

LADIES, ATTENTION.

CALL AT THE BRICK STORE.

A Splendid Line of New Millinery Goods, &c. &c.

Jesmer has just opened out his new stock of spring goods and his capacious store looks like a flower garden in full blossom.

HARVEY, WALES & CO

Paper Hangings, Shades, Mouldings, Frames, Steel Engravings, Fine Photos, &c.—Entrances, 125 Nicollet Av. & 14 & 16 Second St. S.

Harvey, Wales & Co., 125 Nicollet Ave., Minneapolis, would inform the good people of Princeton and vicinity, that they have on hand the greatest variety of beautiful wall paper, pictures, picture frames, &c., northwest of Chicago.

"Boston Inside Out."

Rev. Henry Morgan says, he has ordered two sets of type and engaged two of the largest printing houses in Boston, to print the next edition of "Boston Inside Out," up to 20,000.

But few books have met with more diverse criticisms, and a more checkered fate. Attempts were made to suppress it but failed. Suits were brought against Mr. Morgan. Morgan Chapel was attacked for $10,000, but the suits were non-suited.

Sweet apple cider at Newton's. Paints and oils of all descriptions at Rines'.

Head & Loring keep the best brand of cigars there is in town.

Dan. Rollins' Bogus Brook drive passed this point Tuesday morning.

It seems to be quite a season for foreclosing chattel mortgages in this vicinity.

Nice pure lake ice for sale at Head & Loring's. Will be delivered every morning if required.

The plum trees are loaded with perfumed white blossoms. Whitney's yard looks splendid.

The Brairnerd Tribune says Miss Mattie Caley has fitted up a magnificent dining apartment at her restaurant in that city.

Only two weeks ago we saw snow along the roadside, and to-day, at the same place, the mercury is way up among the eighties.

Now that the logs are nearly all out of the brooks, quite a number of surplus drivers are passing through town on their way down river.

John Smith has gone ahead with his Stanchfield Brook tie drive as the company are in need of ties at Anoka and want them as soon as possible.

The woods on the other side of the East Branch must be fairly alive with flowers, judging from the number of boquets brought from that direction.

Teachers from the St. Cloud Normal school are in demand this spring. Rev. Mr. McNiff deserves a gold medal for the successful manner in which he advertised that institution.

A force of men are at work re-plastering and putting the Cheap Cash Store in to shape. Mr. VanAlstine thinks he will be ready to commence business in the course of three weeks at the furthest.

When you want to do whitewashing, buy your Spanish whitening at Rines'.

Washer up your buggies, when you can get cheap cut leather washers at Galey & Neely's.

Go to Newton's and see his new stock of boots and shoes. In quantity his stock will compare favorably with any in Princeton; in quality it is excelled by none.

The Babcock chemical fire engine is to arrive this, Thursday, evening, and an agent of the manufacturer is here from Kentucky to explain the workings of the machine to the honorable village council.

Two weeks ago Tuesday since we ordered a new supply of type and as yet we have heard nothing from it. If you want type within a month or six weeks from the time you order it, send to Chicago, New York or London but not to St. Paul.

The county commissioners were in session, Saturday. The matter of selling the court house and lots and erecting a new and more commodious building was discussed, but no action was taken thereon.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. T. H. Caley received a dispatch from Janesville, Wis., announcing the death of Mrs. J. A. Deniston, sister to Messrs. D. A. and T. H. Caley.

The West Branch tie drive was cleared out of the West Branch, Sunday afternoon. Mr. John Gould, the gentleman in charge of this drive, says there is no foundation for the assertion that men under him were obliged to sleep in the open air without blankets.

Head & Loring have determined to branch out more into the cigar business than heretofore. A beautiful glass case filled with cigars of the choicest brands now ornaments their counter.

If Princeton had a flouring mill capable of grinding the flour used in this vicinity and the Rum River pineries, there would be no necessity of hauling wheat to Elk River and Anoka and hauling flour back.

The Murray estate was the subject of argument at the Probate judge's office, Saturday. Some exorbitant claims against the boy's, Charlie Murray's, share of the estate were objected to by Mr. A. P. Barker, counsel for Mr. F. M. Campbell, the boy's guardian.

A young fellow who works for Mr. W. A. Trausk was fooling with a revolver last Sunday, when the thing went off and lodged a bullet under his right knee-cap.

An attempt was made to fire Frank Smith's dwelling house, at North Branch, last week. The sides of the building were saturated with kerosene oil, and a pile of shavings were scattered promiscuously around to feed the flames.

