

THE CAMPAIGN. IN ST. LANDRY.

AN IMMENSE OVATION TO PACKARD

KNOWLEDGING OUTLOOK IN SENATOR ANDERSON'S DISTRICT.

ST. LANDRY PROMISES A LARGER VOTE THAN EVER.

[Special to the New Orleans Republican.]

OPELOUSAS, La., October 25, 1876.

A tremendous meeting, over 4000 people, and a perfect ovation greeted Mr. Packard here.

The speakers were General Wharton, Mr. Packard, Colonel Lewis, Judge Campbell, Mr. Trevigne and Judge King.

The party were met by General Tom Anderson and a brigade of friends at Vermilionville. The General is sweeping his district, and will be re-elected by a greater majority than ever before.

General Wharton expatiated all hearts by his wit and eloquence and conciliatory manner.

Mr. Packard made one of his most powerful appeals, and carried the old-time Whigs and Conservatives by storm.

John McEnery's bad and malicious speeches are doing us much good.

This parish will give Packard and Anderson a routing vote—more than any Republican vote before—and will reduce the Democratic majority largely.

Judge King made one of the most elegant and telling speeches of the evening, and completely carried his audience by storm.

VOX.

Our New Criminal Judge.

Hon. Alfred Shaw has accepted the appointment as judge of the Superior Criminal Court, in place of Judge Steele, resigned, and will occupy the bench on Monday.

Mr. Shaw's occupation of the bench will be only for a few weeks at most—until a successor is chosen at the polls—and his great law practice would not permit of his remaining longer. He only consented to accept for the time being from conviction that it was his duty to serve the public whenever his services were required. He is and has been for years an old reliable, equal to any emergency, and willing to be flung in the front when others drop to the rear. He is one of those in whom the people have unbounded confidence, and his reappearance in public life is always a cause of congratulation.

The resignation of Judge Steele meets with expressions of universal regret from the members of the bar with whom he has been brought in contact; but important private interests, such as he could no longer neglect, called him away from the post he has filled so ably and honorably.

Democratic Order in Council.

A friend who has a turn for finding out things has sent us the following, which he declares is an extract from the latest general orders of the Democratic State Committee. It certainly reads like some of the other orders which we have seen from that source:

VOTERS IN THE PARISHES.

Assemble near the polls in your respective parishes on the night preceding the election. Take up position at the polls and vote first on election day. Then assemble by clubs, ride out on the roads and keep back the negroes.

It would be well for a part of each club to remain, in the early morning, on the road, while the other part goes to vote.

Mass Meetings To-Morrow.

Governor Kellogg, Hon. William H. Hunt, Attorney General, and others leave to-night for Napoleonville, parish of Assumption, where they will speak to a mass meeting of Republicans to-morrow.

Hon. C. B. Darrall and General Frank Morey will leave to-night on the Governor Allen for Plaquemine, Iberville parish, where they will address the Republicans on Sunday.

A Mexican Army to Move Across Texas.

Dispatches from Washington state that our government has granted permission to the Mexican government to convey troops and supplies over a strip of United States territory, for the purpose of reinforcing the command which is now surrounded and hemmed in at Matamoros by the insurgents. The reinforcements are to be transported by vessel from the City of Mexico to a point on the left side of the Rio Grande river, thence over land through Texas territory to Brownsville, and thence across the river to Matamoros.

Marine.

The British ship Almoraa, Captain Benwell, from New Orleans October 12, for Liverpool, arrived at Key West on the night of the nineteenth, having been disabled by the hurricane. She was towed from Alligator Reef by the Danish steamer Volmer to the bar, and thence by the lightship tender into port. She had a cargo of cotton, resin and oilseeds.

Appointments.

Governor Kellogg made the following appointments yesterday:

Orleans—Alfred Shaw, judge of the Superior Criminal Court, vice H. E. Steele.

Iberville—George Johnson, constable, first ward, vice C. H. Crawford.

West Feliciana—L. Vresty, justice of the peace, ninth ward, vice John King.

Rayon Sara—P. M. Moore, constable, vice James Wells.

Oschatz Parish Conventicles.

At a convention held October 24 at Monroe the following nominations were made:

Clerk of court, Julius Ennesmeyer; recorder, W. R. Hardy; sheriff, James S. Ray; representative, E. J. Caldwell; Home of Representatives, O. H. Brewster; B. Wood; Police jury—Second ward, Richmond Dunn; third ward, M. G. Grady; fourth ward, S. White; fifth ward, James Brewster; sixth ward, James Butler.

The Temperature.

The thermometer at Louis Frigorio's, No. 50 Chartres street, stood as follows: October 27, at 8 P. M., 66°; at 2 P. M., 76°; at 6 P. M., 72°. Lowest point during the night of October 26, 59°.

POLITICAL NOTES.

We call upon every impartial citizen to bear witness that the Democratic press and the Democratic committee are endeavoring to incite a state of public feeling which may end in strife. The grossest misrepresentation of proper and legal actions, coupled with aggravating recommendations to keep calm under grievances which would be unbearable did they exist, are the means employed to arouse popular passions.

We believe these incendiary efforts will fall of the intended effect, because we believe the Democratic spokesmen and leaders have lost popular confidence. Yet the truth may as well again be briefly stated: It is false that 10,000 citizens will be arrested; it is true that a great proportion of 10,000 Democratic registrations will be shown not to be presented by actual voters, and that many others are illegal. It is false that any citizen who is legally and properly registered will be arrested; it is possible that some who have changed their residence since 1874 may suffer slight inconvenience, but that inconvenience will be the result of their own dereliction in not registering so that they may legally vote in November—and certainly Democrats should not care to defend such din lieta.

In a word, the Republicans are simply doing what the Democrats have been doing for two months, viz: making affidavits against those they suspect to have fraudulently registered, only they are taking more precaution than the Democrats did to verify their charges before putting the cases into the hands of the United States marshal.

The rumor was circulated early yesterday that the chairman of the Democratic State Committee had prepared a stunning letter exposing a fresh Radical plot. He had discovered that Judge Steele resigned in order to prevent the grand jury working up Republican registration frauds and making reports thereupon until after election for want of a court to report to. This was "nuts for the boys," said it was "leaked that a cruel Governor had spoiled the appeal to the people to be patient, and the consequent sensation by appointing Mr. Shaw to fill the vacancy.

The infamous Yankee emissary who commands the Grant hirelings at Monroe has the audacity to overthrow a popular belief about carpet-baggers. The only official whom he commends for faithfully doing his duty is a carpet-bagger and an appointee of Governor Kellogg's.

The utmost harmony and good will has been restored in the ranks of the Plaquemine Republicans, and a routing majority will be given in that parish next Tuesday week.

United States Commissioner Southworth indignantly denies that there was any undue secrecy or semblance of conspiracy in the issuance of warrants for the arrest of Democrats charged with fraudulent registration. The moment the papers came into his court they were opened to the press reporters and whom else desired information regarding them. The same course exactly is being pursued as in the cases made up by the Democratic canvassers, and the only difference seems to be that the Republicans have been more careful about preparing their evidence than were their opponents.

A member of the Democratic committee yesterday admitted that there was a Republican majority in this State; but added he significantly, "what good will it do Packard, with Tilden in the presidential chair, to be elected. Without Federal backing he can not last a minute." And this is the general Democratic tone and style. The laws and the rights of the majority are utterly ignored whenever the fear of a superior physical force is removed.

If the 10,000 aggrieved and outraged citizens for whom Commissioner Southworth is issuing warrants can not be found, where does the harm come in? We contend that in many cases they can not be arrested, and the deputy marshals will have to make another return of "not found," because they are Democratic myths. Where an unrecorded removal has caused the issuance of a warrant, the only result will be to show that the individual has not done his duty to his party in securing his right to vote by having his registration papers changed.

The candidate for clerk of the Superior Criminal Court, on the Republican ticket, is not Eugene Deasides, E. q., residing at No. 438 Victory street, eighth ward.

