

THE NEW ORLEANS REPUBLICAN

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA.

SINGLE COPIES: FIVE CENTS.

TERMS: $12 PER ANNUM.

VOLUME VIII--NO. 136.

NEW ORLEANS, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1874.

WHOLE NUMBER 2287.

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

D. BIDWELL, Proprietor and Manager
The popular family resort will inaugurate its new season on Sunday, September 15, 1874, with SHERIDAN, MACK & DAY'S COMBINATION.
A refined OLIO ENTERTAINMENT, selecting everything brilliant and comic from the works of BUCCIONE, FARRE, BALLEST, FANTO, JIMIE, MINSTRALLY AND CIRQUE.
The enlargement of the Academy of Music during the summer, by the addition of a gallery, to hold 20 PERSONS AT TWENTY-FIVE CENTS admission, makes this Theatre the largest for seating capacity in the South. Besides the extensive machinery so successfully used for many years for the production of fire, also to cool and heat the Theatre, when required, a full set of Salvo's Fire extinguishers have been placed at convenient points about the Theatre, thus securing further protection. The Academy has been entirely re-wired in Decoration, Upholstery, Carpets, etc., and opened for the season on a new and improved plan. THE OPENING COMPANY embraces artists of unusual talents, and among them will be mentioned the famous European Duetists, the STEARNS SISTERS, the Dabbling Representative of the Young Men of the East, Mrs. ALICE J. O'BRIEN, SHERIDAN AND MACK, the great Character Actors, LESTER AND ALLAN, Gymnastic and Grotesque Singers and Artists, the ROSELLI SISTERS, BARBER and ALLAN, Mrs. MISS A. B. NOLLE, Charming Piano Compositions; Mrs. THELMA, Premier Danseuse and Columbian; DAN DEVERE, Ethiopian Comedian and Solo; WILLIAM KIRBY, Professional Doctor, Punch and Juggler, etc.; together with SIGNOR CONSTANTINE'S PATROUSO, Grand Opera MATINEE--SATURDAY, the nineteenth instant.
Doors open for Seated Seats from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Doors open and Gallery Serenade at a quarter to seven. Operetta in Orchestra at a quarter to eight.

MISCELLANEOUS.

NOTICE—THE PUBLIC ARE HEREBY CAUTIONED that the undersigned, WILLIAM M. BROWN, has been appointed Receiver of the Louisiana State Lottery, and will receive all moneys due to the Lottery, and will be responsible for all debts contracted by him.
JOHN MCHS.
St. Ferdinand between Girod and Esplanade streets, sold 25.

PHENIX HOUSE.

No. 96 St. Charles Street.
D. BIDWELL, Proprietor
The most famous house in the city for Refreshments and Amusements, next door to the Academy of Music, turn left through the vestibule.

OPENS TO-DAY.

Thoroughly refitted in every department, and attended by competent and polite gentlemen.
LUNCHEON FROM 10:30 A. M. TO 1 P. M.
THE PHENIX BOWLING CLUB will meet punctually at seven o'clock RACE EVENING.
J. JOHNSON, Superintendent.

NOTICE.

The schooner ECLIPSE has been lying in front of Bailey's plantation for over five months. The owner can have her by addressing the undersigned and paying costs of keeping.
STEPHEN BAILEY,
at 111 N. Prairie, Parish of Plaquemine.

WEINER, AGNEW & CO.

GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANTS
For the purchase and sale of
FLOUR, GRAIN, PROVISIONS AND NAVAL STORES.

No. 205 South Main Street.

St. Louis, Missouri.
Special attention given to filling orders for Eastern and Southern markets. 405 km

SUBSCRIBE FOR AND ADVERTISE

Board's 1875 City Directory.
Completeness and reliability guaranteed.
L. SOUARD & CO.,
Publishers, No. 5 Commercial Place.

BROOK STEAM RICE MILL.

C. H. ALLEN, PROPRIETOR.
Nos. 59, 61 and 63 Tchoupitoulas Street, NEW ORLEANS.

P. A. MURRAY.

CISTERN MAKER.
No. 1191 Magazine street, between Julia and St. Joseph streets.

COAL.

JOHN D. MACLIN.
No. 34 Carondelet Street.

PITTSBURG, ANTHRACITE AND CANSEL

COAL.

DEPOT HEAD OF SECOND STREET, FOURTH DISTRICT.

BANKS AND BANKING.

LOUISIANA SAVINGS BANK
AND
SAFE DEPOSIT COMPANY.
No. 51 Camp Street.

