

RAILROADS.

ROUND TRIP EXCURSION TICKETS TO THE VIRGINIA SPRINGS, VIA LOUISVILLE.

Parties leaving New Orleans will find round trip excursion tickets at greatly reduced rates...

THE MOBILE LINE. On and after May 21, trains will leave depot foot of Canal street...

LOTTERIES.

SUMMER SCHEME. ONLY 10,000 NUMBERS.

LOUISIANA STATE NUMBER LOTTERY. Three Capital Prizes of $10,000 each.

LOUISIANA STATE LOTTERY COMPANY. (Incorporated August 17, 1859).

CLASS K. To be drawn in public at New Orleans. On Saturday, August 1, 1874.

SCHEME.

10,000 Tickets, $100 each. Tickets only $10. Halves, Quarters and Eighths in proportion.

APPROXIMATION PRIZES. 9 approximations of $200 each for the nine remaining units of the same ten of the number drawing the $10,000 prize.

EXPLANATION OF APPROXIMATION PRIZES. The nine remaining units of the same ten of the numbers drawing the first three full prizes will be entitled to the twenty-second approximation prize.

WHOLE TICKETS, $10; HALVES, $5; QUARTERS, $2.50; EIGHTHS, $1.25.

SALES PAYABLE IN FULL WITHOUT DEDUCTION. Orders to be addressed to the LOUISIANA STATE LOTTERY COMPANY.

DRAWING OF THE LOUISIANA STATE LOTTERY FOR JULY 27, 1874. CLASS 176.

The above drawings are published in the principal papers, and are drawn in public daily at the rooms of the company.

BEWARE OF BOGUS LOTTERIES. STOLEN. I OUGHT OR STOLEN-A NOTE DATED THE 21ST OF JULY...

STOLEN-NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC-FIVE $100 bonds, Administration No. 470, 471, 472 and 473 of $100 each...

CONSTABLES' SALES. Eugene D. Dupuy vs. James Simpson-Sixth Judicial District for the Parish of Orleans.

BY VIRTUE OF TWO WRITS OF FIERI FACIAS I do hereby direct the Hon. John Daily, District Judge of the Parish of Orleans...

ONE LOT OF SHOES, of different sizes, about 200 pairs, more or less, about 100 Shoe Boxes, about 500 lbs. of Rice, Corn and Shoe Stamps.

NOTARIES. A. HERB, JR. NOTARY PUBLIC AND COMMISSIONER OF DEEDS. Office No. 17 Commercial Place.

To Bayou Goula by Rail.

Accepting the invitation of Lyman J. Dodge, Esq., superintendent of the Louisiana division of the New Orleans, Mobile and Texas railroad...

It is known that work on this important railroad, which is destined to bind us more closely to our sister State, Texas...

This road has been thoroughly constructed, and all along over swamps and bayous and fertile farm lands...

This is perhaps the most religious road ever constructed, where every station is named for some saint...

The bridge at Bayou Lafourche is a fine structure, and on its broad back trains can pass and repass over one of the most remarkable streams to be found in the world.

The benefits of the railroad are everywhere acknowledged. With only seventy miles accomplished, it is yet a proportionate blessing to the planter...

The extension of the route over the New Orleans, Mobile and Texas railroad Sunday morning by the report of two pistol shots...

The school is under the care of the accomplished Sisters of Mercy, the talented superiors of whom is that highly esteemed lady, Rev. Mother Austin...

The following young ladies were borne upon the roll of honor: First division-Misses Lizzie Donlan, Mary Bestick, Cecelia Sebastian, Bridget Tirney, Minnie Hare, Kate Farrell, Eugene Brouse.

The prizes were awarded as follows: Gold medal, Miss Annie Cook; silver medal, Miss Jennie Larkin...

At noon yesterday a special train of cars arrived in Biloxi from Mobile, having on board about five hundred members of colored benevolent associations...

At noon yesterday a special train of cars arrived in Biloxi from Mobile, having on board about five hundred members of colored benevolent associations...

Biloxi Personal.

A visit to Biloxi by a representative of the REPUBLICAN was full of interest, especially as he found many Orleansians enjoying there temporarily.

Governor M. Hann was, for a few days, the guest of Colonel S. B. Packard. Mr. Hann appeared to be pleased with Biloxi...

Colonel Behan was caught up by Captain Freeman, of the cutter Dix, and taken on a coast cruise, but returned Monday, very red in the face.

Mr. Stephen MacNamara, after a short sojourn in our Hotel Dieu, took up quarters in his old spot, evidently on the high road to health.

Mr. Pierre Klopman, looking perfectly healthy, keeps his attention on regattas, and seems to be the ruling spirit in the sport.