The Times is entirely correct in the above. Our candidate is a gentleman who resides in the eleventh ward, and his name is not Eugene Deasides.

In regard to that "revolutionary relic," the Charleston Fusillers, just now an object of Democratic sympathy, it is suggested that they resemble potatoes, inasmuch as the best part of them are under ground.

Letter of Acceptance of F. William Kramer, Esq.

NEW ORLEANS, October 26, 1876. Mr. Charles B. Deasides, Secretary of the Republican Committee of the Parish of St. Landry.

Sir—Your communication of this date, informing me of my nomination for municipal or parishal position, and further, to refuse the suffrage of any citizen or class of citizens who see fit to tender the same, I believe would be not only injurious, but ungracious and weak—hence I accept.

In conclusion, I would add that should I be so fortunate as to receive the suffrage of a majority of the voters of this parish, I shall ever endeavor to do my duty to the best of my ability, and so prove worthy of the trust, irrespective of any party consideration.

Very respectfully,
P. WILLIAM KRAMER,
Attorney at Law, No. 53 Camp street.

Retaliations.

Rev. J. H. McCarty, D. D. of the new pastor for the Ames Methodist Episcopal Church, will arrive in this city to-day, and preach on Sunday morning. Dr. McCarty comes from the Michigan Conference. He is a man of fine ability, an author and scholar, and bears the reputation of being an interesting preacher.

[Special Correspondence of the Republican.] NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, October 22, 1876.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

The gravity of the political and social condition of affairs in South Carolina, and to some extent, in other Southern States, has at last become so notorious that the attempts to belittle it by allusions to the "bloody shirt," and to divert attention from it by charges of "radical corruption and misgovernment" have been pretty generally abandoned by the more intelligent class of Democratic politicians and sympathizers, and the financial ruin threatening the country in the event of Tilden's election, through the admission of Southern war claims, reaching to between two thousand and three thousand millions of dollars, has become so apparent that the efforts of leading Democratic organs and speakers have been diverted from the hopeless task of disproving the perjury and secession record of their "reform" candidate to the equally futile endeavor to conceal the purposes of the "solid South" in forcing the payment of its demands. The recent proclamation of the President to Wade Hampton's Democratic assassins has been exhaustively discussed here. It is, of course, characterized by rebel copperhead partisanship as a high-handed outrage against the chivalric Democracy of the Palmetto State, and Secretary Cameron is the recipient of the vilest abuse because of his prompt interposition through the military for the protection of voters from the brutal and savage designs of their Ku-Klux neighbors.

But the indiscretion of Southern Democratic editors convincingly reveals the falsity of the assertions of Northern Democratic newspapers, and proves the necessity for just such action as has been taken by the government. It is estimated that more than 200 colored voters have been murdered by the Ku-Klux of South Carolina within the past three months without any attempt at concealment, and these atrocities are openly applauded in the columns of almost every Democratic newspaper in that State and by their public speakers at political meetings, and their purposes to carry the State in November by such means are everywhere avowed, and it is held here that the government would have been recreant to every principle for which governments were instituted had it longer delayed its interposition. This is the feeling, not only among Republicans, but it is the universal sentiment of that large class of men existing in every community who reason and vote upon matters of public interest from a moral and humane, rather than a partisan point of view. Many moderate Democrats who are conversant with the actual situation from personal observation or from the tone of Southern Democratic sentiments, admit that the interference of the government was imperatively demanded to save the South from a state of absolute anarchy. This is the feeling, not only among Republicans, but it is the universal sentiment of that large class of men existing in every community who reason and vote upon matters of public interest from a moral and humane, rather than a partisan point of view.

THE AMERICAN CENTENNIAL, 1876.

Wheeler & Wilson Victorious!

