THE BOARD TRADE.

The Board Trade, to-day introduced the merchants' shipping bill. He said the temporary act of last year was worded so satisfactorily that it proposed to make all the provisions permanent in the new bill and insert an additional clause providing for the establishment of a court of survey which any shipowner charged with dispatching an overloaded vessel will be enabled to immediately appeal, and he may have a survey made for himself with the assistance of an assessor appointed by a local marine board.

THE QUEEN TO VISIT THE CONTINENT. It is announced that the Queen will proceed to the continent on the twenty-fifth of March.

ROUBER'S ADDRESS. Paris, February 10.—M. Rouber has issued an address to the electors of the department of Puy-de-Dome. He claims fidelity to the imperial family as the greatest honor, and declares he has absolute confidence that the electors are constituted the empire will be established.

VOISIN APPOINTED PREFECT OF POLICE. An official decree is published this morning appointing M. Voisin prefect of police, and placing the department under control of the Minister of the Interior, as before 1873. Voisin is a reactionary deputy.

YESTERDAY'S MONITOR, reporting rumor of his appointment, said it would profoundly grieve the friends of President MacMahon and the constitution.

HAUSEMANN'S CANDIDACY. Baron Hausmann has issued an address to the electors of the first arrondissement of Paris. He says that in offering himself as a candidate for the Chamber he has solely in view the interest of the city of Paris, and will not be hostile to the present constitution, which he thinks should be applied in perfect good faith.

BUFFET'S POLICY. The Monitor, in an article on M. Buffet's resignation, declares the policy of Buffet exclusive, dangerous, and calculated to support only Bonapartist candidates.

PANAMA. February 10.—The Colombian States are peaceful. Heavy rains are damaging the Costa Rica coffee crop.

FINANCIAL STRIFE IN CUBA. Washington, February 10.—Private letters from Havana state that the receipts of the treasury are not equal to the demand made upon it. In consequence of this the troops in the field have not received their pay for October. The troops in the garrison and the civil service were only partially paid to July, and the contractors for military supplies had received nothing and had represented to Count Valmades that they should cease to furnish provisions unless they were soon paid. It is also reported that the crowded hospitals are in a state of penury and almost of abandonment, and that the condition of the treasury is such, by reason of want of method and order, and of the dishonesty of the public service, that extreme discouragement prevails at Havana.

FROM KHOKKAND. St. Petersburg, February 10.—The Journal Rus states that the inhabitants of Khokkand recently departed Khan, seeking to return to their native country. They were invited, and entered Khokkand on the second instant.

THE REICHTAG. Berlin, February 10.—The Reichstag passed the bill amending the penal code, forbidding the so-called public relations, including the reading of objectionable communications within a church or posting the same on the doors.

DEATH OF ADMIRAL STRINGHAM. Sirs Hutton Stringham, Rear Admiral United States Navy, who died at Brooklyn last Monday, was born near Middletown, N. York, November 7, 1798, was made midshipman November 13, 1809, lieutenant December 13, 1811, and commander in 1813. He was ordered to the Hornet, on the West India station, and aided in the capture of a notorious pirate ship and slaver. Master of the ship, he was captured by the British on September 15, 1841. In 1842 he was ordered to the race Independence, and in 1846 took command of the Ohio and took part in the bombardment of Vera Cruz. He then commanded the Albatross, and was in command of the Gosport navy yard, in 1852-53. The Mediterranean squadron, his flagship being the Cumberland. In March, 1851, he was appointed fourth and was in command of the Albatross, and ordered to the Minnesota as his flagship. With General B. F. Butler he commanded the joint naval and military expedition which captured Fort Mifflin, and was relieved from command at his own request, and July 16, 1852, he was made a Rear Admiral on the retired list.

THE LAWYER'S TRADE.—A day or two ago, when a young man entered a Detroit lawyer's office to study law, says the Free Press, the practitioner sat down beside him and said: "Now, see here, I have no time to fool away, and if you don't put out will I won't keep you here thirty days. Do you want to make a good lawyer?"

WELL, now, listen. Be polite to old people, because they have cash. Be good to the boys, because they are growing up to a certain rank in the army and navy, and get pay. Go to church for the sake of example. Don't fool any time away on poetry, and don't even look at a girl until you can plead a case. If you can follow these instructions you will succeed. If you can not, go and learn to be a doctor, and kill your brethren.

There is a journalist in Bristol, Virginia, who is being discouraged and disgusted. He edits the News, and thus speaks: "We fear there is no chance for us to win the presidential election. We have sent a brilliant, popular man to Georgia, and these men, like Ben Hill, of Georgia, are determined to knock the apple of the head of the Northern men every time they see it. Nothing was so much needed by the enemy as that our Southern men in the Democratic Congress should quarrel with each other. Nothing has done them so much good as the recent debate between Hill and Blaine. Even Ben Tucker, of Virginia, has kept his mouth shut. The time is not ripe for the South to resume the fiery leadership of 1850."

Mr. Swinburne writes a long letter to the Academy in reply to criticisms on his recent articles on Shakespeare's plays, closing as follows: "What I desire to do and design to attempt is a work which has nothing in common with the peremptory pretensions of commentators who seek, by dint of positive assertions or endless wrangling to establish as a matter of course, what can be better than a matter of opinion, and to arrange in their several classes the plays of Shakespeare according to their order of poetry, not according to their rate of success, but according to their rate of success by computation of priority; to take account of them by style, and not by date."

South Bend, Indiana, is entitled to rank as a first class city. It has issued bonds for $50,000 to pay running expenses.

WESTER, Ohio, February 10.—J. K. Holman, county treasurer, and president of the Board Trade, to-day introduced the merchants' shipping bill. He said the temporary act of last year was worded so satisfactorily that it proposed to make all the provisions permanent in the new bill and insert an additional clause providing for the establishment of a court of survey which any shipowner charged with dispatching an overloaded vessel will be enabled to immediately appeal, and he may have a survey made for himself with the assistance of an assessor appointed by a local marine board.
