

EDUCATIONAL.

BY MC. D. W.

We understand the parties connected with the management of the German-Lutheran Theological Seminary have decided they must move into larger quarters this fall instead of a year hence.

Hoping a rich harvest may spring from the seed we attempted to sow. Wishing for the success of Princeton and especially its institutions of learning we bid adieu.

Your Servant, MC D. WILLIAMS.

SPENCER BROOK ITEMS.

SPENCER BROOK, June 9, 1891. Geo. W. Patten has his 32 acres of potatoes planted.

Miss Lila Severence closed her school in Maple Ridge last Friday.

The hail storm last week done considerable damage to corn and nearly ruined some fields of rye.

The young men of Spencer Brook have organized a ball club and as they have to work week days they practice on Sunday.

Doc. Whiting is having a cellar walled up under his house with stone and a stone foundation under the whole house.

The dance last Friday night given by the Ladies' Aid Association netted $28.

Final examinations were generally satisfactory. We imagine some of the boys and girls have grown nearly a foot in the last few days.

$55 buys a first-class top buggy, at Caley's.

Young man buy a hat at Rines's and secure the benefit of style and low price.

MILACA ZEPHYRS.

MILACA, June 9, 1891. Real Estate Agent Burnham spent Sunday in St. Paul.

Ed. Edlebrock made a business trip to St. Cloud, Monday.

Miss Carrie O. Dahll returned home from St. Paul, Saturday.

Collin Campbell and wife spent Sunday with relatives near Princeton.

Wm. Dowdell made a visit to the county seat, Monday, after his assessor's outfit.

J. B. Foltz is around a good deal these days looking after Great Northern pine logs.

Barrett & Campbell are building an addition to their hotel, to be used for a barber shop and billiard hall.

Our town board of supervisors should be getting a move on themselves and secure the bridge appropriation before it is too late.

Wm. Townsend is digging out and leveling off the lot east of the hotel. It is understood that he will erect a building thereon soon.

Mrs. C. A. Kyes, of Eagle Bend, Todd county, is now with her husband, who is working at the mill. Mr. Kyes is erecting a neat dwelling on Second avenue.

Page's drive cleared the lower dam last Friday and is now about three miles below here. Unless rain comes to-night the drive will be hung up to-morrow.

The grading and surfacing trains that have worked in this vicinity will soon be taken off. It is due to these trains that we now have a comparatively level track to Princeton and St. Cloud.

The Mille Lacs Lumber company, through their agent, Mr. Burnham, now offer their extensive lands for sale cheap to farmers and on easy terms.

About a week ago several Indians came into town, and soon were seen walking west on the railroad, next day they came back rather the worse for "booze."

Several sons of Belial have been entertaining themselves and others lately by having a knock-down in the middle of the street.

Everine Milton is at St. Cloud to-day to answer the charge of attempt to murder. We all hope that Ev. may be acquitted.

It is popular with some to anathematize the Mille Lacs Lumber company. But after all what other corporation has done so much to build up the county as they?
