

THE LOUISIANIAN

SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 1882.

Local.

AV REVOM! In unity there is strength. Now for the common enemy! We unite under one banner and proclaim ARTHUR for '84!

Hon. Enos Williams of Terrebonne, passed through the city Monday, en route to Baton Rouge. Rev. Dr. W. S. Alexander of Central Church left for New York on a summer tour of the North, last Monday.

Senator Henry Demas, one of Louisiana's own leaders in the State Legislature, paid us a visit from Baton Rouge during the week. The Rev. Mr. Brown of Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn., will occupy the pulpit at Central Church during the absence of Dr. Alexander.

Col. William Roy of this city has been appointed Special Agent of the Interior Department for Louisiana and Mississippi, vice C. B. Routh, removed. Mr. W. S. Wilson has been granted a leave of absence from his duties in the Customs Service, and left for Hot Springs, Ark., on the Steamer J. W. Cannon, last Tuesday.

Mr. Carlisle T. Mason who graduated recently at the High School in Washington, D. C., is a brother of Mr. George C. Mason of the Post-Office Dept., of this city. Gov. Pinchback arrived last Monday. After a sojourn in Washington D. C., he extended his trip to a flying tour of the Eastern States going as far as Northampton, Mass.

P. N. F. Peter Joseph has been elected by the Pledge of Louisiana Lodge a delegate to the Biennial Movable Committee of the G. U. O. O. F., which meets in Boston, Mass., on the First Tuesday in October, 1882.

SPECIAL SERMON.—By particular request Rev. Dr. Thompson, Rector of the St. Philip's P. E. Church, will preach a special sermon on Sunday night June 18th. Subject, "Where is the soul, and what is its State between the death of the Body and the resurrection at the last day? The Choice of the Church will render a choice selection of music on this occasion. The public are cordially invited to attend, Seats free.

After this issue the WEEKLY LOUISIANIAN will suspend its publication and unite to establish another Journal of larger proportions and perhaps of a broader field, and we sincerely trust of an influence as great among our people and as severely felt by our opponents as the LOUISIANIAN. We return thanks to our friends for their patronage and courtesies.

A Grand Picnic will be given by the JEANES AMIS BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION on Monday, August 7th, 1882, to celebrate their 15th anniversary. Proposals for the purchase of the privilege of the bar, refreshments and restaurant, etc., will be received by Jos. Mansion, Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements, at his residence, 165 St. Philip street, until July 20th, 1882. Proposals must be made separately for each privilege. The Committee reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

Last Thursday evening a number of young ladies assembled at the residence of Mrs. J. Henri Burch and organized a company of Broom Guards. They are just sweet sixteen in number. They went through the novelty of their first drill very creditably, executing the movements with a grace that was perfectly charming. Mr. Burch, who is an experienced drill-master, will assume command of the Sweet Sixteen Sweepers until they elect their own captain. They have solemnly agreed to drill three times a week between the hours of 5 and 7 p. m. They will make their first public appearance on or about the 1st of August at a grand entertainment for the benefit of St. Philip's P. E. Church. At their next meeting they will appoint a committee to select a uniform.

DEAR LOCAL: I must assure you in good faith that the fair correspondents haven't wearied as yet of the evasive answers given their inquiring missives, nor have they forgotten the dear kind editor who paid such marked attention to their foolish questions, eliciting information through the columns of the LOUISIANIAN. Now if we still continue to contribute to your journal, you must correct all errors as we are only induced by the encouragement received at joint hands to persist in our efforts of seeking information through its columns. Composition, dear editor, is something we were never taught, hence our appeal in asking your assistance until we become perfect in our endeavors to open a spicy gossiping little column in the WEEKLY LOUISIANIAN for the benefit and amusement of its many fair readers. In conclusion, we in turn tender our heartfelt thanks for the marked interest manifested towards us by the corps of able writers of your instructive journal, in renewing their wishes that we should continue to keep up the delightful correspondence that promises such lots of fun for the fair sex. If not trespassing up on your valuable time, will you please enlighten me in regard to the "hen pecked benedict" who stands in such mortal fear of the lovely Broom Guards, can it be that his better half wields the broom upon his devoted pet in a manner worthy of Tam O'Shanter's fate, that causes him to piteously enquire if the straws show which way the blow comes? Answer and oblige PATIENCE ON A MONUMENT.