THE CITIZENS' SAVINGS BANK

It is a strictly legitimate bank for savings, modeled upon the plan of popular and successful institutions in New York and London, and incorporated April 24, 1874, under a special and favorable charter granted by the Legislature of the State of Louisiana, with an authorized capital of $300,000.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—THE HOUSE OF TROY BERRY, No. 101 Conti street, between Burgundy and Rampart streets, furnished or unfurnished, very cheap. Apply on the premises, 3012.

A DAY OF RIOT AND BLOOD

MASS MEETING ON CANAL STREET

Governor Kellogg Requested to Vacate

THE CITY HALL CAPTURED

A Battle Between the Metropolitan Police and the White League.

SHORT AND BLOODY WORK

THE KILLED AND WOUNDED

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

Saturday night posters were issued calling on citizens to assemble Monday morning on Canal street, in front of Claiborne street. This handbill was appended Sunday morning by the following in the Bulletin:

For nearly two years you have been the silent but indignant sufferers of outrage after outrage—beaten upon by a usurping government.

One by one your dearest rights have been trampled upon, until at last in the supreme hour of our history, this mockery of a Republican government has dared even to deny you that right so solemnly guaranteed by the very constitution of the United States, which is at the very heart of the amendment, that "the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

In that same sacred instrument, to whose maintenance our fathers pledged "their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor," it was also declared that even Congress shall make no law abridging "the right of the people peaceably to assemble to petition the government for a redress of grievances." It now remains for us to ascertain whether this right any longer remains so.

We therefore call upon you on Monday morning, the fourteenth day of September, 1874, to close your places of business, without a single exception, and at 11 A. M. to assemble at the City square, on Canal street, in a force large enough to be heard throughout the length and breadth of the land, and to declare that you are, of right, entitled to keep and bear arms.

JOHN M. PARKER, Samuel Bell, H. H. Baker, Henry Renshaw, Perry Nugent, John Adams & Co., William Sanchez, Schmidt & Ziegler, M. G. G. Harris, W. H. Chadwick, Keep & Raymond, Charles Chas. J. G. Gidiers, Robert Hare, W. J. G. Gidiers, J. J. Warren, W. W. Edwards, Emile J. O'Brien, Miller & Diehlman, S. B. Newman, Jr., Sam. Thorne, J. M. Ballour, Newman & Kent, Paul E. Mortimer, Behan, Thorne & Co., Lewis Greenleaf, M. Hillard, J. M. Vandergiff & B. F. Glover, J. M. B. Ross, John W. Parsons, H. H. Murray & Co., M. Humann, Paul Sanager, J. B. Sinner, Woods, Slayback & S. H. Boyd, Co. W. B. Johnson, Louis Bush, S. B. Briggs, William A. Bell, Henry Demerit, John N. Payne.

THE CITY HALL CAPTURED

General Badger, beloved of all his command and the object of universal admiration for his cool self-reliance and unflinching courage, fell pierced with three musket shots, though the one in the leg is the only serious one, being a bad fracture of the bone below the knee.

After the fight was over the dead and wounded were removed to the Customhouse, where Drs. Ames and Schumaker attended to the wants of those who needed their services.

The following casualties were reported among the Metropolitan, but the list is very far from complete:

Sergeant James McManis, third precinct. Sergeant J. P. Champagne, fifth precinct. Corporal J. F. Clement, first precinct. Officer J. Hill, seventh precinct. Officer E. Simons, third precinct. Officer J. Shields, first precinct. Officer H. Ballard, sixth precinct.

WOUNDED.

Corporal William Carleton, mounted precinct, in leg. Officer J. Coleman, mounted precinct, in head and side. Corporal George C. Miller, mounted precinct, in thigh. Officer J. Long, mounted precinct, in head. Sergeant John McCann, first precinct, in leg. Officer John Kennedy, first precinct, mortally. Officer P. Mallahy, first precinct, in arm. Officer M. J. Barrett, sixth precinct, in foot. Officer M. Gonzalez, fourth precinct, in knee. Officer J. Conolly, first precinct, in leg. Officer W. H. Hawkins, second precinct, in leg. Officer S. S. Swan, sixth precinct, in leg. Officer Demassell, fifth precinct, in leg. Corporal J. Ryan, sixth precinct, in body. Officer L. Backus, sixth precinct, in arm. Officer L. Deslunes, sixth precinct, in leg. Officer T. Duffy, sixth precinct, in hand. Officer P. Casar, fourth precinct, in arm. Corporal C. Bergeron, fourth precinct, in leg. Officer A. Peot, fourth precinct, in leg. Officer R. Gonzales, fourth precinct, lay oner wounded in throat. Officer J. Gonzales, fourth precinct, in knee. Officer J. Murta, fourth precinct, in hand. Officer W. Nichols, fourth precinct, in head. Sergeant L. A. Thiabaut, fourth precinct, in hand. Officer G. Simpson, sixth precinct, in arm. Officer C. Elguro, third precinct, in leg. Officer C. Davis, fourth precinct, in body. Officer John Lee, fourth precinct, in arm. Officer L. Williams, sixth precinct, in knee. Officer O. Elmore, eighth precinct, in thigh. Officer Nelson Woody, sixth precinct, in face. Officer Otto Brandt, first precinct, in foot. Officer G. Cochon, second precinct, in chest. Officer W. Brown, leg amputated.

