

GAVE HIM A CORPSE

Dr. Eckley Tried to Get it Out of the State.

ARRESTED FOR BODY TAKING

He Was to Take the Cadaver Home to Wisconsin and Dissect it for Amusement.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Dr. William T. Eckley of Fort Madison, Iowa, is locked up at the Harrison street station charged with body-snatching. The body he is accused of stealing is the one found in a trunk in the Rock Island depot early today.

At the station the prisoner talked freely, but evaded all questions which bore on the manner of his securing the body. When questioned by the police he admitted that the body was in a trunk in the depot, and that he had taken it to the station, where he was locked up.

REV. FATHER SORIN DEAD

Sketch of the Founder of Notre Dame University.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 31.—The Very Rev. Edward Sorin, superior general of the Order of the Holy Cross and founder of the celebrated university of Notre Dame, died at 10 o'clock this morning. The late Father Sorin was a Frenchman, born near Paris February 6, 1814.

POTTER PALMER'S GIFT

He Presented the Woman's Board $200,000 for a Building.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The crowning end of the closing ceremonies in the woman's building at the fair today was the announcement made by the president that Potter Palmer had given $200,000 to build a woman's memorial building on the lake front.

Preparing for a Battle

JOHANNESBURG, Oct. 31.—All of the guards of the British South Africa company, together with 1,500 native allies under Lord Kitchener, are converging on Hope Fountain, where the Matabele are concentrating.

Ex-Premier Abbott's Funeral

MONTREAL, Oct. 31.—Sir John Abbott's funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon instead of Friday, as previously announced, and will be attended by members of the dominion cabinet, city council and other public bodies with which deceased statesman was identified.

Poisoned by the Cook

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—Address from Warsaw attributes the recent illness of General Gourko to poison administered by his chief cook. The attorney of the general's palace was arrested for complicity in the attempt to poison the general. The guilty cook is supposed to have escaped to Austria.

Monstrous Farm Father

MONTREAL, Oct. 31.—Monstrous, Miller & Co., extensive grocers and stock brokers, went to the wall today. They were a large amount of money on hand but not enough to meet the claims of their creditors.

Cabinet Resignation Accepted

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Standard's Vienna correspondent says the resignation of the Tabor cabinet has been accepted by the emperor and will be gazetted today.

Emperor William Will Preside. BRUSSELS, Oct. 31.—The Post announces that Emperor William will open the Reichstag in person. It also says that the Emperor's schedule will be discussed at an early date and that disciplinary punishment will be meted out to all of the compromised officers.

Italian Chambers to Meet. ROME, Oct. 31.—The chambers will reassemble on November 23. The government will immediately challenge a vote of confidence.

Mexican Bank Failed. CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 31.—The private banking house of Martin & Co. of this city has failed. Liabilities exceed assets by $24,000.

State News in Brief. Detroit school census shows the number of school children in the city is about 2,000 less than it was when the last census was taken.

Thornton Carter, the famous leader of the "Cartories," will be tried in Berrien county November 7 on the charge of lewd conduct.

The annual convention of the Branch County societies of the Christian Endeavor will be held at Union City November 3.

Cass county has had to borrow $10,000 to pay the bills allowed at the October meeting of the board of supervisors.

A postoffice has been established at Walworth, Lenawee county, and Eugene D. Walworth appointed postmaster.

A Saginaw lumberman says a wagon of men in the woods will average $15 to $22 a month, against $20 to $25 last year.

Lucius and Luman Jenison are having a $10,000 granite mausoleum erected in their burial grounds at Jenison.

The First Baptist society of Jackson has engaged the Rev. E. W. Stevenson of J. H. Hanly & Sons of Marlette to prepare 100,000 dozens of pickled eggs for the New York market.

Will McKee has raised 5,000 heads of cabbage this year on less than an acre of the big marsh in Florence.

Ottawa county school children will erect a headstone on the grave of the late Prof. A. B. Taylor.

The Rev. C. L. Mayo, pastor of the Congregational church in Belding, has resigned.

The new Methodist church at the Tamarack mine location was dedicated Sunday.

Turkey thieves are robbing Union City farmers of their Thanksgiving birds.

Parochial school building costing $5,000 has been dedicated in Manistowic.

South Haven peach growers realized $20,000 for their crop this year.

World's fair visitors from Union City spent $50,000 at the exposition.

Company G, Third Michigan cavalry, will meet at Whitmore lake.

Miss Sarah Wilson died in Kalamazoo Sunday, aged 102 years.

Howell has let the contract to build its waterworks for $53,000.

Marlette shipped 5,000 chickens to Chicago Saturday.

Marlette's new hotel will be opened Thanksgiving day.

Carsonville has 850 inhabitants and no preacher.

Muskegon has been supplied with new mail boxes.

Spring Lake has completed its new town hall.

Apples are $5 a barrel in Ludington.

Contagious Diseases. A. Sparks, No. 179 Spring street, measles; Sarah Spry, No. 34 Fernando street, scarlet fever; Carrie Burch, No. 94 Hanson street, typhoid fever; Charles J. Dossiers, No. 259 Jefferson avenue, typhoid fever; Fritz Dunsen, 1000 Second street, typhoid fever; Willie Pennell, No. 10 Island street, measles; Leslie Gaylor, No. 615 South Lafayette street; Miss Collins, No. 488 North Lonia street, membranous croup.

Burial Permits. Joseph L. Hill, No. 284 Canal street, Oak Hill; Peter Langeland, No. 10 Park avenue, Valley City.

IT WAS NO USE. And Realizing It Was Hopeless He Finally Succumbed.

The cable car was going at full speed. It is the manner of this sort of vehicle that it does not gain acceleration gradually after starting, but goes on the jump at the end of the first dozen feet.

At this critical moment a young colored man dashed across the street and swung himself upon the grip car. Just at the same instant a shriek was heard, and a comely woman of African descent and robust physique made a sprint after the traction train. Though the latter was by this time going at about 20 miles an hour, she made a grab at the rail on the last platform and became a passenger by sheer force of muscle and athletic dexterity.

It did not take her half a minute to make her way forward to the grip car and take the seat beside the young colored man, who was much astonished to see her. Said he:

"What you gwine?"

"Gwine wear I gwine," she replied loftily and with an air of assumed indifference.

"What's dat?"

"What?"

"What?"

"What?"

"What?"

"What?"

"What?"

"What?"

"What?"

"What?"

the colored man. "You git right down dia car, now I tell you."

"Fool!" responded the young woman contemptuously.

"You hear what I say?"

"Yezzy?"

"Ain't you gwine to mind?"

"Not if dis lady knows herself."

"You gwetter."

"I won't."

The young man looked disgusted. After spending a minute or two in reflection, an idea struck him, and he said triumphantly:

"You can't ride, 'cause you ain't got no money."

"You kin pay my fare."

"I won't do it."

"Alexander Nebuchadnezzar, you're a low down man. If I'd knowed you 'fore I married you as I do now, you'd have had to git some other lady for a wife."

"Stop yer fooling, an' git off de car," he replied sullenly.

"I ain't a-gwine to."

"Then you'll git put off."

Just then the conductor came forward to take up the fares in the grip car. The colored man refused to pay for the woman, who addressed an eloquent appeal to the knight of the bell plume.

"This yere is my husband," she said.

"I've got a suspicion dat he's got a meetin on hand wid another woman. He git on de car to git rid of me, and I follered to keep an eye on him. I s'pose you're a gemman, and you wouldn't chink a lady off."

The conductor had a heart, as was evident when he replied:

"Stay on. I'll pay your fare myself."

This happy turn of events caused the young woman to giggle consummately. The man, on the other hand, expressed his disgust with vague and semitartaric mutterings. All of this had happened while the car was going three blocks.

Just as the cable train was traveling at its most rapid gait between two corners, the recalcitrant husband jumped to his feet without warning and leaped off the car. Evidently he supposed that his wife would not dare to imitate the maneuver, but he reckoned without his host. With a flying bound she sprang off and after him. In 20 seconds she had caught him and grabbed him by the arm.

"Now, you fool nigger," she exclaimed, "just come straight home wid me."

"I'm a-comin'," rejoined the man sullenly, evidently recognizing the situation as hopeless from his point of view. And the two walked away arm in arm.—Washington Post.

An Adjustable Dream. An Irish earl and his lady were riding out one morning, and meeting one of their tenantry gave her a kindly greeting.

"And sure I had a drame about yer honor last night sending me a pound of tobacco and yer ladyship a pound of tay, and it's joyful I am to tell ye this morning," said the accustomed beneficiary.

"But, my good woman," replied the earl, "dreams go by the contrary."

"Indeed, then, yer honor is to send the tay and yer ladyship the tobacco," was the quick witted reply.—New York Ledger.

HER ELEGANT CAPE.

How One Woman Made a Saving of $9.90.

Hints for Those Who Like to Dress Well—No Need of Looking Shabby, Even Though Times Are Hard. The Secret Told by One Who Knows.

Those fashionable capes with a triple collar, are looked at with longing eyes by many a woman. But times are hard, and economy is both a virtue and a necessity.

