

New Orleans Republican. OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE UNITED STATES OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF NEW ORLEANS

REPUBLICAN TICKET

For President, RUTHERFORD B. HAYES. For Vice President, WILLIAM A. WHEELER. Presidential Electors, At Large—WM. P. KELLOGG, J. H. BURCH, J. B. WELLS, J. B. WELLS, J. B. WELLS.

For Governor, STEPHEN B. PACKARD. For Lieutenant Governor, C. C. ANTOINE. For Secretary of State, EMILE HONORE.

For Auditor of Public Accounts, GEORGE B. JOHNSON. For Attorney General, WILLIAM H. HUNT.

For Superintendent of Public Education, WILLIAM G. BROWN. For Members of Congress, First District—HENRY C. WARMOTH.

Second District—HENRY C. WARMOTH. Third District—CHESTER B. DARRALL. Fourth District—GEORGE L. SMITH.

Fifth District—J. EDWARDS LEONARD. Sixth District—CHARLES E. NASH.

AUCTION SALES THIS DAY. BY THE STATE TAX COLLECTOR OF THE FOURTH DISTRICT, at 12 o'clock, at No. 245 Josephine street, real estate for taxes.

Local Intelligence. A VERY SAD DEATH.—Mr. James Clark, captain of the C. T. Howard Boat Club, was bitten by a dog four or five weeks ago.

Deputy Marshal Stockton, who has been in Moundville, West Virginia, where he might have served his country practically, has returned, having viewed the wonders of Philadelphia and other cities.

THE NEEDY LABORER.—Mr. John Loftis and numerous others of the Mechanics and Workmen's Association have presented a bill of complaint against the new phase of the efforts for their relief.

ON THE STREETS YESTERDAY.—From rosy morn until dewy eve—dewy eve is good—as was peaceful as the most conservative could desire.

A VERY CONTEMPTIBLE TRICK.—On the night of the thirtieth ultimo a Republican mass meeting was held in the Sixth District, attracting quite a number of colored men.

JEFF HAS RETURNED, QUITE HAPPY.—Jeff (he has no other name that is known to the public hereabouts) went to the Centennial Exhibition about two months ago.

COOPERS WANT HALF A DOLLAR PER BARREL.—Boss coopers have lately been paying their workmen only thirty-five cents per barrel, and the workmen contended that that sum is poor recompense.

WEEKLY MORTUARY REPORT.—Dr. Y. R. LeMonnier, secretary of the Board of Health, reports the following number of deaths in the city of New Orleans, for the week ending Sunday, September 3, at 6 P. M.

One of abscess of the liver, 1 of abscess of the lungs, 4 of apoplexy, 1 of aneurism, 1 of Bright's disease, 2 of chronic bronchitis, 1 of feebleness of birth, 1 of cholera infantum, 1 of convulsion of the brain, 5 of congestion of the lungs, 1 of infantile convulsions, 2 of chronic diarrhea, 2 of dropsy, 1 of diphtheria, 1 of chronic dysentery, 1 of enterocolitis, 2 of enteritis, 6 of congestive fever, 2 of intermittent fever, 5 of malarial fever, 2 of perniciosa fever, 2 of bilious fever, 1 of gastro-sarthritis, 2 of disease of the heart, 1 of hernia, 2 of injury, 2 of lockjaw, 3 of infantile marasmus, 1 of measles, 1 of cerebro-spinal meningitis, 2 of paralysis, 5 of pleuro pneumonia, the forming of another campaign club. An organization was effected, and as a compliment to the Superintendent of Education the club was named the Brown Guards, and the following gentlemen were elected officers: George C. Mason, president; Robert Anderson, first vice president; E. Brower, second vice president; F. Turand, third vice president; E. J. Holmes, fourth vice president; William R. Mason, secretary; George G. Johnson, assistant secretary; A. L. Henderson, corresponding secretary; John H. Newsome, treasurer; Rev. J. R. V. Thomas, chaplain; William B. Barrett, grand marshal; P. W. Dunbar and H. Skillman, aids; George Allen, sergeant-at-arms. The club was addressed by Messrs. A. L. Henderson and E. Brower. It starts with over eighty members, and promises to be one of the best organizations in the State. The regular meeting night is every Friday.

BRIEF MENTION.—The heat, up to about eight o'clock last evening, was quite over-powering. The air was not only very hot but singularly dry. Detective J. J. Pearson, who has been at the central office for two or three months, has arrived home, and is as glad as if he had been presented with a baby. He says he would rather perform hard work at home than be on half rations in Philadelphia.

Mr. Michael Flannery, one of the Carondelet street dealers, in spots, futures or anything else where fair cash returns are in sight, has been trying to make himself comfortable in the country. After a vain effort he picked up his old sole leather trunk and sought his former haunts. Scarcely a clerk in the large office of the Customhouse yesterday found time to read a newspaper or do anything else. Talk about a sand storm in the desert of Sahara, and then take a walk on the levee front to-day when a brisk wind is flying. Old Sahara is only a mouse trap in comparison.

A very lively burglar managed to enter the residence of Mr. J. A. Massey, on Camp, near Felicite street, early yesterday morning, and slip off with nearly $300 which he picked out of an armory.

Deputy Marshal Stockton, who has been in Moundville, West Virginia, where he might have served his country practically, has returned, having viewed the wonders of Philadelphia and other cities. The little excursion did not harm him a particle. Peter, an old German, who was employed at the Poland street railroad depot, was drowned in the river Sunday while taking a swim.

THE NEEDY LABORER.—Mr. John Loftis and numerous others of the Mechanics and Workmen's Association have presented a bill of complaint against the new phase of the efforts for their relief. In it they complain bitterly against Administrator Burke; arraign him for his political course, accuse him of wasting the sum appropriated to his department in six months, and also charge that his employment of men under the appropriation of $10,000, had been partisan and for his own political ends.

In regard to the proposal of Messrs. James & Focher to employ 300 men on the Jackson railroad, they say that they believe it to be simply a scheme of Mr. Burke to relieve himself; that the distance between posts ten and twenty-seven is a locality unhealthy to an extraordinary degree; that black men can not be obtained, and so the proposition is made for white men; that pay is next to nothing, and that it is cut down whenever rain prevents work; that no care is taken of the sick, and that after working there six weeks a healthy, strong man would return with no money in his pocket and his physical condition a total wreck.

Presenting these considerations, they again make an earnest appeal to the city, to the merchants and to all for work that they may be able to support their destitute families.

THAT COLORED DEMOCRATIC CLUB.—Joseph A. Craig has for years looked forward to the time when he should have a fat office—it mattered not what it was or who gave it. Naturally he was a Republican in politics, and for a time worked in that political harness, but somehow his brilliant talents were not appreciated by that side of the house, and all the pay he received was in his proper element, outside of a shaving shop. Being deprived of that lucrative office he glided over to the Democratic side in the vein of such a top would make him a Democrat.

THE EVIDENCE THAT Mr. Seymour does not accept the nomination is conclusive. As soon as it was reported from Saratoga that he had accepted we instructed a correspondent to visit him and procure an interview. The interview was held on Monday, and the disclosure of the astounding fact that Mr. Seymour had been misrepresented, and that the report made to the convention was a brazen fabrication, and that yesterday printed the following telegram:

To the President of the Democratic Convention: I learn with surprise and regret that I have been nominated as a candidate for the office of Governor. While I am grateful for this mark of honor, I am equally sure that I am not qualified to accept such a nomination. I am compelled by obstacles which I can not overcome to decline the proffered honor. I shall do all in my power to promote the success of the Democratic ticket, but I can not accept the nomination.

THE DISPATCH OF OUR correspondent, who hastened from Saratoga to Deerfield and interviewed Mr. Seymour, settles the question of his acceptance of the nomination. He comments on the nomination, and expresses his surprise that Mr. Faulkner could have so misrepresented him in his report. It is perfectly clear, it is absolutely certain, that Mr. Seymour refused to be a candidate for Governor, and the deception which was yesterday practised on the Saratoga convention is one of the most remarkable things in our history. Mr. Seymour utterly and absolutely refuses to be a candidate for Governor, and he throws back upon Mr. Tilden's Democratic State Committee the responsibility of selecting the person who is to stand in his stead. The Democratic party of this State will feel that it has been disgraced fully humbled. The refusal of Mr. Seymour to accept the nomination and the deception practised on the Saratoga convention puts the party in a position from which it can not easily be extricated. The Saratoga convention must be regarded as a farce. The Democratic party refuses to stand, and the Democratic party has become a laughing stock in the eyes of the community. The nomination of Mr. Doreheimer, or Mr. Potter, or Mr. Marble as its candidate for Governor would be respectable, but the nomination of Mr. Seymour and the decisive representation that he had accepted, when, in fact, he has absolutely refused, put the Democratic party of the State in the most humiliating plight. The Democratic party enters the canvass without a candidate for Governor, and it is exposed to the danger of all sorts of stunts and blunders in submitting a nominee for Governor in the place of the one who has declined. The Democratic party of the State is at sea, without helm or rudder, and nobody can tell whether it will drift—New York Herald.

OFFICIAL. THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana, in General Assembly convened, that two-thirds of the members of each house agreeing thereto, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to-wit: First proposed amendment, in like manner as to the other; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such proposed amendments, the same shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

First District Court. No business was done except issuing an order for jurors. Fourth District Court. In session for the trial of rules. The Stipendious Democratic Fiasco at Saratoga. There was never a more astounding verification of the old proverb, "The gods wish to destroy them first," than has been exhibited by the demoted Democratic State convention at Saratoga. The enormous and inconceivable stupidity of the body, the amazing dereliction which it has left at liberty to practice on the Democratic party and on the people of Louisiana, is an example or parallel that we are at a loss for language to characterize it as it deserves. How utterly vain and futile, in this age of telegraphic communication, are attempts to make or hoodwink the public! The Democratic State Convention adjourned at a little past noon yesterday in a state of effusive jubilation over a nomination for Governor, which seemed to brighten the Democratic prospects and to promise a splendid success. But a few short hours envelop those fancied prospects in gloom, and we learn the jubilation into a topic of indignant derision by Democrats and sportive and exultant derision by Republicans.

We are in the presence of the most grotesque political situation in the history of Louisiana—a situation fitted to excite the scornful laughter of Republicans and the anger and shame of Democrats. The State convention at Saratoga, which was originally practiced upon and deceived, its jubilant and effervescent joy over the acceptance of Mr. Seymour will cause the party to hide its head in mortification and discover the miserable and disgraceful trick which has been put upon its credulity. Mr. Seymour's trumpeted acceptance of the Democratic nomination was an impudent and unscrupulous perpetration in defiance of his known wishes. We have authentic evidence that Mr. Seymour, instead of accepting the nomination, had declined it, and that he had in fact refused to be a candidate for Governor. What language is strong enough to stigmatize the false report of the committee sent to wait upon him and inform him of his nomination, and the committee which he had accepted, when in fact he had authorized no such report. In whose interest and for whose benefit do they perpetrate so brazen and barefaced a deception? By whose instigation were they daring enough or reckless enough to make a false report to the convention that Mr. Seymour had accepted the nomination? In whose interest and for whose benefit do they perpetrate so brazen and barefaced a deception? By whose instigation were they daring enough or reckless enough to make a false report to the convention that Mr. Seymour had accepted the nomination? In whose interest and for whose benefit do they perpetrate so brazen and barefaced a deception? By whose instigation were they daring enough or reckless enough to make a false report to the convention that Mr. Seymour had accepted the nomination?

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

POLITICAL NOTICES.

Republican Parish Executive Committee of the Louisiana State of Louisiana, in General Assembly convened, that two-thirds of the members of each house agreeing thereto, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to-wit: First proposed amendment, in like manner as to the other; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such proposed amendments, the same shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

First District Court. No business was done except issuing an order for jurors. Fourth District Court. In session for the trial of rules. The Stipendious Democratic Fiasco at Saratoga. There was never a more astounding verification of the old proverb, "The gods wish to destroy them first," than has been exhibited by the demoted Democratic State convention at Saratoga. The enormous and inconceivable stupidity of the body, the amazing dereliction which it has left at liberty to practice on the Democratic party and on the people of Louisiana, is an example or parallel that we are at a loss for language to characterize it as it deserves. How utterly vain and futile, in this age of telegraphic communication, are attempts to make or hoodwink the public! The Democratic State Convention adjourned at a little past noon yesterday in a state of effusive jubilation over a nomination for Governor, which seemed to brighten the Democratic prospects and to promise a splendid success. But a few short hours envelop those fancied prospects in gloom, and we learn the jubilation into a topic of indignant derision by Democrats and sportive and exultant derision by Republicans.

