PRINCETON, MINN., JULY 20, 1882.
 FOR CONGRESS—FIFTH DISTRICT.
C. F. KINDRED.

SELAH CHAMBERLAIN'S paid pimps are fighting C. F. Kindred.

CONGRESSMEN Robeson and Hewitt called each other pet names in the house, Monday.

The Republican legislative convention is to be held at Little Falls some time in September.

The pine land ringsters don't take kindly to Kindred because they cannot control him.

JEREMIAH BLACK predicts that Blaine will be the Republican nominee for president in 1884.

C. A. GILMAN, of Stearns, is the chairman of the so-called fifth district Republican committee.

The horde of official pap-suckers cling to Nelson like barnacles to the hull of a water-logged craft.

KINDRED or a Democrat. Anything to beat mercenary Knute Nelson and his gang of played-out knucksters.

The Democratic Globe is the only paper in St. Paul that treats Mr. Kindred's candidacy with any degree of fairness.

HON. C. B. BUCKMAN, of Morrison county, has incurred the ill will of Lieut. Gov. Gilman. "Tis sad, very sad, indeed."

Not a plank in the platform adopted at the congressional convention held in St. Paul, yesterday, condemning pine land steals.

Is Kindred goes to congress, and of that there can be little doubt, it will not be all smooth sailing for the pine land ringsters.

If you don't believe that there is a movement on foot to steal the timber of the Mille Lacs reservation, ask Boss Sablin or Fletcher.

The sprightly Minneapolis Journal, which is not an organ of the corrupt pine land ring, has a good word to say for C. F. Kindred, the people's candidate for congress in this district.

SELL the Mille Lacs reservation at a fair public sale and the government will realize close unto $600,000 for the benefit of the Indians. But a fair sale is not what the pine land ringsters want.

The fiery and untamed editor of Duluth's only daily lost his temper at the Detroit convention and made use of very ungentlemanly language. It is needless to add that the editor in question is not a Kindred man.

ST. PAUL Dispatch: The police of Minneapolis are very astute fellows. Two of them dragged a supposed drunken man between them several blocks, only to find when they got him to the lock-up that he was dead.

We presume the U. S. officials who participated in the Detroit convention are all stalwarts; but did it ever occur to them that in the eyes of the present administration the delegates who voted for Grant at Chicago committed no unpardonable offence.

Suppose the Democrats of the fifth congressional district were to nominate an Irishman as their candidate and run him solely because a large fraction of that party is composed of Irishmen, what a hue and cry there would be raised by the Know Nothing Nelson organ!

It has been remarked that St. Cloud influences will prevent Mr. Kindred from getting his party vote in Benton county. Such talk is arrant nonsense. Mr. Kindred will gain two Democratic votes for every Republican vote he loses in Benton. The nationally dodge won't help the cause of Knute in old Benton county.

This legislative district, the 39th, is very close, and if there is a split in the Republican ranks the result will be the election of a Democratic senator and three Democratic members of the legislature. This is a consummation to be devoutly wished for if it will contribute to the defeat of the Washburn-Nelson coalition.

COL. JOHNSON, chairman of the Detroit convention and the present chairman of the fifth district committee, speaking of "Thundering Gordon" to a Globe reporter said: "He is like the man who was acquitted by a jury after he had pleaded guilty. The jury said he was such an infernal liar they could not believe his confession."

We believe C. F. Kindred is the free choice of a majority of the Republicans of the district as their candidate for congress; we believe he was the choice of a majority of the legally-elected delegates to the Detroit convention; and we believe he will be triumphantly elected next November, hence we place his name at the head of our columns.

THE paid pimps of the bondholders and their hiring newspapers did their level best to defeat Hubbard both in the convention and at the polls last fall. But Hubbard was enthusiastically nominated on the first formal ballot in the convention and won a glorious victory at the polls. The same gang of political prostitutes that opposed Hubbard are waging a bitter and relentless war against C. F. Kindred, the people's candidate for congress in the fifth district.

A love-sick fool is the biggest d—d fool extant.

WANTED.—A good house girl. Apply to Mrs. C. H. Rines.

There will be a dance at Jesmer's hall, Friday evening, July 28th.

Subscribe for the UNION if you want to keep posted on local politics.

