

RANG IN THE NEW

Daisy Lodge of Elks Held Its Annual Social Session

ON THE EVE OF THE NEW YEAR

Over 350 Guests Were Present to Watch the Birth of 1903—Toasts and Responses by Members.

In accordance with their legends and traditions, the Elks gathered in their hall last night to watch the old year die and the new year blossom into existence.

The hall of Daisy lodge No. 43 was a thing of beauty. Vines of staphis hung from the mural decorations and interspersed themselves with the pillars and columns.

At 9 o'clock the Elks and their guests 350 in number, formed in line in the anteroom and marched in double column into the banquet hall.

Then the chairman filled the great tankard and after toasting of the beverage announced that it was fit to be drunk by any Elks.

After an overture by Wilbur Force's orchestra, the chairman appointed various members to act temporarily as waiters.

After a song by the Arion quartet L. E. Carroll responded to the toast, "Elkdom." Peter Doran introduced Maurice Shanahan, who paid a beautiful tribute to "Elkdom."

The Elks then rose and drank a toast to their absent brothers. After another song by the Arion and a liberal plating of fines by the chairman, Dr. Louis Barth introduced Gen. L. G. Rauscherford, who responded to the toast, "Our State."

The Elks then rose and drank a toast to their absent brothers. After another song by the Arion and a liberal plating of fines by the chairman, Dr. Louis Barth introduced Gen. L. G. Rauscherford, who responded to the toast, "Our State."

The Elks then rose and drank a toast to their absent brothers. After another song by the Arion and a liberal plating of fines by the chairman, Dr. Louis Barth introduced Gen. L. G. Rauscherford, who responded to the toast, "Our State."

The Elks then rose and drank a toast to their absent brothers. After another song by the Arion and a liberal plating of fines by the chairman, Dr. Louis Barth introduced Gen. L. G. Rauscherford, who responded to the toast, "Our State."

The Elks then rose and drank a toast to their absent brothers. After another song by the Arion and a liberal plating of fines by the chairman, Dr. Louis Barth introduced Gen. L. G. Rauscherford, who responded to the toast, "Our State."

The Elks then rose and drank a toast to their absent brothers. After another song by the Arion and a liberal plating of fines by the chairman, Dr. Louis Barth introduced Gen. L. G. Rauscherford, who responded to the toast, "Our State."

The Elks then rose and drank a toast to their absent brothers. After another song by the Arion and a liberal plating of fines by the chairman, Dr. Louis Barth introduced Gen. L. G. Rauscherford, who responded to the toast, "Our State."

The Elks then rose and drank a toast to their absent brothers. After another song by the Arion and a liberal plating of fines by the chairman, Dr. Louis Barth introduced Gen. L. G. Rauscherford, who responded to the toast, "Our State."

The Elks then rose and drank a toast to their absent brothers. After another song by the Arion and a liberal plating of fines by the chairman, Dr. Louis Barth introduced Gen. L. G. Rauscherford, who responded to the toast, "Our State."

The Elks then rose and drank a toast to their absent brothers. After another song by the Arion and a liberal plating of fines by the chairman, Dr. Louis Barth introduced Gen. L. G. Rauscherford, who responded to the toast, "Our State."

END OF THE FIGHT

Governor Luce Discontinues His Local Headquarters.

HISTORY OF THE CAMPAIGN

Delegations of Friends of Both Candidates Will Go to Lansing Tomorrow—Tatum's Election Almost Certain.

The Luce senatorial boom has been taken to Lansing. Milo B. Campbell packed it in his grip Friday night and left for the capitol on a late train.

During the past six weeks, Mr. Campbell has waged a vigorous campaign in western and northern Michigan. He has been assisted by James M. Shepard of Cassopolis and John W. Blodgett of this city.

Room No. 118 in the Morton house has been the scene of operations. It was here that the famous circular letter was drafted and the plan of campaign devised.

While the Luce men are hopeful, yet they are not so sanguine of success as they were several weeks ago when "the conference of Governor Luce's friends" was held in the Morton.

It was believed that Senator Stockbridge, by the advice he had given in the matter of appointments, had made enough enemies in this part of the state to create a strong personal sentiment against him.

It was also known that the temporary republican congressman from this district had everything but love for the senator, and while he himself had promised to refrain from taking an active part in the campaign, yet it was known that he had certain influential friends that would joyfully and enthusiastically hail any opportunity to jab the man from Kalamazoo under the fifth rib.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

END OF THE FIGHT

Governor Luce Discontinues His Local Headquarters.

HISTORY OF THE CAMPAIGN

Delegations of Friends of Both Candidates Will Go to Lansing Tomorrow—Tatum's Election Almost Certain.

The Luce senatorial boom has been taken to Lansing. Milo B. Campbell packed it in his grip Friday night and left for the capitol on a late train.

During the past six weeks, Mr. Campbell has waged a vigorous campaign in western and northern Michigan. He has been assisted by James M. Shepard of Cassopolis and John W. Blodgett of this city.

Room No. 118 in the Morton house has been the scene of operations. It was here that the famous circular letter was drafted and the plan of campaign devised.

While the Luce men are hopeful, yet they are not so sanguine of success as they were several weeks ago when "the conference of Governor Luce's friends" was held in the Morton.

It was believed that Senator Stockbridge, by the advice he had given in the matter of appointments, had made enough enemies in this part of the state to create a strong personal sentiment against him.

It was also known that the temporary republican congressman from this district had everything but love for the senator, and while he himself had promised to refrain from taking an active part in the campaign, yet it was known that he had certain influential friends that would joyfully and enthusiastically hail any opportunity to jab the man from Kalamazoo under the fifth rib.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

END OF THE FIGHT

Governor Luce Discontinues His Local Headquarters.

HISTORY OF THE CAMPAIGN

Delegations of Friends of Both Candidates Will Go to Lansing Tomorrow—Tatum's Election Almost Certain.

The Luce senatorial boom has been taken to Lansing. Milo B. Campbell packed it in his grip Friday night and left for the capitol on a late train.

During the past six weeks, Mr. Campbell has waged a vigorous campaign in western and northern Michigan. He has been assisted by James M. Shepard of Cassopolis and John W. Blodgett of this city.

Room No. 118 in the Morton house has been the scene of operations. It was here that the famous circular letter was drafted and the plan of campaign devised.

While the Luce men are hopeful, yet they are not so sanguine of success as they were several weeks ago when "the conference of Governor Luce's friends" was held in the Morton.

It was believed that Senator Stockbridge, by the advice he had given in the matter of appointments, had made enough enemies in this part of the state to create a strong personal sentiment against him.

It was also known that the temporary republican congressman from this district had everything but love for the senator, and while he himself had promised to refrain from taking an active part in the campaign, yet it was known that he had certain influential friends that would joyfully and enthusiastically hail any opportunity to jab the man from Kalamazoo under the fifth rib.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

END OF THE FIGHT

Governor Luce Discontinues His Local Headquarters.

HISTORY OF THE CAMPAIGN

Delegations of Friends of Both Candidates Will Go to Lansing Tomorrow—Tatum's Election Almost Certain.

The Luce senatorial boom has been taken to Lansing. Milo B. Campbell packed it in his grip Friday night and left for the capitol on a late train.

During the past six weeks, Mr. Campbell has waged a vigorous campaign in western and northern Michigan. He has been assisted by James M. Shepard of Cassopolis and John W. Blodgett of this city.

Room No. 118 in the Morton house has been the scene of operations. It was here that the famous circular letter was drafted and the plan of campaign devised.

While the Luce men are hopeful, yet they are not so sanguine of success as they were several weeks ago when "the conference of Governor Luce's friends" was held in the Morton.

It was believed that Senator Stockbridge, by the advice he had given in the matter of appointments, had made enough enemies in this part of the state to create a strong personal sentiment against him.

It was also known that the temporary republican congressman from this district had everything but love for the senator, and while he himself had promised to refrain from taking an active part in the campaign, yet it was known that he had certain influential friends that would joyfully and enthusiastically hail any opportunity to jab the man from Kalamazoo under the fifth rib.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

END OF THE FIGHT

Governor Luce Discontinues His Local Headquarters.

HISTORY OF THE CAMPAIGN

Delegations of Friends of Both Candidates Will Go to Lansing Tomorrow—Tatum's Election Almost Certain.

The Luce senatorial boom has been taken to Lansing. Milo B. Campbell packed it in his grip Friday night and left for the capitol on a late train.

During the past six weeks, Mr. Campbell has waged a vigorous campaign in western and northern Michigan. He has been assisted by James M. Shepard of Cassopolis and John W. Blodgett of this city.

Room No. 118 in the Morton house has been the scene of operations. It was here that the famous circular letter was drafted and the plan of campaign devised.

While the Luce men are hopeful, yet they are not so sanguine of success as they were several weeks ago when "the conference of Governor Luce's friends" was held in the Morton.

It was believed that Senator Stockbridge, by the advice he had given in the matter of appointments, had made enough enemies in this part of the state to create a strong personal sentiment against him.

It was also known that the temporary republican congressman from this district had everything but love for the senator, and while he himself had promised to refrain from taking an active part in the campaign, yet it was known that he had certain influential friends that would joyfully and enthusiastically hail any opportunity to jab the man from Kalamazoo under the fifth rib.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

END OF THE FIGHT

Governor Luce Discontinues His Local Headquarters.

