SUPERIOR DISTRICT COURT.

Auditor Clinton On Trial.

The trial of the case of Auditor Clinton occupied nearly the whole day in the Superior District Court yesterday. Much time was consumed in discovering that many of the witnesses for the plaintiff were absent, and issuing of subpoenas for others that waste of time, and in answer to the notice of the Attorney General to the Auditor to produce vouchers for all the warrants issued, the stub books and books of entry, said, anything the State chose to call for at any stage of the proceedings would be produced at any time. A subpoena duces tecum was also issued to the Auditor.

A little more sharp sparring followed with out any getting very much excited. Judge Cotton opened the case with the long petition setting forth that the amounts had been issued on warrants to James Longstreet, George C. Beahm, J. B. Wanda, E. W. Dawson, C. W. Lowell, James M. Matthews, J. H. Oglesby and J. W. Armstrong & Co. Mr. Semmes objected to the waste of time, and in answer to the notice of the Attorney General to the Auditor to produce vouchers for all the warrants issued, the stub books and books of entry, said, anything the State chose to call for at any stage of the proceedings would be produced at any time.

Mr. Semmes objected to the issue of subpoenas to the Auditor. He said that the Auditor had issued warrants to officers of the House and Senate unauthorized by law. The witness was competent to show the proper number of pages and clerks he certified to. He could then show by documentary evidence how many the Auditor had paid. Mr. Semmes stated the petition must contain an allegation of the fact the Attorney General wished to prove and he objected to the question as not warranted by the petition.

Colonel Field said he would examine the petition again and if it did not be would withdraw the question. As it was then three o'clock the court adjourned till to-day.

Return of the Templars.

Yesterday the weary pilgrims representing the three Commanderies of Knights Templar of this city, returned from sojourning at Mississippi City. They have glowing accounts to give of their pilgrimage, and every man did his duty, as was expected of him. For the time being the Barnes Hotel was called Camp Fellows, and the banner of the cross was set up as a sign. The time passed all too soon between Friday night and yesterday morning. The Knights were happy and the days went lightly by. Much attention was paid to eating, some to drill, and occasionally a drink of water was indulged in. Sunday morning divine services were held in the pavilion hall, when Rev. H. C. Duncan, Grand Prelate, preached an excellent discourse, which was listened to by all of the Knights and many visitors present. In the evening a grand review of Templars was held on the parade ground, which display was under the direction of Eminent Grand Commander Joseph H. De Grows, assisted by Sir Knight J. Q. A. Felton, past grand commander of the United States. The Templars were attended by the splendid band of the Third United States Infantry, which made the parade still more attractive. A number of Sir Knights from Mobile reported for duty, and everything was harmonious and pleasant. Captain E. L. Dean, of the revenue cutter Melane, put in an appearance at the wharf, and made himself agreeable by taking a party to Ship Island, and what is more, bringing them back.

The event of the visit to Mississippi City was the grand ball which was given on Monday evening. The ballroom was the broad lawn in front of the hotel. A large dancing platform had been laid, and there beauty waited with gallantry, fanned by breezes cooled by the lake. In all the trees surrounding the lawn Chinese lanterns were displayed, which added greatly to the effect. The floor manager was under the direction of Sir Knight K. G. Eyrich, and no ball could have been better managed. Everybody had elbow room and was happy. Very many beautiful ladies graced the rustic scene with their presence. Among them were Miss Henderson, Seal, and others of Mississippi, including Miss Jetties, of Port Gibson, who was tastefully dressed in becoming black, and wore the colors of Orleans Commandery. From this city were the Misses Miltenberger, Stecker, Austin, Osborne, Thibault, Lonsdale, Thorne, Muir, Maxwell, and a host of others. But all pleasures of this life end in time, and the ball ended long before breakfast on Tuesday morning.

The Sir Knights left Mississippi City yesterday at noon, and arrived here at four o'clock in the evening. When they arrived at the depot they were surprised at being received by nearly 100 of the Templars home guard, who came to a "front" and "present" under the command of Sir Knight George Soule. The wanderers were assured of a welcome by a few remarks made by Sir Knight S. M. Todd, and then Sir Knight Fellows said something for the wanderers, and the line of march was taken up toward Masonic Hall, the home guard doing escort duty headed by Walcher's little German band. The march was from the Mobile depot on Canal street to Camp, up Camp to Poydras, to St. Charles, and to the hall. There was then nothing to do but break ranks and doff the knightly toggery. It was a pleasant thought, the idea of making a little display to welcome the returning fraters, and we believe the execution of the plan is due to the efforts of Sir Knights Haggart and Irens, who named the summons to the faithful. The pilgrims returned unburned, but strong from recreation; they were welcomed back by those who have been with them in spirit. It is well so.

Important to Property Holders.