We are in the presence of the most grotesque political situation in the history of Louisiana—a situation fitted to excite the scornful laughter of Republicans and the anger and shame of Democrats. The State convention at Saratoga, which was originally practiced upon and deceived, its jubilant and effervescent joy over the acceptance of Mr. Seymour will cause the party to hide its head in mortification and discover the miserable and disgraceful trick which has been put upon its credulity. Mr. Seymour's trumpeted acceptance of the Democratic nomination was an impudent and unscrupulous perpetration in defiance of his known wishes. We have authentic evidence that Mr. Seymour, instead of accepting the nomination, had declined it, and that he had in fact refused to be a candidate for Governor. What language is strong enough to stigmatize the false report of the committee sent to wait upon him and inform him of his nomination, and the committee which he had accepted, when in fact he had authorized no such report. In whose interest and for whose benefit do they perpetrate so brazen and barefaced a deception? By whose instigation were they daring enough or reckless enough to make a false report to the convention that Mr. Seymour had accepted the nomination? In whose interest and for whose benefit do they perpetrate so brazen and barefaced a deception? By whose instigation were they daring enough or reckless enough to make a false report to the convention that Mr. Seymour had accepted the nomination?

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

THE FOREGOING was received in the office of the Secretary of State July 17, 1876, and is made public in accordance with article 117 of the State constitution, which provides: "Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members of each house, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, at said election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately."

STEAMSHIPS.

North German Lloyd. STEAM BETWEEN BREMEN AND NEW ORLEANS VIA HAVRE, SOUTHAMPTON AND BATAVA. The Steamship of the North German Lloyd, Bremen, will depart for New Orleans on Tuesday, September 5, 1876, at 10 o'clock A. M. The company reserves the right to change the route.

United States Mail Line. The Steamship of the United States Mail Line, New Orleans, Florida, will depart for New Orleans on Tuesday, September 5, 1876, at 10 o'clock A. M. The company reserves the right to change the route.

REMOVALS. G. F. WALKER, M. D. Has removed to No. 930 Magazine Street, NEW ORLEANS. Office hours from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. m32 1/2

INSURANCE. NEW ORLEANS INSURANCE COMPANY. CORNER OF CANAL AND CAMP STREETS. Established in 1805. Capital—$500,000. Assets—$2,527,980. Income for the year 1875—$24,000.00. This company insures fire, marine and river risks; issues marine policies, payable in London in case of loss.

MISCELLANEOUS. GAS FIXTURES AND RANGES. Agents for the Great BARNSTON & WARREN RANGES. Dealers in Gas Fixtures, Pumps, Bats and Tubs, Plumber and Gas Fitting, promptly attended to. No. 215 Canal Street, New Orleans.

IN BANKRUPTCY. ESTATE OF H. POKORNY. UNITED STATES MARSHAL'S OFFICE, New Orleans, August 9, 1876. I, the undersigned, United States Marshal, do hereby certify that the following is a list of the debts of the estate of H. Pokorny, in the parish of Orleans, Louisiana, who is a bankrupt, as shown by the report of the assignee, and the delivery of any property of the bankrupt to him, or for his use, and the transfer of any property by him, are forbidden by law; that a meeting of the creditors of the bankrupt, to be held at the residence of the assignee, on the twentieth day of October, A. D. 1876, at twelve o'clock M., at the Customhouse building, New Orleans, before K. S. B. PACKARD, Secretary of the United States Marshal.

AUCTION SALES. By Hoy & O'Connor. LOT OF GROUND ON DRYADES STREET, NEAR POULDAIS MARKET. SUCCESSION OF JAMES WARD. Second District Court for the Parish of Orleans—No. 35,245.

TAX COLLECTOR'S SALE—NO. 5276. STATE OF LOUISIANA—PARISH OF ORLEANS—Fourth District, City of New Orleans. BY VIRTUE OF THE POWER IN ME VESTED BY the act of the Legislature of this State, No. 47 of 1875, approved March 14, 1875, I will proceed to sell at public auction, at my office, No. 245 Josephine street, in the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, on TUESDAY, September 5, 1876, at twelve o'clock M., the following described property, to-wit: A CERTAIN PORTION OF GROUND, in square No. 47, bounded by First, Willow, Claiborne and Second streets, fronting on First street, and measuring 25 by 150 feet.

TAX COLLECTOR'S SALE—NO. 5276. STATE OF LOUISIANA—PARISH OF ORLEANS—Fourth District, City of New Orleans. BY VIRTUE OF THE POWER IN ME VESTED BY the act of the Legislature of this State, No. 47 of 1875, approved March 14, 1875, I will proceed to sell at public auction, at my office, No. 245 Josephine street, in the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, on TUESDAY, September 5, 1876, at twelve o'clock M., the following described property, to-wit: A CERTAIN PORTION OF GROUND, in square No. 47, bounded by First, Willow, Claiborne and Second streets, fronting on First street, and measuring 25 by 150 feet.

TAX COLLECTOR'S SALE—NO. 5276. STATE OF LOUISIANA—PARISH OF ORLEANS—Fourth District, City of New Orleans. BY VIRTUE OF THE POWER IN ME VESTED BY the act of the Legislature of this State, No. 47 of 1875, approved March 14, 1875, I will proceed to sell at public auction, at my office, No. 245 Josephine street, in the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, on TUESDAY, September 5, 1876, at twelve o'clock M., the following described property, to-wit: A CERTAIN PORTION OF GROUND, in square No. 47, bounded by First, Willow, Claiborne and Second streets, fronting on First street, and measuring 25 by 150 feet.

TAX COLLECTOR'S SALE—NO. 5276. STATE OF LOUISIANA—PARISH OF ORLEANS—Fourth District, City of New Orleans. BY VIRTUE OF THE POWER IN ME VESTED BY the act of the Legislature of this State, No. 47 of 1875, approved March 14, 1875, I will proceed to sell at public auction, at my office, No. 245 Josephine street, in the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, on TUESDAY, September 5, 1876, at twelve o'clock M., the following described property, to-wit: A CERTAIN PORTION OF GROUND, in square No. 47, bounded by First, Willow, Claiborne and Second streets, fronting on First street, and measuring 25 by 150 feet.

TAX COLLECTOR'S SALE—NO. 5276. STATE OF LOUISIANA—PARISH OF ORLEANS—Fourth District, City of New Orleans. BY VIRTUE OF THE POWER IN ME VESTED BY the act of the Legislature of this State, No. 47 of 1875, approved March 14, 1875, I will proceed to sell at public auction, at my office, No. 245 Josephine street, in the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, on TUESDAY, September 5, 1876, at twelve o'clock M., the following described property, to-wit: A CERTAIN PORTION OF GROUND, in square No. 47, bounded by First, Willow, Claiborne and Second streets, fronting on First street, and measuring 25 by 150 feet.

TAX COLLECTOR'S SALE—NO. 5276. STATE OF LOUISIANA—PARISH OF ORLEANS—Fourth District, City of New Orleans. BY VIRTUE OF THE POWER IN ME VESTED BY the act of the Legislature of this State, No. 47 of 1875, approved March 14, 1875, I will proceed to sell at public auction, at my office, No. 245 Josephine street, in the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, on TUESDAY, September 5, 1876, at twelve o'clock M., the following described property, to-wit: A CERTAIN PORTION OF GROUND, in square No. 47, bounded by First, Willow, Claiborne and Second streets, fronting on First street, and measuring 25 by 150 feet.

TAX COLLECTOR'S SALE—NO. 5276. STATE OF LOUISIANA—PARISH OF ORLEANS—Fourth District, City of New Orleans. BY VIRTUE OF THE POWER IN ME VESTED BY the act of the Legislature of this State, No. 47 of 1875, approved March 14, 1875, I will proceed to sell at public auction, at my office, No. 245 Josephine street, in the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, on TUESDAY, September 5, 1876, at twelve o'clock M., the following described property, to-wit: A CERTAIN PORTION OF GROUND, in square No. 47, bounded by First, Willow, Claiborne and Second streets, fronting on First street,