Again the Wheeler & Wilson sewing machines triumph over the world. The centennial commission have officially announced the awards, and decreed for the new Wheeler & Wilson machine two diplomas of honor and two medals of merit. This is a double victory, and the highest award which it was in the power of the centennial authorities to bestow. No other sewing machine received such a recognition. More than thirty of the best producers of machines in this and other countries entered for competition, and at Philadelphia in 1876, as at Vienna in 1873, and at Paris in 1867, Wheeler & Wilson led the list. After a careful, rigorous and exhaustive examination, the judges unanimously decided that the superior excellence of these machines deserved more than one medal or diploma, and consequently, they recommended two of each. The centennial commission unanimously ratified the action of the judges, and the public will indorse the decision of these ablest of mechanical experts. A claim of equally distinguished honor for any other sewing machine is only an attempt to hoodwink the people. Read the following, which stamps the "new Wheeler & Wilson" as the standard sewing machine of the world.

[From the Official Report.]

AWARDS TO WHEELER & WILSON.

1. A medal and diploma for "the new Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine," for the following reasons:

"A lock-stitch sewing machine unsurpassed in the fine workmanship of its parts, and possessing great originality, great adaptability to different kinds of work both on cloth and leather, beauty of stitch, ease and rapidity of motion, and complete absence of display."

2. A medal and diploma for "the new Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine" for leather, for "superior quality of work in leather stitching."

Tilden's Desperation—The Southern Claims Letter.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Times says:

That Tilden himself is thoroughly alarmed about the political outlook is evinced by his letter on the payment of the Southern claims, which is regarded here as a desperate move to check the tide of public sentiment in the North, and to try and save New York State to the Democracy.

Southern Democrats are very indignant at the establishment of Russian power in Turkey's provinces, and urge the plea of reforms therein, under British control.

The Russian ironclad fleet will winter in Italian waters, in order to be ready to proceed to the East in case they are needed.

There is a crisis in the Serbian ministry. Minister of War Micalich has resigned in consequence of General Tchernayeff's arrogant refusal to accept his resignation, and has the support of Prime Minister Raticich and his colleagues.

No war news. The Wall Gazer announces that the troop ship Hymalaia is preparing to take six companies of royal engineers and two of the transport, corps to join the Mediterranean fleet. Its British dispatch says it is apparently trustworthy announcement is made that Russia intimates her willingness to accept the Porte's latest armistice proposals with modifications, not calculated to impair the desired result.

Proposals to settle the terms of peace at a conference at which Turkey is not represented are opposed by England and Italy.

Reuter dispatch from Vienna says that Prince Auerberg, president of the Austrian court, replying in the Reichsrath to the interpellations on the Eastern questions, declared that Austria's policy was above everything to maintain peace; consequently the aspiration toward the acquisition of foreign territory was out of the question.

Constantinople, October 27.—The Porte has telegraphed to its agents abroad a summary of the recent fighting and its results. The dispatch says: The Turks stored a fortification on a high mountain which is considered to be the key to the Serbian position at Delgrade.

They carried other intrenchments of less importance and took Comuk, near the Delgrade bridge, where were the Serbian headquarters, occupied Djindjimiti, a large village beyond Comuk, on the road to Krushevatz, and stormed several entrenchments. The Servians fled. Their losses are enormous. On the side of Mitrovitch, the Serbian attack in the direction of Chatal was repulsed with heavy loss.

A Quarrel Among the Counselors.

Belgrade, October 27.—Minister of War Nicolich wrote to General Tchernayeff, complaining of the misconduct of Russian volunteers, and requesting their present removal; otherwise he would make representations to the Czar.

General Tchernayeff, exasperated at this action of the minister, wrote to Prince Miltich, desiring the removal of Nicolich. A Cabinet council was summoned, in which Substitution of Bonds.

WASHINGTON, October 27.—One million one hundred thousand dollars of four and a half per cent bonds were substituted by national bonds to-day.

Suits Against General Howard.

Suits have been entered by the United States against General O. O. Howard, as a defaulter of the funds intrusted to him in connection with the Freedmen's Bureau and the Howard University. One of the suits is $150,000, and the other for $200. The sum for which General O. O. Howard is sued bears interest since 1865.

Elmer Washburn's Successor.

