CONVENTION HELD LAST NIGHT

The prohibition party opened the city campaign last night by making the nominations for both city and ward officers. The convention was held in Good Templars' hall, and forty-four votes were the highest number cast for any one candidate.

The call for the convention was read by Peter Reynolds, secretary of the city committee, and George H. Newall was called to the chair. Peter Reynolds was elected secretary, and E. R. Thompson and Frank Weatherly were appointed tellers. The officers were duly sworn and, upon motion, all prohibitionists present were invited to participate in the proceedings of the convention as delegates.

On motion of W. H. Walker, nominations of candidates for mayor were then received. That gentleman, after a short nominating speech, presented the name of Hon. E. L. Briggs, and there being no other candidates in the field the secretary was instructed to cast the vote of the convention for Mr. Briggs, which he did, and he was declared nominated.

J. H. Thaw then presented the name of A. E. Brooks for city treasurer, and the secretary was again instructed to cast the vote of the convention. Mr. Brooks was so nominated. Nominations for a candidate for city clerk were next in order, and E. D. Fuller presented the name of Harry VanderVeen.

William McMain was put in nomination by M. H. Walker, and there being no other candidates in the field the secretary was instructed to cast the vote of the convention for Mr. Briggs, which he did, and he was declared nominated.

Albert Dodge and Charles H. Thoma were then put in nomination for city comptroller, and a ballot was ordered. On the first ballot 41 votes were cast, of which Muller received 28, and Whitmer 10. Mr. Muller was made the unanimous nominee.

Albert Dodge was then nominated for candidate for superior court judge by the vote of the secretary by unanimous vote from the convention. On motion of M. H. Walker the city committee was empowered to fill all vacancies that may occur on the city ticket.

The following city committee was then elected: M. H. Walker, William McMain and Albert Dodge.

The convention then took a recess of ten minutes to allow the several ward delegations to nominate candidates for ward offices. When the convention reassembled, the following ward tickets were reported:

IT'S A USEFUL PUBLICATION.

The Official Mouthpiece of the World's Columbian Exposition.

When the United States government took control of the world's Columbian exposition last October, on the occasion of the dedication, a board of control was appointed to carry on the work to a successful completion. One of the first acts of the board was to order a publication which should give the information that people are most desirous of obtaining in connection with an enterprise now uppermost in the public mind. The work was given the title of The Official Directory of the World's Columbian Exposition, and active preparations were at once set on foot. It has now as far progressed as to warrant placing it into the hands of soliciors for the purpose of taking subscriptions. It will contain not only very valuable but also very interesting information; will be illustrated with about one hundred full page half-tone engravings and will contain the name of every exhibitor, his home address, what he is exhibiting and where the exhibit may be found at the exposition. It is information which intending visitors most urgently need, and will be highly appreciated by the public everywhere.

Old Steamboat Advertisements.

Yesterday George DeHaven received some unique souvenirs of the early steamboat days. One was an advertisement of the Lake Champlain Steamboat company. It was printed August 27, 1816. Webster's advertisements of Albany did the typographical work, and the sheet was embellished by a crude wood cut of a steamboat. The advertisement stated: The Phoenix, J. Sherman, master, and The Champlain, G. Brush, master, would make regular weekly trips across the lake. The freight rates were announced as follows: "Pot and pearl ashes, $1 per barrel; provisions, 75 cents; flour, 50 cents; butter or lard in firkins, 25 cents; tereos of seed or salt, $1.25; ditto of rice, $2. All other articles except fuel and skins at the rate of $3 per ton." Another advertisement of the Burlington, the Champlain steamer that Dickens praised, was received, and also an advertisement of The Franklin of the Lake George Packet company, L. C. Larabee, master. This was dated June 24, 1825, and the passenger rates across the lake were "reduced to 85."

Eber Rice Will Celebrate.

Eber Rice will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of his birth on the evening of April 6, and has issued invitations to his friends to be present and assist in making the event a happy one. His cards of invitation are unique and original in design. The card is a little folder with a cut of the fiftieth milestone, with a policeman represented taking long strides in its direction. It reads: "I will pass it April 6, 1893, and I want you to help me celebrate it at No. 16 Coit avenue, at 8 p. m. on that date; also Eber Rice and Mrs. Eber Rice." It is also added, "No presents."

Will Include Horace.

Heretofore he could not be punished by the law as he is under 12 years old, the minimum age for admission to the reform school. The law has been amended so that boys 10 years of age can be sentenced to the reformatory and young Horace is within the limit.

Ladies' Committee. The history committee had charge of the program for the afternoon. Music first on the program, the exercises. The first article was on "The Growth of Slavery," the time extending to the admission of Texas. This paper included the Missouri compromise, nullification and state rights. The next article was "The Right of Petition and the Old Man Eloquent," being a life of John Quincy Adams, an orator of high order, the peer of Daniel Webster and Henry Clay, intellectually. He is known as the presenter of petitions, some days as many as three hundred having been presented. "The Webster and Hayne Debate of 1820" was the title of an eloquent paper, which gave the life of Daniel Webster, from his first effort in defending a woodchuck which had been trapped by the boys. It is needless to say that he was successful, and that the prisoner was liberated. Guests: Miss Bowler, Colverton; Miss Cliff, Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. Hurlbut, Muskegon; Miss Currie Holcomb, Chicago; Miss Ruth Carlton, Jackson; Mrs. A. A. Strout, Portland, Me.

We Cannot Tell.

Dr. S. Clay Todd was seen at the great Janauschek entertainment last evening. Wonder if he liked her as well as he did Miss Susan B. Anthony? Democrat.

We have asked Dr. S. Clay Todd about it and he said: "While Madame Janauschek's reputation was sufficient to bring together one of the finest audiences that ever entered the theater, Miss Susan B. Anthony's audience at the Ladies' Literary club was equally the most numerous; and while Madame Janauschek's magnificent entertainment would please the finer senses of an intelligent people, Miss Anthony's influence in her special work will extend throughout all time for the upbuilding of all mankind.—Evening Press.

The Truthful Test

It requires no learned experts or scientific experiments to establish the fact that PRIC'S DELICIOUS FLAVORING EXTRACTS are not only the strongest, but positively the sweetest and most delicate fruit flavors. If housewives will flavor a cake, pudding, custard or cream with Dr. Price's Extract of Vanilla, Lemon or Orange, and a smaller quantity gives a more natural and grateful taste than can be imparted by any other Extracts, it is not an incontestable proof of their greater excellence? In every case where Dr. Price's Flavors are used they give perfect satisfaction.
