A NEWSPAPER MAN,

Connected With the Great Paper, the Albany Express,

Makes Statements Which the People Should Know and Understand.

They Will Interest Not Only the Newspaper Fraternity but Everybody.

The popular and well-known Thomas A. Lindsay, who is connected with Albany's (New York) leading morning paper, the Albany Express, makes an interesting revelation.

"For many years," said Mr. Lindsay, "I have been subject to severe spells of headache and nervousness, and most enough to drive me to insanity from pain, loss of sleep, etc."

"Medicines, narcotics, patent and prescribed, did not give relief, and the ailment increased continually. Having read in the Albany Morning Express, at different times, the advertisement of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I concluded to try this remedy, and after the use of six or seven bottles, found not only relief, but almost a radical cure."

"The headaches are a thing of the past, while the terrible nervous spells have gradually become less and less until now I have little or none of them left and my sleep is natural and refreshing."

"I do not hesitate in saying that this remarkable change is entirely due to Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and I heartily recommend it for ailments like my own, no matter the cause of them."

It is a fact that our great business and professional men are fast finding out the wonderful invigorating and strengthening powers of this most valuable discovery, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It is the medicine for the weak and nervous. It restores health to the sick.

Its remarkable cure of Mr. Lindsay, after everything else had failed, makes another conspicuous person, restored to health by its use, to add to the long and constantly increasing list of prominent and well-known people who are almost daily publishing in the papers statements of their cures by this grand medicine.

It is beyond all question the greatest curer of disease known at the present day, and is the very best spring medicine for blood and nerves. Everybody needs a spring medicine and this is just the remedy to take. It is purely vegetable and harmless, and is sold by druggists.

This great remedy is the discovery and prescription of the famous physician, Dr. Greene, of 25 W. 14th street, New York, who is the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases in this country. We would add that the doctor can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

JUSTICE LAMAR'S HAIR.

An Anecdote Told by a Woman Who is a Girl Known the Entmost Jurist. The late Justice Lamar did not often boast of his prowess. There is, however, a young lady now prominent in Washington society to whom as a little girl he revealed one blood-curdling reminiscence. He was accustomed to visit her father's house and had often noticed her gazing curiously at his hair, which he wore very long and flat to the sides of his head. One day he said to her: "My dear, you look as if you wanted to ask me something. What is it?"

"If you please, Mr. Lamar," she answered, "why do you wear your hair that way at the sides?" Lamar drew on his most serious expression, and in a low, hoarse whisper, between his lifted palms, he replied: "Because, my dear, I—once—had a fight—with—a man—and—he—cut—off—my—ears!"

For a long time afterward the little girl was struck with a chill of horror every time she looked at him, until one day, in the midst of a gesture, he swung his hair back far enough to assure her that his head was supplied with its normal complement of members. But she never, till the day of his death, entirely got over the effect made upon her by the pretended dread story.—Chicago Tribune.

Nervous Paralyzed Them. The checkbook book agent on record has just finished his campaign in Baltimore, Md., and gone to introduce his method in other cities. He travels for a New York publishing house and is introducing a new book. He put up at the best hotel, secured choice rooms, and then sent district messenger boys to leading residents requesting them to call at once on a matter of importance.

They called and were ushered in and had the book shoved under their noses. Some were mad as hornets, but the majority gave the agent credit for his nerve, and a number subscribed for the book in order to have a moment of the checkbook man living.

Pushing for an Artist. Detroit has an artist who isn't always prompt in the payment of his bills. Yet, he paints well, and some day succeed, if he doesn't die of starvation meantime. Several days ago a friend of his met a real estate agent.

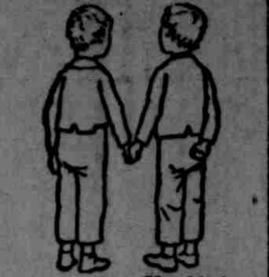

"By the way," he said, "I've been sitting for Pallet, the artist, this morning."

"Is that so?" responded the other one, with interest. "Well, I've been laying for him. He owes two months' rent."