THE KILLED AND WOUNDED

The casualties among the White Leaguers were fully as numerous as on the other side. Messrs. West, Bozinger, S. B. Newman, Jr., Toledano, Trepanier, and Moirman were reported killed, with a long list of wounded.

The following were received at the Charity Hospital:

William Omond, in breast. Charles Kit, in arm. James Cross, slight. John Mern, in leg. John McCabe, in both arms. M. Betts, slight. Frank Owen, slight. Man supposed to be D. Sonlat, sugar broker, compound fracture of leg. J. H. Keller, in leg.

There was a rumor that General Longstreet and United States Marshal Packard were killed, but this had no foundation in fact.

The latest news from General Badger, who was in the Charity Hospital, was that his wounds were really serious, but that his life was not in great danger. It is believed that the wound in his leg must result in its being cut off.

Captain William McCann, of the third precinct, was captured after dark last evening, and there was a story on the streets that he had thrown up his Metropolitan commission. The Leaguers who arrested him released him on parole.

Leaguers took possession of the first precinct stationhouse and of the city first alarm telegraph office.

During the day delegations of the Leaguers demanded that the city administrators should resign their positions.

After dark the Leaguers walked around prominently above Canal street, but seldom interrupted any body. No one was permitted to go below Canal street without a "pass from headquarters," whatever that is. Pickets were posted all along Canal street, and they took particular notice of everybody.

During the evening several newspaper extras were issued. The Bulletin contained a proclamation from D. B. Penn, who signed himself Lieutenant Governor, as will be seen below. The following orders are also appended:

THE CITY HALL CAPTURED

By this time nearly every place of business was closed, and the central portion of our city in a state of great excitement. Non-combatants were seldom disturbed, and they generally passed to and fro as they pleased. Curiosity led many men to dangerous positions, especially on Canal street, where several unarmed men were wounded and killed.

General Ogden, commanding the White League, had his horse shot under him, and he barely escaped serious injury.

Owing to the general confusion the reporter found it almost a matter of impossibility to make a correct list of the killed and wounded.

General A. S. Badger, beloved of all his command and the object of universal admiration for his cool self-reliance and unflinching courage, fell pierced with three musket shots, though the one in the leg is the only serious one, being a bad fracture of the bone below the knee.

After the fight was over the dead and wounded were removed to the Customhouse, where Drs. Ames and Schumaker attended to the wants of those who needed their services.

The following casualties were reported among the Metropolitan, but the list is very far from complete:

Sergeant James McManis, third precinct. Sergeant J. P. Champagne, fifth precinct. Corporal J. F. Clement, first precinct. Officer J. Hill, seventh precinct. Officer E. Simons, third precinct. Officer J. Shields, first precinct. Officer H. Ballard, sixth precinct.

WOUNDED.

Corporal William Carleton, mounted precinct, in leg. Officer J. Coleman, mounted precinct, in head and side. Corporal George C. Miller, mounted precinct, in thigh. Officer J. Long, mounted precinct, in head. Sergeant John McCann, first precinct, in leg. Officer John Kennedy, first precinct, mortally. Officer P. Mallahy, first precinct, in arm. Officer M. J. Barrett, sixth precinct, in foot. Officer M. Gonzalez, fourth precinct, in knee. Officer J. Conolly, first precinct, in leg. Officer W. H. Hawkins, second precinct, in leg. Officer S. S. Swan, sixth precinct, in leg. Officer Demassell, fifth precinct, in leg. Corporal J. Ryan, sixth precinct, in body. Officer L. Backus, sixth precinct, in arm. Officer L. Deslunes, sixth precinct, in leg. Officer T. Duffy, sixth precinct, in hand. Officer P. Casar, fourth precinct, in arm. Corporal C. Bergeron, fourth precinct, in leg. Officer A. Peot, fourth precinct, in leg. Officer R. Gonzales, fourth precinct, lay oner wounded in throat. Officer J. Gonzales, fourth precinct, in knee. Officer J. Murta, fourth precinct, in hand. Officer W. Nichols, fourth precinct, in head. Sergeant L. A. Thiabaut, fourth precinct, in hand. Officer G. Simpson, sixth precinct, in arm. Officer C. Elguro, third precinct, in leg. Officer C. Davis, fourth precinct, in body. Officer John Lee, fourth precinct, in arm. Officer L. Williams, sixth precinct, in knee. Officer O. Elmore, eighth precinct, in thigh. Officer Nelson Woody, sixth precinct, in face. Officer Otto Brandt, first precinct, in foot. Officer G. Cochon, second precinct, in chest. Officer W. Brown, leg amputated.

