STATE ELECTION.

RETURNS COMING IN SLOWLY

Republicans Probably Carry the State by 10,000 Majority.

THE DEMOCRACY HOLD THE CITY

Republican Majority in the House and Senate.

The returns come in very slowly. The votes of the city officers are not yet all returned.

The Democrats are happy that they have elected their city ticket, and we certainly can produce no figures to prove them in error in that respect.

The majority for Mr. Leeds and his colleagues is not much short of 12,000-3,000 more than Mr. Wiltz received two years ago.

Congressman Sypher is probably beaten, according to the following showing--with Plaquemine parish to hear from, and one poll each in the third and fourth wards.

First Congressional District.

Third ward, Sypher, 2,415; Gibson, 1,600.

Fourth ward, Sypher, 2,116; Gibson, 1,516.

Fifth ward, Sypher, 2,116; Gibson, 1,516.

Sixth ward, Sypher, 2,116; Gibson, 1,516.

Seventh ward, Sypher, 2,116; Gibson, 1,516.

Eighth ward, Sypher, 2,116; Gibson, 1,516.

Ninth ward, Sypher, 2,116; Gibson, 1,516.

Tenth ward, Sypher, 2,116; Gibson, 1,516.

Plaquemine, Sypher, 2,116; Gibson, 1,516.

Total, Sypher, 21,160; Gibson, 15,160.

Judge Dibble has a better prospect of success, with three strong Republican parishes to hear from, and three polls in the second, thirteenth and fourteenth wards.

Second Congressional District.

First ward, Dibble, 2,116; Ellis, 1,516.

Second ward, Dibble, 2,116; Ellis, 1,516.

Third ward, Dibble, 2,116; Ellis, 1,516.

Fourth ward, Dibble, 2,116; Ellis, 1,516.

Fifth ward, Dibble, 2,116; Ellis, 1,516.

Sixth ward, Dibble, 2,116; Ellis, 1,516.

Seventh ward, Dibble, 2,116; Ellis, 1,516.

Eighth ward, Dibble, 2,116; Ellis, 1,516.

Ninth ward, Dibble, 2,116; Ellis, 1,516.

Tenth ward, Dibble, 2,116; Ellis, 1,516.

Total, Dibble, 21,160; Ellis, 15,160.

In the third, fourth, fifth and sixth districts the Republican candidates for Congress were undoubtedly elected.

When it is considered that some of the strongest Republican parishes are farthest away from telegraphic communication, it is fair to charge the Democrats with being prematurely happy over the result.

Returns received last evening go to show that Mr. Duboulet is re-elected State Treasurer by a majority approximating to 10,000.

Of the Senators chosen probably eight are Democrats and the balance Republicans, as follows:

First--J. H. Grover, Dem. W. J. Kelly, Dem. H. D. Ogden, Dem.

Second--E. T. Allen, Rep. Third--W. H. Stevens, Dem.

Fourth--J. B. Eastin, Dem. Fifth--A. Dumont, Rep.

Sixth--H. H. Chaboussier, Rep. Seventh--P. Landry, Rep.

Eighth--E. S. Goode, Dem. Ninth--J. E. Brown, Rep.

Tenth--J. H. Burch, Rep. Eleventh--M. H. B. Mitchell, Rep.

Twelfth--David Young, Rep. Thirteenth--A. G. A. Rep.

Fourteenth--A. B. G. Rep. Fifteenth--M. H. B. Mitchell, Rep.

Sixteenth--A. G. A. Rep. Seventeenth--A. G. A. Rep.

TO OUR LATE OPPONENTS.

Now that it has become absolutely certain, though generally believed probable for some time, that the parish of Orleans has passed entirely into the hands of the Democratic roster, it becomes us to survey the late battlefield.

Just around us the smoke has disappeared, the victors are seen triumphant, the crown has been found in the bramble bush without endangering the eyes of the victorious Richmond, and a few of the slain are scattered over the stage as ornamental adjuncts to the crowning. It is of no use attempting to explain who so much of this is thus, and why we are not one of these instead of one of those. There were too many voted on the other side.

When the parish convention of the Republican party massed its concrete wisdom to form so opaque and fuliginous a ticket that no voter could see a Democratic candidate through it, all things indicated a consciousness of certain triumph. No leaders were disposed to make concessions of favorites to improve the ticket. The chance was too good. "Never mind what that man has done for us, we demand this office for our candidate." No more concessions; no yielding to humbler demands. Give us all or nothing. They felt as Richard did--when the ghosts didn't trouble him. They had their Stanley, and were equally willing to cry, "Off instantly with his son George's head." Ah! like Hans Breitman's party--

Where are those leaders now? On the mountain's brow? They must honestly confess they met their enemy, and having become their personal property by the fortune of war have no further interest in matters in this locality, but turn their eyes toward the north, for over the whole State the smoke still hangs and the reports of Republican guns still come. From out this smoke will come consolation, for with better management and more ability the State is still Republican.

But in all seriousness, our Democratic friends have now their opportunity to prove their ability to govern this city. They are untrammelled, and have only to keep their promises to make it a good government. Now that they have won, the support of the REPUBLICAN is theirs in every act for the good of the city; and if their efforts are successful and order is brought out of chaos no praise can be too great, and none will be more sincere.

More Such Parishes Wanted.

The following article from the St. Charles Herald speaks in favor of that parish. That the people should be so sensible, so appreciative of the good qualities of each other, and so desirous of harmony and good government that there should be not only no bickering, and petty jealousies in the separate parties, but even a union of both on a worthy candidate, is a strange event in Louisiana. Governor Isha was not nominated as a compromise candidate, nor did he seek for votes outside of his own party. But as a consistent Republican he has received the entire Democratic vote of his parish. What a power such a man can wield in an assembly where all appear as the choice of a portion of the voters of their districts, or hold their seats subject to the report of the Committee on Contested Elections. The simple words, "I am the unanimous choice of my parish" are enough to command a hearing, and give his vote a weight which even the most corrupt must envy.

Should intelligent emigration ever seek Louisiana, in spite of the efforts to drive it away, it will be directed to such parishes as St. Charles, and not toward turbulent Caddo or Rapides of bloody memory.

There seems to have been great and bitter contention going on in most of the parishes among the candidates for the Legislature. Dr. Wilkinson, an ex-Republican, has been elected, and he is a man of high character and noble bearing. He is a man of high character and noble bearing. He is a man of high character and noble bearing.

Advices from this parish indicate the election of the Republican ticket by about fifty majority. This is shown by the count of the polls at Madisonville, Mandeville and Covington. A. J. Cousin is elected to the House.

THE ELECTIONS.

ALABAMA.

Colored Conservatives and Woman Suffrage--Democratic Gains.

MONTGOMERY, November 3.--An immense vote is being quietly polled. Many colored men openly vote the Conservative ticket.

At Tusculum, after the closing of the polls a difficulty took place between the Radical ticket at Huntville. They were jailed.

Electoral quiet. No disturbance of any kind. The vote is 800 less than in 1872, and is claimed as that much Democratic gain. The returns are very meagre, owing to the great length of the ticket.
