SCHOOL BOARD.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of school directors was held last evening. Present--Hon. H. C. Dibble, president, Superintendent Boothby and Messrs. Clark, Stamps, Dumont, Ingraham, McCarty, McConnell, Pinchback, Rey, Russell, Shaw and Tracy.

The minutes of the previous meetings were read and approved. The president reported that since the last meeting of the board it had come to his knowledge and to that of the chairman of the committee on finance that the City Administrator, by an ordinance, by an agreement with certain corporations, were about to devote a large sum--nearly $100,000--receivable from them for taxes, entirely to the payment of a certain debt, to the exclusion of the payment of twenty-five mills due the school fund from such taxes.

He had accordingly signed a petition, drawn by Mr. Shaw, for an injunction on the city, which had been issued, and the case was still pending.

He further reported a proposition of Mr. Keller for a new schoolhouse, which was referred to executive session.

The treasurer's report showed the following balances: Tax of 1871.....$187 36 Tax of 1872.....265 12 Tax of 1873.....40 74 Tax of 1874.....95 23 Total.....$483 25

Mr. Tracy, of the visiting committee of the Third District, reported the necessity of books. Mr. Ingraham, of the Seventh District, also submitted a report.

The report of Mr. Shaw, of the finance committee, was postponed to a special meeting.

Other reports of minor importance were submitted and referred to appropriate committees or to executive session.

A resolution by Mr. Tracy, engaging porters and portresses for the Third District, for the following year, was adopted by a vote of six to five.

Resolutions directing the expenditure of small sums for repairs, etc., were adopted.

Mr. Ingraham suggested there should be another schoolhouse in the rear of the seventh ward, Third District, and the Committee on Schoolhouses was instructed to examine the matter.

The president appointed the following visiting committees for November: First District--Messrs. Longstreet, Tussell and Dibble. Second District--Messrs. Carey, Stamps and McCarty. Third District--Messrs. Shaw, Rey and McConnell. Fourth District--Messrs. Billings and Pinchback. Fifth District--Messrs. Clark and Dumont. Sixth District--Messrs. Tracy and Gaudin. Seventh District--Messrs. Rey and Gaudin.

The following changes were made in teachers: Miss A. L. Desgouttes to Lahnre School, in place of Miss Kneas, resigned; Miss A. A. Sullivan, promoted to place of Miss Desgouttes, and Miss Elliott, elected to fill the vacancy made by the promotion of Miss Sullivan; Miss M. G. McComas, of Clio School, transferred to Live Oak Boys' School, in place of Miss Springer, resigned; Miss Annie Ludwick, of Jackson Girls' School, transferred to the Clio School, and Miss Mary Wilson, elected to the Jackson School, in place of Miss Ludwick; Miss D. P. Pickens, transferred to the Keller School, and Miss Thompson to the Live Oak Girls' School, both as first assistants.

The board then adjourned.

The Mexican Steamship Line. The connection of Mexico with New Orleans by a regular line of steamers plying between this port and Vera Cruz is now an accomplished fact, as demonstrated by the steamship City of Mexico, now lying at the head of Girod street. This fine steamer is of the main line of F. Alexander & Sons, and left Vera Cruz on the evening of October 27, and arrived at her wharf here on the morning of the second instant, making the trip in five days' time. She brought a fair freight of hides, sugar, hemp in bale and other merchandise, and forty-three passengers.

The City of Mexico is one of the best steamers of its class afloat. She was built at the Wilmington yards for the Mexican trade and passenger service, is of 1626 tons burden, and measures 210 feet from stem to stern. Her officers are W. B. Sherwood, captain; Mr. Emory, first officer; Barnett, second officer; Belsch, purser; Penelton, chief engineer; Walsh, first assistant engineer, and Mr. Rodd, steward, carrying in all forty-six persons as officers and crew. A semi-natural uniform is worn by the officers of this line, like that adopted by European steamers, and the crew is thoroughly drilled and divided into detachments for accident or fire service, according to a system peculiar to the Alexander line.

The advent of this line, which will carry the Mexican mails, is also one of great commercial importance, and bids fair to open up a new trade, with quick transit, in which all our merchants should interest themselves. Captain Sherwood, an accomplished officer and gentleman, can be found on board his ship, ready to give willing information concerning the business of the line. The City of Mexico will be followed here by the Cuba, due on the twenty-first instant.

Daylight as a man. There has been many a man for the past year, who seemed enveloped in clouds and darkness. Business has become dull, stagnant and prostrated, and financial desolation appeared to be impending; but the darkest hour is just before day, and daylight is at last approaching--especially is this the case for those who have secured their tickets for the next gift concert of the Public Library of Kentucky, which takes place November 30. The $2,500,000 in magnificent cash prizes will that day be distributed, and many a heart will that day be made glad.

