UNITED ORDER OF TRUE REFORMERS' TEMPERANCE.—The above named order is now in existence in several of our States, and we shall in a few days have the first lodge organized in our city.

A HUMAN LIFE FOR FIVE DOLLARS.—Shortly after noon yesterday John Casey and Daniel Glynn, grown up newspaper lads, after quarreling over a gambling debt of $5, agreed to settle the dispute by a fight in Lafayette square.

FIRST WARD REPUBLICANS.—Last night a large and enthusiastic meeting of the First Ward Auxiliary Republican Club of the front was held at the hall, corner of Thalia and Front streets.

CHARITY HOSPITAL REPORT.—We are in debt to A. Johnson, clerk, for the following report for the month of July, 1876:

Table with columns: Name, Age, Sex, Color, Religion, Occupation, etc. Lists names of patients at the Charity Hospital.

Meteorological and River Report.

Table with columns: Place, Ther. Wind, Weather. Lists weather conditions for various locations like Cincinnati, Davenport, etc.

INTO OFFICE ON A CART.—Riding into fast offices on a cart seems to be a successful Democratic dodge.

AN INFANT DROWNED.—Yesterday morning an infant daughter of Mr. Jules Meunier, No. 13 Crossman street, was accidentally drowned in a bucket of water.

BRIEF MENTION.—Sixty-three dogs looked skyward Monday night. Dengue, or break bone fever, caused one death last week.

Ex-Clerk McPherson says he has detected the Democrats in an attempt to "doctor" the St. Louis platform.

The City Council yesterday granted the Canal Street Railroad Company the right to make experimental trips with its dummy engines from the ridge to Clay statue.

Policeman M. McGrath was arrested at the corner of Esplanade and Decatur streets, charged with attempting to ravish a young woman.

Nelson Lewis found the second police station without looking for it, as Mr. P. E.

Bechtel says he obtained money by making representations which were false.

Now it is actually known where John Smith is located—Parish Prison. It is said he stole sugar and a revolver from Thomas Higby, at the corner of Eighth and Water streets.

John Spencer, an exempt member of No. 6, accidentally fell from the gallery of his house, corner of Josephine and Chippewa streets, and broke his left leg between the knee and ankle.

In the year 1875 this city was the sufferer by 146 fires and sixty-five false alarms. In 1874 there were 174 fires and sixty-eight false alarms.

The Police Board will meet to-day. A few heads rolled into the Customhouse waste basket yesterday.

Council proceedings can be found in today's Republican.

The widow of H. Eke did not know that her husband was dead until she read it in yesterday's newspapers.

Justice S. B. Toad, of the parish of Jefferson, held an inquest on the body of Joseph Brown, on Metairie ridge, near the New canal, and the jury discovered he died of chills and fever.

Manuel Gray fell from a swing in the Orleans Park yesterday and broke his leg. He ought to have had a stronger grip, for he was seventeen years old.

THE KNIFE AGAIN.—Leña Caracio and Alfred Domingo had a difficulty last night on Elysian Fields street, between Royal and Chartres, during which the former stabbed and dangerously wounded the latter in the left breast with a knife, after which he made his escape.

ESCAPE OF O. H. SCHEENHAUSEN.—On the first of June last a rumor was circulated that O. H. Schoenhansen, sentenced for the Keith robbery at the Crystal Palace some three years ago to ten years hard labor, had been seen in Dallas, Texas.

COURT RECORD.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1876.

Superior District Court.

Petition of D. Triplet and Charles Turnbull praying for a writ of habeas corpus. Plaintiffs claimed that they were arrested July 29, in this city, by parties from East Baton Rouge, on an order from John W. Lounsbury, fourth justice of the peace of that parish; that the order was not sufficient, the signature not being attested by the Secretary of State.

The justice produced the prisoners and their return on the order, on a commitment for Justice States for an attempt at murder, and on a commitment from Justice Adams on the arrest made on the order of Justice Lounsbury.

Petitioners claimed the order of Justice Lounsbury was all the sheriff had when the writ was taken out. On a certificate from the Secretary of State being presented, they claimed it was too late that should have accompanied the order, and was obtained since the writ, being dated July 31. Justice Adams' commitment was evidently obtained merely to defeat the writ, it being dated August 1.

Justice S. B. Toad, of the parish of Jefferson, held an inquest on the body of Joseph Brown, on Metairie ridge, near the New canal, and the jury discovered he died of chills and fever.

Manuel Gray fell from a swing in the Orleans Park yesterday and broke his leg. He ought to have had a stronger grip, for he was seventeen years old.

By the committee of the whole, and adopted: 1. Unfavorably on the "resolution relative to wharfage dues, and the contract for lease of wharves," in view of the recent decision of the courts.

Mr. Burke returned the papers concerning a suit of P. Martinez, for ballast used by the city in 1873 and 1874, and moved their reference to the Mayor and Administrator of Finance with power to effect a compromise. Carried.