It gives us pleasure at this parting hour to be the recipient of the kind wishes given in such simple words of beautiful sentiments, from a fair and gentle reader, while bidding adieu to our friends. We surmise that "Patience on a Monument" is smiling at the grief of the poor hen-pecked benedict. Recently he had his hair cut which lead to an exposure of the ugly bumps which disfigure his cranium and the half (or better or for worse) became so enraged that he got his ears pulled for want of a better hold. Were we to give publicity to his name it would cause the maternal head of the household to completely annihilate the poor fellow.

OUR STAMPS.

The portrait of Benjamin Franklin on the one cent stamp, in imperial nitra marine blue, is after a profile bust of Rubricist. The head of Jackson on the two cent stamp, in vermilion is from a bust of Hiram Powers. The Washington head on the green three cent stamp is after Houdon's celebrated bust. The head on the five cent blue stamp is that of Zachary Taylor. The Lincoln profile in red on the six cent stamp, is after a bust by Volk. The seven cent stamp, in vermilion, gives the head of Stanton after a photograph. The head of Jefferson, on the ten cent stamp, in chocolate, is drawn from a life-sized statue by Hiram Powers. The portrait of Henry Clay, in neutral purple, on the twelve cent stamp, is after a bust by Hart. The head of Webster on the fifteen cent stamp, in orange, is after the Cleveland bust. The portrait of General Scott on the twenty-four cent stamp, in purple, is after a bust by Coffee. The head of Hamilton on the thirty cent stamp, in black, is after the Cerrachi bust; and the portrait of Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry, in carmine, on the ninety cent stamp, is after Wolcott's statue.

The style in which the adhesive stamps are printed and the clearness of outline of the several portraits, as well as the artistic excellence of the engraving, reflect credit on the head of the Post-office Department, Mr. Creswell, under whose authority they were executed. The seven, twelve and twenty-four cent stamps have been retired from use. The new five cent stamp will be a portrait of Garfield, from the photograph of which the Queen had a copy, and which was approved by Mrs. Garfield.—Boston Transcript.

PROSPECTUS.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN WASHINGTON, D. C., DAILY AND WEEKLY.

It is devoted to News, Politics, and General Information. It is the BEST NEWSPAPER published at the seat of Government, and in all matters pertaining to Governmental, Political, and Social affairs at the National Capital is superior to leading dailies of other chief cities of the Union.

During the sessions of Congress it will furnish a satisfactory report of the proceedings, and will at all times give complete and reliable information of the official doings in the various Executive Departments. A faithful record will be given of all appointments, promotions, dismissals, assignments, and other matters of interest connected with the Army and Navy. In politics it will, as hitherto, be stalwart and will advocate in a fearless and independent manner what shall appear to be the best interests of the country. It will furnish a record of the interesting social events of the day, making its Society Department a special feature. The location of THE REPUBLICAN gives it superior facilities for presenting to its readers faithful reports of all that occurs at the national center of Literature, Science and Art while its intercourse with public men enables it to make a special feature of the Social and Political Events and Gossip peculiar to the National Capital. In Telegraphic Communications with all parts of the world reached by the wires, it will contain each day a full record of its latest occurrences at home and abroad. Its special correspondence from all parts of the world will be an interesting feature in its editorials and its Foreign and Domestic and City News, the management intend to maintain the high standard already achieved, and make such improvements as may from time to time be suggested by the requirements of a first-class newspaper.

THE ISSUE OF THE WEEKLY REPUBLICAN.

A Double Sheet of Eight Pages and Fifty Six Columns. Will be commenced THURSDAY, January 5th 1882, and will contain in a condensed form all the contents of the daily, and a large amount of interesting literary and scientific matter prepared especially for the weekly edition. Army and Navy matters will be made an especial feature, it being the aim and intention to make it the recognized authority in all things relating to these very important branches of the public service.

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN

will be a current history of the times, which no one can afford to do without. A large amount of space will be devoted especially to the Agricultural and Producing interests of the Country—the facilities of constant communication with the Officials of the Agricultural Bureau enabling it to place before its readers all matters of information earlier and in better shape than any other weekly paper in the Country. The following unusually liberal rates will bring it within the reach of all classes. All subscriptions payable in advance. Terms: With Postage Prepaid. DAILY. One Year... $6 00 One Week... $1 50 One Month... 50 Ten Copies or more to one address, each 1 00