Many other gentlemen might be mentioned, sojourners in this former rival to New Orleans. Suffice it to say that all of them pay proper respect to the dinner table.

Etiquette Extraordinary.

Travelers passing through portions of Mississippi, and coming in contact with the hollow, long haired sons of its sandy soil...

It does not appear that the ladies noticed the outrage, but a gentleman who was following them felt grossly insulted.

The name of John Caswell does not appear on the printed list of passengers in the lost City of Boston.

The manner in which the paper above is constructed would seem to indicate that the writer intended to make a detailed statement of the case...

The Secretary will place the matter in the hands of those clerks in the department most familiar with the records...

We are informed that on the twenty-sixth instant, a large and enthusiastic Republican meeting was held at the old courthouse...

At noon yesterday a special train of cars arrived in Biloxi from Mobile, having on board about five hundred members of colored benevolent associations...

At noon yesterday a special train of cars arrived in Biloxi from Mobile, having on board about five hundred members of colored benevolent associations...

Seascamper Camp Meeting.

Members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, from Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and other States have certainly pre-occupied one of the finest camp meeting grounds in the country.

Everything has been planned on a good scale, and although it has been in existence but three years it has an aged aspect.

Last Sunday was really the opening day, when the attendance was very large, but it would be difficult to guess near the number of visitors.

The extent of territory damaged is not less than twenty to twenty-five miles in diameter, and how the main portion of the city was formed by the junction of the two rivers...

The work of destruction commenced at a point about two miles north of the central portion of Allegany City.

When the rain commenced falling but little apprehension was entertained; those who lived near the head of the valley state that suddenly it seemed as if the heavens were opened...

After taking away a large number of out-houses and fences the flood struck the dwelling occupied by George Matron, wife and two children; all were drowned.

As soon as the water commenced rising Shearing moved his family, consisting of wife and two children, to the hillside...

The extensive glue works were the next to succumb to the action of the water and were totally destroyed.

At the corner of East street and Madison avenue the waters seemed to deviate.

The course of the flood was probably 300 feet wide, and buildings, frame work, brick, fell before the devastating element...

It is estimated that in this district seventy dwellings were a destroyer, nearly no estimate has been made of their value.

A large number of people are missing. It is thought many bodies are still in the debris. As fast as recoveries, they are taken to various undertakers in the city...

With only $10 You can buy a whole ticket In the Louisiana State Lottery, already published in the Tribune. And make with a lucky number Ten thousand dollars.

BY TELEGRAPH. DISASTER.

A Deluge of Rain at Pittsburgh-Fearful Loss of Life in Allegheny-Pan-Handle Railroad Overlooked-Houses Washed Away.

Pittsburgh, July 27.-Heavy showers all day yesterday, but at night the rain fell in torrents. Fearful loss of life is reported in Allegheny. The tunnel of the Pan-handle railroad was flooded with four feet of water.

The extent of territory damaged is not less than twenty to twenty-five miles in diameter, and how the main portion of the city was formed by the junction of the two rivers...

When the rain commenced falling but little apprehension was entertained; those who lived near the head of the valley state that suddenly it seemed as if the heavens were opened...

After taking away a large number of out-houses and fences the flood struck the dwelling occupied by George Matron, wife and two children; all were drowned.

As soon as the water commenced rising Shearing moved his family, consisting of wife and two children, to the hillside...

The extensive glue works were the next to succumb to the action of the water and were totally destroyed.

At the corner of East street and Madison avenue the waters seemed to deviate.

The course of the flood was probably 300 feet wide, and buildings, frame work, brick, fell before the devastating element...

It is estimated that in this district seventy dwellings were a destroyer, nearly no estimate has been made of their value.

A large number of people are missing. It is thought many bodies are still in the debris. As fast as recoveries, they are taken to various undertakers in the city...

WASHINGTON. Bristol Contident of Placing the New Loan. WASHINGTON, July 27.-Secretary Bristol still negotiates with regard to the new loan. He is confident he will be able to dispose of the balance of it.

Treaty with Peru Signed. The President has signed the extradition treaty and treaty of friendship, commerce and navigation made with Peru in September, 1870.

Affairs at Vicksburg. Adjutant General Platt, of the Department of the South, writes the War Department in reference to ordering troops to Vicksburg, and expresses the opinion that acting Governor Davis will not be able to make out the case sufficient to warrant the interference of federal authorities.

THE TURF. The Saratoga Races. SARATOGA, July 27.-The entries for the second and third races to-morrow closed at noon to-day at the track.

man named Hubbard, drowned, while attempting to reach the Ohio shore. His wife, Emma, Rickett, aged four, a son of John Shearing, aged four; a little girl apparently five years, not identified; Mr. and Mrs. Humagle, and the body of a boy named Fisher.

