

CARR TO BE CHIEF

Superintendent Eastman to Go Out April 1.

HIS RESIGNATION ACCEPTED

The Board Will Permit the Men to Hold a Benefit Ball—Routine Business.

Harvey O. Carr is superintendent of police and will assume the duties of that position April 1. The resignation of Mr. Eastman was handed in to the commissioners yesterday as predicted.

Superintendent Eastman's resignation was accepted in the following language: "Whereas—in order that I may resume the position of chief of police, my resignation as superintendent of police, to take effect April 1."

Commissioner Withey arose when it had been read and said: "As the resignation of Mr. Eastman has been demanded by this board, I think, as this is a mistake, this board should take action denying such a resignation. This resignation comes from Mr. Eastman by his own volition and free will. I move that his resignation be accepted, and I wish for him all the success he deserves in the practice of his profession."

Mr. Bender showed his position and gave the superintendent a parting slap by remarking: "You have thought Mr. Withey was correct in his remarks, but he has been satisfied for some time that Mr. Eastman was a failure as a superintendent of police, and he therefore rescinded the motion to accept the resignation. Mr. Bender has thought Mr. Eastman was not in his element since he refused to be a cat's paw for Mr. Bender, and turn the department into a political machine."

Fire Marshal's Report.

Fire Marshal Lemoin reported that the building committee and himself had inspected the Royal Furniture company building on Canal street, and would make a report to the committee on Monday night. He called attention to the wooden structure of the roof of Col. George C. Briggs' block, on Canal street, and said a recommendation would be made to remedy the defect.

When it was time for Superintendent Eastman to make a report, he was not present, and the clerk went to his office to call him. He made his report in the usual manner, and gave no evidence of the affairs that followed. He said he had received a letter from Chicago asking that two men be detailed to do post-duty at the world's fair. He said the letter was in his budget and would explain itself.

Calvin Stanton and Ernest Phelan made applications for positions on the police force. Referred to the committee on men and discipline.

Superintendent Eastman reported of the following men for confirmation: W. W. Warner, James Pearson, E. G. Lee, E. F. Dean, Daniel McGowan, L. A. Smith, C. A. Atwood and G. V. McConville.

The following report was made by the committee on men and discipline in the case of Captain Smith of No. 3, who was recommended by the marshal for conduct unbecoming an officer: "We find that Captain Smith, having leave of absence, was on his way to a clothing store to make a few purchases; that he had an old friend, who, with himself, was aboard the ill-fated Sultana at the time of the accident, and are the only survivors living in the city. In talking over old times, they went into a room near by, and Captain Smith drank two glasses of hot whiskey, and not being accustomed to liquor, it went to his head, and upon his return to the engine house, after sitting in the hot room a few minutes, he found himself unable to get up, and he finally recovered his equilibrium. He frankly stated to your committee all the circumstances connected with the case, and felt that it was a matter of discipline, and that as an officer in charge he should be dealt with as severely as any of his comrades who were in the same boat."

The directors of the County club held a meeting last night in the club house, and made preparations for the annual meeting, which will occur late in the month.

The regular meeting of the board of public works was held yesterday afternoon, but nothing except routine business was transacted.

Sons, $100; Brechting Brothers, $130; Steadley & Bradley, $134.

Commissioner Loetger reported verbally on the Police Benefit association. He said he had advised the men to raise their fees and cut down their benefits. He also suggested that the men be allowed to hold a benefit ball if they did not like the tickets.

Mr. Bender sid out of the position he took one week ago by saying he had not understood that such a plan was suggested at the last meeting. He had no objection to the men having a ball if they were not allowed to sell the tickets among the merchants.

Mr. Withey said he thought the matter should be left where it was until the next meeting of the association, when the men, if they desired, could make a request to the men as they desire in the premises. The report was adopted.

Commissioner Bender arose at this point in the proceedings and said: "In the present state of affairs it becomes our duty to appoint a man in succession to Superintendent Eastman. I wish to present to you a man for the place. He is well known to most of you and I believe he will make an excellent man for the place. I present the name of Harvey O. Carr. His name was before us last spring, but he was not so well known to some of you as he now is. I take pleasure in placing his name before you."

Commissioner Withey said: "I have taken some pains to look up Mr. Carr, and the more I heard of him the better I liked him. I do not believe we will ever get a man for the place who fully comes up to our ideas. It is not a desirable place, in my estimation. It is an office to which no sunshine comes. I take pleasure in recommending the name of Mr. Carr and I pledge to him, if he accepts the place, my best assistance."