The thermometer at Louis Frigerio's, No. 50 Chartres street, on November 4, stood as follows: At 8 A. M., 52°; at 2 P. M., 71°; at 6 P. M., 67°. Lowest point during the night of November 3, 41°.

AMUSEMENTS.

The St. Charles Theatre--Fechter. The opening of the old St. Charles Theatre on Tuesday evening, with the star attraction of Mr. Charles Fechter as Hamlet, drew a respectable audience. With the merits of Mr. Fechter as an actor, the reading, public are thoroughly acquainted, having achieved a reputation in Paris and London as the foremost actor of the day, he came to America, bringing the special recommendation of Charles Dickens, and under most advantageous circumstances appeared at Niblo's Garden in New York, January 10, 1852, as King Lear. That engagement lasted six weeks and Fechter acting was the rage. His success in Boston was as great. Criticism at this time is a waste of words. His robust person appears as much out of place in the guise of Hamlet as did the muscular Forrest. His pronunciation is not perfect, yet it is not unpleasant. Mr. Fechter is unquestionably a great actor, peculiar and original. If he is not to all the ideal Hamlets, his performance of that character has at least a show of reason and is deserving of consideration. He appeared last night as Claude Melotte and to-night will again act Hamlet. His support by Miss Lizzie Price and the new company was satisfactory.

The Varieties Theatre. Last night was opened for the regular season the Varieties Theatre. It was a grand opening and the beautiful theatre was crowded with the elite of our theatre goers. The play chosen was the old time comedy, "The School for Scandal," the manager, Mr. John E. Owens, playing Sir Peter. His reception was most flattering, for he has a strong hold upon the popular favor of the public of New Orleans. The manner in which the comedy was put upon the stage augurs well for the future. The play has been better acted, but it has never received a finer stage setting here than it had last night. The scenery was new and appropriate, and the furniture, appointments and costumes were elegant. In accordance with modern ideas the play has been a little altered, to permit the action of an entire act to take place without change of scene. Mr. Owens has organized a good working company, and with his own genius as a leader, will be enabled to give good entertainments.

The Globe Theatre. As an offset to the legitimate drama at the St. Charles and comedy at the Varieties, Manager Kittredge is giving the burlesque of "Sonnabunda" and a good variety bill at his cozy little Globe. New faces are to appear there shortly, among them the genteel young comedian late with the Lingers, also Miss Minnie Jackson, and the best of all song and dance men, Delahanty and Hongler.

The Murder of Johnny Redden at Shreveport. The Shreveport Telegram of October 30, gives the following account of the killing of the minstrel actor in that city: Last evening about half past eight o'clock, this community was again startled from its slumber by the sharp, clear and distinct report of a pistol, at the corner of Market and Texas streets, which was followed in almost the twinkling of an eye by another shot from the same quarter. Together by these reports, found that Mr. John Redden, the well-known delineator of the Ethiopian character on the American stage, and who has been manager of the Orpheus Varieties Theatre at Brewer's Hall, for the past few weeks, twice shot by Mr. Leon Dreyfus, and lay in the throes of death and weltering in the profusion of blood. The report of the pistol struck him in the chin and the other in the right eye, the strength of youthful manhood thus suddenly stricken down.

Mr. Dreyfus, however, surrendered himself to the police and was lodged in the parish jail. The body of Mr. Redden was conveyed to his room on Spring street, where he expired almost immediately. One of the reasons for the murder, it is believed, was the effect of which he had most profusely.

A jury of inquest was summoned by Leon E. Dreyfus, justice of the peace and official coroner, who made the return in substance that the deceased, John Redden, came to his death from pistol shot in the head, said pistol being discharged while in the hands of Leon Dreyfus. The jury consisted of Mr. Charles Dewing, foreman, and Charles Crain, John Hicks, John Eichenbrecht and G. W. Sherrard.

After the late news was considerable excitement but no demonstration of a hurtful character. Mr. Dreyfus has been long a citizen here, but has been absent for some months, returning only a day or two since. He has no relatives here and has been for several years past a sporting man. The deceased is a native of New York, we are told, and has been prominent as a negro minstrel, and has been for many years, and his notes always elicited the applause of the audience before which he appeared.

The deceased, however, having been informed of his death by telegraph, has given instructions for his remains to be sent home to New York for interment, and his body will be forwarded this evening by rail.

The reason of the murder is not definitely known. From what we can learn, it originated in regard to the closing of the Orpheus Varieties Theatre at Brewer's Hall, Dreyfus having purchased the controlling interest in the same, we are informed, and closing the establishment. Redden was somewhat under the influence of liquor when the encounter occurred, and he had been in front of the Exchange, on the corner of Texas and Market streets, and we can not but regret that he has met with so untimely a fate. We are glad to get any case in which was to blame in bringing about a fatal meeting that is the province of the courts, and whatever action they take we shall publish.