John J. Brooks, of Philadelphia, has been appointed chief of treasury detectives.

Postmaster General Tyler has returned.

Insolvent.

The Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Company, of Philadelphia, is insolvent.

Alabama Claims.

Awards by the Alabama claims court: Catherine Walker, New Orleans, dismissed; Reas Dumas, $638.

South American Ministers.

The President to-day received Minister Freyre, of Peru, and Dr. Santiago Perez, of the United States of Colombia.

Supreme Court Decisions.

In the Supreme Court case of the Home Insurance Company of New York vs. the city council of Augusta, Georgia, was argued. Evans, of New York, and Dutcher, of Georgia, for plaintiffs, and Blair, of Georgia, for defendants. The question involved is whether a municipal ordinance requiring license from a company having a State license imposes obligations of contract, and the municipal ordinance is a law within the constitutional prohibition.

NEW YORK.

A Democratic Display in New York.

New York, October 27.—Last night's political display was the most imposing witnessed in this city. The estimated total 60,000 in line. The Democratic workings, regardless of local differences, were represented by their clubs. The demonstration was held at the corner of Broadway, at one o'clock this morning Governor Tilden was still in position in front of the Everett House, reviewing the procession.

At the Pools.

Large investments were made last night at both Morrissey and Johnson's pool rooms. The general result opened even, but at nine o'clock was $200 to $175 in favor of Tilden. The State $1000 to $400 in favor of Tilden.

A Little Missions.

It was the Centennial Life Insurance Company which was placed in the hands of a receiver, not the Centennial Fire Insurance Company as erroneously supposed in several places throughout the country.

A secret conference was held to-day by the managers of the New York Central, Boston and Albany, Grand Trunk and Lake Shore railroads. It is supposed this conference was held to discuss the proposed Erie, Baltimore and Ohio and Pennsylvania roads were not represented.

WAR.

End of a Fruitless Campaign—The Six Weeks' Armistice Accepted—The Signing of the End.

LONDON, October 27.—The Standard's Ragusa dispatch says: The complete failure of Dervish Pasha's recent advance on the southern frontier of Montenegro ends this year's campaign, as the winter has now set in.

Moukhtar Pasha will shortly withdraw to Tria, Dervish Pasha's army is entirely demoralized.

The Catholic Albanians who joined the Turkish standard have gone home.

The Post Berlin dispatch says: Romanians have given assurance that their military movements are only the usual autumnal practice.

The six weeks' armistice, with prolongation if necessary, is now considered assured.

A Times Belgrade dispatch says: The depression here continues. I can not help thinking we are in the lowest of the end. If the Russo-Serbian army is left unaided the Turks will certainly reach Belgrade. They are advancing slowly but irresistibly; but unless an armistice is secured Tchernayeff will fight to the last.

The Vienna correspondent of the Times confirms the capture of Djinnit by the Turks. The Post Berlin dispatch says that the Servians must move back from Alexandatz and Delgrade.

A Reuter dispatch from Paris says the Porte has accepted Ignatieff's six weeks' armistice.

The Times Berlin special says: Liberal newspapers declare vigorously against the establishment of Russian power in Turkey's provinces, and urge the plea of reforms therein, under British control.

The Russian ironclad fleet will winter in Italian waters, in order to be ready to proceed to the East in case they are needed.

There is a crisis in the Serbian ministry. Minister of War Micalich has resigned in consequence of General Tchernayeff's arrogant refusal to accept his resignation, and has the support of Prime Minister Raticich and his colleagues.

Prime Minister Raticich supported the War Minister, and declared the entire military was responsible for his action, and if Nicolich resigned all would resign. Subsequently the Minister of the Interior went to Delgrade to compromise with Tchernayeff. Nicolich, however, resigned, and matters now remain in suspense pending the return of the Minister of the Interior.

Prince Milan is much irritated at Nicolich's resignation, and General Tchernayeff's arrogance. The ministry have the support of public opinion in upholding the dignity of the government. General Tchernayeff's conduct is generally condemned.