The vote was taken and Mr. Carr was elected unanimously, and will assume the duties of office April 1.

Commissioner Loetger reported favoring the placing of the telephone and telegraph wires near high buildings in cases or conduits, and recommended that it be made the duty of some officer to inspect electric light wires which enter buildings. He said the board had no power to carry out the recommendation, and moved to refer to the common council with a request that the matter be investigated.

The board adjourned.

City News in Brief.

The furniture manufacturers met last night to further discuss the world's fair exhibit. At a meeting held a short time ago they decided to surrender the space to Berkey & Gay, Nelson & Matter, Wilder, and the Oriol. Three of these companies have abandoned the matter on account of lack of time to make a good exhibit. This left Berkey & Gay to fill the whole space. Last night the Grand Folding Bed company applied for sixteen feet of space, and it was granted.

Yesterday's clearing house figures $111,018.00, are an increase over the corresponding day of last year of $13,826.20. The total for the week was $702,973.31, an increase over the corresponding week of 1892 of $120,234.27.

A writer in the Kindergarten News of Buffalo, says of Kate Douglas Wiggin: "Mrs. Wiggin enjoys the distinction of being the most accomplished woman engaged in philanthropic work in America."

a six-inch concrete foundation. The estimate made by the board of public works figured the above pavement to cost $22,434 for cedar blocks on a similar foundation, $21,454. The opinion of those present it was believed, fairly represented those of most of the property owners interested.

CAMPBELL-POST MUSICAL.

A Brilliant Recital by Their Pupils Last Evening.

Friedrich's new music hall was filled last night with an audience composed of the best musicians and music lovers in the city, who had come to hear some pupils of Henry C. Post and Francis Campbell play and sing. The work done by the pupils was of a very high order, and was an amateur effort, and such commendation is due those who really know teachers for their admirable examples of their work. Mrs. Palmer, the violinist, assisted charmingly in obligations to songs by Miss Johnson and Miss Chamberlin. The greatest surprise of the evening was the singing of Miss Eva Johnson, her home is in Baldwin, but she has been in Grand Rapids for the past eighteen months studying singing with Mr. Campbell. Her voice is a high soprano, clear and vibrant, and the way she sings shows her to be possessed of extraordinary musical talent in one so young. In the "Ave Maria," by Gounod, she quite electrified the audience by her religious fervor and abandon. She sang the pathetic but hackneyed "Angel's Serenade" in a simple, affecting manner that made one forget its age. Miss Johnson has unmistakable vocal talent. Although Miss Chamberlin has been heard before, she never appeared to better advantage than she did last night. Her rich, sympathetic contralto voice was particularly effective in "Ah, Tis a Dream," by Hawley, and "A Day Dream," by Streleiski, the latter with violin obligato. Miss Letitia Morrissey sang the difficult aria "O Mio Fenando," in a manner that showed her to be possessed of a great deal of dramatic talent. Her voice is of broad range and refined quality. Her rendering of "Israel," by King, was also highly satisfactory. Miss Annie Martin of Charlotte, played a polonaise by Chopin, and a mazurka by Liszt, in a manner that left little to be desired. Gaylord B. White was the accompanist of the evening. The program in full is appended.

Due—La Luna Innamorata, from Meffato-Bello. Solo—Ring Out, Wild Bells, Gounod. Meditation—Ave Maria, Bach-Gounod. Violin Obligato, Mrs. Palmer. Organ, Mr. Post. GRADED SCHOOLS TEACHERS Discuss Interesting Subjects at Their Monthly Meeting.

The meeting of graded school principals in the court house yesterday was lightly attended, but the subjects on the program were presented and discussed with interest and enthusiasm. P. D. Cornell of the Grattan school read a paper at the opening of the meeting on "The Unifying of Work in Graded Schools." He handled the subject briefly and left the meeting to attend the democratic county convention. The paper was discussed in the absence of Mr. Cornell.

Principal E. J. Quackenbush of Cedar Springs, who was to have read a paper on "Benefits of Co-operation," was not able to be present on account of illness.

Principal A. S. Luzzardi of Lowell read a paper on "The Examination, Its Relation to Scholarship, and Its Fitness for Test of Merit for Promotion." He advocated greater dependence upon daily work and less upon preparing for examinations. The paper was fully discussed.

Miss Lydia Newcomb talked briefly on physical culture in our schools. The subject proved to be very interesting, and the association invited her to speak more at length on the subject at the next meeting, which will be held Saturday, March 25.

The following order of services will be observed at the Division Street M. E. church this evening:
