Second Ward—H. C. Dibble, C. F. Glaudin. Third Ward—P. Crengit, A. Cartwright, A. W. Smyth, Joseph Johnson. Fourth Ward—P. B. S. Pinchback. Fifth Ward—E. Aleix, P. Montaine, Henry Reis. Sixth Ward—H. J. Campbell. Seventh Ward—H. L. Rey, W. J. Moore, P. Griffin. Eighth Ward—E. V. Leclere. Ninth Ward—Henry Chenau, D. Douglas. Tenth Ward—H. C. Warmoth, E. P. Duclouange. Eleventh Ward—F. J. Herron, Ed. Williams. Twelfth Ward—W. G. McConnell. Thirteenth Ward—C. B. Augustus. Fourteenth Ward—W. R. Fish. Fifteenth Ward—A. Jackson, C. P. Ames, David Mason. The committee on permanent organization reported the names of the following gentlemen as officers: President—P. B. S. Pinchback. Vice presidents—H. J. Campbell, Oscar Crosier, Emerson Bentley, Mortimer Carr, and George Washington, of Concordia. Secretary—William Vigers. Assistant Secretary—John W. Fairfax. Sergeant-at-Arms—Vahair Shadrick, W. P. Collins. The committee also recommended that a committee of seven be appointed on resolutions. The report was adopted, and the officers were elected by acclamation. AFTER PERMANENT ORGANIZATION. Senator Pinchback, on assuming the chair as permanent president of the convention, said: I thank you for the compliment you have conferred on me, and I hope our proceedings will be harmonious. We have met under different aspects to what we expected, but we need not therefore change our programme. We have met of our own accord, freely to consider the interests of the Republican party. We have exacted no tickets of admission from delegates, not even from spectators. We have simply met as deliberative bodies ought in my judgment, to assemble. We have met in the eyes of the people where they can see what we are doing, and if they don't find us worthy of their confidence they can repudiate our action. The attempt on the part of certain gentlemen in federal positions in our city to control the Republican party has resulted, in my judgment, in what they claim to be a division in the Republican party; but from what I know of the feelings of the people of the different parishes of the State, I am of the opinion that there is no split in the Republican party. [Applause.] I have arrived at this conclusion by careful observation. I know here and there on the wind adherents of the Customhouse ring, men sent out on leave of absence to cry up and cry down certain men; I know you will find these in every ward in this State, but I know if you go around to the people you will find them everywhere in favor of the administration. (Cheers.) I have been a people's man from the commencement; it is only recently I have been found sustaining Governor Warmoth personally, though ever since I have been elected I have been an administration man. I did not think it necessary to fight Governor Warmoth's battles. I know him a "foeman worthy of the steel" of anybody; and I believe him more than equal to these men. You see then, there is some excuse for the comments made by the Democratic papers, on Pinchback, at last becoming a supporter of Governor Warmoth. When we went into the campaign I told the people I went in as an independent Republican, reserving the right to criticize any public officer. When Governor Warmoth did what I didn't approve, I always took occasion to tell him I did not approve of it; but because I do not like some specific act it is a just reason why as a citizen I should oppose the administration of which he is the head? (Cheers.) Is that any reason why a convention should assemble for no other purpose than to put the Republican party under the control of men whose sole object it is to destroy Republican rule in Louisiana? They talk about federal bayonets controlling the State (election in 1872. I don't believe there are federal bayonets enough to keep the State from going Democratic, without the aid of the State government. (Cheers.) You have not forgotten the condition of affairs in 1868, how many men fell by the hands of assassins throughout the State. I call upon you to show me a single solitary instance where the federal government has come in and avenged the murder of one of these men. If you go into an election depending alone upon Marshal Packard and his assistant deputies, and the few troops the United States government will send here, without the protecting arm of the State government you will have made the most egregious failure you ever made in your life. (Applause.) Therefore, it becomes (Applause.) Therefore, of your party, to so act as to command the support and respect of your constituents. When you shall have done this, and when we come out with our records of this convention, which is the legitimate convention of the Republican party, and these gentlemen come against us with their black record. I tell you there will be no stopping to consider which will be the choice of the people of this State. You will find them a solid phalanx on our side, and the Republican party of 1872, led by the men who have organized this convention, will have a glorious success. (Great applause.) I have never been opposed to General Grant. I was one of the delegates that had the honor of nominating General Grant for the Presidency, and from that time down to this, I have been an unwavering, uncompromising Grant man. I would not have voted for Governor Warmoth if I thought he would have gone back on General Grant; but in no speech, in no paper can be found one word of his against General Grant. I charge back, then, that this thing has been done to make capital for those men at Washington, and I say again that if what has been done in this Customhouse has been done with all my love for him, I shall go out of this convention his deadly opponent. (Great applause.) Mr. Campbell moved to appoint a committee of seven on resolutions—Campbell, Dickey, Cage, Raby, Sterrett, Twitchell and Bentley. The convention adjourned until half past seven o'clock this evening, in Turner Hall. EVENING SESSION. The convention met last evening at eight o'clock in Turner Hall, P. B. S. Pinchback, president, in the chair. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity. Among the spectators there was quite a sprinkling of the Customhouse adherents, who, no doubt, came to see for themselves how things were conducted. The contrast could not have failed to impress them—the absence of any tickets of admission for delegates, the absence of armed deputy marshals, United States troops under arms, Gatlin guns, and the admission of all to see and hear the proceedings. The roll was then called, and one hundred and seven members answered to their names. Rev. Mr. Armstead offered up a prayer. The reading of the minutes was dispensed with. The committee on resolutions reported progress and asked for further time. Mr. Harris moved that the committee be allowed until to-morrow at 12 M. Carried. Mr. N. Underwood offered the following resolution: Resolved, That the convention do create an executive committee for the State—two to be elected from each congressional district, and ten to be appointed by the president of the convention; the president to be ex-officio chairman of the State Central Committee. Judge Dibble offered an amendment, that the resolution be referred to a committee of five. Mr. Carr offered an amendment, that the resolution be referred to a committee, with instructions to report in one hour. Judge Dibble accepted the amendment. The resolution, as amended, was carried. The chair appointed H. C. Dibble, O. F. Hunsaker, N. Underwood and Oscar Crosier, and one member whose name we did not catch. F. J. Herron offered the following resolution: Resolved, That Senator J. B. West be requested to introduce a resolution at the next session of Congress, calling upon President Grant and other officers of the government, for all the information in their possession regarding the use of the United States Customhouse in New Orleans for the purpose of holding a State Convention, and the authority given the United States Marshal for the appointment of deputy marshals, and bringing into the Customhouse United States troops to suppress the sitting of the convention. Also to furnish all verbal information given the President by Collector J. F. Casey on the same subject; said information to be published, that the Republican party may know who is responsible for the action of the federal officials this day, with reference to their attempt to break up the State Convention by the use of United States troops. During the absence of the committee on resolutions the convention took a recess, and Senator A. B. Harris addressed the convention a few minutes, after which Mr. Sella Martin was called upon to address the convention. Senator Pinchback introduced Mr. Martin in a few forcible and eloquent remarks. He said: I went from here to the northern part of this State; in 1856 I went west; was there soon after Fremont was nominated, where the cry was freedom, free speech and Fremont. I took part in that agitation. I had not much experience, and I encountered many difficulties—one of the most formidable of which was, I found there was an iron giant in the valley of the Mississippi, whose arms extended all over the North, and he was able to find out and seize slaves and return them to slavery. I have been jeered at, scoffed at, pelted with eggs, whose odor was not savory. I have seen plenty of outrages in my time, but I never in all my life saw such an outrage as I saw to-day. That large building on Canal street stands on property ceded to the United States. Why were we invited to go into a convention in such a building, filled with armed deputy marshals and United States troops, when, for an angry word, or the slightest trouble, the meanest deputy marshal might arrest a man and lock him up? And there he would have to stay until a United States judge could be found to release him. Now, what was it that brought these people, together in convention? According to party usage, it became necessary to elect a new set of men to represent the Republican party and to manage its affairs. Throughout the State this was done, and when they elected their representatives they gave them a piece of paper—their credentials—which, according to custom, are presented to the convention itself. Packard says they must be presented to him, and as his power ceased when the convention met, he might put them in his pocket and walk off with them, and there would be no remedy. Why this unusual proceeding? Who brought these United States troops here? I am told it is reported this evening that the men who did it are denying it. Already they are ashamed of their acts. Now, if we had gone into a convention under such circumstances, with such men, what could we expect? The soldiers would be bound to obey the