FRANKLIN COLLEGE, OPELOUSAS, LOUISIANA.
THE Trustees of Franklin College take great pleasure in announcing to the Public, that the regular session of this institution will open on the First Monday of November next. The Rev. J. B. BARKER, lately of the Parish of Natchitoches, has been appointed President; and his profound erudition in the various branches of collegiate education, coupled with his hitherto successful experience as a classical instructor, fully warrant the Trustees in recommending him to the Public as an instructor worthy of their patronage.
All the branches of a regular Collegiate Education will be taught in this institution, embracing the English, French, Spanish, Latin and Greek languages, Mathematics, Natural Philosophy, &c. Particular attention will be directed to a thorough and practical instruction in the French language.
The session will consist of ten months, beginning from the first Monday of November next.
The price of Tuition is $30 per session, and boarding has been reduced to $120 for the session—both payable one-half in cash, and the other half on the first of May next.
The Trustees wish it to be distinctly understood, that no extra charges will be made; and that the price of tuition, boarding, lodging, washing, fuel and lights, will amount only to $160 per session—parents being required to furnish their children with books and stationery.
The Professors are required to furnish the pupils with boarding; but parents may hold them in the neighborhood, if it be their option to do so.
The Dormitories in the College building are admirably adapted to the preservation of good health among the students, being amply large, well ventilated, and furnished with fire-places; and not more than two students are ever permitted to occupy the same room.
In conclusion, the Trustees and Faculty of Franklin College will spare no pains in providing for the comforts of the Pupils entrusted to their charge.
By order of the Board of Trustees.

THE SILENT GIRL.

BY SAMUEL GILMAN.
She seldom spoke; yet she imparted
More than language e'er did;
So bird-like, bright and tender-hearted,
So natural and good;
Her air, her look, her rest, her actions,
Were voice enough for her;
What needs a tongue, when those attractions
Our inmost hearts could stir?
She seldom talked; but uninvited,
Would cheer us with a song;
And oft her hands our ears delighted,
Sweeping the keys along;
And oft, when converse would languish,
As if by magic, she read preventions,
Some tale of gladness or of anguish,
And so our evenings sped.

She seldom spoke; but she would listen,
With all the signs of soul;
Her cheek would change, her eye would glisten;
The sigh, the smile upstole.
Who did not understand and love her,
With meaning thus overfraught;
Though silent as the sky above her,
Like that she kindly thought.
Little she spoke; but dear attentions
From her would ceaseless rise,
She checked our wants by kind preventions,
She hushed the children's cries,
And twining, she would give her mother
A long and loving kiss;
The same to father, sister, brother,
All round, nor one would miss.
She seldom spoke; she speaks no longer;
She sleeps beneath yon rose;
'Tis well for us that ties no stronger
Than when she was, are those;
For our hearts would surely be broken,
Already dross'd of tears,
If frequent tones by her outspoken,
Still linger'd in our ears.

Foreign News.

LATE FROM EUROPE.
The steamer Cambria arrived at Boston on the 24th ult., bringing Liverpool dates to the 4th and London to the 3d of January—being 14 days later than the news brought to this port direct by the "Lehigh."
The Commercial accounts are favorable.
Col. Oakley, Illinois Commissioner, came passenger in her.
The impression was gaining ground that the Chancellor of the Exchequer intended to introduce a reduction in the 3 per cents at the opening of Parliament.
A meeting was held in London at Exeter Hall, Lord John Russell in the chair, for entering into subscriptions and devising means to relieve Father Mathew from his present embarrassments. About 2000 persons were present.
The Medical Gazette contains a long article from the pens of Dr. Hastings and Mr. R. Stokes, surgeon, descriptive of a remarkable operation for the cure of consumption, by the perforation of the cavity of the lung through the walls of the chest. The cure is described as being complete.

It was announced some time ago that the Bank of England had determined to call in all the £1000 notes, for the purpose of cancelling those stolen from the banking house of Messrs. Rogers & Co. (The experiment it is understood, has been successful. The £1000 notes are principally held by the bankers—rarely by private individuals.)
The Anti-Corn Law League has recommended its system of agitation for the season, but the opinion has been rather unfavorable for their views, who first trade candidate at Dartmouth, having lost the election by a majority of seven. This is a great gain by their opponents, not simply retained.
A report was in circulation that her Majesty will towards the end of summer, bless the English nation with another Prince or Princess, or perhaps both. The royal nursery is getting well stocked.
Mr. Everett, U. S. Minister to England, is expected to leave Great Britain for this country early in the spring. Soon after the 4th of March is meant, we suppose.

Repeal of the Duty on Cotton.—The cotton spinners, merchants and manufacturers of Manchester had another meeting last week, say the Liverpool papers, the Mayor in the chair, to promote the repeal of the duty on cotton-wool. The requisition to call for a meeting was signed by 130 firms, and 100 leading men of Manchester were present. The Mayor presided. In moving the first resolution, declaring the expediency of abolishing the tax, Mr. Robert Hyde Greg adduced several reasons in support of the measure, and dwelt particularly on the increasing competition which the English manufactures encounter from the Americans, who have not to pay the duty; the total amount of cotton manufactures exported from the United States, in 1828, was 1763 packages; in 1834, it was valued at $1,095,000; in 1842, $4,500,000; and in the circular of Messrs. Jones, Gibson & Ord, the value for 1843 was estimated at six or seven millions of dollars. The meeting adopted the resolution unanimously, as well as a memorial to the Lords of the Treasury, praying for a repeal of the duty; and a deputation was appointed to present and support the memorial.

The London press is very severe upon the President's Message—and particularly so upon Mr. Calhoun's letter to Mr. King.
The difficulty between Sir Stratford Canning and the Sublime Porte has been reconciled—his Sublimity making himself ridiculous, of course.
The troubles in Church are becoming more serious in Great Britain.
The Trade with China.—The speech of the Mayor of Manchester, at the dinner given to Sir Henry Pottinger in that town, shows that the exports of the number of pieces of cotton, shipped to China within the last twelve months, have increased 100 per cent. in quantity; that it is to 3,000,000 pieces for the year ending the 31st of September, 1844, against 1,438,381 pieces for the year ending the 30th of November, 1843, giving an increase in the value, since the tariff arranged under the treaty of Nanking, to some amount of £295,975.
FRANCE.—There has been a family gathering at the Tuileries; the King and Queen of the Belgians, the Duke d'Annam, and his young bride, and the Prince de Joinville.
On the 20th of December the King of the French opened the Chambers. The royal procession was developed in a mist, and so far were the people kept from it by the military, that neither his majesty nor any of the royal family excited any enthusiasm on the part of the people. The King delivered the following speech.

FROM CHINA.
The ship Paul Jones arrived at New York on the 19th ult., with two weeks later advices from the Celestial Empire. Among the passengers in the Paul Jones are Fletcher Webster and J. H. O'Donnell, of the American Embassy to China.
The principal news by this arrival is the ratification by the Emperor of the Treaty with America negotiated by the Hon. Caleb Cushing. It went into effect at Canton on the 20th September, as far as the Chinese are concerned.
In Canton some disturbances from riots had occurred. There were five French vessels of war at Canton. The French Minister was negotiating a treaty.
The American frigate Brandywine was at Canton when the Paul Jones left; and the sloop of war St. Louis on the East coast of China—Officers and crew well.