One woman has solved the problem most satisfactorily by coloring her old drab clothing circular, a rich, handsome brown, with a package of diamond dyes, thus actually getting a ten dollar cape for ten cents.

The druggists report a greatly increased sale of diamond dyes this fall, and say they have completely superseded the old-fashioned methods with logwood, fustic, indigo, etc. On each envelope is printed full directions, so plain and explicit that any one can use these dyes with perfect success.

For nearly a score of years diamond dyes have been helping women to dress well at small expense, and it is natural that their great success should have brought many short-lived imitations upon the market. These would claim to make fast colors, but the light fades them; they adulterated their dye to make the package look large, but actual use proved they could color less than half as much as the diamond; and offering a large profit, they secured agents or peddlers to sell them, but a woman never bought them a second time.

Diamond dyes come in nearly fifty colors, specially prepared for wool, silk and cotton, a ten-cent package coloring from one to ten pounds of goods. No other dyes are so strong, nothing else so simple, and none so fast and true in color. No woman can afford to risk her goods with imitations, especially when the original diamond dyes are admittedly far superior.

For reserved seats for Professor Swift's great illustrated lecture on astronomy in Lechery hall this evening. Sale of seats opens at 9 o'clock this morning. CHAS. B. EMMONS, Manager.

MORTON HOUSE.

PANTLIND & CO., Props.

The Leading Hotel

IN THE CITY.

Corner Monroe and Lonia Streets.

TO ANY LADY

Wash your face with this soap, and you will find it a great relief to the skin. It is a great skin cleanser, and it is a great skin preserver. It is a great skin beautifier, and it is a great skin protector. It is a great skin restorer, and it is a great skin rejuvenator. It is a great skin conditioner, and it is a great skin nourisher. It is a great skin softener, and it is a great skin smoother. It is a great skin brightener, and it is a great skin clearer. It is a great skin purifier, and it is a great skin deodorizer. It is a great skin antiseptic, and it is a great skin disinfectant. It is a great skin sterilizer, and it is a great skin germicide. It is a great skin bactericide, and it is a great skin fungicide. It is a great skin parasiticide, and it is a great skin insecticide. It is a great skin acaricide, and it is a great skin miteicide. It is a great skin nematocide, and it is a great skin helminthicide. It is a great skin protozoicide, and it is a great skin virocid.

WE PRODUCE EMPHATIC RESULTS.

We Let Cured Patients Speak For Us, Knowing That If You Cannot Believe the Honest Citizens of Grand Rapids in a Matter of Life and Death You Cannot Believe anyone. Do You Prefer Prejudice to Good Health?

There are hundreds of physicians who advertise what they can do. Dr. Copeland and Graham make few assertions for themselves, they let their cured patients speak for them. Dr. Copeland and Graham say simply this: "We have been here for over a year, and have printed numbers of interviews from cured patients who have come to us desperately ill from diseases that other physicians pronounced 'hopeless.' Their names, portrait and address—always printed—identify them. We ask you not to pass judgment upon our merits, as you conceive them to be, but to consider whether, after what has been said about us, it is worth your while to allow any prejudice to sway you against your desire for health. We ask you to investigate for yourself, to be fair and just to yourself, and if you have failed to obtain relief elsewhere, to take the word of our patients that we can help you."

CONSULTATION AND EXAMINATION FREE.

MRS. BURLING'S STATEMENT. I had been ill for several years without knowing just where the trouble lay. A visit to Dr. Copeland and Graham a year ago revealed the trouble to be catarrh. I took treatment then and in a short time was cured, noticing an improvement from the very first. My throat was sore and my nose troubled me a great deal, being sore and dry and difficult to breathe through, with frequent spells of bleeding, which greatly alarmed me. I had headache, weak eyes and my tongue was coated almost every morning. I had catarrh of the stomach and had been troubled with it for years, that being one of the worst features of my disease. I felt that the catarrh had diseased almost every organ in the body, as my symptoms indicated it.

It has been almost a year since I was cured, and no withstanding the severities of my case, I have remained well and recommend Dr. Copeland and Graham to all my friends, as I have great confidence in them.

Just as the cable train was traveling at its most rapid gait between two corners, the recalcitrant husband jumped to his feet without warning and leaped off the car. Evidently he supposed that his wife would not dare to imitate the maneuver, but he reckoned without his host. With a flying bound she sprang off and after him. In 20 seconds she had caught him and grabbed him by the arm.

"Now, you fool nigger," she exclaimed, "just come straight home wid me."

