

New Orleans Republican. OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE UNITED STATES OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, JUNE 23, 1876. REPUBLICAN TICKET. For President, RUTHERFORD B. HAYES, OF OHIO.

For Vice President, WILLIAM A. WHEELER, OF NEW YORK.

Now bridge bloody sarcasms. Short stories and palm-leaf fans are in order.

When an office seeks a man it seeks a good man.

Reduced railroad fares meet reduced circumstances.

There is so much change in the Treasury Department.

Speaker Kerr has taken himself to Alam Springs, Virginia.

Never mind your vest. "Pull down your flag," says the insurance company.

Nashby will be glad to welcome his old friend Beaumont back to Confederate X Roads.

The St. Louis Chamber of Commerce naturally suggests the commerce of delegates.

A dealer has invented a new style of ice coolers, and he says they go off like hot cakes.

It is more sad to see a weak mind sinking under prosperity than under the weight of adversity.

A dispatch says that "Commodore Vanderbilt is in a low state." That is bad for New York.

Every dog should have his day; but it appears as if the supply of dogs greatly outnumbers the days.

Evarts has subscribed $250 to save the Old South Church in Boston. Shearman contributes tears.

The weather is never too warm for a base ball game. The man at the bat is superior to the influence of heat.

The Democrats might get a Scholastic candidate from Broome Centre, New York, who would sweep the country.

Maggie Mitchell, who is no longer young, talks of retiring from the stage, and her "Little Barefoot" will be seen no more.

It is most likely the American Union Club will transfer its patronage to a landlord that does not object to the American flag.

It looks bad for Judge Million Hilton when Mrs. Stewart gets Evarts to defend her in the case contesting her husband's will.

Alexander H. Stephens is likely to be returned to Congress without opposition. He is thin enough to slip in without a shadow of doubt.

A young man in Germany committed suicide because his parents wanted him to study theology. He had set his heart on being a carpenter.

The Philadelphia Bulletin remarks that the New Orleans policemen who arrest persons for throwing orange peel on sidewalks are regular peelers.

The commencement exercises of the Sylvester-Larned Institute will take place on Thursday evening at the First Presbyterian Church, Lafayette square.

Dispatches all agree that St. Louis is nearly smothered with American flags. Bunting does not even offend the insurance companies in that live American city.

A fashion writer says: "M. Worth allows glittering jet to enter into the garniture of black grenadine dresses occasionally." Thanks for the favor, Mr. Worth.

Tilden is the man to arouse the enthusiasm of the boys in blue. In the Democratic white-feathered peace convention of 1864, he declared the war against rebellion to be a failure.

Moll Pitcher is to have a monument at Carlisle, Pennsylvania. The American Girl is already provided for at the race course of Elmira, New York. George Washington must be patient.

It is said that Lotia at Newport has a habit of going into the nearest lighthouse at night and playing the barjo. Mr. Locke should go down there and bring the little tip home in a fish basket.

London philologists have decided that the Pyramids of Egypt were built before the flood, and they wonder why Noah built an ark to save his family in; but Noah's head was level, for he saw Noah way to save his menagerie except by floating it.

Mrs. Scott-Siddons is acting in New South Wales, where she is a great favorite. She relates with some show of vanity that a handsome young Feejee Islander tried to buy her from her lord and master, offering ten bunches of bananas for the handsome actress.

A sea sick woman sinks all thought of her personal appearance.—NEW ORLEANS REPUBLICAN.

Perhaps so; but she brings everything else to the surface.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

The Bulletin has more true inwardness, and more honor in the matter of giving credits, than other of our exchanges.

Property holders wishing their property insured by a reliable Southern company that will not tolerate the presence of the American flag near the main office will please make early application. A well established prejudice against the star spangled banner is great evidence of business sagacity.

Brick Pomeroy says, "I can not support Tilden, for the same reason that I could not and would not support his instructor, Tweed." This is a bad position for Brick to take, for Tilden has been a liberal advocate.

It is hoped the New York Laocoean-Chicago Democrat will not come out in favor of Hayes. There is Peter Cooper, now, old and tough, and on a platform that no one can injure. Please go to him, Pom.

A WORD OF WARNING. The action of the Republican State Convention yesterday indicated that a majority of the delegates do not comprehend the importance of the duties committed to their care.

Instead of the delegates seeking for the high offices men conspicuous for their probity, economical ideas and purity of character, they permit themselves to be sought by politicians who are just the reverse of what we want, and what we must have if we hope to succeed in the election in November.

We learn that Governor Kellogg is watching the proceedings with anxious eyes. He is already able to discover signs of danger to the financial system of the State which has been built up after so much labor, watchfulness and zealous endeavor.

It should be borne in mind by every colored man in the convention that a defeat in November will be fatal to the political interests of their race.

KEEP STEP WITH HAYES AND WHEELER. The Republican National Convention was without question one of the ablest and most honest bodies which has ever assembled in this country.

The New York Times impresses this obligation with especial earnestness. It warns all coming conventions that the Cincinnati ticket has furnished a standard by which all others will be tried, and that it will be embarrassing to the party to carry a local ticket in decided contrast with the national names.

We trust the Republican Convention will keep this national request before it. It is not in the heated conflict of a caucus that the popular qualities of prominent men are best developed or most forcibly impressed upon the people.

We rely upon the personal standard set up by the national convention. Let our nominations keep step with those men whose election can only be defeated if weighted down by unworthy names in the States, and we can not believe that the true conservative interests of the State will see their laborers driven away, or respectable candidates assassinated, merely for supporting the national Republican ticket.

Property holders wishing their property insured by a reliable Southern company that will not tolerate the presence of the American flag near the main office will please make early application.

servative sentiment will look to it as an inevitable settlement of the color and sectional questions; Democratic desperation will fear the loss of the only ground they now hold, and will make the most unscrupulous efforts to prevent the loss of Louisiana.

REVOLT AGAINST DEMOCRATIC DESPOTISM. The combination of Democracy and Conservatism perhaps conceals as deadly an animosity of principle as was ever covered by any compound application.

The Bulletin has changed hands and seems to have thereby exposed itself to insinuations of having also modified its principles. It seems suspected of moderation.

For some years past newspapers claiming to be fearless and outspoken have considered it a complete demonstration of their claim to denounce everything and person bearing the name of Republican, and to treat with fulsome adulation or servile silence everything or person bearing the name of Democrat.

It is precisely this immunity on the one side and intolerance on the other which the REPUBLICAN has complained. The existence of this practice has been proved by the reorganization of opposition clubs.

We hail this symptom of independence. We rejoice that there is an element and an organ which have submitted to this ruthless and reckless domination of Democracy until they have become satisfied that no possible consequences can indemnify them for the abject obedience to all sorts of partisans who may aspire to occupy office in the name of Democracy.

CHARACTERISTICALLY INDEFINITE. A special slip by the Western Union Telegraph received yesterday informs us—it is not unlikely the platform will favor the repeal of the Fugitive act, and a return to specie payments as soon as the interests of the country demand it.

The only thing that will be clearly shown by such a declaration is that in the opinion of the national Democracy the interests of the country do not demand a return to specie payments prior to 1879. How much beyond that date we shall be required to wait before we can have a practical application of the ideas of a hard money policy is left to the conjecture of the reader and the voter.

THE WORLD LOOKS WITH COMPOUND UPON THE DECREES OF AN AUTHORITY IMPOTENT TO ENFORCE THEM, AND WE MAY PRESUME THE FRIENDS OF COLONEL GEORGE WILLIAMSON WILL SO REGARD THE FUTILE FULMINATIONS OF THE DEMOCRAT AGAINST THAT GENTLEMAN.

THE INDIANAPOLIS NEWS notes the fact that the world reform does not occur in the Cincinnati platform. Doubtless the St. Louis platform will have it repeated often enough for two.

is more in all these than in the empty, unmeaning word reform, used in an abstract sense. The difference between the two parties is this: While the Republicans specifically and boldly set forth their proposed measures of policy, the Democrats conceal their intention to do nothing at all under a cloak labeled reform.

THE STATE CREDIT. Louisiana bonds are quoted in New York at seventy cents. How long can they be expected to stand at that figure if the Republican State Convention surrenders the party control to the open enemies of the funding bill?

DIED. BYRNE—On June 27, at 11 A. M., THOMAS, youngest child of William Byrne and Mary Travers.

"HOLD THE FORT." Regular meeting of the American Club FRIDAY EVENING, June 23. Full attendance is desired, as business of importance will be transacted.

A CARD. In reference to those newspaper paragraphs which have appeared so copiously against me during the past few days, I have merely to request that the charges, if any there be, take a tangible form—so that I may refute them. With entire respect, I think the papers erred in calling upon me for an explanation—namely, as there was no explanation to make, for the reason that no charge had been preferred against me.

LOUISIANA AS IT IS. 251 PAGES. Its Topography and Valuable Resources. BY DANIEL DENNETT. Price, Fifty Cents; Postage, Twelve Cents. Liberal Reduction to Dealers. 10,000 Copies Just Published. 3600 Copies Sold. The Editors of New Orleans have given this Book a strong indorsement. Opinions of New Orleans Bookellers: It is a book which has been long wanted, and often called for. I am selling copies daily that are mailed to all parts of the world. GEORGE KELLOGG, Bookeller, Opposite the Postoffice. During my long experience as a bookkeeper in this city I have had thousands of inquiries for such a work. Mr. Dennett's LOUISIANA AS IT IS, is precisely the book that has been called for. It gives general satisfaction to my patrons in city and country. If its true character were generally known it would require ten times the present edition of 10,000 copies to supply the demand. G. C. HALEY, Bookeller, No. 19 Commercial place, Branch, No. 123 Poydras street. An experience of twenty five years as bookkeeper in New Orleans will justify me in saying that the book just issued by Mr. Daniel Dennett, LOUISIANA AS IT IS, supplies a want long felt by residents and strangers. The demand for the book is active, and is steadily increasing. JAMES A. ORSHAM, ad 11 No. 92 Canal and 118 Canal streets. PROCLAMATION. BY THE ACTING GOVERNOR. ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS REWARD. STATE OF LOUISIANA, Executive Department. NEW ORLEANS, June 16, 1876. WHEREAS, One E. F. MOORE, accused of the murder of D. H. ADAMS, was some weeks since assassinated while lying sick and wounded in the hospital in the city of Shreveport; and Whereas, The grand jury in session in said city of Shreveport, though aided to the utmost extent by the law officers of the parish, have failed to discover any clue to the perpetrators of said crime. Notice is hereby given that the State of Louisiana will pay a reward of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS for such evidence as will lead to the arrest or conviction of the assassin or any of them. Given under my hand and the seal of the State this sixteenth day of June, A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-six, and of the independence of the United States the one hundredth. C. C. ANTOINE, Lieutenant Governor and acting Governor. By the acting Governor: F. G. DESLOE, Secretary of State. j21 2p