To-day is the last day of grace allowed to delinquent taxpayers. If by three o'clock to-day settlement with the State is not made, the provisions of act No. 7, series of 1873, will be rigidly enforced. Especially firm and resolute will be found the tax collector of the First District. Mr. Folger rightly deems it an act of absolute justice to those good citizens who have paid their taxes to inflict all the penalties of the law upon those who shirk their duties. The time for leniency has passed, and the very nature of the enactment takes away from the tax collector all power to do otherwise than carry out the summary dictates. So, after to-day, all penalties hitherto suspended will again assure upon unpaid taxes, and in default of immediate payment the whole will be sold to the highest bidder.

Mr. Lowell being asked if he knew the Armstrong vouchers, said it bore his signature, and was a legislative voucher from the contingent expense committee. It was the Pence on the Border.

The special dispatch published in this morning's TRIBUNE conveys the pleasing assurance that peace and order have been re-established on the Rio Grande. The brigades, who have sought under the guise of a national faction to create a war between our sister republic and this nation, were promptly checked and scattered. Cortina, the chief of the band, is a fugitive from justice.

By this promptitude of action the Mexican government evinces an earnest desire for friendly relations and an apparent determination that quiet shall be permanent and edictal.

Good order being now an accomplished fact, the United States troops heretofore halted upon the Rio Grande, will proceed to the Red river country to give the Indians a quietus.

Mail Service to the Jetties.

Mr. J. B. Price, contractor for carrying the mail between New Orleans and Buras, Pilot Town and South Pass, will afford to business or excursion parties an opportunity of seeing the river outlet and the improvements of navigation now under construction. On Monday next the Iberia, Captain Morse commanding, will make a visit to the jetties. Many of our citizens having a deep interest in the success of this enterprise will avail themselves of the opportunity to form an opinion of the progress which is to be constructed. Mr. T. Tupper, who has transferred the Iberia from the Teche for this service, will accompany the office at No. 26 Carondelet street, and from his urbanity and experience we anticipate every facility essential to the comfort or safety of passengers and excursionists.

Georgetown University.

The fifty-eighth annual commencement of Georgetown College, District of Columbia, last Thursday was more than usually brilliant, and honors were borne off by several young men of Louisiana. John G. Agar received awards for rhetoric, English literature and elocution; but, of more value than all, this talented young Louisianian bore of the Toner scientific medal, given by Joseph M. Toner, Esq., M. D., for progress in natural science.

Albert Laplace received three awards—one for languages, one for algebra, and the other for Christian doctrine. John M. Fleetwood distinguished himself in algebra, and bore of the first premium of the music class for excellence with the viola.

Court Items.

In the First District Court Judge Abell overruled the demurrer of Alfred Shaw, Esq., to the information against the private market men on the ground that the Supreme Court having sustained the law in the case of the city against Stodard, the informations were well founded. The butchers will, therefore, have to trust to a jury.

John Bennett, who was remanded to prison by Judge Meunier on his application for a writ of habeas corpus as improperly confined on a commitment as a dangerous and suspicious character, has applied for another writ from Judge Abell, the return being directed to be made this morning.

The Temperature.

The thermometer at Louis Frigier's, No. 59 Chartres street, on June 29 stood as follows: A. S. M. 81°; at 2 P. M. 81°; at 6 P. M. 79°. Lowest point during the night of June 29, 75°.

THE INDIAN SCOUTING PARTY.

Both Republics Striving to Maintain Order.

CORTINA IN TROUBLE.

PEACE TO BE MAINTAINED.

(Special to the New Orleans Republicans.)

SAN ANTONIO, June 29, 1875.

General Ord has returned.

No apprehensions are entertained of serious difficulties on the Rio Grande at present.

The large scout against the Indians, which had been detained for fear of an outbreak, will leave at once from Fort Concho for the Red River country.

Cortina is eluding the Mexican authorities, who intend to arrest him.

Another vessel of war is to be ordered to the Rio Grande, and if there is occasion, troops sufficient for any emergency will be ordered to the lower Rio Grande.

New York, June 29.—Seven persons were poisoned by eating pickles containing copperas. One will probably die.

Indictments Against Tweed et al.

The grand jury in Court of General Sessions presented six new indictments against William M. Tweed, Peter B. Sweeney, G. A. Woodard and others not yet arrested.

THE RIFLEMEN.

The Great International Shooting Contest—Triumph of the American Marksmen—The Finest Shooting on Record.

DUBLIN, June 29, 11 A. M.—There is a large attendance at Dollymount to witness the great shooting contest between the American and Irish flags were displayed on all sides. The weather is hazy, and a high wind is blowing.

Never were Republicans more earnest in their preparations than for the approaching campaign. Depend upon it, men who have failed when they ought to have succeeded are not the men who will put aside public men who have rendered only a half-hearted service, and to erect a standard from which to rally to their support.

FOREIGN.