Spring Garden avenue lies to the south of Butcher's run, and is separated by a high hill. In this valley the same scenes were enacted on a smaller scale as regards the loss of life.

It would be impossible to give anything like a detailed account of the damage done to the dwellings in the vicinity. Three not only destroyed were grossly damaged.

On Chestnut street, in Casper Rader's saloon, among them were Phillip Hess, a constable, and Henry Schaffer. They crashed out of the saloon into the street; water at that time some fifteen feet high; they took the skiff under the place where the man was hanging and told him to drop the distance being about as the skiff was nearly on a level with the second story.

The house and the entire family were saved. Three-quarters of a mile up the run the houses on the same street were almost section four feet in height and 350 feet in width.

When the rain commenced falling but little apprehension was entertained; those who lived near the head of the valley state that suddenly it seemed as if the heavens were opened...

After taking away a large number of out-houses and fences the flood struck the dwelling occupied by George Matron, wife and two children; all were drowned.

As soon as the water commenced rising Shearing moved his family, consisting of wife and two children, to the hillside...

The extensive glue works were the next to succumb to the action of the water and were totally destroyed.

At the corner of East street and Madison avenue the waters seemed to deviate.

The course of the flood was probably 300 feet wide, and buildings, frame work, brick, fell before the devastating element...

It is estimated that in this district seventy dwellings were a destroyer, nearly no estimate has been made of their value.

A large number of people are missing. It is thought many bodies are still in the debris. As fast as recoveries, they are taken to various undertakers in the city...

WASHINGTON. Bristol Contident of Placing the New Loan. WASHINGTON, July 27.-Secretary Bristol still negotiates with regard to the new loan. He is confident he will be able to dispose of the balance of it.

By Imp. Edgell, out of Kestis, by Two Bits; John H. Edgell, out of Kestis, by Two Bits; four years old, by Planet, out of Edina; Cameron's filly, by Warminster; Quins, Governor, Madison and Midway.

The probable starters in the first race, for the Alabama stakes, one mile and one-eighth, are: McDaniel's ch. f. by Australia, out of Alabama, by Brown Diok; Cottrill ch. f. Bonar, by Harry of the West, out of B. Bonar, by Brown Diok; Belmont's br. f. Boston, by Kentucky, out of Bernice; Belmont's br. f. Countess, by Kentucky, out of Lady Blossington; Williams' brown colt, by Brown Diok; Planet, out of Edina, by Knight of St. George; Morris' b. f. Bogardus, by Eclipse, out of Barbary; Hunt Reynolds' b. f. Kidding, by Lexington, out of Volga; Glencoe—run in all. There are forty-two nominations.

The Pool Selling. SARATOGA, July 27.-A heavy rain falling tonight. The following pools were sold for the Albany stake: Bonar and Midway $400, McDaniel's filly $445, Belmont's $140, Bogardus $125, Moonbeam $35, and Valde $25.

These starters dead—Katie Peace $50, Cateby $105, Dublin $70, First Chase $50, Theodora $40, Quins $35, Minnie Mack $30, Cameron's Warminster filly $30, Governor's $25, Midway $30, W. H. Edgell's horse George W. sold for $150, and Bullis $105.

NEW YORK.

Amending the Rules. New York, July 27.-The Cotton Exchange to-day amended its rules by removing the restrictions on the quantity of ordinary cotton deliverable on a contract.

The steamship Colon arrived at Springfield, July 25, from New York. She brought sixteen crates of cotton from Guatemala. The remainder of the crew on the City of Guatemala with the captain, all well.

The steamship Great Republic arrived at Yokohama, July 26. The steamer Japan sailed from Hong Kong, July 25, for Yokohama and San Francisco, with 600 emigrants and a full cargo, including 700 tons of tea for New York.

Theodore Tilton publishes a card calling public attention to the fact that the Plymouth committee, in its publication of testimony, omits a most important fact, viz: That the criminality which his seven children committed in the case of Becher and Tilton, was confessed to Tilton not only by his wife but by Becher; furthermore, that it was confessed by her and him to Mr. Moulton, the coroner, and to the jury of both; and still further, that Mr. Moulton's mediation between Becher and Tilton was based on the one sole fact of this pre-existing criminality between Becher and Mrs. Tilton.

The next evening, hearing that Miss Anthony was on the stairs, she came down and was told by her that she had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the end. Then she said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton, and she has notes and found that by man and wife the same story had indeed been told. When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, she related the story to him, and I last evening. Then I recited to her all that he had told us. Miss Anthony listened attentively to the