

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC. Monday, March 2, 1874. BIDWELL'S COMEDY AND VARIETY COMPANY. EVERY NIGHT AND SATURDAY NOON.

PERA HOUSE.

PERA HOUSE. Saturday, May 2, 1874. Madame at 12 M. LA FAVORITE.

ST. JOSEPH'S FAIR.

ST. JOSEPH'S FAIR. For the benefit of St. Joseph's Hospital.

THE REGENT STEAMER.

THE REGENT STEAMER. For the benefit of the St. Joseph's Hospital.

THE GLOBE (LATE NATIONAL) THEATRE.

THE GLOBE (LATE NATIONAL) THEATRE. Entertainment for the benefit of the sufferers by the overflow.

GRAND CONCERT.

GRAND CONCERT. Vocal and instrumental. Grunwald Hall.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

ENTERTAINMENTS. First Congregational Church. Thursday and Friday evenings.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE. Lands in various parts of the State.

HOTELS AND RESTAURANTS.

HOTELS AND RESTAURANTS. Carondelet House. No. 55 Carondelet street.

BUSINESS CHANGES.

BUSINESS CHANGES. O'Leary and Underwood. New Orleans, May 1, 1874.

POUND NOTICES.

POUND NOTICES. Department of Public Safety. New Orleans, April 30, 1874.

LEGAL NOTICES.

LEGAL NOTICES. United States District Court. District of Louisiana.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT. District of Louisiana. In Bankruptcy—No. 1379.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT. District of Louisiana. In Bankruptcy—No. 1379.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT. District of Louisiana. In Bankruptcy—No. 1379.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT. District of Louisiana. In Bankruptcy—No. 1379.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT. District of Louisiana. In Bankruptcy—No. 1379.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT. District of Louisiana. In Bankruptcy—No. 1379.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT. District of Louisiana. In Bankruptcy—No. 1379.

The Open Hand of Charity.

Messrs. J. L. Desazart and R. C. Claiborne deserve more than honorable mention for their noble conduct in taking rations down to the lake and distributing them to the unfortunate people, who were overflowed along the shore.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

As a temporary sojourner here and resident and native of your city, let me jot down a few items that may or may not interest you—news coming from the capital.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The amenities of life are never so welcome as when manifested in the hour of sorrow and affliction. Occasionally we receive them from sources and at times when least expected.

BY TELEGRAPH.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Mr. Oglesby introduced a bill to promote commerce between the States, and cheaper transportation of freight and passengers between the Atlantic seaboard and the West.

The civil rights bill was resumed. Mr. Norwood made a telling speech, his first act speech in the Senate opening.

Mr. Anthony presented a paper regarding the proposed canal. The President pro tem of the Senate ordered it printed. This touched Mr. Carpenter.

The civil rights bill was resumed. Mr. Norwood made a telling speech, his first act speech in the Senate opening.

A bill was offered to build a bridge over the Ouachita at Monroe, Louisiana, and over Red river at Shreveport.

The Louisiana relief bill was passed, and goes to the President.

WASHINGTON.

Iron and Steel.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Consumers of iron and steel are appealing for a reduction of tariff.

River and Harbor Appropriations.

It is understood that the Committee on Appropriations will report the river and harbor bill with an amendment.

The Rivers.

The Signal office says as follows in reference to the condition of the Western Mississippi for the past twenty-four hours:

The Missouri has fallen at all points, except Lexington, where there has been a slight rise.

The Ohio has fallen at Pittsburg, and risen from Marietta to Evansville, with a downward tendency below that point.

The Allegheny, Monongahela and Arkansas have fallen quite steadily, while the Cumberland and Red rivers have risen slightly.

NEW YORK.

Gold, Sale of Gold.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The government sold $1,000,000 in gold to-day at prices ranging between 112 1/2 and 113 1/4.

Late Mexican News.

Late City of Mexico news states that another implicated murderer of the Rev. Mr. Stephens has been sentenced to death.

The gold has killed the wheat in Michigan.

The revolutionist Lotens Lozano was recently assassinated at El Estero.

The Apaches are raiding in Oklahoma.

The government has notified railroad contractors, to whom concessions were granted, to stop work.

Secretary Fish sends friendly offices in restoring friendly relations between France and Mexico.

The account of the storm and mud current cars have been stopped running by Berg.

Sigmund Appel has disappeared, leaving fifty thousand dollars debts. He was a member of the Produce Exchange.

The suit of Michael M. Simpson, of Louisiana, representing the interest of the holders to millions of income bonds against the Union Pacific Railroad Company came up before Justice Nathan in the Supreme Court Chambers on motion to forbid the transfer of stock of the railroad until it should be fully paid up, and to forbid the sale of the stock of the new mortgage.

ARKANSAS.

The situation unchanged. The situation remains unchanged. Baxtor was reinforced by one company from Hempstead county this morning.

Major Churchill's side sent a squad last evening, and cut the telegraph wire between this city and Pine Bluff. The squad was captured last night by the Baxterites, and are now under guard.

Major Churchill, of the Baxter side, with ten men, was surrounded last night while coming from the depot of the Cairo and Fulton railroad, by a party of fifty Baxterites, who were lying in wait for him, and captured. General Churchill was released a short time after this, and is today in command of his forces.

Beyond the arrests on both sides, there are no active operations. A little alarm last night was the occasion of the United States troops getting out in line and preparing to prevent trouble.

A spirit of uneasiness pervades everything, and news from Washington definitely settling the matter in favor of one or the other of the parties is anxiously looked for by everybody.

A Battle at Last, and Several Killed and Wounded. General King White, who has charge of the Baxter forces at Pine Bluff, hearing that a party of Baxterites were assembled at New Orleans, in sufficient county, committed depredations, moved a column of 200 men down to that point to-day for the purpose of dispersing them.

A dispatch late to-night to General Newton, from Pine Bluff, says White's sent forward a flag of truce to order the men to disperse, but they fired upon the party and a regular battle ensued, in which many of the Baxterites were killed and twenty wounded. The remainder were taken prisoners, disarmed and sent home. General White reported seven men of his own command wounded and three horses killed.

MEMPHIS, April 30.—About $5000 in money and supplies has been raised for the sufferers by the overflow. So far, the city authorities have taken no action in the matter.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—Mr. Drexel, treasurer of the Louisiana relief committee.

[CONTINUED ON FOURTH PAGE.]