DEATH NOTICE.
 The Privy Vault—In city life its days are numbered. That rendezvous of youth, the reading room of the guilty, the breeding place of disease with its chilling exposure of wintry blasts and tropical stench must give way to modern substitutes. It can be done in an inexpensive way—Invest-gate. WEATHERLY & PULTE.

FACTS
Without Adornment!

To dress well is more often the result of good taste and judgment than a lavish use of money. 'Tis not necessary to spend a small sized fortune in clothing one's self in these days of labor saving devices as 'twas in the old "homespun days." The making of clothing has become an art, which can only be acquired by years of study and constant application. We've devoted many years to it and can say without any egotism that we have no superiors and few equals in the art. Each year reveals new ideas in clothing making, but whatever it is you may depend upon our having it. For this season we have the handsomest line of

That can be produced. Nothing is missing that could in any way enhance it. The prices are at lowest figures, while the material and make-up are of the highest grade. Do you want to know the magic principle that keeps so many shears working, machines humming and needles flashing in this city for us the year round, furnishing employment to hundreds of worthy citizens and laborers. Because we manufacture our own clothing, thus securing it at very first cost of production, and it goes direct to our customers with but one small profit added. Can't you now see several reasons why you should patronize