A letter from Oscar Blackwell, dated at Hilo, May 6th, reached this office yesterday. Mr. Blackwell says they are trying hard to get a town located at that point but the settlers evince a very niggardly disposition towards aiding the project.

The suit of John H. Allen vs. The Town of Princeton, which was brought by Mr. Allen to recover for rock taken by order of the supervisors to save the West Branch bridge during the freshet last spring, was settled Saturday, by the supervisors agreeing to pay Mr. Allen $62.50.

We have a bran new school house of which we are justly proud; it is 18x26 and has six windows with glass 12x36. It seems like hiding a light under a bushel to build such a fine looking structure in the midst of a swamp, surrounded by great trees and off from a public road.

The farmers are all done seeding; but few gardens are made as yet. M. Greenbush, May 6th, '81.

PERSONAL.

Hon. John H. Allen, of Fergus Falls, spent Sunday with his friends in this village.

Messrs. C. H. Rines and Leonard Pratt left for the dual cities, yesterday afternoon.

John Sadley has gone below to squander some of his surplus bridge money. It won't take him long.

Miss Minnie Rollins, daughter of Dan. Rollins, Minneapolis, who has been here visiting for some time, left for her home, Tuesday.

Dr. J. P. Caldwell expects to meet his family at St. Paul, on Sunday. He has rented the Byers' house across the river until such time as he can build.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Clough, of Spencer Brook, have gone to Minneapolis, there to remain until Mr. Clough recovers his health, which we hope will be soon.

Sheriff Howard complains of an infernal cold, contracted on the drive. If Arthur should happen to pass in his checks the boys would give him a lively "wake."

Miss Emma McGuire is teaching in western Wyanett; Miss Grace Loring, in the Jukkins neighborhood, East Baldwin; and Miss Bray in the Young school district, Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Borden and Master Charlie Murray departed late Saturday night or early Sunday morning on a pleasure trip to New Jersey. They are to be gone for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barker and baby, of Cambridge, breathed the air of Princeton from Saturday until Tuesday, when they departed for home. They all seem to be enjoying good health.

George W. Reynolds left, this morning, for the western portion of the State, on a canvassing tour for the St. Paul Fire & Marine Insurance Co. He expects to get back to Princeton by the 4th of July.

Mr. George Cole is at the American House, nursing a sore mouth. He is obliged to live on soft diet, as the inside of his mouth is very tender. George says the East Branch drive is getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

One of Nelse Allen's men became sick and was obliged to relinquish his cart-dog. Conversing with him at the American House last Friday, he said that there were a good lot of boys on the West Branch this year, and among the best were Jim McKenzie and Fred Howard, of Clough's crew.

MORTGAGE SALE.

WHEREAS default has been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage, bearing date the 23rd day of October, A. D. 1874, made and executed by Duncan McCuaig (an unmarried man), mortgagor, to Edwin Allen, mortgagor, and duly recorded in the office for the register of deeds in and for the county of Mille Lacs and State of Minnesota, on the 23rd day of October, A. D. 1874, at 3 o'clock P. M. of that day, in book "B" of mortgages, pages 235 and 236; and whereas no action or proceeding either at law or in equity has been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of a power of sale in said mortgage contained and pursuant to the statutes in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed and the premises described in and covered by said mortgage, to-wit: the east half of the north-west quarter of section twenty (20), and the east half of the south-west quarter of section seventeen (17) all in and of township thirty-six, north, of range twenty-six (26), west, lying and being situated in said Mille Lacs county, and State aforesaid, with the hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging, will be sold by the sheriff of said county, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash to satisfy said debt and interest amounting to one hundred and seventy-seven and 90-100 dollars ($177.90) at the date of this notice claimed to be due thereon and taxes and penalties and charges thereon, paid by said mortgagee at different times, and interest thereon now amounting to seventy-seven dollars, and claimed as an additional lien on said land, also disbursements and costs of sale allowed by law together with twenty-five dollars attorney's fees provided for in said mortgage in case of foreclosure, which sale will take place at the front door of the court house in the village of Princeton in said county and State, on the 4th day of June, A. D. 1881, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

Dated April 20th, 1881. EDWIN ALLEN, Mortgagor. A. P. BARKER, Attorney for Mortgagee, Princeton, Minn.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I have this day given to my minor son, Charles H. Leathers, his time, and hereafter I shall claim none of his earnings nor be responsible for any debts which he may contract. O. W. LEATHERS, Princeton, April 15th, 1881.
