

EST OF THE YEAR

Most Enthusiastic Meeting Held by NINTH WARD REPUBLICANS

Speeches Were Made by Alfred Wolcott, Dwight Goss, Elizabeth Eaglesfield, E. L. Walbridge.

The ninth ward may not cast so large a republican majority as some other wards in the city, but from the point of view of enthusiasm it can not be discounted. The meeting last night was one of the largest and most enthusiastic of any so far in the campaign. In opening the meeting Fred Reed, the president of the club, made a strong appeal to the republican voters of the ward to attend the meetings and to bring their friends. He proposed the adoption of the constitution as provided by the state league of republican clubs. It was adopted. Mr. Reed called Alfred Wolcott, the republican nominee for prosecuting attorney, to the platform. In an eloquent address Mr. Wolcott showed the weakness in the democratic platform. He spoke of the desire of the democrat to make the force bill the issue of the campaign, and showed that the republican platform said on that matter. He declared that there are no bayonets behind it, as the democrats have shouted. He said the constitution of the United States provided that the right of any citizen to vote could not be abridged by the United States or by any state, and that congress could enforce that act by appropriate legislation, and therefore the bill is not unconstitutional.

Other Speeches. He was followed by Dwight Goss and E. L. Walbridge, who were frequently applauded. Mrs. Elizabeth Eaglesfield was called upon. She took the platform and made a firm and logical talk. She began her remarks by calling the assembly "Fellow republicans," and said for the first time she was called upon to talk politics in public, but she was a republican by principle and education. It seemed to her that the democratic party appealed to the unhappy, resentful portion of humanity, who by resenting their afflictions turned to vent their spleen on the party in power. She had talked with democrats and had found none that could give a satisfactory reason for so being and she had come to the conclusion that it must be their respect moral nature. She told all to Hill's speech and Cleveland's and see for themselves, that all democrat party was seeking is politicians talk too much of and tin. It is a question as to whether it is our country or some body else's. When she had finished the evening spoke with applause. republican candidate for congress was called upon for a speech. He told of the work of the congress and talked of the pension southern appropriations.

Fellows, Alpine town hall, October 4; Sand Lake, October 5; Gaines township hall, October 6; Mill Creek, October 7. The Rev. Charles Oldfield, Bostwick Lake, October 6. The Rev. J. W. The prohibitionists have an organization in every township save one in the county. Next Friday evening the eleventh ward republican club will hold a very important meeting in White's hall, corner of Madison avenue and Hill street. Every member is requested to bring his friends, especially democratic friends, that they may be led to the error of their ways. Good speakers will be there to address the club.

Mrs. Elizabeth Eaglesfield, the attorney, is something of a politician and a firm believer in equal suffrage. A few days ago she was engaged in a conversation on politics with a man and gradually it wafted around to equal suffrage. The man, who was a democrat, was getting the worst of it, but finally sprang the stickler. "If a woman desires to have the right of suffrage she should expect to take all the burdens of citizenship the same as men—for instance to go to war in case of necessity." Mrs. Eaglesfield replied: "There are many women who would go to war if necessary and those that didn't want to could do so. Mr. Cleveland did—send a substitute."

The eleventh ward Democratic club will hold a meeting next Wednesday night and perfect its organization.

The prohibition county committee is publishing a weekly paper in the Holland language. It is called De Sten (The Voice of the People). The Rev. Root of this city is editor.

Mrs. Elizabeth Eaglesfield, the attorney, has become an honorary member of the Lincoln Republican club. Joseph F. Hamblitz candidate for state treasurer called at the county committee's rooms yesterday. The republican county committee has received a supply of books entitled "Michigan My Michigan." PARLIAMENTARY LAW. Local Society Women Are Taking Much Interest in Its Study. Mrs. Strickland's lecture in the parlors of Mrs. E. A. Moseley, No. 326 Cherry street, yesterday was attended by about fifty society women, who manifested much interest in parliamentary law. Mrs. Strickland was introduced by Mrs. Ketchum and for one and one-half hours held the attention of her hearers. After the lecture a class was formed and work will begin when Mrs. Strickland returns from Lansing, where she will go to visit her son, who is in college there. During the lessons Mrs. Strickland gives each member a chance to preside at the meeting, and all kinds of intricate motions and amendments will be submitted to her by the class. The best feature of the work is that it teaches women to think on their feet, and as Mrs. Strickland teaches, when a woman can think on her feet she can talk on her feet.

It was decided to hold the first meeting of the class on Thursday evening at 10 o'clock at Mrs. Moseley's residence. Among those present at the lecture were Mesdames J. C. Wenham, E. F. Uhl, L. P. Rowland, L. A. Merrill, Frank Leonard, J. W. Rosenthal, E. A. Fletcher, Elizabeth Eaglesfield, W. H. Eastman, Hanson, Lane, M. C. Burck, S. A. King and Misses Franco, Pierce and Parsons.

