WORKMEN INSULTED. When workmen are out of employment, through no fault of their own, it is needlessly cruel to taunt them with having brought about their discomfiture by unwise political action.

HOPE SMITH'S pension raid is inscrutably mysterious. Justice Long of the state supreme court, an armless and bullet-riddled hero of the war, has been dropped from the pension rolls without notice.

Now the Albany (N. Y.) Journal takes up the question of continuing the world's fair another summer, and reasons that such a course is necessary to give everybody a chance to see the wonderful sights.

GROVER is said to be in favor of the re-enactment of the Bland silver act. It is apparent that Grover is playing a desperate game to unsaddle the silver cranks.

THREE young men have started to walk from New York to San Francisco to test the life sustaining qualities of a Madagascan herb.

CHINA has decided to take a hand in the little squabble between France and Siam. Not that China has any particular affection for Siam, but it may afford an opportunity to humiliate France.

YOUNG Mr. Lloyd Aspinwall of New York found it absolutely impossible to eke out an existence on a beggarly income of $20,000 a year.

SECRETARY GRESHAM is a full-fledged candidate for the democrat nomination for the presidency in 1896.

DR. BRIGGS' book has stirred up the heretic hunters, and the Rev. F. C. Mounfort characterizes it as an insult to the assembly.

IT should be borne in mind that the pining king, Mascot, Hal Pointer and Flying Jit, will be seen in this city in August.

DEMOCRAT newspapers do not display any enthusiasm over Gresham's candidacy for the presidential nomination in 1896.

IF Gladstone doesn't hurry up the appointment of a post laureate, the poetic soul of the Britisher may demand that "Mary and John" be adapted to sing the glory of the recent royal wedding.

WHEN a detective disguised as a common appearing loafer is able to outwit so clever an outlaw as "Bud" Smith there is reason to hope that Willie Toot will eventually be cornered.

IN the general excitement over Grover's toothache Adlai has not been entirely forgotten. The citizens of San Francisco have given him a reception.

TELEGRAMS that congress will give the country a "head pill" that will be better than the "blue mass" we have been taking for two years.

DAVE HILL may not be an astute politician and all that, but he maintains a dignity in regard to Cleveland that is truly admirable.

EVERY one is supposed to have his day, but the dog is about the only institution that has not had a special world's fair day.

HANGED TO A TREE.

A Georgia Man in Town Who When a Little Boy

SAW BRAVE ANDREWS LYNCHED

His Visit to the World's Fair and the Equine Andrews Captured Recalled the Awful Tragedy.

"While visiting the world's fair the other day, I saw the historical locomotive, 'The Old General,'" said M. G. McDonald of Rome, Georgia, in the Morton yesterday.

"That is the locomotive which Captain Andrews stole, and for which he was hanged as a spy. The hanging took place within 200 yards of my father's house. I remember it all as if it were only yesterday.

"Andrews set out with a detachment of twenty men. They came down to Marietta and captured a locomotive with the train crew were at dinner. The southerners heard of it almost immediately and gave chase. At Kingston their engine broke down; but they found a new one and started after Andrews again.

Now the Albany (N. Y.) Journal takes up the question of continuing the world's fair another summer, and reasons that such a course is necessary to give everybody a chance to see the wonderful sights.

HIT AND MISS BRIEFS.

Eulalie is keeping Madrid in a ferment with her enthusiastic praise of the United States. Why doesn't she come back and take out her naturalization papers if she likes us so well?

ALLEGED TO BE FUNNY.

Mr. Freshy Pooman—And so you kissed the hand of the Princess Eulalie? I think it's only right that I should have the privilege of kissing the girl who kissed the hand of the infant.