THE KILLED AND WOUNDED

The casualties among the White Leaguers were fully as numerous as on the other side. Messrs. West, Bozinger, S. B. Newman, Jr., Toledano, Trepanier, and Moirman were reported killed, with a long list of wounded.

The following were received at the Charity Hospital:

William Omond, in breast. Charles Kit, in arm. James Cross, slight. John Mern, in leg. John McCabe, in both arms. M. Betts, slight. Frank Owen, slight. Man supposed to be D. Sonlat, sugar broker, compound fracture of leg. J. H. Keller, in leg.

There was a rumor that General Longstreet and United States Marshal Packard were killed, but this had no foundation in fact.

The latest news from General Badger, who was in the Charity Hospital, was that his wounds were really serious, but that his life was not in great danger. It is believed that the wound in his leg must result in its being cut off.

Captain William McCann, of the third precinct, was captured after dark last evening, and there was a story on the streets that he had thrown up his Metropolitan commission. The Leaguers who arrested him released him on parole.

Leaguers took possession of the first precinct stationhouse and of the city first alarm telegraph office.

During the day delegations of the Leaguers demanded that the city administrators should resign their positions.

After dark the Leaguers walked around prominently above Canal street, but seldom interrupted any body. No one was permitted to go below Canal street without a "pass from headquarters," whatever that is. Pickets were posted all along Canal street, and they took particular notice of everybody.

During the evening several newspaper extras were issued. The Bulletin contained a proclamation from D. B. Penn, who signed himself Lieutenant Governor, as will be seen below. The following orders are also appended:

THE CITY HALL CAPTURED

By this time nearly every place of business was closed, and the central portion of our city in a state of great excitement. Non-combatants were seldom disturbed, and they generally passed to and fro as they pleased. Curiosity led many men to dangerous positions, especially on Canal street, where several unarmed men were wounded and killed.

General Ogden, commanding the White League, had his horse shot under him, and he barely escaped serious injury.

Owing to the general confusion the reporter found it almost a matter of impossibility to make a correct list of the killed and wounded.

General A. S. Badger, beloved of all his command and the object of universal admiration for his cool self-reliance and unflinching courage, fell pierced with three musket shots, though the one in the leg is the only serious one, being a bad fracture of the bone below the knee.

After the fight was over the dead and wounded were removed to the Customhouse, where Drs. Ames and Schumaker attended to the wants of those who needed their services.

The following casualties were reported among the Metropolitan, but the list is very far from complete:

Sergeant James McManis, third precinct. Sergeant J. P. Champagne, fifth precinct. Corporal J. F. Clement, first precinct. Officer J. Hill, seventh precinct. Officer E. Simons, third precinct. Officer J. Shields, first precinct. Officer H. Ballard, sixth precinct.

WOUNDED.

Corporal William Carleton, mounted precinct, in leg. Officer J. Coleman, mounted precinct, in head and side. Corporal George C. Miller, mounted precinct, in thigh. Officer J. Long, mounted precinct, in head. Sergeant John McCann, first precinct, in leg. Officer John Kennedy, first precinct, mortally. Officer P. Mallahy, first precinct, in arm. Officer M. J. Barrett, sixth precinct, in foot. Officer M. Gonzalez, fourth precinct, in knee. Officer J. Conolly, first precinct, in leg. Officer W. H. Hawkins, second precinct, in leg. Officer S. S. Swan, sixth precinct, in leg. Officer Demassell, fifth precinct, in leg. Corporal J. Ryan, sixth precinct, in body. Officer L. Backus, sixth precinct, in arm. Officer L. Deslunes, sixth precinct, in leg. Officer T. Duffy, sixth precinct, in hand. Officer P. Casar, fourth precinct, in arm. Corporal C. Bergeron, fourth precinct, in leg. Officer A. Peot, fourth precinct, in leg. Officer R. Gonzales, fourth precinct, lay oner wounded in throat. Officer J. Gonzales, fourth precinct, in knee. Officer J. Murta, fourth precinct, in hand. Officer W. Nichols, fourth precinct, in head. Sergeant L. A. Thiabaut, fourth precinct, in hand. Officer G. Simpson, sixth precinct, in arm. Officer C. Elguro, third precinct, in leg. Officer C. Davis, fourth precinct, in body. Officer John Lee, fourth precinct, in arm. Officer L. Williams, sixth precinct, in knee. Officer O. Elmore, eighth precinct, in thigh. Officer Nelson Woody, sixth precinct, in face. Officer Otto Brandt, first precinct, in foot. Officer G. Cochon, second precinct, in chest. Officer W. Brown, leg amputated.

THE KILLED AND WOUNDED

The casualties among the White Leaguers were fully as numerous as on the other side. Messrs. West, Bozinger, S. B. Newman, Jr., Toledano, Trepanier, and Moirman were reported killed, with a long list of wounded.

The following were received at the Charity Hospital:

William Omond, in breast. Charles Kit, in arm. James Cross, slight. John Mern, in leg. John McCabe, in both arms. M. Betts, slight. Frank Owen, slight. Man supposed to be D. Sonlat, sugar broker, compound fracture of leg. J. H. Keller, in leg.

There was a rumor that General Longstreet and United States Marshal Packard were killed, but this had no foundation in fact.

The latest news from General Badger, who was in the Charity Hospital, was that his wounds were really serious, but that his life was not in great danger. It is believed that the wound in his leg must result in its being cut off.

Captain William McCann, of the third precinct, was captured after dark last evening, and there was a story on the streets that he had thrown up his Metropolitan commission. The Leaguers who arrested him released him on parole.

Leaguers took possession of the first precinct stationhouse and of the city first alarm telegraph office.

During the day delegations of the Leaguers demanded that the city administrators should resign their positions.

After dark the Leaguers walked around prominently above Canal street, but seldom interrupted any body. No one was permitted to go below Canal street without a "pass from headquarters," whatever that is. Pickets were posted all along Canal street, and they took particular notice of everybody.

During the evening several newspaper extras were issued. The Bulletin contained a proclamation from D. B. Penn, who signed himself Lieutenant Governor, as will be seen below. The following orders are also appended:

THE CITY HALL CAPTURED

By this time nearly every place of business was closed, and the central portion of our city in a state of great excitement. Non-combatants were seldom disturbed, and they generally passed to and fro as they pleased. Curiosity led many men to dangerous positions, especially on Canal street, where several unarmed men were wounded and killed.

General Ogden, commanding the White League, had his horse shot under him, and he barely escaped serious injury.

Owing to the general confusion the reporter found it almost a matter of impossibility to make a correct list of the killed and wounded.

General A. S. Badger, beloved of all his command and the object of universal admiration for his cool self-reliance and unflinching courage, fell pierced with three musket shots, though the one in the leg is the only serious one, being a bad fracture of the bone below the knee.

After the fight was over the dead and wounded were removed to the Customhouse, where Drs. Ames and Schumaker attended to the wants of those who needed their services.

The following casualties were reported among the Metropolitan, but the list is very far from complete:

Sergeant James McManis, third precinct. Sergeant J. P. Champagne, fifth precinct. Corporal J. F. Clement, first precinct. Officer J. Hill, seventh precinct. Officer E. Simons, third precinct. Officer J. Shields, first precinct. Officer H. Ballard, sixth precinct.

WOUNDED.

Corporal William Carleton, mounted precinct, in leg. Officer J. Coleman, mounted precinct, in head and side. Corporal George C. Miller, mounted precinct, in thigh. Officer J. Long, mounted precinct, in head. Sergeant John McCann, first precinct, in leg. Officer John Kennedy, first precinct, mortally. Officer P. Mallahy, first precinct, in arm. Officer M. J. Barrett, sixth precinct, in foot. Officer M. Gonzalez, fourth precinct, in knee. Officer J. Conolly, first precinct, in leg. Officer W. H. Hawkins, second precinct, in leg. Officer S. S. Swan, sixth precinct, in leg. Officer Demassell, fifth precinct, in leg. Corporal J. Ryan, sixth precinct, in body. Officer L. Backus, sixth precinct, in arm. Officer L. Deslunes, sixth precinct, in leg. Officer T. Duffy, sixth precinct, in hand. Officer P. Casar, fourth precinct, in arm. Corporal C. Bergeron, fourth precinct, in leg. Officer A. Peot, fourth precinct, in leg. Officer R. Gonzales, fourth precinct, lay oner wounded in throat. Officer J. Gonzales, fourth precinct, in knee. Officer J. Murta, fourth precinct, in hand. Officer W. Nichols, fourth precinct, in head. Sergeant L. A. Thiabaut, fourth precinct, in hand. Officer G. Simpson, sixth precinct, in arm. Officer C. Elguro, third precinct, in leg. Officer C. Davis, fourth precinct, in body. Officer John Lee, fourth precinct, in arm. Officer L. Williams, sixth precinct, in knee. Officer O. Elmore, eighth precinct, in thigh. Officer Nelson Woody, sixth precinct, in face. Officer Otto Brandt, first precinct, in foot. Officer G. Cochon, second precinct, in chest. Officer W. Brown, leg amputated.

