PITT CRAVATH,
Assistant Secretary of the Senate.

The Speaker laid before the House the following communication from the Governor:

STATE OF LOUISIANA,
Executive Department,
New Orleans, March 2, 1871.

To the Honorable Speaker and Members of the House of Representatives:

I am directed by his Excellency the Governor to inform your honorable body that he has approved and signed—

An act making an appropriation for each representative of newspaper in the Senate and House of Representatives.

O. D. BRAGDON,
Private Secretary.

The following report was received, read and accepted:

To the Honorable Speaker and Members of the House of Representatives:

Gentlemen—Your special committee to investigate and report bills to the House beg leave to report the following bills, and recommend their passage. Also, amendments to the appropriation bill:

In line 366, strike out "thirty thousand" and insert "fifty thousand dollars."

In contingent expenses of the General Assembly, strike out "sixty" and insert "one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars"; said warrants to be registered in the office of the State Treasurer, in accordance with the provisions of an act

No. 22, approved February 15, 1871." Strike out the appropriation for Inspector of the State Penitentiary, say twelve hundred ($1200) dollars, and leave blank.

Strike out twenty-five hundred ($250) dollars for the Protector Fire Insurance Company.

Strike out two thousand (2000) dollars for the Baptist Association of Waterproof.

Section three, strike out the entire section.

Make line four hundred and fifty-three read, "to pay a judgment, No. 19,731, versus the State of Louisiana, the sum of ninety-six thousand seven hundred and thirty dollars and eighty-four ($96,730-84) cents, being principal, interest and costs of said suit."

A. W. FAULKNER,
Chairman.

Senate bill No. 248, the general appropriation bill, reported by the committee, with amendments, was made the special order of the day for half past nine o'clock.

Senate bill No. 156, an act for the relief of the Hope Insurance Company, passed its second reading.

The constitutional rule being suspended it was placed upon its third reading and final passage, its title adopted, and notice of concurrence ordered to be sent to the Senate.

House bill No. 218, an act to amend and re-enact an act entitled "an act to reorganize the Bureau of Emigration, and for measures to develop the resources and to increase the population and wealth of the State of Louisiana, passed its second reading.

Under a suspension of the constitutional rule the bill was placed upon its third reading and final passage, its title adopted and ordered to be sent to the Senate for concurrence.

The following House bills on the third reading were finally passed, their titles adopted, and ordered to be sent to the Senate for concurrence:

House bill No. 122, an act to incorporate the Morning Star Benevolent Association.

House bill No. 107, an act to incorporate the Sons of Emmet Benevolent Association of the city of New Orleans, Louisiana.

[Mr. Moncreur, of Caddo, in the chair.]

Mr. Brown, of Ascension, moved that House bill No. 261, an act to dissolve the corporation known as the New Orleans and Ship Island Canal Company, to repeal certain acts, to provide the mode of liquidation of the affairs of said corporation, and to provide the means therefor, be considered at this time.

Carried.

Mr. Huston, of East Feliciana, moved that the further consideration of the bill be indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Brown, of Ascension, moved to lay that motion on the table.

Carried.

Mr. Faulkner, of Caldwell, moved for a suspension of the constitutional rule so as to permit the bill to be placed upon its third reading and final passage, upon which Messrs. Huston, of East Feliciana, and Tureaud, of St. James, demanded the yeas and nays, with the following result:

Yeas: Abell, Barrett, Belot, Bentley, Bowen, Brown, Burch, Darinsburg, Davidson, Davis, Demas, Dewees, Durio, Faulkner, Gaddis, Gardner, P. Harper, Hempstead, Hyams, Johnson, Kenner, LaSaliniere, H. Lott, Lynch, Mahoney, Marie, Marvin, Matthews, McCarty, McFarland, Morphy, Morris, Otto, Overton, Quinn, Riley, Ringgold, Sartain, Souer, Stamps, Stanton, Tounoir, Ullman, Verrett, Washington, of Assumption, Whelan, E. Williams, H. Williams, Wilson, Worrall, York, Young—52.

The rule was not suspended, and the bill was calendared for a third reading.

[The Speaker resumed the chair.]

By unanimous consent, House bill No. 282, an act for the relief of the families of the legal representatives of Messrs. Thomas J. Fox and Joseph Clavier, was introduced, and passed its first reading.

The constitutional rule being suspended, the bill was read a second time.

The rule was suspended by which it is necessary to consider it in the committee of the whole.

The bill was considered as engrossed.

Under a further suspension of the constitutional rule, it was placed upon its third reading and final passage, its title adopted, and ordered to be sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. Faulkner, of Caldwell, moved that substitute for House bill No. 261, relative to the Ship Island canal, be placed upon its final passage.

Mr. Huston, of East Feliciana, raised the following point of order:

The House having refused to suspend the constitutional rule to place the bill on its third reading, it was equivalent to an indefinite postponement of the bill, and it could not be called up again.

The Speaker sustained the point of order.

Mr. Young, of Concordia, raised the following point of order: That the bill had been read three several times, and consequently no suspension of constitutional rule was requisite to place the bill upon its final passage.

The Speaker stated that as the Speaker pro tem. had decided that the bill was on its second reading, he would not overrule his decision, and decided that the point of order was not well taken.

House bill No. 110, an act for the relief of William Bender, was placed upon its third reading and final passage, its title and it was ordered to be sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. Souer, of Avoyelles, moved for a reconsideration of the vote whereby the House refused to suspend the constitutional rule to place House bill No. 261 upon its third reading.

Mr. Huston, of East Feliciana, moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table, upon which the yeas and nays were demanded by Messrs. Bryan, of Calcasieu, and Worrall, of Jefferson, with the following result:

Yeas: Baker, Barker, Bickham, Blunt, Broussard, Bryan, Butler, Chachere, Cochran, Darby, Durio, Ellis, Floyd, Huston, Hyams, Kenner, Killen, Kinsella, Llanbiam, Meadows, Moncreur, Murray, Nelson, Oplatok, Raby, Schumacher, Stevens, Stinson, Tatum, Thompson, Tureaud, Wanda, Worrall—33.