"I'm a-comin'," rejoined the man sullenly, evidently recognizing the situation as hopeless from his point of view. And the two walked away arm in arm.—Washington Post.

MRS. A. G. BURLING, 1008 HALL ST.

copied, noticing an improvement from the very first. My throat was sore and my nose troubled me a great deal, being sore and dry and difficult to breathe through, with frequent spells of bleeding, which greatly alarmed me. I had headache, weak eyes and my tongue was coated almost every morning. I had catarrh of the stomach and had been troubled with it for years, that being one of the worst features of my disease. I felt that the catarrh had diseased almost every organ in the body, as my symptoms indicated it.

It has been almost a year since I was cured, and no withstanding the severities of my case, I have remained well and recommend Dr. Copeland and Graham to all my friends, as I have great confidence in them.

Just as the cable train was traveling at its most rapid gait between two corners, the recalcitrant husband jumped to his feet without warning and leaped off the car. Evidently he supposed that his wife would not dare to imitate the maneuver, but he reckoned without his host. With a flying bound she sprang off and after him. In 20 seconds she had caught him and grabbed him by the arm.

"Now, you fool nigger," she exclaimed, "just come straight home wid me."

"I'm a-comin'," rejoined the man sullenly, evidently recognizing the situation as hopeless from his point of view. And the two walked away arm in arm.—Washington Post.

Just as the cable train was traveling at its most rapid gait between two corners, the recalcitrant husband jumped to his feet without warning and leaped off the car. Evidently he supposed that his wife would not dare to imitate the maneuver, but he reckoned without his host. With a flying bound she sprang off and after him. In 20 seconds she had caught him and grabbed him by the arm.

"Now, you fool nigger," she exclaimed, "just come straight home wid me."

"I'm a-comin'," rejoined the man sullenly, evidently recognizing the situation as hopeless from his point of view. And the two walked away arm in arm.—Washington Post.

Just as the cable train was traveling at its most rapid gait between two corners, the recalcitrant husband jumped to his feet without warning and leaped off the car. Evidently he supposed that his wife would not dare to imitate the maneuver, but he reckoned without his host. With a flying bound she sprang off and after him. In 20 seconds she had caught him and grabbed him by the arm.

"Now, you fool nigger," she exclaimed, "just come straight home wid me."

"I'm a-comin'," rejoined the man sullenly, evidently recognizing the situation as hopeless from his point of view. And the two walked away arm in arm.—Washington Post.

Just as the cable train was traveling at its most rapid gait between two corners, the recalcitrant husband jumped to his feet without warning and leaped off the car. Evidently he supposed that his wife would not dare to imitate the maneuver, but he reckoned without his host. With a flying bound she sprang off and after him. In 20 seconds she had caught him and grabbed him by the arm.

"Now, you fool nigger," she exclaimed, "just come straight home wid me."

"I'm a-comin'," rejoined the man sullenly, evidently recognizing the situation as hopeless from his point of view. And the two walked away arm in arm.—Washington Post.

Just as the cable train was traveling at its most rapid gait between two corners, the recalcitrant husband jumped to his feet without warning and leaped off the car. Evidently he supposed that his wife would not dare to imitate the maneuver, but he reckoned without his host. With a flying bound she sprang off and after him. In 20 seconds she had caught him and grabbed him by the arm.

"Now, you fool nigger," she exclaimed, "just come straight home wid me."

"I'm a-comin'," rejoined the man sullenly, evidently recognizing the situation as hopeless from his point of view. And the two walked away arm in arm.—Washington Post.

Just as the cable train was traveling at its most rapid gait between two corners, the recalcitrant husband jumped to his feet without warning and leaped off the car. Evidently he supposed that his wife would not dare to imitate the maneuver, but he reckoned without his host. With a flying bound she sprang off and after him. In 20 seconds she had caught him and grabbed him by the arm.

"Now, you fool nigger," she exclaimed, "just come straight home wid me."

"I'm a-comin'," rejoined the man sullenly, evidently recognizing the situation as hopeless from his point of view. And the two walked away arm in arm.—Washington Post.

Just as the cable train was traveling at its most rapid gait between two corners, the recalcitrant husband jumped to his feet without warning and leaped off the car. Evidently he supposed that his wife would not dare to imitate the maneuver, but he reckoned without his host. With a flying bound she sprang off and after him. In 20 seconds she had caught him and grabbed him by the arm.

"Now, you fool nigger," she exclaimed, "just come straight home wid me."

"I'm a-comin'," rejoined the man sullenly, evidently recognizing the situation as hopeless from his point of view. And the two walked away arm in arm.—Washington Post.

