REPUBLICAN CONVENTION OF THE PARISH OF ORLEANS.

Fourth Day.

At eleven o'clock the convention assembled, seventy-nine members and a quorum present. President F. B. Stamps in the chair.

Prayer offered by Rev. John Webb.

The minutes of the previous day were read and adopted.

The formal acceptances of Messrs. Labatut for Mayor, James Lewis, for Administrator of Improvements and John Calhoun for that of Finance, were received.

The committee on resolutions and platform asked further time to make their report and it was granted.

The president then announced that nominations were in order for the rest of the city officers according to the schedule presented by the committee on rules and which had been adopted.

Under these rules nominations for Administrator of Public Accounts were declared in order.

Mr. Gaudet nominated Mr. L. J. Higby, and there being no name offered in opposition, he was chosen by acclamation.

Mr. Herbert then made a personal explanation in regard to his controversy with Governor Kellogg on the previous day, and said that he had made no assault on the Governor by shaking his fist at him, as had been reported.

On motion of Mr. Sanson, the following committee was appointed to inform Mr. Higby of his nomination:

A. J. Sanson, E. T. Stamps, P. F. Herwig, A. J. Redmond, J. Kiordan, H. Maroney, J. T. Claiborne, C. B. Argenta.

Mr. Devonshire then nominated Mr. F. B. Dumas for Administrator of Commerce, and his nomination was immediately made unanimous.

On motion, the following committee was appointed to wait upon Mr. Dumas:

A. Paterno, R. Devonshire, P. Boutin, B. B. Edgeworth, E. Mullin, Paul Bruce and Thomas Freeman.

Mr. H. Bonzano was then unanimously made the candidate for Administrator of Assessments.

The following committee was then appointed to obtain Mr. Bonzano's acceptance:

Meers, L. D. Herbert, J. B. Gaudet, F. Faquet, E. J. Brunet, M. E. Perrault, E. Williams, P. W. Green.

The call was then made for nominations for Administrator of Waterworks.

Mr. McCane in a short speech nominated Mr. A. Sparicio, Mr. Dupasseau named Mr. W. H. Bell, the present City Surveyor. Mr. Herbert named Michael Gernon, and Mr. Williams Henry Ballard.

On the first ballot the result was Sparicio 44, Bell 1, Gernon 52, Ballard 4, total 101.

A second ballot was demanded, and the vote stood, Messrs. Bell and Ballard having withdrawn by their nominators: Sparicio 58, Gernon 43, total 101.

On motion, the following committee was then selected by the president to inform Mr. Sparicio of the action of the convention:

Messrs. C. P. Vigers, M. P. Creagh, H. Paterno, J. Jordan, M. Brown, L. D. Herbert, W. H. Dorsey.

On motion of Mr. Creagh the nomination was made unanimous.

President Stamps then called Mr. L. D. Herbert to the chair.

Mr. Stamps said that he desired to make a nomination for Administrator of Police from an element of the community which had always supported the Republican party.

To the Germans was due a recognition as well as to the other part of the party. The name he would present would command respect, and when the contest was over every man who voted for it would think of his action with pleasure. He named John Garstkaup.

Mr. Creagh desired that a good Republican should fill that office, and placed the name of W. F. Loan before the convention. Mr. Perrault nominated Captain Peter Joseph.

The result of the ballot was as follows: Loan 53, Garstkaup 25, Joseph 20, total 101.

On motion the following committee was appointed to call on Mr. Loan and obtain his acceptance: John Lewis, Ralph Sherman, C. H. Dubart, John Campbell, Samuel Green, J. B. Gaudet, Richard Miller.

The following nominations were then made for civil sheriff:

By Mr. Middleton, Charles W. Ringgold; by Mr. Reynolds, J. L. Herwig; and by Mr. Edgeworth, John L. Swords.

Balloting was immediately proceeded with, and resulted as follows: Herwig of Ringgold 14, Swords 19, and 1 vote changed from him, blank 3, total 36.

Mr. Herwig was declared nominated, and the following committee appointed to wait upon him: John Reynolds, William Vigers, Joseph Metet, E. Mallein, Ed. Jones, P. J. Maloney, Thomas Freeman.

President Stamps resumed the chair.

Mr. Gaudet then said that in making the next nomination he desired to say a few words. On the ticket as already presented, many diverse nationalities had been done to, but as yet no justice had been done to the colored sheriff element. He nominated for criminal sheriff Joseph Boutte.

Mr. Devonshire said that there was a man who was today lying on a bed of illness, suffering from wounds he had received because of his devotion to the Republican party. His name, he thought, should be placed before all others when he asked for a vote, and he asked the convention to vote for his nomination—General A. S. Badger.

Mr. William Vigers claimed and obtained the floor. He rose to second the nomination of Mr. Boutte, for that nomination was one that at this moment the colored voters of the Republican party claimed as their rights. Considering the greater part of its strength they had a right to demand and did now demand an acknowledgement. Of the Administrators nominated only two were colored. Our people have been demanded, given up the civil sheriff, but we will have this. As for General Badger, no one can go further than I in acknowledging his services, expressing my devotion or giving him my support. He has done that which the Republican party will always take care of him. The laurel he has won will always command the respect of our opponents and we will never disgrace ourselves by refusing to add a leaf to it when we can. But today the colored people must say that when we have given away all the rest, we must have the nomination for criminal sheriff.

Mr. McCane followed with a few words eulogistic of General Badger, but expressing his intention of supporting Mr. Boutte.

Mr. Woodruff was called to the chair.

Mr. Herbert said that, as a colored man, he wished to second the nomination of General Badger. He had not come to the convention to stand upon questions of color like a White League. Honesty of purpose, service to party, devotion to principle and fidelity to all were the qualities which commanded his respect. He would divest his mind, and urged the convention to do the same, of all considerations of color. When the name of General Badger was presented, whose blood had been spilled in the streets of New Orleans in defense of the Republican party, no one could, he thought, hesitate a moment on a question of color. He acknowledged the merits of Mr. Boutte, but appealed to all not to be bound by ties which were simply analogous to those which made the White League party. Care nothing for the color of the skin of your candidate, but rely on his honesty, ability, service and fidelity.

Mr. Stamps said that no man deserved better of the Republican party than General Badger, and reiterated that he would be taken care of, but the question now presented was really one of color, and must be so decided. General Badger had been placed in nomination by certain parties on purpose to beat Mr. Boutte—if certain parties because they knew no one else could do it. We do not propose to act on the principle of the White League, but on justice and right. We demand the position that belongs to our people.

The balloting was then proceeded with, and resulted, Badger 14, Boutte 58, and one change from blank, making him 59, and he was declared elected.

The president then appointed the following gentlemen to wait upon him:

Messrs. Placide Boutin, Robert Chevers, Charles Middleton, M. E. Perrault, Edward Williams, Alexander Bradley, J. B. Gaudet and John Jordan.

Mr. Boutte was then led forward by the committee and beamed on the convention from beside the president, Mr. Stamps having resumed the chair.

Mr. Boutte only expressed his thanks, and said that he believed the convention knew he would do the best he could.

A few resolutions were then presented and referred to the committee on resolutions.

The following, offered by Mr. Charles P. Vigers, was adopted:

Resolved, That we reaffirm our unalterable allegiance to and confidence in the Hon. P. B. S. Pinchback, United States Senator elect from Louisiana, and while we regret that he has not yet been seated, we have every faith that the Senate of the United States will, in due time, honor his credentials as one of the representatives of the sovereign State of Louisiana. But in case it should be deemed necessary for the General Assembly of Louisiana, at its next session, to ratify his credentials as United States Senator, we hereby nominate and endorse the Hon. P. B. S. Pinchback as our unanimous choice and only candidate for United States Senator from this State, and direct our Republican members of the General Assembly to put in force and execute this declaration of the deliberate wisdom of the Republican party in convention assembled.

The convention then adjourned until 4 P. M.

At that hour it reassembled, a quorum being present.

It was announced that many of the district and ward caucuses had made nominations, and that the result was upon the desk of the secretary.

The nominations were not read in the order here presented, but followed the report of the committee on rules, only varying as certain delegates demanded the calling of certain nominations.

Several nominations were left open, the ward and district delegations desiring more time, and the report was made from each of them that they would report their nominations to the parish committee, and this was considered satisfactory by the convention.

Mr. Gaudet then moved that when the convention adjourn it should be subject to the call of the president, and his motion was carried.

The president then stated that the only further business he had to offer to the consideration of the convention was a letter from Mr. Bonzano, and the following was then read:

NEW ORLEANS, October 15, 1874.

Sir—Accept, with a high sense of appreciation, the honor you have conferred on me in making me the unanimous choice of the convention for the position of Administrator of Assessments for the city of New Orleans.

This compliment is particularly flattering to me, as it is an expression of approval of my former services in the same capacity. Very respectfully, your obedient servant, H. BONZANO.

Hon. T. B. Stamps, President of Parish Nominating Convention.

Mr. Vigers then offered a resolution of thanks to the president and the rest of the officers, and Mr. Stamps called him to the chair to put it.

The resolution was carried, and Mr. Stamps resumed the chair, the convention adjourned subject to call.