THE KILLED AND WOUNDED

The casualties among the White Leaguers were fully as numerous as on the other side. Messrs. West, Bozinger, S. B. Newman, Jr., Toledano, Trepanier, and Moirman were reported killed, with a long list of wounded.

The following were received at the Charity Hospital:

William Omond, in breast. Charles Kit, in arm. James Cross, slight. John Mern, in leg. John McCabe, in both arms. M. Betts, slight. Frank Owen, slight. Man supposed to be D. Sonlat, sugar broker, compound fracture of leg. J. H. Keller, in leg.

There was a rumor that General Longstreet and United States Marshal Packard were killed, but this had no foundation in fact.

The latest news from General Badger, who was in the Charity Hospital, was that his wounds were really serious, but that his life was not in great danger. It is believed that the wound in his leg must result in its being cut off.

Captain William McCann, of the third precinct, was captured after dark last evening, and there was a story on the streets that he had thrown up his Metropolitan commission. The Leaguers who arrested him released him on parole.

Leaguers took possession of the first precinct stationhouse and of the city first alarm telegraph office.

During the day delegations of the Leaguers demanded that the city administrators should resign their positions.

After dark the Leaguers walked around prominently above Canal street, but seldom interrupted any body. No one was permitted to go below Canal street without a "pass from headquarters," whatever that is. Pickets were posted all along Canal street, and they took particular notice of everybody.

During the evening several newspaper extras were issued. The Bulletin contained a proclamation from D. B. Penn, who signed himself Lieutenant Governor, as will be seen below. The following orders are also appended:

THE CITY HALL CAPTURED

By this time nearly every place of business was closed, and the central portion of our city in a state of great excitement. Non-combatants were seldom disturbed, and they generally passed to and fro as they pleased. Curiosity led many men to dangerous positions, especially on Canal street, where several unarmed men were wounded and killed.

General Ogden, commanding the White League, had his horse shot under him, and he barely escaped serious injury.

Owing to the general confusion the reporter found it almost a matter of impossibility to make a correct list of the killed and wounded.

General A. S. Badger, beloved of all his command and the object of universal admiration for his cool self-reliance and unflinching courage, fell pierced with three musket shots, though the one in the leg is the only serious one, being a bad fracture of the bone below the knee.

After the fight was over the dead and wounded were removed to the Customhouse, where Drs. Ames and Schumaker attended to the wants of those who needed their services.

The following casualties were reported among the Metropolitan, but the list is very far from complete:

Sergeant James McManis, third precinct. Sergeant J. P. Champagne, fifth precinct. Corporal J. F. Clement, first precinct. Officer J. Hill, seventh precinct. Officer E. Simons, third precinct. Officer J. Shields, first precinct. Officer H. Ballard, sixth precinct.

WOUNDED.

Corporal William Carleton, mounted precinct, in leg. Officer J. Coleman, mounted precinct, in head and side. Corporal George C. Miller, mounted precinct, in thigh. Officer J. Long, mounted precinct, in head. Sergeant John McCann, first precinct, in leg. Officer John Kennedy, first precinct, mortally. Officer P. Mallahy, first precinct, in arm. Officer M. J. Barrett, sixth precinct, in foot. Officer M. Gonzalez, fourth precinct, in knee. Officer J. Conolly, first precinct, in leg. Officer W. H. Hawkins, second precinct, in leg. Officer S. S. Swan, sixth precinct, in leg. Officer Demassell, fifth precinct, in leg. Corporal J. Ryan, sixth precinct, in body. Officer L. Backus, sixth precinct, in arm. Officer L. Deslunes, sixth precinct, in leg. Officer T. Duffy, sixth precinct, in hand. Officer P. Casar, fourth precinct, in arm. Corporal C. Bergeron, fourth precinct, in leg. Officer A. Peot, fourth precinct, in leg. Officer R. Gonzales, fourth precinct, lay oner wounded in throat. Officer J. Gonzales, fourth precinct, in knee. Officer J. Murta, fourth precinct, in hand. Officer W. Nichols, fourth precinct, in head. Sergeant L. A. Thiabaut, fourth precinct, in hand. Officer G. Simpson, sixth precinct, in arm. Officer C. Elguro, third precinct, in leg. Officer C. Davis, fourth precinct, in body. Officer John Lee, fourth precinct, in arm. Officer L. Williams, sixth precinct, in knee. Officer O. Elmore, eighth precinct, in thigh. Officer Nelson Woody, sixth precinct, in face. Officer Otto Brandt, first precinct, in foot. Officer G. Cochon, second precinct, in chest. Officer W. Brown, leg amputated.

THE KILLED AND WOUNDED

The casualties among the White Leaguers were fully as numerous as on the other side. Messrs. West, Bozinger, S. B. Newman, Jr., Toledano, Trepanier, and Moirman were reported killed, with a long list of wounded.

The following were received at the Charity Hospital:

William Omond, in breast. Charles Kit, in arm. James Cross, slight. John Mern, in leg. John McCabe, in both arms. M. Betts, slight. Frank Owen, slight. Man supposed to be D. Sonlat, sugar broker, compound fracture of leg. J. H. Keller, in leg.

There was a rumor that General Longstreet and United States Marshal Packard were killed, but this had no foundation in fact.

The latest news from General Badger, who was in the Charity Hospital, was that his wounds were really serious, but that his life was not in great danger. It is believed that the wound in his leg must result in its being cut off.

Captain William McCann, of the third precinct, was captured after dark last evening, and there was a story on the streets that he had thrown up his Metropolitan commission. The Leaguers who arrested him released him on parole.

Leaguers took possession of the first precinct stationhouse and of the city first alarm telegraph office.

During the day delegations of the Leaguers demanded that the city administrators should resign their positions.

After dark the Leaguers walked around prominently above Canal street, but seldom interrupted any body. No one was permitted to go below Canal street without a "pass from headquarters," whatever that is. Pickets were posted all along Canal street, and they took particular notice of everybody.

During the evening several newspaper extras were issued. The Bulletin contained a proclamation from D. B. Penn, who signed himself Lieutenant Governor, as will be seen below. The following orders are also appended:

THE CITY HALL CAPTURED

By this time nearly every place of business was closed, and the central portion of our city in a state of great excitement. Non-combatants were seldom disturbed, and they generally passed to and fro as they pleased. Curiosity led many men to dangerous positions, especially on Canal street, where several unarmed men were wounded and killed.

General Ogden, commanding the White League, had his horse shot under him, and he barely escaped serious injury.

Owing to the general confusion the reporter found it almost a matter of impossibility to make a correct list of the killed and wounded.

General A. S. Badger, beloved of all his command and the object of universal admiration for his cool self-reliance and unflinching courage, fell pierced with three musket shots, though the one in the leg is the only serious one, being a bad fracture of the bone below the knee.

After the fight was over the dead and wounded were removed to the Customhouse, where Drs. Ames and Schumaker attended to the wants of those who needed their services.

The following casualties were reported among the Metropolitan, but the list is very far from complete:

Sergeant James McManis, third precinct. Sergeant J. P. Champagne, fifth precinct. Corporal J. F. Clement, first precinct. Officer J. Hill, seventh precinct. Officer E. Simons, third precinct. Officer J. Shields, first precinct. Officer H. Ballard, sixth precinct.

WOUNDED.

Corporal William Carleton, mounted precinct, in leg. Officer J. Coleman, mounted precinct, in head and side. Corporal George C. Miller, mounted precinct, in thigh. Officer J. Long, mounted precinct, in head. Sergeant John McCann, first precinct, in leg. Officer John Kennedy, first precinct, mortally. Officer P. Mallahy, first precinct, in arm. Officer M. J. Barrett, sixth precinct, in foot. Officer M. Gonzalez, fourth precinct, in knee. Officer J. Conolly, first precinct, in leg. Officer W. H. Hawkins, second precinct, in leg. Officer S. S. Swan, sixth precinct, in leg. Officer Demassell, fifth precinct, in leg. Corporal J. Ryan, sixth precinct, in body. Officer L. Backus, sixth precinct, in arm. Officer L. Deslunes, sixth precinct, in leg. Officer T. Duffy, sixth precinct, in hand. Officer P. Casar, fourth precinct, in arm. Corporal C. Bergeron, fourth precinct, in leg. Officer A. Peot, fourth precinct, in leg. Officer R. Gonzales, fourth precinct, lay oner wounded in throat. Officer J. Gonzales, fourth precinct, in knee. Officer J. Murta, fourth precinct, in hand. Officer W. Nichols, fourth precinct, in head. Sergeant L. A. Thiabaut, fourth precinct, in hand. Officer G. Simpson, sixth precinct, in arm. Officer C. Elguro, third precinct, in leg. Officer C. Davis, fourth precinct, in body. Officer John Lee, fourth precinct, in arm. Officer L. Williams, sixth precinct, in knee. Officer O. Elmore, eighth precinct, in thigh. Officer Nelson Woody, sixth precinct, in face. Officer Otto Brandt, first precinct, in foot. Officer G. Cochon, second precinct, in chest. Officer W. Brown, leg amputated.

