PROSPECTUS.

THE WEEKLY LOUISIANIAN.

The Louisianian, now entering upon its fourth year as an organ of the colored people of Louisiana, as required common sense, influence and reputation. It is our purpose to add to its representative character and influence by making it the BEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER published in the South. A family paper, concise in form and excellent in matter, giving the latest news from all parts, Telegraphic Reports, Market Reports, Commercial news generally, correspondence, and all topics of local importance.

And while it will especially represent the colored citizen and urge the advancement of every right pertaining to the full measure of his manhood, it will also maintain as a FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLE the perfect equality of all citizens; the unity of the Republic notwithstanding no discrimination between North and South, East and West, Color and varied selections from History, Political, Religious, Scientific, and Agricultural topics will continue to be given.

OUR AIM shall be to foster kindly relations between the races, and to establish a mutual respect for each other as the very first essential to the future peace and prosperity of our State and the South.

With the service of journalists, colored men of culture and experience in their profession, obtained from varied and abundant sources, both at home and abroad, we feel confident THE LOUISIANIAN will rank second to no paper in the South.

OUR POLICY The necessity of a closer intercourse between the two classes, the colored and white people of our State, we rejoice to know is fast becoming manifest to our citizens. We would have closer relations politically and publicly between the two classes, and moderate and reasonable demands for justice and reformance between their malignity and resentment reigned, and a common service of all the people in the elevation of our loved State to an enviable and rightful position among her sisters in the development of her boundless resources and matchless advantages.

AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM The Louisianian offers rare advantages to the merchant and business man. Our large circulation within the State, and throughout the country, render the service of our columns particularly desirable.

EDUCATION A special feature of our paper will be its educational column relating to matters affecting our common school system, the Education of our youth, and the enlightenment of the masses.

FUNERAL A special feature of our paper will be its funeral column relating to matters affecting our common school system, the Education of our youth, and the enlightenment of the masses.

ANALYSIS OF

TIPTON'S MAGNETIC WELL.

AT JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT, UNIVERSITY OF LOUISIANA, NEW ORLEANS, AUGUST 9.

This is to certify that I have examined sample of water from the place of John Tipton, at Jackson, Mississippi, with the following result:

Specific gravity of water, 1002.5; reaction slightly alkaline; taste saline and slightly bitter; one gallon contains 620 grains saline matter; one pint contains 75 grains saline matter; one fluid ounce 4.59 grains matter; the saline matter consists of magnesia, sulphate of potassa, sulphate of soda, sulphate of lime, chloride of sodium, chloride of potassium, chloride of calcium,

chloride of magnesium, carbonate of soda, carbonate of ammonia, carbonate of lime.

The water also contains appreciable quantities of iodine, most probably in combination with potassium, sodium and calcium.

In my opinion this water will act as a gentle purgative and efficient diuretic, and will prove valuable in the treatment of Pott's disease of the kidney; the various forms of dropsy, arising from disease of the liver and kidneys; constipation with or without hepatic disease; gout, scorbutic and other humoral syphilis.

PEARLS AND TEARS.

To plight thy faith for love or weal,

Arrayed in pearls so rare

And bridal robes, I saw thee kneel,

The myrtle laid thy hair.

Swift came the thought: O guileless one,

Bright eyes will dim with years;

A proverb speaks in warning tone:

"Pearls are transformed to tears."

Now on a mourning garb I gaze,

Before the altar kneeling

Eyes dimmed with tears thou dost upraise,

Unto thy God appealing.

Faint not, be strong, O weary heart,

Not always shall thou mourn;

A proverb's warning thou impart:

"Pearls to pearls will turn."—ANON.

Lamar of Mississippi has excited the "gush" and "pacification" Northern admirers by the following speech, recently addressed the Mis-issippi Legislature in return for their election of him to the United States Senate:

"It would be affliction in me to disguise the pleasure and gratification which thrill me in this the proudest moment of my life. There are occasions in the lifetime of every man when he can but imperfectly express in language the emotions of his heart. All that I can now say is that, as a Southern man, a

Georgian by birth and education, and a Mississippian by adoption in my earliest manhood, I come to thank this convention of Southern men, descendants of Southern ancestors, for having committed into my hands the rights, the honor, and the sovereignty of your State.

By your unrestricted and unrestrained suffrages I am elected to an office adorned by the genius and statesmanship of a Brown and a

Davis."

Commenting upon the above, says the Boston Commonwealth:

"A good deal of hope has been expressed, on the loyal and generous utterances of Congressman

Lamar, that he would be foremost in the work of pacification and unity between North and South. But it seems his first sayings, like those of many others, must be taken with grains of allowance. Who Davis is everybody knows—the arch-rebel of the late war; and Brown was no less a defiant and insolent Senator twenty years ago, a veritable Hay-spur of the South, ready for his indignity to
