called to order by Mr. P. Fore, of the executive committee, who made a few remarks on behalf of the Italian. Mr. B. G. J. G. then read the regular list of vice presidents, and addressed a few words of welcome to the speaker of the evening, who was General P. T. Nicholls. The General, in his address, alluded to the fact that he was not an actor, and that he wished to impress his ideas on the members with his logic. Colonel John McEnery and a number of distinguished politicians were among the auditors, but none were invited to seats on the platform. The Italians had a good band of music, and later in the evening they serenaded the REPUBLICAN office, which compliment is duly appreciated.

WORKINGMEN'S CLUB.—At a meeting of the Workingmen's Union Republican Club of the third ward, held last evening, the following resolution, offered by Mr. Hill, was passed by a unanimous vote. Resolved, That we will support the action of the German Republican Club of this city, and that the Republican party be requested to give them the representation to which they are justly entitled.

EVANS GUARDS.—A new club of Republicans was formed last night at Isabelle Hall, Franklin, between Poydras and Lafayette streets, with over 200 members. The name of W. L. Evans Guards was adopted, with the following officers: President, A. C. Christy; vice president, Thomas Brooker and Daniel Murphy; secretary, Thomas Walsh; treasurer, Stephen Connolly.

THE VIEWING OF HONORARY MEMBERS.—The views of the gentlemen on the opposite side were given yesterday morning, and we present those of Mr. Miro, leaving to the friends of the respective gentlemen to compare the two together. Probably in a case of this kind there was more or less excitement it is difficult to get two spectators to agree exactly as to every detail.

MR. A. BOURGEOIS IN THE BEE OFFICE.—Statements have been published that Mr. Bourgeois was yesterday, Tuesday night, in the Bee office, and that he had come to retract a certain statement made against his personal character, which are entirely incorrect. The shot fired at him by Mr. Andre Roman, was not a personal attack, but did not touch his flesh. Mr. Bourgeois was on the principal streets yesterday, attending to his business, as usual. In consequence of the card published in the REPUBLICAN, many people thought that he might be attacked, but it appears that he was not interrupted by anybody.

FIFTEENTH WARD.—The following named persons were elected delegates to the Republican Nominating Convention, last evening: Warren Clairity, Robert King, C. J. Ruel, J. Daniel, Joseph Lewis, H. Jackson, W. Baker, A. Dredan, H. Bosse, J. Saucier, Webster, Lawrence Benoit, George Gracian was nominated as a member to the House of Representatives.

THE TOKEN TO THE ANTI-REPUBLICAN CADETS.—The Republican in the evening last night, all members in very neat uniforms, mainly for the purpose of receiving a splendid silk banner at Mechanics' Institute, presented at the hands of the ladies of the First and Second Districts who had quietly managed the affair. The banner was received by Mr. James M. Vance, Jr., and the band serenaded the REPUBLICAN office, playing a national air.

BOLD BURGLARS ON A LADDER.—Some time during Tuesday night burglars visited the house of a gentleman on the corner of the second story by borrowing a ladder that painter had left by an adjoining building. They entered a room occupied by Mrs. J. M. Vance, and stole a quantity of $1400 in railroad coupons, a set of diamonds, a silver watch and a little currency. Having satisfied themselves there they moved along the gallery, and then they found nothing there to their liking, so departed undetected. The marks they left behind indicate that the fellows are professionals.

PHILIP GRIBB HAMPTON PROTESTS AGAINST THE practice of publishing caricatures of famous pictures. It does not require very much wit to make them, but they often succeed in establishing an association of ideas which is very difficult to get rid of.

Don't hang a dismal picture on the wall, and do not daub with sables and glooms in your conversation. Don't be a cynic and disconsolate preacher. Don't bewail and mourn over the negative propositions. Nerve us with incessant affirmations. Don't write yourself in dejection, nor bark against the bad, but chant the beauty of the good. What is spoken which has a right to be spoken, the chatter and criticism will stop. Let it down nothing that will not help somebody.

THE TEMPERATURE.—The thermometer at Louis Frigero's, No. 50 Chartres street, stood as follows, September 30, at 8 A. M., 82°; at 3 P. M., 82°; at 8 P. M., 81°. Lowest point during the night of September 19, 73°. Rain September 30, 3.10 of an inch.

Southwest Pass. SOUTHWEST PASS, September 30, 1876. To Captain C. W. Howell, Corps of Engineers, United States Army. Depth at mean low tide, six feet; at six inches. Least width for a depth, 100 feet. High tide at 1 P. M. Height above mean low tide, two feet. Depth of channel at high tide eighteen feet six inches.

CHARLES H. LEWELL, Master of the Essayons.

Every railroad train and incoming steambot brings back a great quantity of newspapers looking healthier for their holidays. Inquiries have been made why the number of dogs did not decrease by the use of poisoned sausages. The reason is that dogs which help poisoned two names to the funeral.

The first and finest teal duck of the season were displayed in Camors' restaurant several days ago. Let us wish that the sight of those birds made a dyspeptic man hungry, especially as they were flanked by peapods, asparagus and other delicacies transported only routine business yesterday.

Somebody was so foolishly as to assert that a candidate for a parish office who visited the St. Louis House yesterday, was only a rumor no reliance can be placed on it. A fruit stand at the corner of Camp and Canal streets turns itself inside out daily and nightly. The banquet given at the St. Louis House yesterday was a success. A true copy: J. H.