THE KILLED AND WOUNDED

The casualties among the White Leaguers were fully as numerous as on the other side. Messrs. West, Bozinger, S. B. Newman, Jr., Toledano, Trepanier, and Moirman were reported killed, with a long list of wounded.

The following were received at the Charity Hospital:

William Omond, in breast. Charles Kit, in arm. James Cross, slight. John Mern, in leg. John McCabe, in both arms. M. Betts, slight. Frank Owen, slight. Man supposed to be D. Sonlat, sugar broker, compound fracture of leg. J. H. Keller, in leg.

There was a rumor that General Longstreet and United States Marshal Packard were killed, but this had no foundation in fact.

The latest news from General Badger, who was in the Charity Hospital, was that his wounds were really serious, but that his life was not in great danger. It is believed that the wound in his leg must result in its being cut off.

Captain William McCann, of the third precinct, was captured after dark last evening, and there was a story on the streets that he had thrown up his Metropolitan commission. The Leaguers who arrested him released him on parole.

Leaguers took possession of the first precinct stationhouse and of the city first alarm telegraph office.

During the day delegations of the Leaguers demanded that the city administrators should resign their positions.

After dark the Leaguers walked around prominently above Canal street, but seldom interrupted any body. No one was permitted to go below Canal street without a "pass from headquarters," whatever that is. Pickets were posted all along Canal street, and they took particular notice of everybody.

During the evening several newspaper extras were issued. The Bulletin contained a proclamation from D. B. Penn, who signed himself Lieutenant Governor, as will be seen below. The following orders are also appended:

THE CITY HALL CAPTURED

By this time nearly every place of business was closed, and the central portion of our city in a state of great excitement. Non-combatants were seldom disturbed, and they generally passed to and fro as they pleased. Curiosity led many men to dangerous positions, especially on Canal street, where several unarmed men were wounded and killed.

General Ogden, commanding the White League, had his horse shot under him, and he barely escaped serious injury.

Owing to the general confusion the reporter found it almost a matter of impossibility to make a correct list of the killed and wounded.

General A. S. Badger, beloved of all his command and the object of universal admiration for his cool self-reliance and unflinching courage, fell pierced with three musket shots, though the one in the leg is the only serious one, being a bad fracture of the bone below the knee.

After the fight was over the dead and wounded were removed to the Customhouse, where Drs. Ames and Schumaker attended to the wants of those who needed their services.

The following casualties were reported among the Metropolitan, but the list is very far from complete:

Sergeant James McManis, third precinct. Sergeant J. P. Champagne, fifth precinct. Corporal J. F. Clement, first precinct. Officer J. Hill, seventh precinct. Officer E. Simons, third precinct. Officer J. Shields, first precinct. Officer H. Ballard, sixth precinct.

WOUNDED.

Corporal William Carleton, mounted precinct, in leg. Officer J. Coleman, mounted precinct, in head and side. Corporal George C. Miller, mounted precinct, in thigh. Officer J. Long, mounted precinct, in head. Sergeant John McCann, first precinct, in leg. Officer John Kennedy, first precinct, mortally. Officer P. Mallahy, first precinct, in arm. Officer M. J. Barrett, sixth precinct, in foot. Officer M. Gonzalez, fourth precinct, in knee. Officer J. Conolly, first precinct, in leg. Officer W. H. Hawkins, second precinct, in leg. Officer S. S. Swan, sixth precinct, in leg. Officer Demassell, fifth precinct, in leg. Corporal J. Ryan, sixth precinct, in body. Officer L. Backus, sixth precinct, in arm. Officer L. Deslunes, sixth precinct, in leg. Officer T. Duffy, sixth precinct, in hand. Officer P. Casar, fourth precinct, in arm. Corporal C. Bergeron, fourth precinct, in leg. Officer A. Peot, fourth precinct, in leg. Officer R. Gonzales, fourth precinct, lay oner wounded in throat. Officer J. Gonzales, fourth precinct, in knee. Officer J. Murta, fourth precinct, in hand. Officer W. Nichols, fourth precinct, in head. Sergeant L. A. Thiabaut, fourth precinct, in hand. Officer G. Simpson, sixth precinct, in arm. Officer C. Elguro, third precinct, in leg. Officer C. Davis, fourth precinct, in body. Officer John Lee, fourth precinct, in arm. Officer L. Williams, sixth precinct, in knee. Officer O. Elmore, eighth precinct, in thigh. Officer Nelson Woody, sixth precinct, in face. Officer Otto Brandt, first precinct, in foot. Officer G. Cochon, second precinct, in chest. Officer W. Brown, leg amputated.