

the enactment of measures protective to the State's financial condition and the better development of her resources...

Whereas, With his Excellency Governor H. C. Warmoth, and Hon. P. B. S. Pinchback, Lieutenant Governor, conducting, together, in their respective official positions the general interests of the State, the people can depend upon a steady improvement in all the departments of said State; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we fully indorse the action of the State Senators in their election of Lieutenant Governor, and we do hereby pledge ourselves to the earnest support of his excellency, the Governor, and to the Lieutenant Governor elect, and to the Senators who are co-operating with them in their efforts to maintain the unity and integrity of the Republican party.

Resolved, That we denounce the dissembling Customhouse combination as an unprincipled compound of ambitious malcontents, sore-heads and adventurers, and as being most treasonable to the Republican party in this State in their efforts to betray us into the grasp of our political opponents.

Resolved, That the foregoing be published in the New Orleans Republican and LOUISIANIAN.

WILLIAM J. MOORE, President.

J. REARDON, Secretary.

Whereas, The Republicans in the Senate did the Hon. Senator P. B. S. Pinchback President of the Senate and Lieutenant Governor of the State of Louisiana, we, knowing him to be a true Republican, an able citizen, a zealous worker, and true to his race, continually working for their advancement; therefore, be it

B. S. Pinchback as President of the Senate and Lieutenant Governor of the State of Louisiana, and we pledge them our hearty support.

Resolved, That we heartily indorse the course pursued in the Senate by the Hon. Edward Butler, representing this district, in the election of a President of the Senate and Lieutenant Governor of this State, and his stand taken against bolters and disorganizers of the Republican party of this State.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the New Orleans Republican, and that the people of the parish of Plaquemines be asked to indorse them.