orders of the men who brought them there; they are iron men, whose only duty is to follow orders; they are men it won't do to fool with. Was it fair to ask us to go there, and run the risk of being blown up because we preferred Warmoth to Packard? There are men all over the North who tonight are busy writing articles denouncing this gross outrage. The special committee to whom the resolution of Mr. Underwood was referred, reported the following resolution: Resolved, That there shall be a State Central Committee, to be composed of twenty-one members. The delegates in this convention for each Congressional District shall elect two members, the president shall appoint ten members from the State at large, and he shall be ex-officio a member and president. Resolved, That this committee shall act until the assembling of the next Republican State Convention. The committee shall call a State convention in time for the selection of delegates to the national convention for the nomination of President in 1872, and that a committee of five be appointed in each Congressional District for the nomination of members of Congress. Resolved, That there shall be a congressional committee in each congressional district, composed of five members, who shall be elected by the delegates in this convention from the respective districts. They shall serve until the expiration of the term of the State committee. Upon motion the resolutions were then adopted. Mr. J. W. Swords offered the following resolution: Resolved, That the president of this convention appoint a committee of twenty-five Republican citizens of Louisiana, to visit Washington and represent to the President the actual condition of affairs in this State, with special reference to the unwarrantable action of the federal officers, and demand the removal of the following gentlemen from their respective offices, viz: James F. Casey, Collector of the Port; C. W. Lowell, Postmaster; P. F. Herwig, Special Deputy Collector; S. B. Packard, United States Marshal; B. F. Joubert, United States Assessor of Internal Revenue, and S. A. Stockdale, Collector of Internal Revenue. It was moved and seconded that the resolution be referred to the committee on resolutions, which was carried. Mr. Carr moved that the convention take a recess for the purpose of acting upon the resolution of Judge Dibble. F. J. Herron offered the following amendment: Resolved, That the delegates from the parishes and wards composing the several Congressional districts meet in this hall to-morrow at 11 A. M., to select two persons from such district to serve on the State Central Committee. It was moved and seconded that Mr. Carr's motion be laid on the table, which was carried. The resolution of F. J. Herron, was then put to vote and carried. The convention then adjourned till to-morrow at 12 M. There was the utmost good feeling throughout, and the audience was entertained occasionally during the evening by Jaeger's band. VICKSBURG AND BENDS. WALTHAM WATCHES. THE BALANCE WHEEL OF A WALTHAM WATCH SEATS 4 times second, 240 times a minute, 14,400 times an hour, 345,600 times a day, 292,00 times a week, 10,368,000 times a month, 126,144,000 times a year. MORE IS EXPECTED OF A WATCH THAN ANY KIND OF IN MACHERY. It must not only run all day, but all night; not only on weekdays, but on Sundays and Holidays. It must run hanging up or lying down—upside down or right side up. It must keep running when the wearer sits down or stand up. When he walks or rides. In fact, it is expected to do its duty at all times, in every place and in every position. A Genuine Waltham Watch will fulfil all these requirements. I would once a day, it will faithfully tick for you a hundred and twenty-six million times in a year, without even requiring fresh oil all that time. A Genuine Waltham Watch CONTAINS 5 Springs, 9 wheels, 51 Screws, and 98 other parts making altogether 136 separate pieces. ALL GENUINE WALTHAM. Watches have seven Jewels. THE EXTRA JEWELLED HAVE ELEVEN JEWELS, THE FULL JEWELLED HAVE FIFTEEN JEWELS. Every part of a Waltham Watch is made by machinery. The machinery used in making the movement of a single watch cost over a Hundred Thousand Dollars, yet we sell these Watches, in a solid Silver Hunting Case, for $18. The same watch could not be made by hand and finished as perfectly for TEN TIMES AS MUCH. A Genuine Waltham Watch Is interchangeable, like a Springfield rifle that is, any part of one Watch is exactly like the same part in another; and if ten Watches of one grade were taken apart, and the screws, wheels, springs, &c., were mixed together, ten watches could be made by putting these parts together again, without any reference to their former combination. This is a GREAT ADVANTAGE; For, if any part of a Waltham Watch is injured we can always replace it at a trifling Expense. A GENUINE WALTHAM WATCH Is made with special reference to DURABILITY. Other Watches will run for a year or two, an require constant repairs; but a Waltham Watch WILL RUN FAITHFULLY FOR MANY YEARS. We sell these Watches, IN SOLID SILVER HUNTING CASES $18 IN SOLID GOLD HUNTING CASES, $70 We have prepared an ILLUSTRATED PRICE LIST, which describes the various grades of Watches in detail, gives the weight and quality of the Cases, and all other information necessary for an intelligent selection. ALL THIS IS EXPLAINED IN THE PRICE LIST.