Intercontinental Courts of Appeal.

New York, June 29.—Advice from Cairo, Egypt, state the new International Court of Appeal was formally opened at Alexandria by the Khedive.

Thunder, Lightning and Hail.

LONDON, June 29.—A furious thunder storm passed over Buras and Feath. The lightning was incessant. Hail fell in such quantities that roofs of houses and the surrounding hills were covered two feet with ice. The water in the streets was frozen.

Torrents swept through the streets of Buda carrying men, vehicles and everything movable into the river. Many houses were suddenly flooded and destroyed before their inmates could escape. Five hundred of the inhabitants are missing. At least one hundred are drowned or killed by falling walls. All the railroads are interrupted.

The Breadstuffs Market.

The Mark Lane Express in its weekly review of the breadstuffs market says: Owing to the floods in France, and unfavorable reports from America, the market is hardening. Northwestern Europe has been favored with abundant rains, while the Eastern States, where there has been a drought, are suffering from drought. The prospects are variable, and a general abundance is not to be relied on. Germany and England have the best prospects, and Russia, Hungary and France the worst.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Fire.

PATERSON, N. J., June 29.—The Watson Bridge Works burned on June 29, 1875.

The Railroad Transfer.

MEMPHIS, June 29.—The transfer of the Memphis and Little Rock railroad to K. K. Dow yesterday by President Greenlaw, without the sanction of the board of directors, creates considerable excitement here. Vice President Brinkley, who owns a controlling interest in the road, after obtaining the sanction of the board, had selected Walker last evening, enjoining Mr. Dow from taking possession of the road, attempted to reach Little Rock to oppose any attempt to transfer himself appointed receiver. Brinkley thinks was the real object of the transfer, but was unable to obtain an engine, as President Greenlaw had placed the rolling stock in the hands of the receiver. Brinkley for Little Rock this afternoon, however, and it is evident that a great amount of litigation will be the result of the action of the president.

Saving a Steamboat from the Sheriff.

MEMPHIS, June 29.—The transfer boat No. 2, belonging to the Memphis and Little Rock railroad, is kept on the Arkansas river, and is being used to transport passengers. The sheriff of the county, who is in possession of the boat, is being enjoined from taking charge of the boat and its property from applying to the boat. Before the injunction was served, the office of the river was moved to Hopefield, and the ferryboat engaged to transport passengers.

News from the Border.

GALVESTON, June 29.—A News Brownsville special, dated June 29, reports that while crossing the bar at the mouth of the Rio Grande, broke her rudder, ran aground, and sunk. The cargo was badly damaged.

A drove of stolen cattle crossed Arroyo, Colorado, near Morgan Barclay's ferry, Saturday night. The rangers and regulars are in pursuit.

It is reported 500 well armed Mexicans crossed at Cuevas rancho three days ago.

At the election for Congressmen in Tamulipas yesterday the Cortina ticket ran ahead.

Fire at McKinney.

A fire at McKinney, Texas, destroyed an entire block of business houses. The loss is estimated at $20,000.

Damage by the Storm.

CHICAGO, June 29.—Reports from numerous points in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Michigan, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri and Southern Illinois, indicate that the storm which passed over that section, lasting from Saturday until Monday night in most localities, did great damage, killing a considerable amount of live stock, tearing down houses, burning fences, inundating some farms and injuring the crops to some extent. Railroad bridges and culverts were swept away in some places, and the iron and steel and several reports to have been killed.

Probabilities.

Office Chief Signal Officer, Washington, June 29, 1875.

For the Gulf and South Atlantic States, stationary temperature and pressure, variable winds, mostly south west, partly cloudy weather, and possibly occasional rain.

SOUTHWEST PASS, June 29, 6 P. M.—Barometer 30.88. Wind south, light. No arrivals or departures.

MARKETS.

Domestic Markets.

New York, June 29.—The Post's financial article says: All the sales of gold thus far to-day have been at 117 1/2. On gold loans the rates have fallen 1/4 cent for carrying and 2/4 cent for use. Foreign Exchange is dull and firm, with prime bankers at 156 1/2 @ 157 1/2, and 149 1/2 @ 150 respectively.

In the money market the ruling rate for call loans is 2 1/4 cent, and first class government paper is quoted at 3 1/2. Government bonds here are steady to strong. The stock market opened 1/4 cent lower than yesterday's closing prices, except Union Pacific, which was 1/4 higher. Within half an hour the general advance was 1/4 cent and prices have since advanced 1/4 cent.

Foreign Markets.

London, June 29.—The gold market is quiet. The price of gold is 117 1/2. The market is hardening. Northwestern Europe has been favored with abundant rains, while the Eastern States, where there has been a drought, are suffering from drought. The prospects are variable, and a general abundance is not to be relied on. Germany and England have the best prospects, and Russia, Hungary and France the worst.
