SCENES AT THE LAKE

General Getting Ready for a Busy Summer Season.

PROGRESS OF NEW PAVILION

Steamboat Men Making Ready to Carry Crowds-Ice Cutting Activities Have Ceased.

The shore of Reed's lake at street railway terminus is a busy locality. The immense new pavilion is so far completed that its proportions may be seen to good advantage. The promenade, which leads out from the main pavilion to a second structure, doors near the shore, is partly built from the shore inland. The most complete portion is the pagoda or pavilion at the end of the promenade, the roof of which is being shingled. The main pavilion presents a welcome appearance with its immense verandas and wide projecting balconies from the second story. The tower is a graceful affair as yet incomplete. It rises from an angle of the building on the side approached from the cars. In its lower story will be the band, from where the music will be heard inside and outside equally well. The main part of the lower story will contain the large room, much on the plan of the old pavilion, but much larger. In the rear are kitchens, etc. In the front wing of the second floor is the dining room, surrounded by wide verandas, and in the rear the servants' quarters. The wide promenade which extends out toward the lake is on the level with the main floor and entirely above the roadway, so that one need not cross at the level of the road. The entire affair is very substantial and will be decidedly ornamental. It has been impossible to employ a large force of workmen at one time on the building, but it will be completed, it is expected, by May 1. The railway company owns a majority of the lands of the Owanshoming property, but nothing will be done with it at present.

Over at Captain Poison's landing several men are at work adding to the attractions that will be offered. Piles are being driven for an extension of the dock. A cabin 40 feet long is being built on the pier. Fred B. Aldrich, the steamer, A. B. Watson, and other minor improvements are being made along the shore. Across the lake, some distance north of Manhattan Beach, appears the buildings of a new bathing establishment being built by Charles Davis. The skating is still excellent, and old timers about the lake say that it will not be open this year until about the middle of April.

Will Try the Water Route. "No, we have come to nothing definite yet regarding a lake boat to connect with our river boat," said Charles A. Leonard, of the Grand River Transportation company, to a reporter for THE HERALD. "It's singular our people don't see the importance of this and take more interest in it. We can save them money and I guess they'll appreciate it when we get the thing under way. We know we can get cheaper rates for freight and we'll spend a little money to demonstrate it anyhow. I hardly think the two river boats will work together this season, though there has been a little talk of it. We shall probably go it alone."

Large Real Estate Sale. A large deal in east end realty was consummated yesterday between John W. Closterhouse and Detroit parties. Mr. Closterhouse sold the Miller home-stead, near the corner of Lakes and Wealthy avenues, for $27,000. There are eighty-seven lots in the plat and it is proposed to build on at least one-half the coming summer. A portion of the property lies within the city limits and a portion lies just outside. William F. Wurdack and William M. Wurdack are interested with the Detroit parties in the deal.

Temperance Theatrical. There was a revival of the temperance drama, "Little Brown Jug," at Good Temple hall last evening by the Valley City Comedy company. A fair audience witnessed the presentation. C. E. Stewart took the part of Jarvis Jordan very acceptably, save for the loss of his whiskers at an inopportune time. Miss Verma M. Rayner was natural in the role of Mary Carter, and E. D. Carol, as the spendthrift son, portrayed the character well. The farce, "Poor Philicoddy" closed the entertainment.

East Grand Rapids Ticket. At a democrat caucus held in the village of East Grand Rapids last night, the following ticket for village officers was nominated: President, S. G. Wilcox; clerk, Charles E. Godfrey; treasurer, H. H. Ryan; trustees, John Paul, Sr., Henry J. Ross, Charles Niehan and John H. Poisson; assessor, Thomas E. Reed; street commissioner, John E. Apsey; constable, Charles E. Morgan. George Forrester acted as chairman and Ed Brady secretary of the caucus.

Miss Wood's Musicals. Florence Wood of Madison avenue gave an entertainment last evening for her intimate friends. The program was as follows: Piano solo, Serenata op. 15 to 2, Moszkowski; Miss Ida E. Wilberg, Benjo trio, Mesars, Adolph Spencer, Frank Montros and Wilbur Hobarid. Song, "A Day Dream," Striliski; Miss Maude E. Evans. Recitation (selected), Miss Addie Johnson, Sunset, Zoeltner, Mixed Chorus, "The Jiners," recitation, Frances Verdeur.

Arrested a Carpet Thief. Andrew Bisbing of Solon township was arrested last night by Deputy Sheriff Brinkman on a warrant charging him with larceny. The complaining witness is E. E. French, an ex-police man of this city, who charges him with having stolen twenty yards of carpet from him on December 24 last. The carpet was hanging on a line when stolen and is valued at $16. Bisbing will have an examination in Justice Holcomb's court this morning.

Annual Statements Filed. The following corporations filed annual statements yesterday: Crosby Lumber Company—Capital stock, $450,000; paid in, $450,000; real estate, $50,000; personal estate, $51,628.88; debts, $296,322.63; credits, $53,148.16. Grand Rapids Ice and Coal Company—Capital stock, $50,000; paid in, $25,000; real estate, $14,480; personal estate, $17,634.45; debts, $5,016.13; credits, $17,634.50.

Truth Is Mighty. Allen B. Morse said the other day that the present extravagant house of representatives at Lansing has a third more employees on its pay roll than did the honest and economical house of two years ago. A reference to the two pay rolls, who changed from Byron Center, were fifty employees and that now there are fifty-one. It is not pleasant to prove Judge Morse's informant a liar, but truth is mighty, etc.—Detroit News.

Thrown From a Cart. Last night at 7:20, as Mrs. Narring and Mrs. Larder of Byron Center, were driving on East Fulton street, their cart was overturned by the street car track at the corner of Waterloo street, and they were thrown out. Mrs. Narring was badly injured about the spine and wrist and she was taken into the Harvard house, where Dr. DeCamp attended her injuries.

Received the St. Cecilia. About 100 members of the St. Cecilia society visited the members of the Mohai quartet at the reception tendered them at the home of Mrs. W. S. Brown on Madison avenue yesterday afternoon. The affair was entirely informal and the St. Ceciliaists found the women of the quartet most agreeable persons socially and vice versa.

Contagious Diseases. Emma Dodge, No. 181 Travis street; Melissa Hugh Dodge, same; James Dodson, No. 16 Nant street, chicken pox.

Burial Permits. Charles J. Rindler, U. B. A. home, Harmon; Jennie, Mary Carey, No. 124 Central avenue, Grant.

Mr. Kutta Is Quite Willing. "Yes, I'm said to be a candidate for judge of the superior court," said Frank Kutta to a reporter for THE HERALD yesterday. "Don't it strike you that it would be well to have a candidate from each of the three parties? The present circuit judges will in all probability be nominated by our populist party, and it's right and proper, but our people seem to feel that as long as they have a candidate for superior court judge, he should be given a show for election. One judge from each party appears to our people to be about the right thing just now when we hear so much about non-partisan judges."

Get the Genuine. If you suffer with lame back, especially in the morning, Allcock's Plasters are a sure relief. If you cannot sleep, try an Allcock Plaster, well up between the shoulder blades—often relieves—sometimes cures. Try this before you resort to opiates. If any of your muscles are lame—joints stiff—feel as if they wanted oiling—or if you suffer with any local pains or aches, these plasters will cure you. If you use them once you will realize why so many plasters have been made in imitation of them. Like all good things, they are copied as closely as the law allows. Don't be duped by taking an imitation when it is so easy to get the genuine.

If you always insist upon having Allcock's Porous Plasters and never accept a substitute, you will not be disappointed. MONDAY NIGHT do not fail to hear Riley, the humorist, at Hartman hall. Admission 50 cents. Box office open Saturday morning.
