failed to kill his opponent, but he utterly failed to kill his opponent, but he utterly failed to kill his opponent.

COMMON STREET IMPROVED.—Laborers, carts and oyster shells helped Common street yesterday, and if no rain falls within a week that thoroughfare will be in a tolerable condition for the use of vehicles. This is good news, not only for our own residents, but also for people who reside in and near Carrollton.

AWNING AND ROOF GUTTERS.—To-morrow Administrator Lewis will send out his subordinates to look after awning and roof gutter spouts in the city streets. The ordinance is now in force, and violators are recommended to make the required change, and so avoid disagreeable consequences.

RISING REPUTATION AND TEN DOLLARS.—Anthony Fremont, barkeeper, was arrested at the corner of St. Joseph and St. Charles streets at one o'clock yesterday morning, and so was Jane Actemont, a young person who sings beer. Their conduct warranted the arrest, and Anthony Fremont was Anthony Fremont, who was arrested for singing beer. They were taken to the police station, and they were taken to the police station, and they were taken to the police station.

THE YACHT PITCHER.—Mr. K. Brewster, whose yacht Meteor won the silver pitcher last week in beating Mr. Bell's yacht Grace Darling yesterday, was yesterday at the Bell's as a friendly present. Our informant was unable to explain the why or wherefore.

POLICEMEN'S FURNISH.—The funeral of Frank Maximilian, fourth precinct, will take place this evening at four o'clock.

OUR THANKS.—The reporter is under obligations to Mr. R. H. Bennett for a neat list of signal boxes of the fire alarm telegraph. The binding is in red and gilt, with a much loved name printed in golden capitals.

BABY BEATEN.—Peter Peterson was yesterday admitted to a ward in the Charity Hospital, he having been badly beaten by an unknown person in a house on Marigny street. He was a sight.

THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS.—D. Faires was placed in limbo yesterday, for beating Messrs. Thompson & Bryant to the tune of $300. Judge Gernon will make some particular inquiries concerning the charge during the week. Accused was arrested by Detective Dumas on a warrant.

BOX NO. 613.—The alarm of fire sounded from this box late Friday night was a fraud.

HEAD PIERCERS HIS NEW STEAMER.—No. 12, as its figure indicates, is one of the oldest organizations in our fire department, and has a bright record. "Our Name Our Example" is the motto, and all who know, read, hear and see the manner of his death, can comprehend its full and glorious meaning.

Last evening was set apart to christen the new steamer, and it is the first time that if by common consent it was agreed to take the name Lady Gantert, to honor the wife of an active and popular member.

THE VIGILANTES.

Twelve Thieves Hung in Franklin Parish—Great Excitement at Abbeville.

[From the New Iberia Sugar-Bowl, September 11.] The troubles which we last week anticipated would be daily performed. The occasion was a happy one, and all passed off with eclat. After the ceremony all entered the confectory where an inviting supper waited. The supper, like the ceremony, passed off with eclat and out of eight. The tables were cleared, when those who were fond of dancing found ample opportunity to indulge in that exercise. Toward midnight the boys broke forth to salute a few of their friends in the upper part of the city.

The following is a list of officers: Hugh Reynolds, president; John H. Bateson, secretary; Dennis Brady, treasurer; Dennis P. Mahoney, foreman; James Tierney, first assistant foreman; James Lynch, second assistant foreman.

A delegation of citizens from Abbeville had called upon Governor Kellogg, with a view of laying the facts of the case before him, and asking that he would take action in the matter. The Governor told them, it is said, to go on and do whatever the exigencies of the case seemed to require.

The vigilantes, in their operations, proceeded at once to seize and hang three or four of the worst characters—among them two sons of ex-Sheriff Lege. A prisoner was taken out of jail and shared the same fate; a butcher was seized and executed. Persons who came from Abbeville last Monday testify to having seen three or four bodies swinging from trees in the neighborhood. The most interesting part of the proceedings, and the members of the committee were scouring the country in search of the "spotted" individuals, and hanging them as fast as they could be procured.

Another occasion promises to be a memorable event to those veterans who are so fortunate as to be present, and a favorable omen to the members of the association all over the Union.

A learned divine says he once married a couple, and the man said: "He should be short." "Yes," said he, "I can do it in three minutes, but it will last longer than that." "That's right," said he, "I saw that there was some little dissatisfaction on the part of the other half. I said: 'You don't want to have it too short.'" "No," said he, "A body don't want to get herself up as for nothing."

During the past four days, the vigilantes were in hot pursuit of others. Last night, however, we had the pleasure of meeting a gentleman on our streets, whom we strongly suspect of knowing something of the affair, who tells us that up to Monday night only seven men had been killed—six hung and one shot—and two of those were negroes.

Various reports reach us, but most of them can not be credited. One gentleman, just from the scene of action, brought the news that sixteen thieves had been hung and that the vigilantes were in hot pursuit of others. Last night, however, we had the pleasure of meeting a gentleman on our streets, whom we strongly suspect of knowing something of the affair, who tells us that up to Monday night only seven men had been killed—six hung and one shot—and two of those were negroes.

Mexican War Veterans.

To-morrow, in New York, the honorably discharged veterans of the Mexican war are to celebrate the fall of the City of Mexico.

Many associations from other cities will be present, and among them the Scott Legion, of Pennsylvania. The President of the United States and all of the surviving officers, many of them now commodores and generals will be invited. The visitors will be entertained by a committee of citizens.

Delegations from New England, New Jersey, Maryland, Pennsylvania, and the Western and Southern States will be present. They will assemble in the chamber of the Board of Aldermen, and be received by General E. H. H. Ward, marshal, at the Astor House the delegates will be received by General H. G. Gibson and Commander Richard W. Meade.

A reception will be given in the Governor's room by the city authorities, and afterward an oration on the war, perhaps by Caleb Cushing, and then a dinner.

A distinguished committee of arrangements has been organized, consisting of Generals Hooker, Cadwalader, McClellan and Burnett, Admirals Stringham and Boggs, and many others, whose names are familiar and dear to those who served in that war.

Mayor Havemeyer, in a letter to General Hooker, offers to the veterans of the association the hospitalities of the city, as he did to the returning survivors of the war in 1848.

Together the occasion promises to be a memorable event to those veterans who are so fortunate as to be present, and a favorable omen to the members of the association all over the Union.

A learned divine says he once married a couple, and the man said: "He should be short." "Yes," said he, "I can do it in three minutes, but it will last longer than that."