Just as the cable train was traveling at its most rapid gait between two corners, the recalcitrant husband jumped to his feet without warning and leaped off the car. Evidently he supposed that his wife would not dare to imitate the maneuver, but he reckoned without his host. With a flying bound she sprang off and after him. In 20 seconds she had caught him and grabbed him by the arm.

"Now, you fool nigger," she exclaimed, "just come straight home wid me."

"I'm a-comin'," rejoined the man sullenly, evidently recognizing the situation as hopeless from his point of view. And the two walked away arm in arm.—Washington Post.

Just as the cable train was traveling at its most rapid gait between two corners, the recalcitrant husband jumped to his feet without warning and leaped off the car. Evidently he supposed that his wife would not dare to imitate the maneuver, but he reckoned without his host. With a flying bound she sprang off and after him. In 20 seconds she had caught him and grabbed him by the arm.

"Now, you fool nigger," she exclaimed, "just come straight home wid me."

"I'm a-comin'," rejoined the man sullenly, evidently recognizing the situation as hopeless from his point of view. And the two walked away arm in arm.—Washington Post.

Just as the cable train was traveling at its most rapid gait between two corners, the recalcitrant husband jumped to his feet without warning and leaped off the car. Evidently he supposed that his wife would not dare to imitate the maneuver, but he reckoned without his host. With a flying bound she sprang off and after him. In 20 seconds she had caught him and grabbed him by the arm.

"Now, you fool nigger," she exclaimed, "just come straight home wid me."

"I'm a-comin'," rejoined the man sullenly, evidently recognizing the situation as hopeless from his point of view. And the two walked away arm in arm.—Washington Post.

Just as the cable train was traveling at its most rapid gait between two corners, the recalcitrant husband jumped to his feet without warning and leaped off the car. Evidently he supposed that his wife would not dare to imitate the maneuver, but he reckoned without his host. With a flying bound she sprang off and after him. In 20 seconds she had caught him and grabbed him by the arm.

J. C. HERKNER JEWELRY CO.

GOLD AND SILVERSMITHS. DIAMONDS AND PRECIOUS STONES. Special Prices on All Silverware. DESIGNS FURNISHED FOR NEW WORK. 57 MONROE STREET.

LEONARDS

29-31 MONROE ST. LOOK OUT FOR GREAT LAMP SALE IN A FEW DAYS.

Sale Prices In Every Department.

$25 for This Beautiful Base Burner.

See Our Electric Oil Heaters and You Will Buy No Other.

H. Leonard's Sons & Co

29 AND 31 MONROE STREET.

POWERS' OPERA HOUSE

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2.

A THEATRICAL EVENT

Two Complete Shows, Two Distinct Companies. One Admission to Both.

The Favorite Comedian. EZRA KENDALL. Will open the event in his latest and greatest success.

THE SUBSTITUTE. Supported by a splendid company of players including the famous little player.

ARTHUR DUNN. Of "The Soldier," "Sinbad" and "All Stars" fame.

MISS JENNY DUNN. In their original and funny specialties.

JOHN HART, of "Ten Johns."

JOSEPH A. HOWELL. Of "Crazy Fats," and other favorites.

THE SAME FUNNY OLD MAN.

To be followed by the presentation of Mr. Kendall's well-known laughing mate. A PAIR OF KIDS. An entirely separate company.

Including Stanley Miley of "Sixpence," Gilbert Barney, C. B. Hawkins of "The U. S. A. Co.," Joseph and Frank DeLano of "Dodge Family," the famous dancers "Carlotta," and other well known specialists.

A FEAST OF FUN. Owing to the necessarily late hour for the final curtain, the performance of "The Substitute" will begin promptly at 8. Each show will be given complete, not a little one or a specialty only.

NO ADVANCE IN PRICES. One price to one or both.

Get your seats early or you will have to stand up and don't forget to bring your lunch. Reserve seat sale opens Wednesday morning.

POWERS' GRAND OPERA HOUSE

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, NOV. 3 and 4.

ELMER E. VANCE'S. Marvelous, Realistic, Comedy Drama, author of "Lime Kiln" Company, a Twentieth Century Production.

PATENT APPLIED FOR.

Task of machinery, beautiful scenery and ingenious effects are used in every act. The previous play ever staged. The new play opens at the Grand Opera House, a company of metropolitan artists. Don't fail to see this grand production. Carry everything complete with the company.

Special prices. Reserve sale begins Thursday, 9 a. m.

SMITH'S OPERA HOUSE

W. H. SMITH, Proprietor and Manager.

SUNDAY NIGHT, OCTOBER