I shall be as liberal in terms as any established house in New Orleans, and for good paper I will give liberal time.

I am now receiving my First Supplies, and shall continue to keep (what has always been admitted, even by competitors) the best and cheapest assortment of Groceries, Liquors and Provisions in New Orleans.

REINEIS CODE OF PRACTICE—New Edition.

Just received and for sale by the subscriber, a new edition of Reineis's Code of Practice of Louisiana, much enlarged and improved, with additional notes, and references to the decisions of the Supreme Court, and the decisions of the Legislature upon the subject of practice. In preparing the present edition of the Code of Practice for the press, the editor has incorporated the Acts of the Legislature which specially amend any article of the text. The existing laws of the Legislature relating to practice, but which have not changed any article of the Code, have been, with the points of decisions of the Supreme Court, inserted in notes, under the appropriate articles. References are made to the law in all cases, so that any error that may have occurred in the hurry of expedition with which the work has been got up and carried through the press, may be readily detected.

The index has been entirely remodelled, and no exertion spared to render the work useful to the profession and others interested in the subject matter of its contents.

The expense of printing the Code has greatly exceeded the expectations of the publisher, and hence those who do not subscribe to the work will be required to pay a dollar per copy. Subscribers will receive theirs at the subscription price, $5.