There will be preaching at the Spencer Brook school house Sunday afternoon.

Bob Holmes left for Indiana, Monday, on a short visit to his Hoosier relations.

Mr. A. P. Barker is improving slowly but surely and will soon be himself again.

The young Republicans of Princeton will give Kindred a good boost next November.

Haying crews from down river and this village still continue to depart daily for up river.

American sewing machines, the best in the market, for sale at the Pioneer Drug Store.

The commonest kind of board is $7 per week in Dakota, and wages are no better there than here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cleary have gone to Anoka. They intend to bide in that city for a time.

Send along any items of interest in your neighborhood, the UNION will make a place for the same.

West Branch nor Bogus Brook logs should pay no tribute to the owners of the Mille Lacs dam.

Small grain in this vicinity looks well, but the growing corn pines for a little more warm sunshine.

If you want the best sewing machine manufactured for the least money, call at the Pioneer Drug Store.

Mrs. J. N. Bidwell, of Spencer Brook, is still very low and faint hopes are entertained of her recovery.

Hen Webster is talking about going into business at Anoka, but he has not fully made up his mind yet.

"Unknown" does not figure as prominently in the delinquent tax list this year as he did on former occasions.

For the past two or three Sundays there has been preaching at the Congregational church morning and evening.

The American sewing machine is the best in the market. Call at the Pioneer Drug Store and see one of them work.

This is the season of the year when the one-horse circus visits the country towns and gull the unsophisticated rustics.

Railroad or no railroad, Princeton will have a railroad and then things will boom.

This is the last week of the tax list, and the next issue will be more interesting to the reader if not as profitable to the publisher.

"Fate never wounds more deep the generous heart."

They had a dance and house warming down in Baldwin, Tuesday evening, and several of the dance-goers from this village were there.

Again we would remind the voters of Mille Lacs county, don't be in a hurry to pledge your support to any candidate for local office this fall.

Quite a number of the young folks of the village went to the Christian hamlet of Spencer Brook last night and participated in the dance at Smith's hall.

There will be music by the full band at the auditor's office when the claimants come to act on that Mille Lacs dam matter, on Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Jessie Green, a prim little school-teacher from Herman, and her infant sister are here visiting their aunt, Mrs. Henry Newbert, of the American House.

The Baldwin town authorities have at last commenced work on that piece of road across the flats. Chas. Judkins is doing a good job of turpining on this end of the road in question.

Joe Nokes informs us that his dance at Jesmer's hall last Friday evening was a success in a pecuniary point of view, and that Mr. Finley Campbell held the ticket that drew the piano harp.

The "knowing" ones are willing to admit now that Charley Rines did not go to Detroit for the express purpose of voting for Gilman. Mr. Rines was an unbought and unpurchasable Kindred man.

The county board of equalization was in session Monday and Tuesday. There was very little fun, still the auditor's office did not remind one of a prayer meeting. Proceedings in detail next week.

We understand that a third of the towns of Sherburne county did not elect delegates to attend the convention at Elk River to choose two delegates to represent the county in the congressional convention.

Wellington & Co's tie drive, Capt. John C. Smith in command, has reached town. There are about 120,000 ties in this drive. The high water carried many of the ties into the woods and the drive progresses slowly.

Miss Amelia Walscott, the young lady milliner who has been working for Mrs. Sinclair for the past two months, departed for her home in St. Paul, yesterday, and at least one love-sick youth mourns and refuses to be comforted.

LOST.—A pocket book containing money and papers, on the Wyanett road about two miles from Princeton. A reward of $15.00 will be paid for the return of the same to P. R. Danielson, Cambridge, Minn. Leave information at this office.

Miss Minnie Rollins and Miss Jessie Cowles have the thanks of ye editor for a pair of nice slippers. Miss Rollins leaves for her home in Minneapolis to-day. She is a bright vivacious young lady and has made many friends during her stay in Princeton.

Judging from the spathy of the Republicans of the neighboring counties of Sherburne and Isanti, Mr. Washburn's friends will have enough outsiders on hand in their own bailiwick this fall, and will have little time to devote to the interests of their friend Nelson.

The barber shop has been removed to the old stand over Mahoney's saloon. Mr. Grieson has secured the services of another good barber and customers may rest assured that they will not be kept waiting as heretofore. Princeton can now boast of a first-class barber shop.

At a school picnic in Champlin, by some mistake the salt to be used in freezing the ice cream was used to sweeten the lemonade and the result was more amusing than satisfactory. The mixer of that lemonade must have partaken of some cooling beverage with a "stick" in it.

Last Friday some fellow who wanted a mess of fresh meat shot a nice veal calf belonging to Floyd Hatcher and carried off the hind quarters, leaving the hide and the balance of the carcass in a thicket up in the neighborhood of the brick kiln, on the East Branch tote road. Floyd thinks he knows the thief.

Mrs. Newbert, of the American House, was obliged to act as cook, dining room girl and chamber-maid, Sunday; her female help had all left her; however, gallant Capt. John C. Smith and several other guests of the house assisted Mrs. Newbert out of the scrape by shelling peas, washing potatoes, etc.

It can be set down that the Nelson campaign and Washburn's senatorial game are hairs from the same dog. Every Nelson legislative ticket in the fifth congressional district will be for Washburn for the senate. Washburn furnishes the sinews of war for the Nelson campaign.—St. Paul Globe.

It is rumored on the streets that a certain well known young man made a damphool of himself the other evening by threatening to make away with himself and his lady love if she did not reciprocate his affections. We thought the young man in question was a level-headed sort of a chap and we are loathe to believe the story.

"Ready Cleaner" is unequalled for cleaning brass, copper, china, dishes, knives and forks, glassware, marble, shelves, tinware, etc. It is the best preparation yet offered for polishing metals and general house cleaning purposes. Only 25cts per pound packages. Apply to Moses Jesmer, at the Brick Store, and he will give you a sample to try it.

Some itinerating worshiper at the Episcopal church dropped a brass piece, which resembles a five cent coin, into the contribution plate on which is stamped "J. M. Sullivan's box for 5c at the bar." J. M. Sullivan keeps a famous restaurant in New York City.—Sask Centre Tribune.

Queer inscription that to have on a contribution plate.

The county commissioners understand their business and are not in need of the Union's advice; but in behalf of the West Branch lumbermen we would remind the commissioners that they (the W. B. lumbermen) don't give a d—n whether that Mille Lacs dam is built or not, and they do not wish to be taxed to help build it or keep it in repair, for the benefit of the ring formed for the express purpose of denuding the Mille Lacs reservation of its valuable pine timber.

Nate Dunning and Will Cordner did not tarry long in Dakota; they reached home on Saturday, having been gone only five days. They say the country out there is fearfully overrated and that the boom is an artificial one and exists only in the newspapers and in the imaginations of real estate men. Mr. C. H. Rines has also been out there and the opinion he expresses of the country is not very flattering. Mr. George Loring spent several weeks in northern Dakota, and he entertains the same views as the others. A man who is comfortably situated in either Mille Lacs, Sherburne or Isanti counties and goes out to Dakota with the expectation of bettering his condition will get badly fooled.

Mr. Sylvester Cone, chairman of the board of county commissioners generally pays his subscription a year in advance, but the old gentleman was a month or two behind this year, and on Tuesday he handed us $2.10. On asking him what the dime was for he replied, "Interest." Of course, we refused to take the ten cents. It is refreshing to meet with such an honest, conscientious gentleman as Mr. Cone in this age of greed and strife.

Sale of Town Lots.
 On Wednesday, Aug. 2, 1882, the trustees of Hamlin University will sell at public auction, in front of the court house in the village of Princeton, all lots now owned by them in the town of Princeton. Terms cash on delivery of quiet claim deed. Sale to commence at 9 A. M. and continue till all are sold. By order of the executive committee.
 D. C. JOHN, Agent.

Notice.
 Hereafter I shall hold all parties participating in pic-nics at Green Lake responsible for any damages that may be inflicted on my trees, fences or meadow, and will prosecute them to the full extent of the law; heretofore parties have chopped down trees, carried off rails of my fence and cut grass on my meadow with impunity, and my patience is about exhausted.
 W. T. WARRINER.
 Wyanett, July 11, 1882.

Mr. and Mrs. Starbird and daughter bid adieu to the American House, Friday, (Newbert & Starbird, by mutual consent, dissolved partnership) and departed for Bethel, Anoka county, where they intend making their future home. Mr. Starbird is a quiet unobtrusive gentleman, and tended to his own affairs while one of the proprietors of the American House. Mrs. Starbird is a lady in every sense of the word. The Union wishes them much prosperity.

The State dog law does not seem to be much of a success in this county. We have heard of threats being made of forcing the law but have yet to learn of a single instance where it has been done.
 —Elk River News.

In the towns of Baldwin and Livonia, Sherburne county, the law has been rigidly enforced. There is not a dog in the former town but what has been licensed, and close unto fifty licenses have been issued in Livonia.

Lane & Co. have sold their property at Crooked Lake to Mr. Holmes of Minneapolis, for $1600, and it is reported that the latter gentleman will erect a fine hotel on the grounds. Lane & Co. cleared about $1400 from this resort in about three months.—Anoka Herald.

The gentleman referred to in the above paragraph is Mr. Robert Holmes, of this place. Bob is a noted horticulturist and he will spare no pains to improve and beautify the Crooked Lake grounds and make that place a favorite resort for pleasure-seekers.

Sending out statements is the only way we can expect to reach three-fourths of those who are indebted to us and we fail to see why any one should feel offended because he receives a statement of his account. The UNION is not backed by any clique and is not dependent on politicians for its support; it is sustained by legitimate business—advertising, subscriptions and job printing—hence it is free to criticize men and measures as it sees fit. The public have accorded the UNION a liberal support in the past and it shall be our endeavor to merit a continuance of that support in the future. We are glad to inform our friends that the UNION's subscription list is continually increasing.

Nelson's Hopes Blasted.
 Since the Pioneer Press of Friday morning, supplemented by Saturday's issue, squarely and abusively opposed Mr. Kindred and eulogized Mr. Nelson with fulsome praise, all doubts relative to the result in the fifth district have vanished. Mr. Nelson is currently reported to have returned from Wisconsin under a political cloud, and now, after years of waiting to enable the memory of his odiferous career in the Badger State to fade away, he thought to see his political sun again begin to arise, but the cyclone of odium which has struck him in the form of P. P. support, again darkens his hopes, and his campaign is practically ended almost before it began.—St. Paul Globe.

The Republican town caucus of Wyanett, Isanti county, last Wednesday, was a heavy affair. The caucus consisted of Messrs. Caine and Packard, and W. T. Warriner, a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat. Mr. Caine was chosen chairman and Mr. Warriner kindly consented to act as secretary. Mr. Packard made all the motions and did the voting. Finally A. Z. Norton and Gov. Warriner were elected delegates; neither of them were present, and George, like his father, is a disciple of Andrew Jackson. The convention at Cambridge was on a par with the Wyanett town caucus. There were only five delegates present from outside of Cambridge—nine in all. What a mighty uprising of the people! Washburn will be unanimously re-nominated by the Republicans of the district!

Kindred Fairly Nominated.
 Messrs. Rines, Campbell and Caley have returned from Detroit. We have taken pains to interview each of them and find out what we could about the convention. Mr. Rines, who by the way was not a partisan of any of the candidates and if he had a preference it was for Gilman, says the bolt by the Nelson men was totally unjustifiable, and that he struck by the regular convention and helped to nominate Kindred, and that Kindred was fairly and squarely nominated. Mr. Caley was and is a staunch Kindred man and is a great deal more positive in his utterances than Mr. Rines. Mr. Campbell went to Detroit in the interest of Mr. Gilman, and he is still a Gilman man, but he thinks Mr. Kindred was fairly nominated and should be elected. Mr. Campbell also volunteered the information that Mr. Kindred is an able and whole-souled gentleman and is bound to make friends wherever he goes. We inquired of Mr. Campbell if Mr. Kindred's friends at the convention were roughs and rowdies. He responded: "H—! Kindred had some of the best men in northern Minnesota working for him like beavers. Why, you know that such men as Dave Clough and Rans Leavitt are not rowdies! No sir, Kindred owes his nomination to his friends." Of course Mr. Campbell would have been better satisfied if Charley Gilman had been the nominee.