RECRUITING STATION. One Opened Yesterday Under the Command of Captain Garretty.

The standing recruiting squad of the United States army opened quarters in the Old Aldrich block yesterday. The squad is located in room 13, and if successful in securing men for the service will probably remain here for one or two years. Capt. E. D. Garretty, Seventeenth infantry, in charge. The rest of the squad consists of Sergt. Daniel Shields, Corporal T. H. Rock, H. B. Stanton and P. Kennedy. The business of the squad is to secure recruits for the general service. Those enlisting will be sent to any post or garrison in the United States when new men are needed. The recruiting station which was established here two years ago was a regimental station and the men enlisted were simply taken for the regiment stationed at Detroit and Mackinac.

Captain Garretty and his detail of men have been located for four years past in Providence, R. I., where he secured a large number of men for the service. Should the station here prove successful a branch station will be established in Muskegon. No men over 30 years of age are taken, and none under 21 years of age without the consent of parents.

CENTRAL W. C. T. U. It Will Hold Memorial Services for Mrs. Willard.

At the meeting of the Central W. C. T. U., held in Good Templars hall yesterday afternoon, a motion was made and carried that memorial services for Mrs. Willard, mother of the national president, Miss Frances Willard, be held in Good Templars' hall the first Sunday that the committee can arrange to get the hall. Mrs. Bodwell, Mrs. Moorman and Mrs. Taylor were appointed as a committee to look after the matter of securing the hall. A communication from Mary H. Stewart in regard to the distribution of literature in the jail and almshouses of the county was read. It was decided that all papers and reading matter that the members of the society could spare should be devoted to that purpose. Miss Shirley, secretary of the girls' sewing school, gave a short talk, asking that the W. C. T. U. might lend that society some aid in regard to securing material for the girls to work on. Mrs. Boiss read the topics for discussion and outlined the work for the regular meetings for the remainder of the year.

FILTH OF THE JAIL Discussed by Two Members of the Board of Health.

"I hope the remodeling of the county jail will be passed by the supervisors," said a member of the board of health yesterday. "The sanitary conditions of a building could not be worse. If the cholera should visit our city it would alight in just such a place as the county jail. It would be a horrid breeding place for the disease germs and would be a menace to the whole city."

Another member of the board said the jail would not be so bad if it could be kept clean, but it is impossible to keep it clean. There is no way to let the water out when the floors are scrubbed and the water has to be swept down the stairs from one floor to the next. There is no place but the corridors for prisoners to exercise in, and altogether the building would not make a fit place in which to winter stock. He thought if the cholera visited the city the result would be awful in the jail.

LOG MOUNTAIN COMPANY. It is Making Active Plans to Develop Its Resources.

The stockholders of the Log Mountain Coal, Coke and Timber company of Pinville, Kentucky, in which a number of Grand Rapids capitalists are interested, held a meeting in Dwight Cutler's office in Grand Haven yesterday. The contract for building the twelve mile railroad was confirmed. This road will be built immediately, and will pass through the center of the 30,000 acres of land owned by the company. The canal and coaling coal will be put on the market early in the spring, and logging will be actively pushed this fall and winter. This development will place the concern on a paying basis, and it is expected that its stock will be worth several million dollars.

GARBAGE CANS. Secretary Wilson Has Some Model Ones On Exhibition.

The board of health has on exhibition a garbage can which will be of interest to those who have any fear of the cholera. It consists of a galvanized iron can of any size desired, from the ordinary pail to a barrel. The cover is provided with a rubber band and clasp which when closed make the cans airtight. The cans are provided with handles and are easily moved. Secretary Wilson of the board of health says the cans are just what has been wanted by the health authorities and should the cholera visit this city it will naturally aid in the suppression of the plague. He thinks the board of health will endorse the cans as the best ones for the purpose ever made.

DESEMPLOYED NOT EXCEEDING 5 LINES in length in the Standard Herald for 5 cents. Tell your neighbors.

Truant School Matters. The truant school at the North Division street building now contains thirty pupils. Boys from the neighborhood who refuse to attend regularly and have been known to run away from school twice are sent to this school, where they are kept for one month and then they are allowed to go back if they promise good conduct in the future. The teacher, Eugene Carpenter, manages to keep the truant characters from the other schools in line in good shape and seems to have but very little trouble in doing so.

Industrial Band Meeting. The meeting of the Industrial band of Saint Mary's was only a fairly attended yesterday owing to the fact that it was not the regular day for meeting. Those present worked on cornets, which were ordered and the demand for them was such that it is imperative that they be done at once. The society will work on the Ackerly institute at Grand Haven and for outside parties during the winter.

Amusements. Lincoln J. Carter's great scenic novelty, "The East Side," comes to the Grand next Sunday evening. Of all the great effects which have been seen on the stages of theaters in this city, it is doubtful if any approach the train of freight cars and practical working locomotive used in this play. This is but one of the many scene features introduced. It is full of practical effects, a fact well known by the great number of theatre-goers who saw the play upon its presentation here last season.

John Phillip Sousa's new marine band will give a concert in Hartman's hall Sunday evening, October 3. Mile, Marcelia Lindth, soprano, and the baritone, Egon Antonio Galeas, will assist in the entertainment. The new band, composed of the pick of the musicians in America, recently made its debut in Chicago, at the Auditorium. An immense audience received its playing with genuine enthusiasm, and the accuracy of its playing was frequently commented on by the press of that city.

The bill at Smith's this week is varied and amusing. The introductory comedy is breezy, with music, ballet and burlesque, and the acrobatic team by the Provosts makes a hit every night. Matinee today.

The Grand Rapids Theatrical Mechanics' association announce their fourth annual benefit ball at Hibernian hall on the evening of October 4. This society embraces in its membership the men who are in the theaters past in Providence, but are never seen. The object of their organization is a worthy one, and their social entertainment is deserving of the fullest success.

FINE COLLEGE CONCERT. An Immense Audience Listened to the First of the Series.

Over two thousand persons assembled in Hartman's hall last night to enjoy the first concert of a series of ten concerts to be given under the auspices of the Western Michigan college. Last night's entertainment was given by the college faculty and was contributed to by the Chevalier A. DeKoutski, Charles W. Landon, Stanton Becker Grabill and Miss Frances Cowles, pianists; James Paddon and Edward Ryan, violinists; Mrs. Willis Merton Bryant, vocalist, and Mrs. Belle McLeod Lewis, reader. The gems of the evening were the numbers by the Chevalier and the violin numbers by Mr. Paddon, who gave a superb rendering of the Fantasia Caprice by Viextemps.

It was announced by Mr. Landon that the next concert of the series will be given October 17 at Chapel hall by the great pianist, William H. Sherwood.

Bicycle Races at Berlin. A large party of local bicyclists went to Berlin yesterday to compete in the races at the Ottawa and West Kent county fair. In the half mile race, best two in three, the first heat was won by Claud Bortree, E. J. Curtis second and George Chase third; time, 1:23.

Second heat—Claud Bortree won, F. S. Gilbert second, E. J. Curtis third; time, 1:28.

The third heat for second place was run by Gilbert and Curtis, and was a dead heat in 1:29.

The fourth heat, for second place, was won by Curtis in 1:30.

Bortree gave an exhibition half mile in the extra good time of 1:16. Mrs. F. W. Heath and Mrs. W. B. Folger rode in an exhibition for the benefit of the crowd. They each received a $7 medal for the exhibition.

Mrs. Quinsey Still Dumb. Mrs. J. C. Quinsey has been removed from the U. S. A. home to the residence of Mrs. Simonds, on the corner of Fifth avenue and Ionia street. The wound inflicted on the night of the tragedy has nearly healed, but she has not recovered the use of her vocal organs sufficiently to carry on a connected conversation. At no time is she permitted to converse with her but her attendants.

Prize Waiters. Eighty numbers were sold at the dance given by the Uniform Rank, K. O. T. M. last night at Maccabee hall, No. 6 Pearl street. It was one of the pleasantest parties given by the rank and everything passed off smoothly and satisfactorily. The prizes for the best waiters were captured by William Irwin and Mrs. Will Abbott. They received as souvenirs gold salt cellar and a silver cup and saucer respectively.

Black is a Fashionable Color. The fashionable color this fall is black. This is a fortunate thing for the woman who does not have an unlimited amount of pocket money, as with diamond dyes she can make faded clothes a rich and handsome black.

There are three kinds of diamond dye—fast blacks, for wool, for cotton, for silk and feathers. They are simple to use and make colors that never fade, crack, or wash out.

MERCURIAL. Mr. J. C. Jones, of Fulton, Ark., says of $35. "About ten years ago I contracted a severe case of blood poisoning. Leading physicians prescribed medicine after medicine, which I took without any relief. I also tried mercurial and potash remedies, with unsuccessful results, but which brought on an attack of mercurial rheumatism that made my life one of agony. After suffering four years I gave up all remedies and commenced using S. S. S. After taking several bottles, I was entirely cured and able to resume work."

$35 is the greatest medicine for blood poisoning to-day on the market.