HISTORY OF THE CAMPAIGN

Delegations of Friends of Both Candidates Will Go to Lansing Tomorrow—Tatum's Election Almost Certain.

The Luce senatorial boom has been taken to Lansing. Milo B. Campbell packed it in his grip Friday night and left for the capitol on a late train.

During the past six weeks, Mr. Campbell has waged a vigorous campaign in western and northern Michigan. He has been assisted by James M. Shepard of Cassopolis and John W. Blodgett of this city.

Room No. 118 in the Morton house has been the scene of operations. It was here that the famous circular letter was drafted and the plan of campaign devised.

While the Luce men are hopeful, yet they are not so sanguine of success as they were several weeks ago when "the conference of Governor Luce's friends" was held in the Morton.

It was believed that Senator Stockbridge, by the advice he had given in the matter of appointments, had made enough enemies in this part of the state to create a strong personal sentiment against him.

It was also known that the temporary republican congressman from this district had everything but love for the senator, and while he himself had promised to refrain from taking an active part in the campaign, yet it was known that he had certain influential friends that would joyfully and enthusiastically hail any opportunity to jab the man from Kalamazoo under the fifth rib.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

These were the reasons urged for the election of Governor Luce. In his second conference of the governor's friends held in the Morton, some of those present declared that while they favored the election of Luce, yet the principal object of the contest was to defeat Stockbridge.

DR. PRICE'S DELICIOUS Flavoring Extracts NATURAL FRUIT FLAVORS. Of perfect purity. Of great strength. Economy in their use. Flavor as delicately and deliciously as the fresh fruit.

'93 '93 '93 TURN OVER A NEW LEAF Of your calendar for '93 see if there isn't a memorandum to "see Palmer, Meech & Co. about stationery." How is the stock of ink, envelopes, pens, files, tablets, and the various and several other things? Do you need a new letter press or a waste basket, legal blanks and blank notes, receipts, drafts? Would you like to have your stationery engraved? Let us give you figures.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. CURE SICK HEADACHE. Ache they would be almost useless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and the who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them, but after all sick headache.

EAT where you can get the best. We claim we set up the best 25c dinner in the city, from 11:30 to 2 p. m. We buy the best meats and poultry, which usually constitute the heaviest part of a meal; also that we have the best cooks in the city and feel sure if you give us a trial our efforts to please will be appreciated.

DRINK coffee—that is if you can get it good. Poor coffee is bad, but we claim that after trying many blends we have now got the best to be had.

TEETH CAN BE SAVED. No Teeth Need Be Extracted. Our Natural Tooth is Worth More than a Full Set of Artificial Ones. Try the Painless Method. ROBINSON DENTAL CO. 26 MONROE STREET.

'93 '93 '93 HAVE YOU CATARRH, ASTHMA OR BRONCHITIS? If You Have, Take the Montague Treatment. WILL IT CURE YOU? Read what Mr. Sherman, one of the old soldier boys, has to say and draw your own conclusions. He says:

Blacking Cases Massocks and Foot Rests! Your choice of anything in our window display for 70c. SPECIAL OFFERINGS -OF- CATARRH AND HEAD NOISES CURED. DROPSY CURED. FITS AND ALL NERVE AND BRAIN DISEASES CURED. EYE AND EAR DISEASES CURED. THE ONLY ONE WHO CURES DEAFNESS.

CHARGES $5.00 A MONTH! SMITH & SANFORD. 68 Monroe Street. W. F. SHATTUCK & CO., Upholstery-Furniture Repairing. The best of work at the lowest figures. Telephone 123 for W. F. Shattuck & Co.'s working day.

DR. C. E. RANKIN. 1015 1/2 Grand Rapids, Mich. Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc., treated in a new and scientific manner. Diseases of Kidney, Bladder, Bowels, Nervous System, etc. Consultation, examination and one treatment free.

Sufferers of Both Sexes There is a way provided by which you can obtain relief and a permanent cure. Make one more trial. Give ear to the warning. Do not delay, but immediately try the wonderful skill and remedies of THE FAMOUS SPECIALIST. RUPTURES Destroy Comfort. RUPTURES ARE DANGEROUS Ruptures Cured!! $5. No Knife or violent operation. No treatment. Dr. S. Clay Todd guarantees to reduce the rupture one-half or one-third its size in 10 hours. Medicines sent to any address receipt of $1. Not sold as drug stores. Call or write free. Letters answered promptly, free of charge. By Dr. S. Clay Todd, the famous specialist, 11 North Division Street, 2nd floor, room 4, Grand Rapids, Mich.