

A FEW OLD-TIME DRY GOODS MERCHANTS HERE MUST BE PRETTY SICK

Judging from the way people tell us, it seems to be hard work for most of the people to get away without them getting "some song and dance" about us; but all their talk don't do them any good. The Grand Rapids people, as well as those of surrounding towns, are well aware

Who the Siegel's Are by Reliable Merchants Here and Elsewhere.

As this firm is known all over the United States as one of the largest Manufacturers and Importers in Cloaks and Suits, and guarantees to do business in a business way only, and in a reliable way—no sneaky, underhanded way, like some do. You know we spoiled the cloak business here for them. We are booked here to stay and to do the cloak business of the town.

To Elephant Drivers!

Those who do not drive elephants and the whole people,

Pettibone, the Shoe Man,

exists because he has shoes of better quality, lower prices, more style to the square inch than any other shoe man in Grand Rapids. Some people know a good shoe when they see it, and Pettibone's invariably low and unapproachable cash prices compels them to buy. Goods bought for cash—marked in plain figures—by a man who knows his business, and retailed for cash only—are the only trade winners necessary to frugal, smart people. That's why Pettibone, the Shoe Man, exists in your midst at 30 Monroe Street.