The committee of the whole returns the following ordinance as amended, and on motion of Mr. Pilbury it was read and laid over:

WHEREAS, the lessees of the wharves have failed to comply with the requirements of the lease or contract made under the provisions of ordinance No. 3121, Administration series, adopted May 18, 1875.

It is ordained, That said lease or contract be and the same is hereby annulled, and the right to the wharves and appurtenances against said lessees, and the proper officers of the city be and they are hereby instructed to take possession of the wharves and appurtenances embraced in the provisions of the wharf lease, and hereafter to proceed in the performance of their respective duties in connection with the wharves and landings as may be required by the Secretary of State.

Be it further ordained, That the Administrator of Commerce be and is hereby authorized to advertise for proposals for a readjustment of the lease, for account of the defaulting lessees.

Mr. Burke moved that the Council take a recess of five minutes. Adopted.

Records having expired the Council reassembled, and Mr. Landry presented the following report which was received and read:

NEW ORLEANS, August 1, 1876. To the City Council of New Orleans.

The committee of the whole, to whom was referred the veto of the Mayor on the pay roll for the month of June, report that there are now sufficient funds in the hands of the treasurer to meet one-half of the same, and recommend the approval by the Mayor of an amended ordinance overruling that amount.

J. O. LANDRY, Administrator of Public Accounts ad interim.

Mr. Landry called up the laborers' roll for June, 1876, and moved that it read so that one-half the total amount should be paid. Adopted.

The ordinance as divided was then passed unanimously, the yeas and nays having been called.

Mr. Landry, acting Administrator of Public Accounts, presented the following report:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS, June 1, 1876.

In compliance with resolution No. 3521, I respectfully submit the following report:

The unexpended balance of budget appropriations, June 1, 1876, as shown by detailed account herewith, amounts to $803,076 89.

Estimated receipts from June 1, 1876, for balance of year, as per detailed account, $492,000 less May bills unpaid, 50,000—642,000 00

Deficit, $161,076 89

To meet this deficit a reduction of expenses is imperative. In view of the revision of the budget appropriations, with the view of ascertaining what items can be reduced, the following list is submitted as the only available sources from which the amount required can be saved, and which will limit the expenditures for the unexpired term of the current year to the several departments and heads of accounts, as follows, viz:

Table with columns: Department, Amount. Lists various departments like Department of Improvements, Mayor and Administrators, etc.

J. O. LANDRY, Administrator of Accounts ad interim.

Mr. Pilbury moved that the report be adopted, and called for the yeas and nays, which resulted as follows: Yeas—Bertoli, Bony, McCarty, Pilbury—4. Nays—Burke, Landry—2.

operate in the reduction of the number of laborers now employed by the city, or fail to provide hereafter the means of paying the same.

While I recognize and appreciate the importance of an economical administration of our trusts as Administrators, still I can not ignore the hundreds of our suffering poor whose sole means of subsistence is derived from this employment.

If this avenue be closed, where else can they look for even a sufficiency of food for themselves and their families? They can not obtain labor in the country parishes, and surely we can not wish them to leave the State. It would be better policy to offer inducements for others to come.

That there is already much suffering known and the constantly increasing number of applicants who daily through this building is conclusive proof of a condition of want that appeals strongly to our sympathies.

I believe that these unemployed but willing laborers have a claim upon our consideration, and that it would be a wise and humane policy to provide for them such employment as will secure them against absolute want.

I am in favor of opening and widening every channel of labor, and I am sure this Council will have the hearty approval of our citizens in whatever may be done in the direction of preventing so many of our poor becoming objects of private charity.

On the adoption of the ordinance I vote No. Mr. Pilbury's explanation:

I vote in favor of the adoption of the report of the Administrator of Accounts reducing the budget expenses for the following reasons:

The amount of reduction is absolutely necessary to keep the expenditures within the receipts.

That any increase in indebtedness is positively forbidden by the constitutional amendment, and such increase would be wholly illegal and void.

That justice to our creditors, laborers and employees demand of us that we should not incur any new debt or contract without adequate cash compensation, and that the excess of expenditure would force them to sell their claims and time on the street at a ruinously low rate, and no provision would be made for the payment of their just demands.

Ordinances and Resolutions Offered.

By Mr. Landry, and adopted: Resolution granting permission to Peter McGinn to remove his blacksmith shop to No. 483 Thoboultias street.

By Mr. Pilbury, and adopted: An ordinance to provide for the reduction of tax judgments in certain cases.

By Mr. Landry, acting Administrator of Public Accounts, and read twice: An ordinance making appropriations for charitable institutions for the month of July, 1876.

Be it ordained by the Council of the city of New Orleans, That the Administrator of Public Accounts warrant on the Administrator of Finance in favor of the following institutions for the sums respectively set opposite their names, being the amount for charity for the month of July, 1876, in conformity with article 716, Revised City Laws and Ordinances:
