

New Orleans Republican. OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE UNITED STATES OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF NEW ORLEANS

REPUBLICAN TICKET For President, RUTHERFORD B. HAYES.

For Vice President, WILLIAM A. WHEELER.

For Presidential Electors, At Large—WM. P. KELLOGG, J. H. BURGE.

First District—PETER JOSEPH. Second District—LIONEL A. SHELDON.

Third District—MORRIS MARKS. Fourth District—A. B. LEVISE.

Fifth District—O. H. BREWSTER. Sixth District—OSCAR JOFFRON.

For Governor, STEPHEN B. PACKARD.

For Lieutenant Governor, C. C. ANTOINE.

For Secretary of State, EMILE HONORE.

For Auditor of Public Accounts, GEORGE B. JOHNSON.

For Attorney General, WILLIAM H. HUNT.

For Superintendent of Public Education, WILLIAM G. BROWN.

For Members of Congress, First District—WILLIAM M. BURWELL.

Second District—HENRY C. DIBBLE. Third District—CHAS. B. DARRALL.

Fourth District—CAROL L. SMITH. Fifth District—J. EDWARDS LEONARD.

Sixth District—CHARLES E. NASH.

Local Intelligence.

IS IT A FAIR REPRESENTATION?—During the second day's session of the Democratic Parish Nominating Convention, a Democrat, just from New York, stepped into the State House to witness the proceedings, but as an adjournment was quickly effected, he was not fully gratified. Said the stranger to our reporter: "Stranger—This seems to be a somewhat mixed body of men, and I am unable to make out much of the personnel."

REPORTER—Were you as familiar with most of the members as I am there would be no quandary. Stranger—So good as to inform me of some of the peculiarities of this political body. REPORTER—Excuse me, as that would be a task of greater magnitude than I would like to undertake.

REPORTER—I read in a New York newspaper that the Democracy of New Orleans had cordially invited colored men to join their ranks, and even assured them ample protection. REPORTER—Your information is correct; indeed you had heard all. A colored Democratic club, making great pretensions as to numbers, and lacking a desired sum of sympathy, manufactured a report that their meeting had been broken up by Republican rowdies. This at first had the desired effect, as at the ensuing meeting a squad of white Democrats attended to preserve the harmony, but two or three of the white gentlemen felt a little inquisitive about the club's roll. That document was produced, but something about it created a suspicion that all was not correct. The roll was overhauled, when it was discovered that the club consisted of only a dozen or so disfellowed individuals.

REPORTER—What was the result? REPORTER—The Democrats had nothing to say thereafter, and the parish committee has entirely failed to report on the alleged breaking up of that meeting. REPORTER—Well, it is true that the Democrats invited colored men to join their ranks and actually participate in the meetings. REPORTER—Certainly, but the principal club is one that calls itself an independent one; that is, one terming itself the only real sinu pure Democracy of the third ward. That club is composed of a faction in opposition to the Fitzpatrick crowd, and was willing to gain votes from almost any source.

REPORTER—Did the colored men attend the white meetings? REPORTER—Yes, and one of them made a speech to the independents, in which he promised great things. REPORTER—Verily, that looks as if the Democrats stole a good sound plank out of the Republican platform. Tell me, did the matter end there? REPORTER—It looks so, certainly, as nothing further has been developed in that direction. REPORTER—The Democratic clubs in the city generally invited colored voters to join their ranks, did they not? REPORTER—That was a notorious fact, but the extent of the movement has not been made known, but I am certain a few freedmen did join the Democracy.

REPORTER—I have carefully looked over the members of the convention as they were seated, but I have failed to see a single representative of African descent in a chair. Did not that class elect any representatives? REPORTER—Certainly not, for the Democracy, while anxious to secure colored votes, could not possibly think of permitting freedmen to hold a public position. REPORTER—If that is Southern Democracy, I do not like the style. There is nothing of the law of compensation in it. REPORTER—You may run and read for yourself; the facts are before you, written in raised letters. A QUESTION OF POLICE—Does the fact that Mr. Lamantia welcomes General Nichols (prematurely) to the "command of this government," entitle him to occupy two-thirds of the banquet of our most prominent thoroughfare with his bananas and fruit stands. Even if he has discovered in himself a good Democrat, let him rent a store or other vendors do. The season is upon us when the people want Canal Street to promenade upon. Pull down your standards.

THE BEE OFFICE TROUBLE.—Four arrests have grown out of the visit made by Mr. Alfred Bourges to the Bee office. Mr. Bourges made an affidavit charging Mr. Andre Roman with shooting at him with murderous intent. Mr. F. Limet charges Messrs. A. Bourges, F. Bourges and Paul Conrad with assaulting him with a dangerous weapon with intent to murder. The gentlemen all furnished appearance bonds.

SADLY OUT OF JOINT.—The uses must be sadly out of joint when an American citizen or resident dares to protect his property from the grasp of a constable. Mr. Fowler was yesterday arrested at the corner of Derbigny and Palmira streets for relating a deputy constable who was trying to enforce a writ of ejection. Fowler, how dare you!

BRIEF MENTION.—Colonel Loos, Superintendent of Police, yesterday resumed the duties of office, having quite recovered from his illness. Colonel Bray returns to his desk, and gladly to, although he rendered excellent service while acting as chief.

Andrew Duffy found his name on the first police book yesterday morning for wounding J. Truby two weeks ago.

He wore false whiskers, but in part corrected that fraud by joining the buttons with a pair of costly buttons. He, the owner, went home rather late several nights ago, quite weary with his labors in the lodge. While he was sleeping softly a burglar slipped in and picked up several loose articles, not forgetting the cuffs and ornaments; at least, that is what Mack says. The house is located on Annunciation street.

General Beauregard indignantly denies that he is a candidate before the parish convention for the office of criminal sheriff; also that he is a candidate for anything else. Keepers of private markets are jubilant, as legal twistings have once more helped them out.

The several municipal police judges are not as prompt as they might be in making returns of fines collected by them.

There will be a special meeting of the First Ward Republican Central Club on Saturday night, to make arrangements for the mass meeting to be held on the twenty-seventh instant.

THE INHARMONIOUS DEMOCRACY.—Last evening the monopoly of the State House surroundings was disturbed by two or three of the aspirants taking a bow in the fighting line. Messrs. E. E. Diamond, James Barry and T. E. Graham, all of the second ward Democracy, met and discussed the political situation. Mr. Graham was a witness before the committee in the second ward trouble, and stated that he intended to tell some truths that might prove unwholesome to somebody. On this announcement somebody struck him, and a few shots were fired, as is supposed, at Mr. Graham, but the bullets went wide of any mark, probably not intended to do much harm. Mr. Graham left the booth field and quiet was restored. A bystander asked if this was a case of intimidation, but nobody answered the question.

FIRE ON CONSTANCE STREET.—A fire was discovered at two o'clock Thursday morning in a stable in the rear of the double cottage at the corner of Constance street and Louisiana avenue, owned by Mrs. Mary Shell, which, together with the dwelling in front, was totally destroyed. Insured in the Germania Insurance Company for $3000. The fire spread to the adjoining frame cottage on Constance street, also owned by Mrs. Shell, and occupied by Mrs. Monson, which was totally destroyed; this building was also insured in the Germania office for $1000. The furniture of these houses was all saved by the members of the fire department. The fire then spread to the adjoining double frame cottage on Louisiana avenue, owned by R. Purful and occupied by E. S. Mandell and W. F. Hodgkins, which was entirely destroyed. The buildings were insured in the London and Lancashire Insurance Company. The furniture of Mr. Mandell was saved with a damage of about $100. The adjoining double frame cottage, owned by L. Labarre, one half occupied by himself and the other half by Mr. Marks, was damaged to the amount of $100; insured in the Merchants' Insurance Company for $700. The furniture of Mr. Marks was saved. The cause of the fire was not ascertained.

ANTOINE ZOUAVES.—The popular Antoine Zouaves, of the thirteenth ward, with their fine uniforms, torches and banners, paraded last night, with almost 150 men. The officers are: E. Chammette, president and captain; John Garstkamp, Isam Collins and John Jones, vice presidents. There motto is, "There's luck in odd numbers says Bryan O'Lynn."

PREVIOUS TO MARCHING AN elegant silk flag was presented to them, at the residence of Captain Chammette, by ladies of the Sixth District, Mrs. Madeline Chammette, Miss Louise Stewart, Mrs. Adele Fortier, Mrs. Amelie Chauve.

THE CLUB SERENADED the residents of P. Keenan, Esq., Hon. H. C. Dibble, Lieutenant Governor Antoine, General A. S. Badger and the office of the REPUBLICAN.

THE JOHNSON ZOUAVES OF THE THIRD WARD.—This elegantly uniformed and well-drilled club paraded last evening as escort for the Antoine Zouaves, visited several friends with a serenade, remembering the REPUBLICAN in their march. That excellent officer, Captain William Dupuy; was in command as marshal, and assisted by Messrs. J. J. White, W. H. Harrison and Reuben Elmore as aids.

THE SECOND WARD.—In the second ward yesterday both delegations to the Representative convention met separately, organized and adjourned without completing their labors. The "Caesy" delegation organized on the basis proposed by the parish committee; that is, as a half vote in a joint convention. The other delegation, feeling that the parish committee should either have accepted or rejected their claims, declined to act with the other party, but resolved to proceed with their business and report the result back to the Central Club for its final action.

Board of Health. The regular weekly meeting of the Board of Health was held yesterday afternoon. Present—Dr. F. B. Gandot, president; Dr. Y. R. LeMonnier, secretary; Dr. J. F. Finney; Dr. G. Devron, Alfred Shaw, Esq., and Rev. G. W. Bryant.

Dr. Southworth sent a communication asking that the suit compelling him to return the fees to the board be discontinued. The opinion of the attorney of the board, Charles S. Rice, Esq., having been asked, he recommended that the order of court be adhered to, and the board so agreed, and requested the president to enforce it.

On the report of the attorney the claims of Messrs. White and Woodward were referred to the treasurer with power to act. Complaints having been made of lack of water in the First and Fourth Districts, a resolution was passed requesting the city authorities to pump water into the gutters with tugs.

The board then adjourned. Appointments. Governor Kellogg has made the following appointments: Joseph B. Norris, commissioner of deeds of Louisiana for New York. Charles A. Bourgeois, vice J. E. Horan, supervisor of registration for St. Charles parish.

Brigham Young says he never felt better than now. It is time for him to do better. Solomon reformed under circumstances which left him no chance to take credit for his late piety.

CONGRATULATORY. The following congratulatory dispatch was forwarded yesterday to the victorious rifle team: NEW ORLEANS, September 21, 1876. Major Henry Fulton, Captain of the American Rifle Team, BROCKTON.

The Freshet City Rifle Club are gratified to again tender their congratulations to your success of to-day. JOHN GLYNN, JR. Secretary Crescent City Rifle Club.

Brigham Young says he never felt better than now. It is time for him to do better. Solomon reformed under circumstances which left him no chance to take credit for his late piety.

CONGRATULATORY. The following congratulatory dispatch was forwarded yesterday to the victorious rifle team: NEW ORLEANS, September 21, 1876. Major Henry Fulton, Captain of the American Rifle Team, BROCKTON.

The Freshet City Rifle Club are gratified to again tender their congratulations to your success of to-day. JOHN GLYNN, JR. Secretary Crescent City Rifle Club.

Brigham Young says he never felt better than now. It is time for him to do better. Solomon reformed under circumstances which left him no chance to take credit for his late piety.

CONGRATULATORY. The following congratulatory dispatch was forwarded yesterday to the victorious rifle team: NEW ORLEANS, September 21, 1876. Major Henry Fulton, Captain of the American Rifle Team, BROCKTON.

The Freshet City Rifle Club are gratified to again tender their congratulations to your success of to-day. JOHN GLYNN, JR. Secretary Crescent City Rifle Club.

Brigham Young says he never felt better than now. It is time for him to do better. Solomon reformed under circumstances which left him no chance to take credit for his late piety.

CONGRATULATORY. The following congratulatory dispatch was forwarded yesterday to the victorious rifle team: NEW ORLEANS, September 21, 1876. Major Henry Fulton, Captain of the American Rifle Team, BROCKTON.

The Freshet City Rifle Club are gratified to again tender their congratulations to your success of to-day. JOHN GLYNN, JR. Secretary Crescent City Rifle Club.

Brigham Young says he never felt better than now. It is time for him to do better. Solomon reformed under circumstances which left him no chance to take credit for his late piety.

CONGRATULATORY. The following congratulatory dispatch was forwarded yesterday to the victorious rifle team: NEW ORLEANS, September 21, 1876. Major Henry Fulton, Captain of the American Rifle Team, BROCKTON.

The Freshet City Rifle Club are gratified to again tender their congratulations to your success of to-day. JOHN GLYNN, JR. Secretary Crescent City Rifle Club.

Brigham Young says he never felt better than now. It is time for him to do better. Solomon reformed under circumstances which left him no chance to take credit for his late piety.

CONGRATULATORY. The following congratulatory dispatch was forwarded yesterday to the victorious rifle team: NEW ORLEANS, September 21, 1876. Major Henry Fulton, Captain of the American Rifle Team, BROCKTON.

The Freshet City Rifle Club are gratified to again tender their congratulations to your success of to-day. JOHN GLYNN, JR. Secretary Crescent City Rifle Club.

Brigham Young says he never felt better than now. It is time for him to do better. Solomon reformed under circumstances which left him no chance to take credit for his late piety.

CONGRATULATORY. The following congratulatory dispatch was forwarded yesterday to the victorious rifle team: NEW ORLEANS, September 21, 1876. Major Henry Fulton, Captain of the American Rifle Team, BROCKTON.

The Freshet City Rifle Club are gratified to again tender their congratulations to your success of to-day. JOHN GLYNN, JR. Secretary Crescent City Rifle Club.

Brigham Young says he never felt better than now. It is time for him to do better. Solomon reformed under circumstances which left him no chance to take credit for his late piety.

CONGRATULATORY. The following congratulatory dispatch was forwarded yesterday to the victorious rifle team: NEW ORLEANS, September 21, 1876. Major Henry Fulton, Captain of the American Rifle Team, BROCKTON.

The Freshet City Rifle Club are gratified to again tender their congratulations to your success of to-day. JOHN GLYNN, JR. Secretary Crescent City Rifle Club.

Brigham Young says he never felt better than now. It is time for him to do better. Solomon reformed under circumstances which left him no chance to take credit for his late piety.

CONGRATULATORY. The following congratulatory dispatch was forwarded yesterday to the victorious rifle team: NEW ORLEANS, September 21, 1876. Major Henry Fulton, Captain of the American Rifle Team, BROCKTON.

The Freshet City Rifle Club are gratified to again tender their congratulations to your success of to-day. JOHN GLYNN, JR. Secretary Crescent City Rifle Club.

Brigham Young says he never felt better than now. It is time for him to do better. Solomon reformed under circumstances which left him no chance to take credit for his late piety.

COURT RECORD. THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1876.

United States Courts. Before United States Commissioner S. B. Peram vs. the Fanny Pike.—In admiralty. Peram shipped April 3, 1876, at Pensacola, made the voyage to Europe, was a faithful seaman, worked five months on the steamer, and arrived here with his papers only called for forty cents per month wages, while the other hands were to receive $20. In addition, he was charged with about $17 for supplies and expenses. Commissioner Southworth ruled that such a contract was so unenforceable as not to be binding, and that the sailor, being a ward of the court, having the same care of him as of a minor, it could interfere. He declared the contract void, gave judgment for $20 per month, and it was satisfied by the agent.

Superior District Court. L. E. Collet vs. J. M. Couzette et al.—Injunction against J. M. Couzette for keeping a private market. Judgment for Collet.

Widow M. Anglerie vs. city of New Orleans.—Order granted to allow cause why the drainage tax recorded should not be erased.

Edward Hansen vs. John Rigmeyer.—Rule for possession made absolute.

First District Court. Assault and battery—Henry Williams, Joseph Williams.

Successions of Bernard Crowley, Bridget Kilduff, his wife, Jules M. Cartier and Anne Desjardis et al. vs. the Parish of Orleans.

Susan Henrietta Castillo prays to be emancipated.

THE TEMPERATURE. The thermometer at Louis Frigerio's, No. 50 Chartres street, stood as follows, September 21: At 8 A. M., 78°; at 2 P. M., 85°; at 6 P. M., 82°. Lowest point during the night of September 20, 72°.

OFFICIAL. THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.]

An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of Louisiana. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly, that the following amendments be proposed and entered upon the respective journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published three weeks before the next general election for Representatives in the General Assembly, in at least one newspaper in every parish in the State in which a newspaper shall be published, and said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people at a general election, in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately, to wit: First proposed amendment, to wit: "Against approval," and in like manner as to the others; and if a majority of the voters, at said election, shall approve and ratify such amendment, it shall be a part of the constitution, and shall be proclaimed as such by the Governor and Secretary of State.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. [No. 96.] An act to amend the constitution of the State of