Retirement. Enough is now known of the character of the annual estimates to show that for the last year the estimates, both for public works and for the navy, are those under the treasury, are very much reduced. The cost of the navy remains about the same, while the army, in some of its supplies, has been increased. The cost of the last session, Secretary Belknap has regulated his estimates strictly in accordance with law. Treasury estimates have been framed exactly upon what the House gave in its last appropriation. The cost of the Indian service will not be diminished. The deficiency in the Postoffice Department will be increased, owing to the rapid extension and added facilities. As a total result, however, the reductions are, as stated, something over $10,000,000.

The report of General Humphreys, chief engineer, has been submitted to the Secretary of War. Work in all directions during the past season has progressed finely. Upon river and harbor and fortifications, much of the heavy work which has been completed, or several years back to nearly completed, and estimates are in consequence very materially reduced. The fortification of harbors is being confined, so far as heavy work is concerned, to the harbor of New York, which can be bettered by ironclads carrying the heavy rifled modern ordnance, and where a successful entrance would sacrifice the harbor. Experiments are being made on the coast, so that very great reliance can be placed upon this new weapon for harbor defense.

STATE ELECTION.

THE RESULT STILL IN DOUBT. THE CITY DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY RETURNS COMING IN VERY SLOWLY.

A few more parishes are heard from, with the result as given below. The Democratic footing up of the result shows a vote of 35,193 for Monroe and 14,067 for Dubucllet in the city. It is interesting to compare these figures with those of the last election. In 1872 Governor Kellogg received 14,043 votes--a difference of twenty-four in favor of Mr. Dubucllet. Mr. McEnery received 30,537 the same year, while Mr. Monroe received 5500 more last Tuesday.

Mr. Leeds claims his seat by a majority of 11,634; Mr. Brown, 12,180; Mr. Pilsbury, 11,548; Mr. Burke, 11,890; Mr. Landry, 10,988; Mr. Bertoli, 12,346; Mr. McCarty, 11,864; Mr. Boumy, 11,233; Mr. Wagmann, 12,316; Mr. Fagan, 12,537; Chastant, 7716; DeBlanc, 5280.

The tally sheets indicate the election of all the Democratic members of the Legislature in the city except two--Jourdain, of the seventh ward, and Gracien, of Algiers. The vote in the first and second congressional districts is still incomplete.

There is no longer any doubt of the election of Congressman Darrall in the third district, and Nash in the sixth. General Morley's vote is somewhat reduced in the fifth district, while scarcely any figures are yet received from the fourth, although Congressman Smith is sanguine of success.

BY TELEGRAPH.

THE ELECTION. ALABAMA. Democratic Majority Six to Ten Thousand, with a Gain of Three Congressmen.

MONTGOMERY, October 4.--Enough returns are received to insure the election of the Five Congressmen are certain, and there is a chance for two others, and a majority in the Legislature. The white people of the State are more numerous than the negroes, and the Democratic ticket in this State than whites voted the Radical. Gains are reported from every county heard from except Sumpter, the base of operations of Beach and Hester.

Twenty-eight counties, unofficial, show a net Democratic gain of 10,000--this includes Sumter and Green counties, where colored Democrats were intimidated. In six counties the Republican majority of 1872 and leaves the Democrats 1500 ahead. Thirty-seven counties to hear from will increase the Democratic majority 6000 or 8000, one of the largest votes ever cast in the State, Haralson, colored Republican, in the first; Bradford, Democrat, in the third; Hays, Republican, in the fourth; Calhoun, Democrat, in the fifth; Wilcox, Democrat, in the sixth; and Lewis and Forney, Democrats, for the State at large, are undoubtedly elected to Congress.

Texas, Democrat, in the second district, is probably elected over Rapier by 600 or 700. All of Rapier's strongholds have been heard from, and he loses in them all. This leaves Williams with 800 behind, with his strongholds to hear from. Seven counties yet behind will average 200 each for Williams. This gives a Democratic gain of three Congressmen.

Four Democratic Congressmen Elected. LITTLE ROCK, November 4.--Enough returns are received to indicate with considerable certainty that Gauso is elected in the first, Cemens in the second, Wilshire in the third and Gunter in the fourth districts. All are Democrats.

ARKANSAS. Georgia Remains Democratic. AUGUSTA, Ga., November 14.--The entire delegation to Congress in Democratic beyond a doubt. A coroner's inquest on the night of the election in honor of Democratic triumphs. Speeches were made by Cumming, Black, Tait, and others. Butler was burned in effigy.

Illinois. CHICAGO, November 4.--A dispatch from Peoria says Ross, Democrat, for Congress, is elected in the sixth district by a small majority.
